for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is well adapted to children that it recommends it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ASCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City.

Tuesday's Albany Herald: Mr. A. Wheeler, of Springfield, president of the Lane County Lumber League, is in the city. This firm has closed out its lumber yard in Albany.

The flood is doing what the legislatures have failed to do. It is clearing the Columbia river of fishtraps and wheels. "It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good," or words to that effect.

Floors from which the water has receded in Portland, are being cleaned out. A depth of 3 to 4 inches of mud and filth is found. These floors were covered less than a week, and may be taken as an indication of the condition of what may be expected in the lower portions, where the water will have stood nearly a month before leaving them.

Mr. Spaulding, the Portland wholesale butcher, was in this vicinity the last of the week buying cattle. He secured about 60 head, a considerable portion of them coming from the Coleman ranch, near Coburg. Portland gets her main beef supply from Eastern Oregon, but as the Columbia flood has temporarily disabled transportation lines the Willamette valley is turned to fill the bill.

Virginia Republicans Give Up.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Virginia republican committee has adopted a resolution stating the committee deems it unwise to call congressional conventions for the purpose of making nominations. The resolution expressly states, however, the committee has no intention of attempting to prevent any person from running for any office by nominating a representative. Populists who had formerly been democrats held the sack and got beautifully sniped.

Exceptional climatic conditions have been experienced over the Northwest coast this season.

This is the last week of studies at the State University. Commencement week commences Sunday next.

Celebrate the Fourth of July in some appropriate manner. It is not necessary that an extravagant sum of money be expended.

It may be reasonably expected that business will be better than the election is over. Political contests always demoralize business affairs to a greater or less extent.

The gold medal to be presented to President Eliot, of Harvard, at commencement in commemoration of his completing twenty-five years in his office is to cost $2000.

An immense grain, hay and vegetable crop is promised in the Willamette valley this season. It should bring good prices in view of the drought in California and floods in the northern rivers.

It is reported that the recent floods on the sound, in the Frazer and White river valleys, in the Yakima country and along the Columbia on the Washington side, together with the destructive storms, made material changes in the estimates of Washington's hop crop for 1894. Many yards are completely destroyed while others are greatly damaged. Oregon yards, however, have suffered neither storm nor flood.

The Tacoma school board has caused a reduction by a cut in the salaries of teachers and contingent expenses for the school year beginning September 1, $15,000. The salary of the principal was reduced $800. High school teachers who last year received $1000 will next year receive but $900, and graded teachers who received $700 will receive but $630. One receiving $600 has been reduced to $530.

The democrats met a tidal wave caused by hard times and aided by populism. This will be changed when prosperity, in the natural course of events, will be restored. It may not be amiss to remark that the same causes were responsible for the most complete and disastrous defeat ever experienced by a party in the history of our country—that of Harrison and the republicans in 1892. And we are yet working under the same laws in force then.

A French scientist's plans for securing a wonderful yield of potatoes. He steeped his cuttings for 24 hours in a solution of six pounds of saltpeter, six pounds of sulphate of ammonia and 25 gallons of water. He next allowed them to drain a whole day, in order that the eye buds might swell before planting. From potato cuttings treated in this matter and planted in the usual way he obtained a yield of 42 tons of potatoes to the acre.

An historic incident occurred in the Pennsylvania legislature when a member of that body arose and, addressing the speaker, said: "If the Pennsylvania railroad has nothing more for us to do, I move that we adjourn." The United States senate can make history in the same way. If the sugar trust has nothing more to ask of the half dozen senators whom it has purchased, there is no reason why the senate should not proceed to act at once on what is left of the Wilson tariff bill.

A story is going the rounds of our exchanges about the way Hannah More managed talebearers. It is said that whenever she was told anything derogatory to another, her invariable reply was: "Come, we will go and ask if this be true." The effect was sometimes most ludicrously painful. The talebearer was taken aback, stammered out a qualification, or begged that no notice might be taken of the statement. But the good lady was inexorable; off she took the scandal monger to the scandalized to make inquiry and compare accounts.

