vigorous, and well flushed up. S. B.
Cough Cure has done its work well.
Both of the children like it. Your S.
B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all.
Wishing you prosper, we are,

Springfield Items.

May 13.
Springfield needs a street sprinkler.

Mr. Dority what has become of the Lost Cabin gold mine?

Several cases of poison oak has made its appearance in town.

Mr. Purkeye and family are off on a few weeks vacation visiting down the valley.

Nothing very rushing here except those who are rushing around for work or an office.

An Episcopal Sunday school was organized here last Sunday by Rev. D. E.
Loveridge.

Mrs. Wm. Laird, of Gardfield, Washington, is visiting with her sister Mrs.
J. A. Bringle and friends in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Walker, of Bear Creek, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Rev. Calder, of the M. E. church was kindly remembered last week on her birthday by members of the church and friends, presenting her with a number of nice presents.

Dr. Vanvald, formerly of Springfield, and lately of Ashland has returned to Springfield to reside. Now we will not have to send to Eugene for a doctor whenever we have the lagrippe.

A number of Coxyites were camped a few hours on the river bank near town last week. They did not march through town or solicit help in any way but moved on quietly after eating their dinner.

Who says the fruit was killed by the frost? Look at the cherry trees; the cherries are as large as peas and the trees are hanging full of them. We are going to have enough for cherry pie, any day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, C. L. Winter and Miss Fannie Spicer, of Eugene, rode to rough Springfield on bicycles Sunday afternoon, stopping only in a few minutes for rest and repairs. Miss Spicer's bicycle was a wild one or else she was not accustomed to riding one, for in spite of her gay cavalier she had many ups and downs on the road. She fortunately escaped getting seriously hurt, but now she wears several rents scattered around on her dress and on a bicycle. Try a gentle one and a little more practice next time, Fannie.

The Warehouse Benefit.

A merry crowd of dancers filled Conner hall Saturday evening at the warehouse benefit given by the board of trade committee. The hall was donated and the music generously furnished for half price. Five net receipts will probably reach $40, and besides a very pleasant evening was afforded.

Daily Guard, May 14.

RIVER IMPROVEMENT.—The tug boat crew is at work blasting out snags in the channel about three miles below this city. The board of trade and business men of this city should ask the U. S. engineers office at Portland to have a few wing dams constructed between here and Harrisburg. This would permit of the navigation of the river until a late day in the summer season. Last year the government ordered such work between Albany and Portland, which improved the river materially. We believe if the proper demand is made the work will be ordered on the upper river. Now is the time to act in the matter.

The will of the late Richard L. Robinson, of Irving precinct, was filed in following words:

debts shall be paid, and I shall be decently buried.

Second.—I give and bequeath all my property, both personal and real, which I shall retain at my death, after paying my debts and funeral expenses, equally ard Thomas Albert Robinson, John George Robinson and Lilly Rebecca Robinson, to share equally.

Third.—I hereby appoint S. H.
Friendly and J. H. McClung my executors.

and was witnessed by J. J. Walton and J. W. Cherry, of Eugene.
The estate is valued at from $25,000 to $35,000.

The Speaking.

The court house was well filled Saturday evening the occasion being an address by Carey F. Martin under the auspices of the Bimetallist League.
His subject, "The Necessities of a Stable Monetary System," was ably handled. His discourse was an argument that a single gold standard dollar was the really dishonest dollar and that a reliable, honest money standard could only be obtained by the use of both gold and silver each with the same redeeming power. The conclusions drawn were logical and the speaker liberally applauded at the close of his address.

An invitation was given by President Dorris for those present who were not members of the league to join and over 25 new names were added to the list. More literature bearing upon the question of finance will be sent for distributed gratis. The league now is over 100 strong and is gaining sympathy rapidly.

SENATOR ALLEY.—Ashland Tidings: Owing to conflicting dates the address by Senator Alley announced for last Saturday, had to be postponed for a week, consequently the senator has been billed to speak at a special meeting of the republican club to be called for next Saturday evening at the city hall.

THE SOCIAL.—The social given by the ladies of the Baptist church in Harrisburg building, Saturday evening, was largely attended. Bananas and strawberry ice cream and strawberries, cream and cake, composed the list of refreshments. Financially and socially the affair was a success.

The candidates nearly all returned reported extraordinarily large audiences attended. The speaking during ville Friday night was a very pleasant

the legal way by Auctioneer Travers.
The first one, a dashing dapple gray, gling, but it took an hour to get rid of the other three at $1.25 for the bunch.

The animals were cayuses, and the price they sold for were considerably short of the cost of boarding them during their imprisonment.

to Eugene Saturday evening. They reported extraordinarily large audiences attended. The speaking during the week. The dance at Hadley-ville Friday night was a very pleasant affair and largely attended.

Horseflesh realized its lowest market price Wednesday at Spokane, when four imponded animals were sold in the legal way by Auctioneer Travers.

brought $4.50, after considerable haggling, but it took an hour to get rid of

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

Senator Alley's Paper, "The West," Praises the Nominees.

