TN all receipts for cooking I requiring a leavening agent the ROYAL BAKING. POWDER, because it is an absolutely pure cream of tartar powder and of 33 per cent. greater leavening strength than other powders, will give the best results. It will make the food lighter, sweeter, of finer flavor and more wholesome.

anone here here here here here here

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 106 WALL ST., NEW-YORK. Kalen and the next and the next and the selection of the

Doing His Best,

"Hello, Threeshelle," said Bunko. "Did not know you were here. Taking in the town?" "Well, I can't say that I'm taking in the whole town," said Threeshelle as he defily extracted a gold enamelled hatpin from the headgear of a lady who was pass-ing. "But I'm not letting anything escape "_Chicago Record.

Solitude Preferred.

"Leave me now, Lobelia," said Mr. Mc-Swat, passing his hand nervonaly across his forchead. "I wish to be alone for the pext hour or two."

What is the matter, Billiger?" inquired Mrs. McSwat, with some anxiety. "I have got to consult a railway guide!" groaned the unhappy man .-- Chicago Trib-

A Sweeping Victory.

Witts-You should have seen the sweeping victory my wife gained over an unusu ally persistent book agent this morning. Watts-Should, ch? How'd she do it? Witts-Chased him out of the house with a broom.-Buffalo Courier.

A Juvenile Paradise.

First Boy-1 wish we lived in South rants, he regulates their smallest actions, America. Second Boy-Why do you? First Boy-The schools down there always close every time the town is bom-barded.-Good News.

He Wanted Youth.

Husband-I wish you would get a new dressmaker. Wife-Why, dear, I have had this one for years.

old .- Cloak Review.

The Reason.

"Why, sir," said the young man, "do you "Because," replied the editor," it is a freak. It has more than the normal num-ber of feet."--Washington Star.

A Fuzzling Query.

Tommy-Say, papa. Papa-What, Tommy? Tommy-Would you have been any rela-tive of mine if mamma hadn't married you? -Hallo.

LOVE'S REMINDERS. Shy bluebird on yon maple spray,

My coming causes you surprise. You cry aloud and fly away On wings that glitter as they rise; So blue are they, so skyey clear, Unequaled blies their beaming brings; For now I think of one most dear, Whose eyes are bright as bluehird's wing

From covert groves glides forth a trill Of wild birds singing justily, Yet while I list my thoughts will still Seek her who is most dear to me, For, oh, her soft and southing vulce Sounds merrier than the leaping throng Of waters when spring rills rejoice Its music mates the linnet's song.

Upon a bourgeoned white birch broad A squirrel gambols spry and fleet, Until, by my rude spaniel awed, She higher mounts on hasty feet; And as she bounds without a fall From lower limbs to limbs above Her agile motions well recall The flake-light footfalls of my love Maurice W. Casey in Boston Pilot.

Advice From a King.

Kabarega, the negro king of Unyoro, in Central Africa, is a man who rules his subjects with a rod of iron. Like all tyand a host of spies inform him of any disobedience to his commands. Among other things, he has made a fixed tariff of prices for everything bought or sold in his country, and every deviation from it is severely punished. An instance of this is given by Vita Hassan in his book about Emin Pasha and the Equatorial Province.

About a month after Hassan's arrival Husband-That the trouble. She's too in Unyoro he bought a fowl and paid 30 cowries for it, while the market price was only 25. In that part of Africa it takes about 250 cowries to make $1. Soon afterward a dragoman of the king appeared and brought back 5 cowries, > with the message: "A fowl costs only 25 cowries, while you have given 30. The seller has done wrong, and the king will punish him, but he sends to you the advice to be careful henceforth in your purchases-never to give for anything more than it is worth, first of all in your own interest, and next to this in order not to disturb

THE DOUBLE CROSS

By ARDENNES JONES-FOSTER. He had written other words. 9 pre-

I at once answered this letter, telling Olef all that had happened, and went

But I had no sooner returned to the doubt Olef's duties at home had crowded souse than a messenger brought me a upon him so fast that he could find no words: "Vera is dead!" (Signed), "IVAN."

