Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893:

S. B. MED. MFG. CO.,
Dufur, Oregon.

GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 35 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all nervousness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are,
Yours, MR. ASD. MISS J. F. FORD.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the spring work, choose the system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses a week.

Send under positive guarantee and under a positive guarantee 30 cents per bottle by all druggists.

"Oh, woe to me," he cried aloud, "oh, woe to me for a chump's big raw deal! I have been an eighteen cent chump. I thought the people knew me well, my newspaper ad, I stopped, and now I am left with a lot of goods, and my business is ruined. I've been here for years and years, I've grown with the town; but soon as I quit my newspaper ad, my business tumbled down. If it's not too late, my trade I'll reclaim. I now propose to strive, by putting my ad. in the GUARD again, to let people know I'm alive."

Daily Guard, June 15.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—Robt. M. Day had a narrow escape from a serious accident yesterday. He cut a foot and his hand was about 16 inches in diameter and 50 feet long, at his fruit stand east of town and the same fell on him across the thighs pinning him to the ground. Luckily his brother Charles was near at hand and with a pry bar succeeded in releasing him from his perilous position. For some time after he was liberated he was unable to walk, the lower portion of his legs for an hour or more being useless, as if paralyzed. However he has now recovered the full use of those necessary appendages.
