

Eugene City Guard.

SATURDAY, MAY 5.

Democratic State Ticket.

WILLIAM GALLOWAY, Governor, Yamhill County; CHAS. NICKELL, Secretary of State, Jackson County; A. S. BENNETT, Supreme Judge, Wasco County; T. L. DAVIDSON, State Treasurer, Marion County; W. H. HOLMES, Attorney General, Harlan County; D. V. S. REID, Capt. Public Instruction, Lane County; JOHNS O'BRIEN, State Printer, Multnomah County; J. K. WEATHERS, Congressman, Lane County; GEO. A. DORRIS, Promoting Atty., 3d Dist., Lane County.

Lane County Democratic Ticket.

Senator: ROBERT CLOW; REPRESENTATIVE: W. W. GOLDBERGER; CLERK: J. H. WHITEAKER; TREASURER: R. E. BRISTOW; COMMISSIONER: W. P. CHEESER; ASSESSOR: J. MCFHERSON; SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT: ALICIA PATTERSON; SURVEYOR: JOS. KOCH; CORONER: R. M. DAY.

A BAD PROPHECY.

Col. Alley was a little previous when he penned these lines: "Keep your eye on the election returns from the third congressional district in the state of Ohio. The republican gains in this democratic stronghold will be announced to the world in the first week of May."

The republican "gains" in the district showed up just the opposite to what the editor of the West desired and expected. The election occurred Tuesday, and Mr. Jorg, the democratic candidate for congress was elected by 3000 votes over his republican opponent, Mr. Rathbone, notwithstanding that McKinley carried the same district last fall by 500. Now, Colonel, if you keep your eye focussed for republican gains on this district you will certainly be afflicted with color blindness. In all seriousness, brother Alley, it is not a good year to make political predictions, not even in our own beloved Oregon. Ta-ta.

THE RAILROAD COMMISSION.

Roseburg Review. The Salem Statesman, a republican paper, says: We notice that Oregon's railroad commission took a trip to the mid winter fair in San Francisco a few days ago in one of the Southern Pacific's private cars. Rather expensive, but the Southern Pacific is rich and no doubt can afford. The people of Oregon would have no kick to their credit account, either, if the Southern Pacific also paid the salaries and other expenses of this commission. What they object to, and will strive to have corrected by the next legislature, is the biennial expenditure of $20,000 upon these junketing frolics of four of her citizens—three commissioners and one lord high chancellor of the door knob, their clerk. Every citizen is personally interested in having this thing stopped. He is interested to the extent of a fraction of a mill upon all his taxable property. This article is right to the point, but the Statesman knows that a republican legislature never will abolish this ornamental railroad commission. The late state convention of that party refused to incorporate in its platform, a plank to that effect. The democratic state platform, however, contains the following pointed and positive pledge to the people: We are in favor of the abolishment of railroad and all other unnecessary commissions. The logic of the situation is plain—the railroad commission can only be abolished by abolishing the republican majority in the legislature. Don't throw away your votes on the populist nominees, who stand no show of election. It will be noticed in the proceedings of the republican state convention that a resolution was introduced favoring the abolishing of the railroad commission. This resolution was referred to the committee on platform, and no further action was taken upon it. Again we say that the republican party will not abolish a single useless or expensive commission now so burdensome to the taxpayers, if they control the next legislature and have no intention of doing so Mark that prediction.

St. Paul, Minnesota, held an election this week, and the democrats swept the city, notwithstanding the republicans carried the city by 3300 plurality one year ago. If the democrats in Oregon will work faithfully they will redeem this state. The people are disgusted with the recklessness of the last legislature which was largely republican. W. P. Chesher has made money in farming and is considered a first-class business man. He is just the man to manage the affairs of the county, as commissioner. When you vote on the 4th of June be sure that you leave his name on your ballot.

PROTECTION NECESSARY.