New York state has a constitutional convention now in session at her capital, and from present indications some modified form of the initiative and referendum will find a place in the new constitution of the greatest and most progressive state in the Union. It is not generally known that the laws of a large majority of the states are copied from or substantially founded on the laws of that state. Past experience with legislatures is not such as to inspire the people with confidence as to their legislation being for the best interests of the state.

The number of officers and men, actually killed in battle in all of the Union armies during the four years of war, barely exceeds 60,000. The number of those who died of wounds during the war is less than 35,000. The number of those that died of diseases, either resulting from the hardships and exposure of warfare, or the incident of natural mortality in a great body of men, is about 185,000 for the four years. Adding even the 24,000 cases of disappearance, conveniently charged in the records to death "from unknown causes," the total of mortality among Union troops during the war is 304,000. The cost of the war probably exceeded, from first to last, directly and indirectly, $8,425,000,000.

AT THE U. S. MINT.

Grant's Pass Courier: There has been considerable controversy as to how much gold there is in a $20 gold piece. When the editor of this paper visited the San Francisco mint recently he was informed by its officials that there is $20 worth of gold bullion in a $20 piece and to this is added the copper alloy by the government without any charge to the depositor of the bullion, who only pays a small fee for the certificate informing him as to the value of his deposit after it has been melted into an ingot. These ingots are then rolled into long thin strips of the bullion, value of $1500. The $20 pieces are punched out of these strips as a harness maker punches holes in a leather strap, and the circular pieces are then dropped under a trip hammer which stamps both sides of the twenty at the same time.

Heavy frame boxes are filled with these coins to the amount of $20,000 and visitors may see from $60,000 to $100,000 worth at any one time.

When we were there visitors were being escorted through the institution at the rate of 300 a day. The hours for admission are between 9:30 and 11 a. m.

The New Zealanders have a singular burial custom, and one that is essentially the same as that of the Parsees of the Orient. Unlike the latter, they bury their dead in the earth, but leave them there long enough for the flesh to decay. When nothing is left but the bones, these are carefully cleaned and laid away in natural caves or artificial tombs. The crime of grave robbing or of disturbing the bones of the dead after they have been cleaned and put away is always punished by death in New Zealand and throughout Polynesia.

The late George Bidder, at the age of 5 years, could answer almost instantaneously how many farthings there would be in any sum under £800,000,000. Zerah Coburn was another lightning calculator of the same generation. While yet a small school boy he was asked to name the square of 999,999, which he instantly stated to be 999,998,000,001. To further illustrate his powers he multiplied the above sum by 49 and the product by the same number. He once calculated the cube root of 413,993,348,677 in exactly five seconds.

Mr. Penney now realizes what it is to turn traitor to the party to which he owed all his political advancement. He is yet a democrat in principle, but thought the new party would be successful, and with the aid of a few democrats would give him a seat in the United States senate. His treason and time-serving have been suitably rewarded.

Several of the smuggling cases will not be tried this term, and the remaining cases set for trial are of minor importance.

WHERE ARE THE WITNESSES. The whereabouts of Blum, who is expected to figure conspicuously in the smuggling cases, is veiled in mystery. At the federal offices no one seems to know where he is, but no doubts are expressed of his return in time to testify in the cases. He is under $17,000 bonds and has not yet been pardoned for his complicity in the operation of the smuggling ring. Jackling is supposed to be on the sound and is expected here for the trials. Special Agent Wood is on his way from Boston, and Judge Durand is on the ground.