CHAPTER III. "What must happen to me now?" I meditated. "Here in this strange city am I, unattended, unprotected! My conscience will not permit me to stop here alone."

日本日本日本日本日本日本日

A week went on, with no further tidings from my uncle save one letter, in which he said that it had been decided to lay poor Vera at rest in Esther's family Within ten days Ivan came home. He was attired out of severest respect for his departed wife, and as I tried to console him during our conversation the tears rushed into his eyes and he cried as if his heart would break. Endeavor as I might my words seemed to afford him to soothing. Upon the following day and for a week longer he steadily refused to go to his business office, declaring that life had lost all attraction for him now that poor Vera had gone. The season flew by. Olef's letters musical college and arranged for a term news." of vocal instruction; and before I realized it May month was upon us. Nature had put on her warm, green robes. The flowers never smelled sweeter, the leaves never looked brighter-and but for the absence of the music of Olef's dear voice the warble of the bird notes would never have rung out in more delightful harmony. I had already begun to look for another letter from Olef. I remarked to Ivan that it was quite time. And I also told him that upon receipt of that letter I should return to Stockholm, having informed Olef to that end.

What was my surprise when Ivan at once began to wean me from the notion of going home! "Why, do you know," he exclaimed, "that I had fully made up my mind to ask you to write Olef to pay us a visit that he might be enabled to go back with you? I like Olef very much. He seems such a capital good fellow, and I am heartily glad that you have set your hearts one upon the other." I thanked him for his kind regard, al though not without blushing a bit, I must confess. "And now," he resumed, "let me offer you a bit of advice. Olef is getting ready to enter the profession of law, is he not?

"He has graduated and been admitted to the bar," I replied. "Quite to my notion, then. If I am not mistaken your dot, left to you by your father, Grefve Melin, amounted to one hundred thousand kronor-about twenty-eight thousand dollars in American money.'

"Yes," was my answer, as his words, "Not half as charming as her dot," uttered upon the night of my arrival, flew back to my memory, and still I could not connect their meaning with the present, because Ivan seemed so interested in and my fo ready money?" he bluntly asked.

might be negotiated," I returned.

"Could your fortune be converted into

It my spirits fell beneath their load of 1 refused all offers of consolation, and in spite of the fact that my musical examination was to occur the following Monday I resolved to return tome at once

"I hardly think that I would lose your opportunity to carry off first prize if serve them. They are too sacred for side, Olef's detention can be but mo-

I remarked that it was strange tas. had not received my regular weekly letout to post it in time to eatch the first ter from him. But Ivan soon turned my ourse of thoughts by saying that no dispatch. I opened it and read three time to write, and especially while front of us. watching at the bedside of a dying father. And this argument, together with the stimulating hope of winning the prize, won me over.

"Bide your time, Cesca," Ivan went came and mine went. I had entered a on. "The next steamer may fetch good

> I waited a week, and in the meantime my sorrow had been somewhat assuaged by my receipt of the first prize for vocal mors at the institute.

One morning Ivan handed me a letter postmarked Stockholm. It was in Ulef's handwriting and yet it did not sem the same. I turned it over and over again, upside down and then held between me and the light of the sun. "Here is a double cross made with a pen upon the lid of the envelope. I wonder what he could have intended that to mean?" I asked, showing the cross to Ivan.

"He might have made it to reveal to you any attempt that should be made to open the letter," he suggested, looking at the mark.

I tore off the envelope and read: "Do not let your heart split upon the rock of this, my final adieu. Brevity must be my parting message. Cease to hope. My heart is lost to you.