Complaints from residents in the eastern portion of the city regarding the tramp nuisance are increasing daily. The authorities should make arrangements to give citizens in all parts of the city ample police protection. This is especially necessary during the present troublous times. "Industrialists" when refused transportation East from California come north to Oregon in the hope of leaving for the East over some of the northern lines out of Portland or the Sound cities. Disappointed in this they flock back and forth from the north to the southern Oregon line, the larger portion remaining in the Willamette valley. At Salem the city is overrun with this element of humanity in a disorganized condition. Other cities are suffering deprivations from the same cause. Eugene is growing worse in this respect every day. It is probable that the number of these individuals in western Oregon at the present time reaches into the thousands.

As to Eugene the night and day policemen must be constantly vigilant during the hours they are on duty, not only in the business center but in the residence portion most frequented by these transients. If the work increases beyond their ability to perform it efficiently as from present indications it soon will ample reinforcements should be authorized by those in power, in the way of special police for the present emergency.

A WRONG INTERPRETATION.

People who get an idea they have been called to preach the political or financial word, says an exchange, are frequently in the same condition as is related of the young man in the following story: "A young farmer who had been converted at a revival went before the next conference and asked for a license to be a preacher. 'I know I am born to preach the word,' said the applicant, 'for I have had three visions, all the same, and it has made a lasting impression on me.' 'What was your vision?' asked a bishop. 'Well, I saw a big, round, blue ring in the sky, and inside, in great gold letters, were 'P. C.' It meant 'Preach Christ,' and I want to join the conference.' The argument was about to carry when an old pastor stood up in the back part of the hall and said: 'Young man, we don't doubt your intentions, nor do we doubt you saw the vision with the golden 'P. C.,' but I am of the opinion that 'P. C.' meant 'Plow Corn.'"

OLD TIMES.

Pendleton Tribune: Judge William Martin had an interesting time yesterday recalling old times by looking through an old account book which he used while conducting mining operations on Granite Creek, 80 miles or so south of Pendleton in 1862-63. The judge by reference to the book, found that he had been dealing with J. M. Watson, a grocer here at that time, now interested in the planing mill with John Luhrs. Some of the prices paid for commodities now seem ridiculously high. Some of the items are as follows: Three pounds of nails, $1; 5 gallon keg of syrup, $14; 1 pound of tobacco, $1.75; sugar, 37 cents per pound; 37 pounds of butter, $37. A San Francisco dispatch says there is $15,000,000 lying idle in the banks of that city for which the banks can find no use. It is offered as low as 4 per cent on first class security, but even at this rate it must be gilt edged. One reason for this money being idle is the uncertainty regarding the fate of the tariff bill. Business men are getting along with as little money as possible until they know where they stand, and the interminable debate in the senate tends to befog the business man and the capitalist who would otherwise work hand in hand in restoring the country to prosperity.

Mrs. F. R. Pulliman, city treasurer of Fort Scott, Kan., is $1300 short in her accounts, but has not eloped with anybody's wife. It is thought that the woman is not dishonest, but has been swindled.

Some Other Nominations Made. WASHINGTON, May 2.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate: James W. Ball, collector of customs at Yaquina, Or.

Tracy R. Bangs, United States district attorney, North Dakota. Joseph Bethune, associate justice of the supreme court, Arizona. Postmasters—W. W. Brown, Redbad, Cal.; Andrew T. Culbertson, Placerville, Cal.; Wm. L. Hedrick, Fresno, Cal.; E. P. Colman, Idaho Falls, Idaho.

A Sensation in the House. WASHINGTON, May 2.—Representative Johnson, democrat of Ohio, created a sensation in the house by introducing a resolution calling for congressional investigation of the beating of citizens by the police during the Coxey demonstration at the capitol yesterday. He urged it as a question of privilege, declaring the offense was purported to be in defense of the members of congress. Speaker Crisp ruled the resolution was no question of personal privilege and out of order. Johnson asked unanimous consent to immediately consider the resolution, but there was a chorus of objections, and the resolution was thus summarily killed. Jay P. Lucas, now running for clerk of Gilliam county on the republican ticket, has filled the office for three terms.

Bird cages and tinware. F. L. CHAMBERS.

Variety Items.

