

Hon. C. K. Hale was in town today. W. M. Renshaw visited Junction today. Geo. Fisher visited Portland yesterday and today. Gov. Penney speaks at Harrisburg the evening of May 4.

And still the Oregon mist descends. Quite a number of farmers in town today. Geo. M. Miller is visiting at Florence. J. S. Watkins visited Junction today.

N. B. Lytle returned this morning from a trip to Southern Oregon. G. W. Masterson will leave for his home at Florence tomorrow morning. JOHN DOWNLEY is expected to pass through Eugene some time next month.

The Benton county prohibitionists have nominated a ticket. Rev. J. E. Snyder will preach to the Y. P. S. C. E., at Junction, tomorrow. Miss Fannie Coudon is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Judge Bean, at Salem.

Drummers are becoming plentiful and they report business getting better. B. S. Pague, the weather expert, will soon return to Portland from San Francisco.

The "Theatre Royal Dramatic Company" arrived on this afternoon's train. Mrs. S. C. Cleaver, of this city, is visiting her sons, Elmer and Cliff, at Pendleton.

A. L. Patterson has returned from Eastern Oregon. He did not like that section of the state. C. M. Ideman, of Portland, who lectures this evening at the University, arrived here on this afternoon's train.

Roseburg Review: Engineer Jack Scott will move his family to Junction City to reside, this week. E. P. Thorp, editor of the Cottage Grove Echo-Leader, gave this office a pleasant call this afternoon.

The rain will be of considerable benefit to crops besides placing the ground in condition to receive the plow. In many places it had become too dry to work.

The deceased was discovered in Jacob's second hand store, 281 Front street which he had feloniously entered, by Special Officer Orin Smith, who communicated the fact to Patrolmen Crocker and Austin.

Today's Salem Statesman says: "The steamer Eugene came up last night bound for Eugene. She will pass on her way to Portland Monday."

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

Quite a number of delegates went to Junction City this morning to attend the county convention of the Christian Endeavorers, which is in session in that city.

Chief of Police Hunt this morning identified the remains at the morgue as those of Joseph Clarence, alias John Morris, an ex-Walla Walla convict, who, on the 21st day of last January was arrested as a suspect by Officer Orin Smith, who took him to Chief Hunt to be photographed.

McMinnville Telephone-Register: D. V. S. Reid, democratic nominee for superintendent of public instruction will speak in this city on Monday evening, April 30.

The deceased was discovered in Jacob's second hand store, 281 Front street which he had feloniously entered, by Special Officer Orin Smith, who communicated the fact to Patrolmen Crocker and Austin.

Hon. J. C. Leasure will change his residence and business from Pendleton to Portland. He says he is going out of politics but so far as we have been able to observe he never was in it.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

The Astoria Budget says: The moss-back merchant who doesn't know enough about business to advertise in his local newspaper is the one you hear squealing the loudest about no trade.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

DEAD BURGLES IDENTIFIED.

An Ex-convict Named Joseph Clarence, Alias John Morris. PORTLAND, April 26.—Hundreds of men flocked to the morgue all morning to take a glimpse at the body of the burglar shot to death last night by Officer Robert Austin, on Front street near Jefferson.

The deceased was discovered in Jacob's second hand store, 281 Front street which he had feloniously entered, by Special Officer Orin Smith, who communicated the fact to Patrolmen Crocker and Austin.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

The burglar finding himself cornered, made a dash for liberty by crashing through the glass of the front door. Austin ordered him to halt, but the thief sped on his way, when the officer fired his revolver over his head.

Trains are Armed.

TACOMA, April 27.—Every train on the Northern Pacific leaving Seattle or Tacoma is accompanied by deputy United States marshals, armed with revolvers and Winchester. The Coyotes declare they will ride over the Northern Pacific. Marshal Drake says the men understand that they cannot stand a train without serious trouble.

The Tacoma army of 500 strong will start tomorrow. It is thought that it is the intention of both armies to meet at Meeker Junction. A squad of deputy marshals is stationed at that point.

San Diego, April 27.—Mrs. General U. S. Grant has almost completely recovered from her attack of acute bronchitis, which was contracted several days ago from a severe cold.

Topinka, Kan., April 27.—Some person, evidently a woman, writing from Beaver, Mo., calls upon Governor Lewis to appoint April 30 as a day of fasting and prayer in Kansas, for the purpose of interceding with Divine Providence to remove the industrial troubles which hang over the country.