"You will ask why I have not kept my troth. I can but say that my father's will, opened after his death, has reversed my life, into which now shines the beam of a new love. "I am to marry the daughter of Lieut. Bodine to-morrow. OLEF OLSEN." My heart, torn with the anguish of my own sad life, I could only sob and weep over it. And then, as often a woman will do, I tried to hall my sorrow to sleep by the strains of melody. And as I played softly I followed the lines of that plaintive song, "Drifting Apart," that I remembered having read in "Broken Barriers": Drifting apart: as the cruel shades Of the years rise up twist you and unst Drifting apart:-two separate tides Carry an out o'er the wide, wild seal Carry in out over the wike, while seal Drifting apart: for another's love light bilined you to the love 1 planned. Drifting apart: for that alien love Hath frozen your beart and chilled your hand. Drifting: Drifting and further astray! My God! will see ever again one day Meet in the passion of life's hottest fray, and love as we did in the created off way? And love, as we did, in the good old way? For the first time since my arrival in

VIOLETS. P .

The wood hird calls, the shadfire fiel The wood bird calls, the shaffwe her. The sun comes golden from the seas Across the meadow as I stray For you I take the fern fringed way. To gather violets wet with dew Which only blown, my love, for you-For yos, my love, alone for you!

The grasses bend, the dewdrops shine, The hawthern's breath is sweet as wine, The soft wind steals with presence sweet To fing white petals at my feet And lift the lawse from violats bine, Hidden to wait, my love, for you-For you, my lave, alone for you!

lline as your eyes, which hearts beguile, Their faint performs aweet as your smile, I gather them, with ferenet prayer That they my passion may declare: Their perals pain, tear stained with dew, May tell how I live but for you-

For you, my love, alone for you! -- Donahoe's Magazine.

It's Human Nature.

A well dressed man got on the Sixth avenue elevated the other day and groped along for a strap, which his companion finally placed in his hand. As the former seemed quits uncertain of his footing and was being partially supported by the latter, people stared at him rather hard under the impression that he was intoxicated. He was not only well dressed, but wore a handsome ring, heavy gold watch chain and other jewelry. Passengers jostled him considerably as he swayed from the strap, and pretty soon it became evident to those in the vicinity that instead of being intoxicated the man was blind. A young lady made the discovery and immediately arose and motioned the blind man's companion to take her seat. When this had been communicated to the blind man, the latter turned in the direction of the lady and raised his hat respectfully, but declined the proffered courtesy. His companion whispered something in his cars-most likely that the lady was both young and handsome-for the afflicted man began pluming himself and finally turned by changing hands on the strap so that the young lady might get a more definite view of a rather fine face. He straightened up his rings, settled his collar, felt to ascertain whether his coat was buttoned and pulled down his cuffs-just as a vain man usually does when he wants to make a good appearance.-New York Herald.

Soft Words.

One of the most curious of current beliefs is that of hypocrisy lurking in pleasant manners and sincerity in those that are rough or stern. It seems a relic of our Puritan forefathers, but it certainly is out of place today. One foolish, or very innocent, to give hee to more than the letter of society courtesics. But, on the other hand, the wish to please is a good sign in itself, and the willingness to hurt, by word as well as by deed, is a bad sign in itself. Selfishness is, far more than hypocrisy even, a usual failing. And there is small hope for the habitually self absorbed rough speaker, while there is always a chance that the soft manner may sink into the heart. To those who tell us that soft words butter no parsnips, we may retort, oil is also better for a wig than vinegar. If proverba mean anything, it is because there is one for every side of a question .-

MAN'S INHUMANITY TO HIMSELF.

MAN'S INHUMANITY TO HIMSELP. The most inhuman outrages, outrages which would diagrace the swage, man perpetrates into the source and the swage, man perpetrates into the source and the system. Many perpetence and weaken his system. Many perpetence and a periodularly catharities, are of any avail. Irreparable to jury to health is wrought under this mistaken idea. The laxa-ing intermediation of sature is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is an issues to the source with the index the mistaken idea. The laxa-bit is the intermediation of sature is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is pathese, but thorough, and in-work in the index is and instead of weak-ening and irriniting it. The liver and the stom-sening and irriniting it. The liver and the stom-phils comprehensive medicing, whose the stom-phils is the senior of the year when the ave-

PAINS AND ACHES.