The latest-rain, hail and wind! Farmers have nearly finished seed-ing. A number of our farmers are grubbing and clearing up more land. Mr. Joel Maze is busily engaged in putting out several acres in hops. Ora Cook and Maggie Hill are home on a visit. They have been stopping in Junction the past winter. D. R. Lakin paid the county seat a visit last week. He started his single mill several weeks ago. Mr. and Mrs. Stingley, of Independence are visiting at the home of their son, L. V.

Fairview Sunday school commenced last Sunday, April 22. Mr. A. M. Thornton was chosen superintendent and Mr. John Goodman assistant. There has been some sickness in this neighborhood during the month. Mrs. Wm. Taylor, Mrs. Dr. Evans and Mrs. Joe Haynes, have all been quite sick, but are now convalescent. Mr. Marion Horn preached to a full house yesterday at Fairview school house. He preached two splendid sermons. We also had an excellent basket luncheon. Next Sunday, May 6th, parties are expected from Junction to organize an endeavor. May success crown their efforts.

Fairview school is progressing nicely under the careful management of Miss Yuba Huston. We hear that Mr. Howard, of Hale, and Mr. C. Richardson, of Eugene, are to begin a series of meetings at Hale next Sunday. Today Miss Annie Whisman is to be married to Mr. Wm. Taylor, more familiarly known as "Little Bill Taylor." T. A. Fountain, J. P., will perform the ceremony.

Early this morning the neighbors were aroused from their slumbers by the loud blowing of a horn at T. A. Fountain's house. Upon investigation it was found that Tom felt so overjoyed that he fell to blowing the horn; and finally closed the scene by grabbing the fiddle and playing "Baby Mine." It's a boy, and Tom is happy. Moss Back.

Pleasant Hill Items.

May 3. Frost Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Mrs. S. J. Skaggs returned to her home at Eugene last Monday. Mrs. E. W. Matthews is in Eugene being treated by the physicians for lung trouble. I. Barclay had the misfortune to wash one of his fingers very badly last week, while loading a barrel. Wm. Lemley returned from the Eastern states last Monday. He says that Oregon is the best country he has seen since he left it two months ago. He is willing to stay here. J. D. Bolt met with a very severe accident last Monday, which came near proving fatal. He was felling timber when a dry limb gave way and came down, striking him on the shoulder and throwing him prostrate to the ground. The limb weighed 150 pounds and fell 30 feet. He is around now but pretty sore. Mrs. Martha Bristow, wife of the late Milton Bristow, died near Junction City last Tuesday. The remains were interred in the cemetery at this place on Wednesday. Her husband died on Indian Creek, near Florence, about two years ago.

The Sunday concert has been promised for the first Sunday in June. It will be conducted by the children. The hour has not been set yet. Capt. S. Rigdon expects to start for his summer ranch in the Pine Openings in about two or three weeks. Uncle Robert Callison lost 50 young chickens in a few nights by the rats and mice.

A picnic is being talked of a little for some time in June. The picnic got a black eye last year and think the participants will be a little slow in pushing one forward without a full fledged set of officers. Wide Tires. Some Massachusetts towns are giving a practical support to improving the country roads, by ordering that all town garbage-wagons, watering-carts, etc., shall use broad tires. Nothing cuts up a road so badly as a narrow tire on a vehicle carrying a big load. This occasions the horrible ruts that often destroy the best roads during certain seasons of the year. The use of broad tires by farmers is to be urged everywhere, especially in this state. When the farmers do this it will be a big advance toward the solution of the good-roads problem. It will be a saving to every farmer if he will determine that in the next time his wagon goes to the smith, he will have a wide tire replace the present narrow one. It would result in a great saving in wear and tear to horse, wagon and harness.

A Large Reception.

Nearly 150 friends filled the comfortable residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Scarborough last evening, the occasion being a formal reception tendered by the newly married couple. The arrangements made for the entertainment of the guests were carried out to perfection and the refreshments especially enjoyed by all present. When the guests departed at 10 o'clock the pleasure of the evening was remarked by many.

St. Paul Democrat.

ST. PAUL, May 2.—The latest returns assure the election of Smith, democratic candidate for mayor. Wright, republican, had 3300 plurality two years ago.
