

Echo-Reader, April 21. Miss Norris, of Eugene, is teaching school at Latham.

Grandma Coleman died at the home of her son, W. T. Coleman, on Coyote creek, Thursday, April 19, at the advanced age of nearly 94 years.

There will be a meeting in Eugene tomorrow of the chairman of the county central committee with a number of the candidates of the three political parties to arrange a plan of canvassing the county before the coming election.

Wm. K. Scarborough and Mrs. Lucy Matthews were married last evening at the bride's residence, Rev. W. M. Gilbert officiating.

The popular and accommodating Ninth street restaurant, Mr. S. E. Brown, has purchased, and today took control of the business of the Hotel Eugene.

The annual election of Eugene Engine Co. No. 1 occurred at the Fireman's hall last evening. The officers chosen for the ensuing year are: W. McGhee, president; I. L. Simpson, vice-president; Geo. F. Craw, secretary; J. B. Beavene, treasurer; I. L. Simpson, foreman; J. W. Hollenbeck, 1st assistant; W. McGhee, 2nd assistant; H. H. Stone, N. C. A. Miller and J. S. Higgins, trustees; and M. S. Hubbel, sergeant-at-arms.

Only about $28,000 of the tax roll of 1893 remains uncollected. The following are the figures of collections up till date:

THE BOHEMIA ROAD.—Douglas county people are going to build a road along the Bohemia mining country, if this from the Roseburg Plainesder of April 19 is any indication.

It was a surprise to many who visited Villard Hall last evening, that scarcely a score of the 200 students attending the University of Oregon manifested interest enough in a popular lecture course, to attend.

With the increase of desire must come the means to gratify them. In the case of the laborer the greater his wants the higher must be his wages.

For many years in Oregon politics, until lately, the familiar form of Judge Shannon, of Monroe, could be seen at every democratic state convention.

The popular and accommodating Ninth street restaurant, Mr. S. E. Brown, has purchased, and today took control of the business of the Hotel Eugene.

The annual election of Eugene Engine Co. No. 1 occurred at the Fireman's hall last evening. The officers chosen for the ensuing year are: W. McGhee, president; I. L. Simpson, vice-president; Geo. F. Craw, secretary; J. B. Beavene, treasurer; I. L. Simpson, foreman; J. W. Hollenbeck, 1st assistant; W. McGhee, 2nd assistant; H. H. Stone, N. C. A. Miller and J. S. Higgins, trustees; and M. S. Hubbel, sergeant-at-arms.

Only about $28,000 of the tax roll of 1893 remains uncollected. The following are the figures of collections up till date:

THE BOHEMIA ROAD.—Douglas county people are going to build a road along the Bohemia mining country, if this from the Roseburg Plainesder of April 19 is any indication.

DECLINES.—C. K. Hale declines to allow his name to be used as a candidate for representative, but gives no reason therefor. His name was placed on the ticket without his consent, or even previous knowledge, while at his home at Hale postoffice.

E. C. Test is visiting relatives in Portland. D. V. S. Reid went to Albany this morning. Prof. J. W. Johnson visited Harrisburg today.

The social given in Conser hall last evening by the ladies of the Universalist church was largely attended. The evening was spent with dancing after the social was over.

The Wanton Waters Secures Another Lane County Victim. Junction Times, April 21: Dick Eaton was drowned in the slough east of here Wednesday morning.

THE POLISH RIOTERS. DETROIT, Mich., April 19.—Everything is quiet in the Polish quarters and the authorities anticipate no trouble.

THE TITMAN LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL. COLUMBIA, S. C., April 18.—The Titman state dispensary liquor law has been declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of South Carolina.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

I. L. Campbell is visiting relatives at Albion. Dr. Ruggles, of circus fame, was in town today.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

A Right to Enter Washington. WASHINGTON, April 19.—Senator Peffer stirred up quite a hornet's nest by calling for the resolution for the appointment of a committee on communications to receive the petitions of Coxey's army.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

OMAHA, April 20.—Three thousand laboring men marched out of Omaha today, with banners flying, bound for Council Bluffs.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.

THE SACRAMENTO DETACHMENT. SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 22.—The industrial army has made no signs of leaving, and the leaders say they will remain here in spite of the authorities until arrangements are made for their departure.