The Aphis in Douglas County.

The wheat aphis was first noticed in Douglas county and as that section is about two weeks earlier in growth and harvesting of crops than this valley, the condition of the pest there will be watched with interest by our people. It appears they are developing into winged insects and leaving the wheat fields in some sections of the Umpqua. The Plaindealer of June 25 says:

"A large number of farmers were in town Saturday, and as a consequence 'the little green bugs in the wheat' were discussed thoroughly. Opinions concerning them differed greatly, and while some thought the wheat crop would be injured by the insects others were of the opinion that their visitation would result in no injury. The insects are provided with wings, which they are using to good effect in some sections, inasmuch as they are flying away from the wheat field as soon as their wings are fully matured. It appears that no damage has thus far resulted, but how so many bugs can be on a head of wheat without causing more or less damage is more than they can understand, and consequently they contend that later in the season the damage caused by the bugs will show itself."

Great Northern Doctor's Bill.

Telegram: A physician has forwarded to General Passenger Agent Whitney,, of the Great Northern, a unique claim against the company. When a recent strike was on a train was delayed. A woman on board gave birth to a son, who was named after the president of the American Railway Union, Eugene Debs. The physician who attended on this interesting occasion now wants the company to settle his bill for services.

Daily Guard, June 25.

A NOVEL STRUCTURE.—A miniature residence on wagon wheels was to be seen at the court house square today. It was built the width of the wagon, about 10 feet long, 7 feet high, and covered with canvass. Panes of glass give light, and through one of them could be seen growing plants. The proprietor, with his wife and child, came from the lower portion of the valley and are moving to California. They cook, eat and live in the novel structure.

Daily Guard, June 25.

FINGER AMPUTATED.—Oscar Parsons had the middle finger of his right hand amputated by Dr. Loomis this forenoon. The finger was bitten some time ago and blood poisoning followed. When this was cured the finger shriveled and became almost useless.

Grants Pass has reduced its liquor license one half; formerly $800, now $400, with a $200 license for beer.

Mr. Loughmiller arrived home today from a trip through Washington.

The wheat aphis is reported as present in fall wheat all over Western Oregon.

Miss Veina Adair has secured a position as teacher in the Portland public schools.

E. P. Coleman took a run up from his Portland jury duties to visit his family over Sunday.

Mrs. John Henderson is dangerously ill at the family residence on Seventh street near Willamette.

Rev. Beck is improving his residence property on Ninth street next to the Journal office today.

Mrs. J. G. Gray went to Albany this morning to visit at the residence of her daughter for a few days.

O. C. Riches, of Portland, who spent several days here last week visiting friends, has returned home.

I. L. Campbell went to Portland on the Sunday morning overland, and will probably return tonight.

Dr. J. E. Payton, formerly of this city, is reported seriously ill at his home in southern California.

A marriage license was issued to T. J. Lewis and Mrs. M. C. Campbell from the county clerk's office today.

The Northern Pacific trains are now arriving in Portland on time, the flood having subsided so the railroad track can be used.

Miss Martha Wright, who has been visiting relatives here, went to Portland this morning to spend a few days.

Mrs. A. A. Cattron, of Monmouth, and Mrs. Clodfelter, of Independence, are visiting at the residence of Dr. T. W. Harris.

T. M. Martin, of Florence, visited his son Carey yesterday. He was on his way to Roseburg to serve as juryman in circuit court.

Chas. Wintermeier, of the class of '95, started for his home at The Dalles this morning. He expects to return to the university next year.

A tug loaded with 63 excursionists sunk just outside of New York harbor yesterday. Three bodies were recovered and 21 persons are missing.

Assessor McPherson expects to finish the field work of the 1894 assessment during the next two weeks, and will then commence work on the roll.

D. E. Rice and David Butler left for their Siuslaw ranches this morning, where they will spend some time cutting and splitting rails, grubbing and making hay.

Several university graduates, class of '94, left for their homes this morning: Miss Melissa Hill, of The Dalles, Miss Amy Powell, Astoria, and E. M. Underwood, for McMinnville.