More than two-thirds of the plants in the coke region are closed. The mob which surged through Mount Pleasant yesterday and last night, accomplished its object of forcing the men out. There was no violence, but the workmen were badly frightened and many fled.

SALEM, April 28.—The Industrial Publishing Company today filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. E. C. Hamilton, J. M. Shaw, W. R. Wyatt and G. R. H. Miller are the incorporators.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., April 28.—Advices from Alaska state that the fishing schooner Storm King was driven ashore at Bartlett bay, Alaska, by an immense iceberg, and is a total wreck.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., April 28.—Father Corbett, the Patmyra, Neb., priest, who has been having trouble with the bishop, and who held services contrary to the order of the court, was held in Plattsburgh for contempt of court.

SEATTLE, April 27.—The Seattle contingent of the industrial army started eastward today in a drizzling rain. They will reach Meeker early tomorrow.

SEATTLE, April 27.—The Seattle contingent of the industrial army started eastward today in a drizzling rain. They will reach Meeker early tomorrow.

Seem to See Hays Friends.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 26.—Quite a sensation has been created here by the publication of a list of 465 signers of a petition requesting Colonel Breckinridge to resign as speaker at Paris, in Bourbon county, on May 7, after he delivers his opening address here.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1894.—Messrs. John C. Clay, Joseph H. Hawkins, John Hedges, E. V. Thomas, M. F. Heathman, W. F. Horton, H. C. Current, G. G. White, James Merriam, D. M. Dodge, Joseph A. Miller, E. G. Bedford and others, gentlemen of Bourbon county at the court house in Paris on county court day, May 7, 1894, and hereby accept.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1894.—Messrs. John C. Clay, Joseph H. Hawkins, John Hedges, E. V. Thomas, M. F. Heathman, W. F. Horton, H. C. Current, G. G. White, James Merriam, D. M. Dodge, Joseph A. Miller, E. G. Bedford and others, gentlemen of Bourbon county at the court house in Paris on county court day, May 7, 1894, and hereby accept.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1894.—Messrs. John C. Clay, Joseph H. Hawkins, John Hedges, E. V. Thomas, M. F. Heathman, W. F. Horton, H. C. Current, G. G. White, James Merriam, D. M. Dodge, Joseph A. Miller, E. G. Bedford and others, gentlemen of Bourbon county at the court house in Paris on county court day, May 7, 1894, and hereby accept.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1894.—Messrs. John C. Clay, Joseph H. Hawkins, John Hedges, E. V. Thomas, M. F. Heathman, W. F. Horton, H. C. Current, G. G. White, James Merriam, D. M. Dodge, Joseph A. Miller, E. G. Bedford and others, gentlemen of Bourbon county at the court house in Paris on county court day, May 7, 1894, and hereby accept.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1894.—Messrs. John C. Clay, Joseph H. Hawkins, John Hedges, E. V. Thomas, M. F. Heathman, W. F. Horton, H. C. Current, G. G. White, James Merriam, D. M. Dodge, Joseph A. Miller, E. G. Bedford and others, gentlemen of Bourbon county at the court house in Paris on county court day, May 7, 1894, and hereby accept.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1894.—Messrs. John C. Clay, Joseph H. Hawkins, John Hedges, E. V. Thomas, M. F. Heathman, W. F. Horton, H. C. Current, G. G. White, James Merriam, D. M. Dodge, Joseph A. Miller, E. G. Bedford and others, gentlemen of Bourbon county at the court house in Paris on county court day, May 7, 1894, and hereby accept.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1894.—Messrs. John C. Clay, Joseph H. Hawkins, John Hedges, E. V. Thomas, M. F. Heathman, W. F. Horton, H. C. Current, G. G. White, James Merriam, D. M. Dodge, Joseph A. Miller, E. G. Bedford and others, gentlemen of Bourbon county at the court house in Paris on county court day, May 7, 1894, and hereby accept.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1894.—Messrs. John C. Clay, Joseph H. Hawkins, John Hedges, E. V. Thomas, M. F. Heathman, W. F. Horton, H. C. Current, G. G. White, James Merriam, D. M. Dodge, Joseph A. Miller, E. G. Bedford and others, gentlemen of Bourbon county at the court house in Paris on county court day, May 7, 1894, and hereby accept.