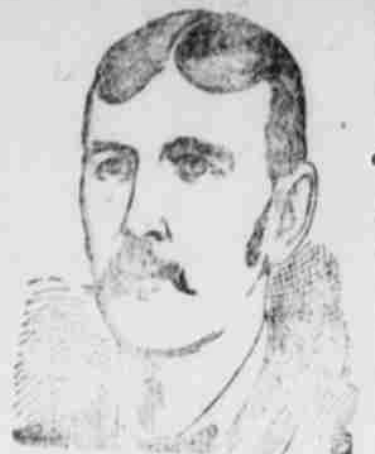

Portland Needs No Outside Help. PORTLAND, June 11.—The impression prevails generally through the country, and in many cities on the coast, that there is, or soon will be a great demand for laborers of all classes in Portland. Especially in San Francisco, where the population is rapidly increasing, and the city is well supplied with laborers, mechanics and artisans.

There at least 2000 men in Portland and vicinity whose services can be had at a moment's notice. Most of these men, when the water recedes, will not find steady employment longer than two or three weeks at the utmost from this cause. Therefore it might just as well be understood now, as later when the harm cannot be undone, that an influx of laborers, skilled or unskilled, will be unable to find employment here, and not only that, they will probably find it very difficult to get away if they know when they are well off.

One of Them Fatally Stabbed. SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Frank Williams, a gambler lately from Seattle, was stabbed and probably fatally wounded by Frank Schander, a fellow professional, yesterday. The affray took place on O'Farrell street, and the only witnesses were several other gamblers, who decline to say anything and seem determined to shield Schander. It is known that Williams and Schander engaged in a violent quarrel which led to blows, and a knife was used. Williams received two stab wounds in the right side, the knife penetrating the lower lobe of the liver and also the chest cavity. He was removed to the receiving hospital. Schander was arrested.

This morning Schander was taken into the receiving hospital, and Williams was asked if he could identify Schander as the man who did the stabbing. Williams said he knew Schander, but was positive he was not the man who used the knife. Schander refused to say anything about the affair.

NEAR DEATH'S DOOR FROM Inflammation of the Kidneys

Dear Sir: I can scarcely realize I was so near death's door, the result of a bad attack of inflammation of the kidneys. My urine was bloody and terrible pain near the spine. I tried several remedies, but got no relief. When I was sent for a copy of your Medical Adviser was received by some one in our household. After reading of it I sent for a bottle of Dr. Grant's Kidney and Liver Cure, and after three doses I felt relieved. I continued taking until I had taken three bottles, and was completely cured.

Gratefully yours, J. A. ALEXANDER, 773 Hoyt street, Portland, Oregon.

Lotan, Seid Back and Cardinell.

PORTLAND, June 11.—The criminal docket for this term of the United States court was made up this morning, and the cases to come before Judge Bellinger and the United States trial jury, which appears tomorrow morning, were set for trial.

The retrial of Lotan, Seid Back and Cardinell, on the indictment for conspiracy to smuggle Chinese, was set for Monday, June 25, and a week's time allotted to its trial. This is the indictment on which these three defendants were tried at the last term of the United States district court, with Mulkey, Dunbar, Hannon and others, the jury disagreeing as to Lotan, Seid Back and Cardinell.

On Monday, July 2, the case of the United States against C. J. Mulkey, on the indictment of nine counts for smuggling opium, was set, and was given a week. Mulkey is now under conviction for conspiracy to smuggle Chinese.

For Monday, July 9, the case of the United States against Ching Chong Quile, Nat. Blum, E. P. Thompson, William Dunbar and Seid Back, for smuggling opium, is set, and four days allotted for its trial.

The case against Thomas Jordan and Herbert Adams, for smuggling opium, is set for trial, Friday, July 13, and is expected to last two or three days.

Several of the smuggling cases will not be tried this term, and the remaining cases set for trial are of minor importance.

WHERE ARE THE WITNESSES. The whereabouts of Blum, who is expected to figure conspicuously in the smuggling cases, is veiled in mystery. Mrs. John Kilby.

Suffered Pain ELEVEN YEARS.

Dear Sir: For eleven years I suffered with a bad case of Salt Rheum, or Eczema, and was hardly able to move about. My doctor treated me a long time without doing me any good. A friend requested me to try Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root. I did so, and today feel very thankful for so doing. I received benefit from the first bottle, and kept on taking it until I had taken over a dozen bottles. The result is today I am perfectly well, and I can not say too much for Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla.