A. F. Hurd, of Florence, came up on the overland Sunday morning, on his way home from attending the A. O. U. W. grand lodge at Portland. He left for his home this morning.

Sol M. Stock, of Corvallis is in town making arrangements for the appearance of the Corvallis Dramatic Club in "Damon and Pythias" at the opera house the evening of July 3d.

The steamer Eugene left on her return trip about daylight Sunday morning. She took 18 ton of oats, consigned to Portland by E. C. Smith, and a small quantity of other freight.

I. Nelson Greene, some local celebrity clever with the pencil, has neat sketches in Osburn & De Lano's and J. S. Luckey's windows illustrating what may be expected at the Walterville Fourth of July celebration.

Sheriff Noland has about completed the work of levying upon the property for the 1893 delinquent tax. Collections have been made closer than usual and Mr. Noland will go out of office with a very small delinquent tax list to his credit.

W. L. Brown, who was arrested last week at Deer creek with three horses in his possession, that had been stolen from Albert Adams and Charles Decker, had accumulated various other articles that are being gradually restored to their rightful owners. Brown's list included everything from a pair of dog skin gloves to a quantity of groceries.

Salem Statesman June 26: Geo. F. Smith and F. P. Spalding leave today by private conveyance for Foley Springs, Linn county, where they will remain for a short four weeks.

Our journalistic friends, Senator Alley, of the West, and Representative-elect Moorhead of the Times, are having a monkey and a parrot of a time through their respective papers.

The Albany Democrat has an interesting letter from the pen of Rev. Geo. W. Hill, who recently went to China as a missionary. It is dated at Siu Fu, China, and mailed on May 1, and hence was nearly eight weeks on the way.

The contractors are getting ready to commence painting the city hall and bell tower. The former needs it badly as it has not been repainted since built, nearly fifteen years ago. On the south and west sides the paint is almost entirely gone from the sash and siding.

Prineville News: Alex Davis, who owns the Finley ranch here, has turned loose about 200 head of young Webfoot cattle. He encountered little or no difficulty in getting them over the mountains, though the snow was very deep.

In Klamath county the unprecedented high water upon the meadow lands will make the hay crop very short this season. At Swan lake many of the claims located by homesteaders within the past few years will be under water all summer.

Salem Independent, June 25: About 11:30 a. m. today the Eugene landed at the upper wharf. She had aboard a large quantity of baled hay for this port. She will return tomorrow and will then probably make the last trip as far up as Eugene, and only run as far as Harrisburg. When this is done a time schedule will be arranged.

The hop vines in the Campbell-Walker yard, in the Judkins' bottom, show a surprising growth for hops planted the middle of April. Many of the vines in the upper portion of the yard have a growth of seven to ten feet. The entire yard of 24 acres is planted in potatoes.

Roseburg Plaindealer: The militia boys are as yet undecided as to where they will spend the Fourth. They received invitations from Oakland and Eugene.—There is to be a band contest at Eugene on the Fourth, and the K. of P. band is thinking some of going down and getting away with the first prize.

An exchange says that laborers on the Union Pacific, between Wallula and Portland, are paid $1.60 per day and board. Men must furnish their own blankets. A letter from the head of the laboring department says: "Send a big lot of men, good workers. We will furnish transportation to the point at which we want them to work."

The Sun Publishing Company, of Portland, was incorporated yesterday by John O'Brien, George Pope, Benton Killin, W. F. Osburn and E. D. McKee. The company proposes to publish daily, weekly and Sunday newspapers. The capital stock is $25,000, divided into 2500 shares. This is the paper that will possibly be started by the type setters recently thrown out of employment in the Oregonian office by the introduction of type setting machinery.

Albany Democrat: When the Man about Town came to Albany the smallest change was 10 cents; soon afterwards it dropped to 5 cents and nickels became very plentiful. Now several pennies are coming into use and they are gradually pushing their way into circulation, and yet they are not taken in general business transactions here. An interesting incident occurred in Albany yesterday. A new resident of Albany just from the East paid for a purchase with thirty cents in pennies and at another place purchased six cents worth of produce, all of which seems funny to an Oregon man; but it is eastern style.