We all have pains and aches, but they needn't last long-not any longer than it takes to put on an ALLCOCK's POBOUS PLAS-TER. The only thing to look out for is that you get the right plaster, for when you need a plaster you need it, and there's no time for experimenting and finding out mistakes then. Ask for ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS then. Ask for Allcock's Penots Plastke and see that you get them. If they say that some other is just as good, teil them that only the best is good enough for you. ALLCOCK's PORODS PLASTKES are quick and sure and acknowledged by the highest med-ical authorities to be the best outside rem-edy for pains and aches of every descrip-tion.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS invigorate the diges

"Half the world down't know how the other half lives." Neither does the other half. Throat diseases commence with a cough-old or sore throat. "Bresen's Brenchia cold or sore throat. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give immediate relief. Sold only in forces. Price, 25 cents.

"Do you like kissing?" he asked. "All sur-prises are pleasant," soe replied demurely.

Students, teachers (maie or female), clergy, men and others in need of change of employ-ment should not fail to write in B. F. Johnson A. C., Riuhmoud, Va. They can abow you how to employed hours profitably. the Bad Symptoms. "For over 25 years I have suffered from female complaint. I was seldom free from sen mbess able pain in the small of un task. Any ov. F. able pain in the small of un task. Any ov. F. able pain to the one model of the section would cause must be in one my led from it weeks to two months. In the winter of last i had a severe Attack of the Crip

Oddly enough the homeliest of old maids are generally girls who were matchless in their ponth.

HOW'S THIS?

We offer One Hundred Dollars' Reward for any case of estarth that estnoot be cured by Hall's Caterrh Cure.

Wholewale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Curs is taken internally, esting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the syst im. Prize, 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Testimoniais free.

Guard yourself for summer malaris, tired

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live bet-Regulator of the Liver and Kidneys ter than others and enjoy life more, with ess expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid axative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs. Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleas ant to the taste, the refreshing and truly ant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect lax-ative ; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kid-neys, Liver and Bowels without weak-neys, Liver and howers without weak-ening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance. Syrup of Figs is for sale by all drug-gists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is man-ufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, Hood's Sarsaparilla Easily Cured All the Bad Symptoms.

Attack of the Grip

which issted through the spring into the sum-mer. I secured a supply of local starsparit a and it made a new woman of rms. I am free from the backache and it kept me from having the grip last wrnter. My daughter has also been benefitted by Hood's Haraparilla as she also had the grip at the same time as I was Hall's Caterrh Cure. F.J. CHENKY & CO., Prope., Toledo, O. We. the understraded, have known F.J. Che-ney for the lass filtern years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all trainess transactions and fiburate lip all basiness transactions and the grip at the same time as I was Holdeste Druggists, Toledo, O. Walpinson, KINNAN & MARVIN. Halte Court Modesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

afflicted. It has curved me of a complete diseases, all at the expense of a few so Man Evenus R. Smith, Box 59, Etca, Cal

DOCTOR

-A SPECIFIC FOR-

And All Other Blood and Skin Diseases.

It is a positive cure for all those painful, deli-cide completions and complicated troubles and weatnesses common among our wives, mothers and daughters. The effect is immediate and lasting. Two or hypers the blood cool, the liver and kildneys ac-tion of blood does, the liver and kildneys ac-tion of blood does. A medicine ever introduced in this country has mad with such ready sale, nor given such that with such ready sale, nor given such the with such ready sale, nor given such the such and with such ready sale, nor given such that a such state of the such as that of the such and the such as a specific for the past twenty we past a such for the such such as a specific for the such these and the sale will cure when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called and the such will such when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called the such when all other so-called and the such will cure when all other so-called the such when all other so-called the such when all other so-called the such as a specific for the such when all other so-called the such as a such as a such as the such as a such as a such as the such as as such as the such as as a such as the such as as a such as the who have been enrod by its use. Druggists sel-it at $1.00 per bottle. Try it and he convinces for sale by

MACK & CO.,

9 and II Front St., San Francisco.

Salt Rheum, Neuralgia

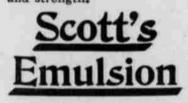

Scrofula, Rhoumatism,

New York Women Officials.