The Florence West, of May 11th, Senator Alley's paper, has the following complimentary notice of the democratic county candidates, who visited the city by the sea last week:

H. J. Day, the democratic nominee for sheriff, was one of the boys who made descent on our burg to view the political outlook and he went away satisfied. Come again you are always welcome.

J. H. Whiteaker visited us in our sanctum. He is one of the aspirants to the county clerk's office. He says he will succeed W. R. Waley, and we have no reason to doubt his word.
Jim is a good fellow.

Mr. A. M. Osborn joined the party that invaded our territory. He is full of fun and, although up in years, he feels as young as any of the boys and will surely get elected provided he gets the necessary number of votes. He is going to act in the next Oregon legislature.

The county assessor, Mr. McPherson is around in the interest of Lane county and he will see that nobody evades his assessment. He is seen at the necessary number of votes. He is
lature.

The Hon. Robt. Clow, the democratic nominee for state senator, was seen here among the boys, in the interest of his election. He is a very able and deserves all the pay he receives for his work. He has a good chance for re-election.

Dr. W. W. Oglesby, of Cottage Grove, surprised us by dropping in on us with his momentary confessor. He is a very pleasant, educated gentleman and will be an honor to any community that elects him to the legislature, for which office he is now running as one of the democratic nominees.

Hon. J. D. Matlock was among the many visitors entertained by the citizens during his stay here. He is making the race, on the democratic ticket, for the legislature. He has represented Lane county before at Salem in a very able way. He has many friends here and will receive a large vote.

Mr. W. P. Cheshire's tall and commanding form could be seen at Florence among the candidates. He is simply on a tour of inspection so that he can see the wants of the people and thereby to enable himself to work intelligently for the welfare of Lane county, when he takes his seat for commissioner.

The genial face of Henry Day was seen in Florence last week. Henry received the democratic nomination for sheriff, and it goes without question that if he should be elected he will make a very efficient officer, as he is well versed in the business routine of the shrievalty. He has a host of friends in Florence as well as everywhere else in Lane county, and it is beyond a reasonable doubt that he will poll a good vote here.

Remodeling.

Daily Guard, May 14.

Carpenters are busy today remodeling the building occupied by Parker's opera house. The partition between the two west rooms is being moved over, making one room considerably wider and leaving a passage of about 5 feet wide for the theatre entrance with a box office in front. The store entrances will be moved to the center of the new store room and the glass front rearranged. J. O. Rhinehart has leased the corner room and will continue his grocery business at the same stand. Both store rooms will be extended back about 10 feet, cutting out the "standing room" of the opera house.

Warehouse Completed.

The river warehouse was completed Saturday. The building is about 36x 48 feet with 14 foot walls. It sets well on the bank beyond all danger of high water and a slip is built down to the water. This slip is made broad and at an easy incline.

The outside of the building is nicely finished in rustic and the inside walls substantially made. It is a credit to the enterprise of our business men.

LETTER "J."—Someone has remarked on the coincidence that the letter "J" appears in the first name of the sheriffs who have held office during the past 14 years. During that time J. M. Shadley, J. R. Campbell, J.
M. Sloan and J. E. Noland have held office, and now there is another good opportunity for the letter "J" to win, as H. J. Day and A. J. Johnson are up as candidates. W. W. Withers, among the superintendents, would have no show.

Daily Guard, May 14.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE.—Messrs.
T. G. Hendricks, L. G. Adair and F.
M. Wilkins, left yesterday morning for Portland. They will meet the delegates to the Assembly at The Dalles and accompany them to this city.

Daily Guard, May 13.

DISPLAY OF MEATS.—Fisher & Watkins, butchers, make one of the finest displays of meats ever seen in the city, today. The steer hanging in the market tipped the scales at 1940 lbs. net.
If you are a lover of fine meats take a look at this display.

Daily Guard, May 13.

BANK STATEMENT.—In today's GUARD will be found the regular quarterly statement of the First National Bank of this city. It is in a highly prosperous condition.

THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

What the Cumberland Presbyterians Will Do.

The Local Arrangements.

Just below we publish extracts from the last issue of the Nashville, Tenn., Cumberland Presbyterian regarding the work of the National Assembly which meets here tomorrow:

"As the General Assembly is at once the church's supreme court and highest legislature, all of its meetings are important. True it cannot, without the consent of the presbyteries, change the creed or constitution, or enact laws, but it speaks and decides as the authoritative mouthpiece and tribunal of the church. It is the recognized interpreter of law and doctrine. What it declares concerning great moral issues and movements—its temperance, its Christian union, and the uplifting of the masses—will be accepted by the world as the index of the church's attitude and spirit. Every vote of such a tribunal carries weight and power with it.

It may be that the General Assembly, which is to convene at Eugene, Oregon, next week will not take many important forward steps in legislation or in devising new plans and measures. We know not. The plan for the federal union of the several Presbyterian churches of this country, published two weeks ago, will doubtless be con-