Ashland Tidings: Klamath county teams began climbing the mountains toward the Rogue river valley in an animated way last week, and when the drivers arrived in Ashland it was learned that the people over there were nearly out of flour. Rancher John Gilem had about all the flour or good wheat left over from last year, and he set the price at $2 per sack, $40 per 1000 pounds. As flour was selling on this side of the mountains for $12 to $15 per 1000 pounds, it started the freight wagons. V. A. Dunlap, who came in today with several teams, reports the price at Klamath Falls now to be $1.50 per sack. Last fall and winter the Klamath ranchers fed all their surplus wheat to their hogs.

TUESDAY, JUNE 26.

Some of the farmers are cutting hay.

The water is off Front street in Portland.

Circuit court commenced in Linn county Monday.

This weather is too much like winter to be pleasant.

Sol Stock returned home to Corvallis this morning.

Darwin Bristow, of Cottage Grove, was in town today.

Detective Joe Day has returned to Portland from Chicago.

Painters have commenced work on the outside of the city hall.

Curtis Harris went to Cottage Grove this afternoon to visit relatives.

The tent caterpillar has attacked several hop yards in Marion county.

Strawberries are becoming rather scarce. Too much cold damp weather.

Mrs. L. Bilyeu arrived home this afternoon from a short visit at Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. George Handsaker, of Junction, were in town this afternoon.

Miss Carrie Matlock has accepted a position as saleslady in Matlock & Co.'s store.

Miss Gertrude Conser, daughter of W. S. Conser, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Albany has a wife beater. She deserves it if she continues to live with the brute.

G. F. Bullock has moved his soda works to west Eighth street, next to Miller's market.

It was estimated that 7000 people were in attendance at the Turner camp meeting Sunday.

F. A. Rankin returned last evening from a visit to Sodaville. J. P. Cheshire accompanied him home.

Miss Amy Powell, who recently graduated from the State University, is visiting Mrs. R. S. Bean at Salem.

A marriage license was issued from the county clerk's office today to Adam G. Grenz and Miss Maggie Burch.

Wm. Renshaw received a car load of beer from Milwaukee today. It came by the Southern Pacific route.

The Junior Endeavor Society of the Episcopal church will give a "Mother Goose" entertainment in the near future.

Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Snyder went to Salem this morning. They will attend campmeeting near there for a week.

The sheriff of Douglas county received $16,000 tax money Saturday. The delinquent list will amount to about $25,000.

Ed Test went to Portland this morning on the local, in response to a letter containing the information that his baby was very sick.

J. A. Haines and Will Church have returned from a visit at the midwinter fair and San Francisco. They report a pleasant trip.

A petition has been presented to Governor Pennoyer asking for the pardon of Arrington, the defaulting treasurer of Douglas county.

Hundreds of immigrants are passing through Klamath county from California and Nevada, en route to Oregon and Washington points.

According to the tally of Stock Inspector Fitzpatrick, Wasco county has 168,550 sheep. Young & Son, come first on the list of owners with 11,000.

The health committee is having the catch basins in the sewers cleaned out today. This work being attended to will remove any danger which might come with warmer weather.

Miss Stella Comstock, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Young, in this city for several weeks, returned to her home at Portland this morning. Miss Comstock has made many friends among our young people here, who hold her in high esteem.

A letter from Chas. Ehwegen, at St. Paul, Minn., says he has a position in a railroad office as recorder of foreign and freight cars. Short office hours and pay $45 per month with a prospect of a $10 raise in two months if his work is satisfactory.

Luther Rowland and W. L. Wright, compositors who held situations in the composing rooms of the Oregonian until the introduction of the typesetting machines, came up on the local this afternoon. Mr. Rowland learned his trade in the Journal office, and occupied a case in the GUARD office for some time. He will visit relatives in Eugene.

Aphis Here Before.