Eighty-five women were nominated for school commissioner in the late canvass in New York and four were elect-The Republicans nominated eight, the Democrats 39, the Prohibitionists 42, the People's Party 42 and the Political Equality party 1. The list of women commissioners is increased by one over last year.

Fat

is wanting in most foods, or, if present, is not assimilated. The result is loss of flesh and strength.

the Cream of Cod-liver Oil, is a palatable, easy fat food that any stomach can retain and any system assimilate without effort. It gives flesh and strength. Physicians, the world over, endorse it.

Bon't be deceived by Substitutes! Prepared by Scott & Bowns, N. Y. All Druggists.

The launch CYCLONE, one of as constantly evaporated-thereby keepthe speedlest boats of its size ally drawn from a well or spring. -Denon the Coast. Length, 30 feet ; ver Letter. depth, 3 feet: beam, 6 1-2 feet; 7 ft. from top of cabin to bottom of keel; half-glass cabin. This sentence of death on a noted pirate, but launch, fitted with the cele- previously asked him, "Why dost thou gine, 8-horse power, in perfect "dost thon trouble the whole world? I, running order, is offered for sale with one ship, go in quest of solitary adat a great bargain. For price Thou, with a great army, warrest against and particulars address

PALMER & REY. Portland, Or.

The MONARCH and RED STRIP are sup-rior brands of BELTING, which, together with Maitese Cross, Ridgewood and Wal-labout brands of Seam and Waiter HOSE, are july guaranteed by the manufacturer. Your dealer keeps them; if not, write us.

Gutta Percha and Rubber Mfg. Co., Established 1855. Portland, Or.

Printed with Jaenecke-Ull-man Ink. PALMER & REY, be freely and instantaneously complied Agents.

0

the market."-Youth's Companion.

An Interesting Predicament.

A man who lives in a flat near Central park recently had a peculiar experience. A couple of deaf mutes rented an apartment underneath his own and were blessed in due season by the arrival of a bouncing baby with an excellent pair of lungs. At night the little one woke up nearly the entire house by its cries, but through all of it the parents slept until require ice. It is a covered receptacle, leaving the product cellular, or porous.

Mrs. Romney's Water Cooler.

The receptacle, with the water to be

The Emperor and the Pirate.

venture and am therefore called pirate.

nations and therefore art called emperor. Sir, there is no difference be-trouble the seas?"

doing mischief."

ished .- Sala's Journal.

Alexander the Great was about to pass

Express.

fetch over-well, say, twenty thousand dollars of that money, I, through my the tenant above, at the solicitation of brokerage office, can invest it for you in his wife, went down stairs and fairly New York Stock Exchange listed seforced an entrance. The deaf and dumb curities that will yield you 100 per cent. couple resort to many ingenious devices profit. In fact, I know of such an opto overcome the disadvantages under portunity today. Do as I advise you and which they labor. They are unable to I will make your fortune double itself hear their doorbell, so they have arand give Olef a permanent place as manranged a piece of colored paper upon the gong in such a way that the paper ager in my office. His legal learning will stand him in to great advantage and he finiters when the bell rings. By keep-ing a watchful eye on the bell they are able to receive their visitors promptly. stocks that he would in the law." Being only a woman of inexperience but their inventive genius has not as yet I, of course, gave harbor to Ivan's addevised a scheme to indicate the baby's vice. Twenty thousand invested would distress at night,-New York Mail and yield me an additional twenty thousand