WASHINGTON, April 16, 1894.—Messrs. John C. Clay, Joseph H. Hawkins, John Hedges, E. V. Thomas, M. F. Heathman, W. F. Horton, H. C. Current, G. G. White, James Merriam, D. M. Dodge, Joseph A. Miller, E. G. Bedford and others, gentlemen of Bourbon county at the court house in Paris on county court day, May 7, 1894, and hereby accept.

Real Estate Transfers.

CORNER JACKSON TO DAVID McBEA, 156.4 acres in T 17 S R 5 W; $5000. KUONE. Mary E. Carman to J. Carman, 25 lots in F & H ad, also lot east of mill race; $1000. ELMIRA.

THIRTEEN WELL DESERVED.—The Florence West has the following well deserved tribute to one of our best known citizens: The fact is generally understood that the G. A. R. Post at Eugene is the second largest in the state, and is only outranked in numbers by one in Portland.

A CHANGEABLE WORLD.—The Harrisburg Courier says: There seems to be a general exodus of the business men of Halsey, and unless something is done there will soon be but a handful left in that once thriving little burg.

BOILER BREAKS.—The largest of the two boilers used by the Electric Light Company cracked just above the base of the dome in the early evening yesterday. About the usual pressure was on and the escaping steam played havoc with the brick work over the boiler at that place.

RIVER WAREHOUSE.—The lumber for the new warehouse at the river is being delivered on the ground near the Eugene bridge today, and the work on the construction of the same will begin tomorrow, under the supervision of V. McFarland and A. Anderson.

QUICK DISPATCH.—The steamer Eugene brought the San Francisco freight here last Saturday which was shipped from that city on the 23d. Thus it will be seen that the time occupied in transit of this shipment of goods was only 43 days.

A bear and lion fight is to take place in San Francisco, at Col. Boone's Wild Animal show, which excites much interest to see whether a California grizzly can whip an African lion.

BAKER CITY, Or. April 28.—Prospector Martin was drowned near the mouth of lower Powder river Tuesday. He attempted to swim to a skiff on the other side of the river.

SEDALIA, Mo., April 30.—J. A. Polard, a farmer living seven miles south of Sedalia, brought to the city today a gallon jar filled with live locusts.

DELPHI, Ind., April 30.—Congressman Brown is very sick at his home some twelve miles from Delphi, where he has been suffering for some time.

Real Estate Transfers. CORNER JACKSON TO DAVID McBEA, 156.4 acres in T 17 S R 5 W; $5000. KUONE. Mary E. Carman to J. Carman, 25 lots in F & H ad, also lot east of mill race; $1000. ELMIRA. THIRTEEN WELL DESERVED.—The Florence West has the following well deserved tribute to one of our best known citizens: The fact is generally understood that the G. A. R. Post at Eugene is the second largest in the state, and is only outranked in numbers by one in Portland. A CHANGEABLE WORLD.—The Harrisburg Courier says: There seems to be a general exodus of the business men of Halsey, and unless something is done there will soon be but a handful left in that once thriving little burg. BOILER BREAKS.—The largest of the two boilers used by the Electric Light Company cracked just above the base of the dome in the early evening yesterday. RIVER WAREHOUSE.—The lumber for the new warehouse at the river is being delivered on the ground near the Eugene bridge today, and the work on the construction of the same will begin tomorrow, under the supervision of V. McFarland and A. Anderson. QUICK DISPATCH.—The steamer Eugene brought the San Francisco freight here last Saturday which was shipped from that city on the 23d. A bear and lion fight is to take place in San Francisco, at Col. Boone's Wild Animal show, which excites much interest to see whether a California grizzly can whip an African lion. BAKER CITY, Or. April 28.—Prospector Martin was drowned near the mouth of lower Powder river Tuesday. SEDALIA, Mo., April 30.—J. A. Polard, a farmer living seven miles south of Sedalia, brought to the city today a gallon jar filled with live locusts. DELPHI, Ind., April 30.—Congressman Brown is very sick at his home some twelve miles from Delphi, where he has been suffering for some time. THE CROWD AT PUYALLUP. TACOMA, April 29.—The Coyotes are still in camp at Puyallup. They held a meeting this afternoon. Addresses were made by Governor Tents, of Tacoma, Mrs. Belden, of Whitcomb, and others. SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—The anti-Breckinridge people in the seventh congressional district have issued a pamphlet, written by Professor J. J. Jones, of Hamilton Female college, here. The book is entitled, "An appeal to the people of Ashland district for purity in the house and monthly to public life, and a protest against the re-election of Breckinridge." The 2,000 copies have been issued.