Albany Democrat: The wheat aphis that is causing considerable talk is not a new thing in Oregon; in fact it has been here for years. A man tells a Democrat man that he saw the aphis as early as 1878. It appears this year in larger numbers than usual, but it is probable will cause little damage to the wheat, particularly to the fall wheat. In the mean time some good weather is needed in the crop business.

This is not reassuring, as it will be remembered that 1878 was the rust year, when the wheat crop of the Willamette valley was almost entirely ruined. The wheat never looked better than in that season, in which rains continued until the 4th of July, when it turned extremely warm, causing all except the spring grain to be practically worthless.

"Damon and Pythias."

Helmet Lodge No. 33, Knights of Pythias, of this city, has made arrangements with the Corvallis Dramatic Company, to play Damon and Pythias, on the evening of July 3. Parker's opera house has been secured and a great success is anticipated. The play is in the hands of good amateurs and the company has received flattering press notices both at Corvallis and Independence, the only places where they have appeared.

Daily Guard, June 26.

SUIT FOR SERVICES.—I. D. Driver has sued J. B. Dunham in the justice court for $7.75 for services rendered. Dunham paid this all except the cost, for which Driver issued execution, and in consequence the sheriff's office is in possession of a young Jersey calf today that was levied upon to meet the costs. The sheriff and his deputies are hunting for a cow wet nurse.

At the Regents' Meeting.

The secretary having compiled the minutes of the last meeting of the board of regents of the University of Oregon, held here last week, we are enabled to furnish the following additional items of interest to our readers:

The merit being recognized by the regents and further supplemented by a communication signed by numerous alumni, the board conferred the degree of A. M. upon Prof. Luella Clay Carson.

It was decided by the board that no salaries in connection with the institution be increased during the ensuing year.

President Chapman and Prof. Hawthorne were appointed a committee to expend the money accruing from the Villard Hall library fund during the year, in the selection of additional books for the library.

On motion the matter of the corporation of the Laurean and Eutaxian societies was referred to a committee to consist of R. S. Bean and L. L. McArthur, to ascertain the best means of getting rid of said corporation and report to the board.

On motion it was resolved that hereafter no paper shall be published by the students of the university except the same be under the supervision of the faculty.

On motion two additional meetings of the board were provided for in each year, in addition to the regular annual meeting, commencement week. One to be held on the first Tuesday after the school year begins, and the other on the third Tuesday in January, at 2:30 p. m.

A communication from the faculty, supplementing a former request was laid on the table. It requested provisions for the conferring of degrees as follows: Only the degree of A. B. upon those students graduating from the classical course; that of B. S., those of the scientific; B. L. the literary and B. E. the English courses.

Florence Notes.

The West, June 22.

Fourth of July celebration at Acme.

Thomas Bailey is assessing the upper precincts on the Siuslaw.

On Tuesday the tug towed the schooner Mayflower into this river and she will load with lumber at Cushman's mill.

We ought to have a Methodist church in Florence. We predict a move will be made in that direction as soon as the stringency in business relaxes.

I. M. Francis, of Eugene, has moved his family from town to his ranch above the mouth of Wild Cat for the summer. They visited a few days at A. D. Reeves' as they went down.

Mrs. Stiles and Ethel Kenniston, of Point Terrace, returned this week from Eugene, where they have been visiting friends and attending the commencement exercises at the University.

Florence citizens have sent for a large bass drum and it is expected to arrive on the Roberts when she next returns from Yaquina. The drum will be used at the Acme Fourth of July celebration.

Messrs. Joel and Walter McCornack have commenced the erection of their large barn on North Fork. We are told it will be completed in time to store their extensive hay crop that will be cut this year.

Died.

Daily Guard, June 26.

At her home in this city, this morning at 4:30 o'clock, Mary A, wife of John W. Henderson, aged 34 years, 3 months, and 11 days.

The funeral will occur from their residence, on 7th street, between Willamette and Olive streets, Wednesday, the 27th, at 2 p. m., to the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Friends of the family invited to attend.