-besides giving Olef a start in life! fortune The Colorado journalist, Mrs. Rom-And so by the outgoing steamer I sent ney, has patented, among several other articles, a water cooler which does not Olef a letter, instructing him to carry out Ivan's suggestion. I must mention here that for a fortnight past I had experienced the stran. is but for a woman to understand. of cellular brickware, manufactured of clay, sawdust and asbestus fiber. In gest sensations-a feeling of langor stealthe process the sawdust is burned out, ing upon me and spells of morning dreariness. At times my limbs would kept cool within, stands in a tray of and I felt giddy. Twice I recall having galvanized iron, which holds water to a stumbled over the floor when those dizzy depth of two or three inches. By reason waves swayed my head. I looked at my of the porosity of the cooler and the force skin. It was growing parched, color-less, lifeless! I could not make it out. of capillary attraction, the water in the tray constantly rises through the My exercise and habits were regular. cellular walls of the receptacle, and is My mode of living was perfect. I took plenty of baths, fresh air and good, wholesome food; and yet I grew weaker day by day, almost tottering at times. It seriously affected my vocal powers, four or five notes dropped out of my register, top and bottom. I consulted the old housekeeper about it. We called in Ivan. At first he suggested the advice of a doctor, but finally concluded that been using-a Swedish brand of preserves of which no member of the family. except myself, had ever partaken. It happened that his surmises tallied with the cause, for 1 did put aside the twist us but in the name and means of a powerful tonic, and within a few days my physical strength began to mend, my Alexander, so far from being disvoice came back and the roses rushed to pleased with the freedom of the culnrit. my cheeks once more, as if glad to meet was so impressed with the force of his old acquaintances, and 1 got on without appeal that he dismissed him unpunshe least hint of my former failing.

CHAPTER IV

The Demand Was Granted.

0

0.0

The Thingvalla, which was expected to arrive at the end of the following A certain city in England sent a deputa-tion to Charles H, who was very ill, solicit-ing some favor. The orator, without any month, would have given Olef time to convert my securities and reach New mercy to the sick man, made a long, tedious urse. "Have you anything more to York.

say?" asked the merry monarch impatient-ly. "Nothing," repiled the orator, "except Just eighteen days after posting my 17. "Nothing," replied the orator, "except that if you do not grant our request I am instructed to recise my speech over again." Stockholm which tool me that Olef's Charles ordered that all his demands should be freely and instantaneously complied States would be impossible. This cable gram bore Olef's signature, and as I read 0

0

000

"It is invested in securities which America-nearly one year now-my Uncle Ivan began to show me warm atten-"Very good. Of course you want to tion. And embittered, weighed down, double your fortune. It would be but galled by Olef's cruel letter, I had let quite natural that you should. Olef, bemyself drift into closer communion with ing a barrister, can quite readily accom-Ivan, and-yes, 1 confess it-to avenge plish the preliminaries for you. If you the past I had given him to understand will write to him and instruct him to that his ministry was not wholly rejected. He was not too old-thirty-seven. I seventeen.

From the moment of Vera's sad death Ivan had taken every precaution to throw about me the barriers of protection, in order that any possible attempts to criticise my abode at his house might be set at rest. He had engaged an elderly housekeeper, in addition to whom I had induced one of the young women will find twice the amount of profit in from the Conservatoirs to make her home with me.

We walked a good bit, Ivan and And by this time his affection had grown to fire. It was no mere assump tion, that love of Ivan's. He was deeply in earnest. I am not the woman to read How happy we could be upon our little a man's heart amiss. The name of his wife, Vera, had faded into a more memory now, and I received certain proofs that Ivan would have stripped his heart of all else in the world for me. "What were those proofs?" you ask. Oh, that I must say that I returned the passion measure for measure. I had come to honor, respect and love Ivan. His image seem stiff, almost dead. My back ached and I felt giddy. Twice I recall having heart. And as we walked together. wrapped in one another's confidence, the very soul of joy lighted our pathway. Of course] Irene, my con _anion, had noticed it. She seemed astonished at our mutual affection.

and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

TRY GERMEA for breakfast.

W. PFUNDER'S. ORECON BLOOD PURIFIER KIDNEY & LIVER DISEASES. DYSPEPSIA. PIMPLES BLOTCHES AND SKII DISEASES. HE A DACHE * COSTIVENESS.

W. L. DOUGLAS 63 SHOR ed on the bother ne WELT, to first fail ince for In WLD far by mail, Postage free, You can get the Bee Supplies. SEEDS

PORTLAND SEED CO., 171 Second Street. . Portland, Or. ar Send for estalogue.

with -New York Ledger.

0 0 0