Shot by a Robber.

REDDING, Cal., June 11.—Yesterday morning near Lewiston, Trinity county, W. G. Edinger, driving a team for Jose & Ellery, accidentally got his wagon off Rush Creek grade, and while in that predicament Ohio Hampton, another teamster for the same parties and who had been to Weaverville and unloaded came along and assisted Edinger to get his wagon on the grade and into Weaverville, both returning together until about noon, when they stopped to eat lunch. Without any words Edinger drew his pistol and commanded Hampton to give up what freight money he had collected, also telling him he could take charge of his team, and started away on foot. Hampton drove to the nearest telegraph office at Jacob Fasten's ranch, and immediately telegraphed Jose who had disappeared. Jose ordered a man to go to Douglas City and watch for the robber, while he himself went to Lewiston bridge. About dark the robber came to the bridge at Lewiston, when Jose stopped him, demanding the return of the money. Edinger drew his pistol and fired, hitting Jose in the stomach, from which wound Jose will probably die. At 8 o'clock this morning Jose was still alive. The robber is still at large.

Sultan of Morocco Dead. MADRID, June 11.—El Glote publishes an unconfirmed report of the death of the sultan of Morocco, Mulay Hassan.

TANGIER, June 11.—News from the interior confirms the report of the death of Sultan Mulay Hassan, while traveling between the capital and Rabat. It is rumored the sultan's son, Mula Abdah Aziz, has been proclaimed sultan.

LONDON, June 11.—A prominent banker received a dispatch from Tangier this afternoon, saying the belief prevails that the late sultan was fatally murdered.

In Favor of a Democrat. WASHINGTON, June 12.—A report in favor of giving Colonel H. L. Moore, democratic contestant, a seat in the second Kansas district, held by Funston, republican, was made by the subcommittee of the house committee on elections today.

More Time For Pendergast. CHICAGO, June 11.—Additional complications may arise in the case of Assassin Pendergast. Judge Chetlin is not sitting in the criminal court, and the case came up to day before Judge Payne. When the continuance agreed upon was submitted to him he refused to enter the order, saying he knew of no reason why the continuance should be granted. The matter went over temporarily. Pendergast insisted on making a speech. "I am an defendant here," he said. "I want no continuance. The question to be determined is my guilt or innocence, not my insanity. Murder is a malicious taking of human life; that crime I have not committed." The prisoner was thrust into a chair by the bailiffs.

MAY RESULT SERIOUSLY. PRINCETON, Ky., June 11.—Caseyville and Little precincts in Union county, are in the throes of intense excitement over an attempt of Captain C. T. Blackwell and his agents to enforce the collection of a railroad tax, and as a consequence violence is freely talked of. The tax is for the liquidation of the bonds of the Madisonville and Caseyville roads, which will matured interests, amounting to $275,000. The tax was voted 25 years ago, but the road was never built, the railroad welling the bonds and giving nothing in return. The taxpayers refuse to pay the bonds.

Many efforts have been made to collect the tax, but without avail. The county was without a sheriff during all this time, until four years ago, when J. S. Blue, qualified, but was removed for refusal to make levies to meet this tax. Captain Blackwell, a Union county man, then qualified. A meeting of the taxpayers has been held, resort to every known legal expedient, and if this fails, then violence. The districts are composed of law-abiding citizens, but they say they will never submit to this unjust tax. The bonds are nearly all held by A. J. Preston of Davenport, Ia.

ELMIRA, OREGON, April 6th, 1894. DR. PAUL GRANT, President O. W. R. Mfg. Co., Portland, Oregon.

Sir—I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to you for the great benefit I received from using your medicines. I have been a constant sufferer for Twelve Years with spinal trouble and the complaints so peculiar to women. I have doctored with several different doctors, and from some of them I received temporary relief, but from none of them have I received the relief I have from using your remedies. The