Deceased had been a sufferer with paralysis for a long time and yesterday she suffered an additional shock which proved fatal. She was a daughter of G. W. Duncan, who formerly resided in Lane county, and spent her girlhood years near Eugene. She was a niece of Mesdames John Stewart and Presley Comegys. While living in Eastern Oregon she married Mr. Henderson and about two years ago they moved to Eugene where they have since resided. The bereaved husband and other relatives have the sympathy of many friends here.

THE BALL GAME.

The Eugene and Springfield Boys Play at Stewart's Track.

The Springfield base ball nine played the Eugene club a hard game at Stewart's race track Saturday afternoon. The ground was in good condition and a number of spectators were in attendance:

| SPRINGFIELD. | | EUGENE. |
|---|---|---|
| J. Innis | c. | Owen |
| Swaggart | p. | Lawrence |
| C. Innis | 1b. | Griffin |
| Cochran | 2b. | Holden |
| Judkins | 3d. | Linn |
| Benjamin | s.s. | Higgins |
| Hundly | r.f. | Doyle |
| Gilstrap | c.f. | Luckey |
| Graham | l.f. | Shindolt |

The above was the makeup of the teams, C. Blaker, of Springfield, acting as umpire.

The score at the end of nine innings stood 12 to 27 in favor of the visitors.

FINED $10 AND COSTS.—The trial of F. M. Nighswander on the charge of taking rails from a fence belonging to R. A. Hollingsworth was held before Justice Thos. McCulloch, in Coyote precinct Saturday, E. O. Potter appearing for the state, and L. Bilyeu for the defendant. A fine of $10 and costs was imposed by the justice.

Daily Guard, June 25.

ON TIME.—The south-bound overland train commenced running on time last night. It has been from one to three hours late for the past ten days on account of waiting for the arrival of passengers by boat from the Northern Pacific.

FRUIT JARS.—The Eugene grocerymen received large consignments of fruit jars by the steamer Eugene. They now come in quite a convenient form, being packed a dozen to a case with slats between jars. After being filled housewives can pack the fruit away in the same cases.

U. S. GEOLOGICAL SURVEY.

A Party of Surveyors Working in This Vicinity.

Daily Guard, June 26.

A party of U. S. Surveyors have been in this vicinity for the past few days, making arrangements for a topographical survey of this section. W. T. Griswold, topographer, is at the head of the party, and is assisted by A. J. Barclay. The preparatory work has been the establishment of signal points. They have been located at Spencer's butte, near Irving and also several other points. They are used in ascertaining elevations and taking other measurements connected with the work of making a United States official map of this section. Some time since a similar party put in a season's work in Southwestern Oregon.

The party will commence in this latitude, work south, and, if possible, connect with the work formerly done in Southern Oregon. One party can complete the topographical work over an area of about 4,000 square miles in one field season. The work is then compiled and the drawings made during the winter season and the maps completed. These maps contain a vast amount of information especially valuable to the geologist and mineralogist. The map made by this party may possibly be procured by next spring.

Connected with the geological survey, and still engaged in wrok almost entirely different from the other party is Astronomer S. S. Gannett. Under his supervision a wire has been stretched from the W. U. telegraph office in this city to the State University observatory on Skinners Butte. He has placed his own telescope in position, also a chronometer. Connected with these by electricity is a machine which registers every two seconds of time recorded by the chronometer. The operator at the telescope corrects his chronometer time by the stars and after adjusting his apparatus here a connection is made over the Western Union wire with the San Francisco observatory and the register of this chronometer taken there. This enables a comparison to be made by which the exact longitude of this point may be ascertained. These comparisons will probably extend over a period of two or three weeks and the different results verified as fully as possible. After the longitude is determined observations will be made to ascertain the latitude. The observatory will also be used to some extent in assisting the topographical party with their work.

FIRE AT HARRISBURG.

The Saw Mill and Lumber Yard Are Consumed.

The Harrisburg Lumber Company's mill burned Saturday evening, being totally consumed.

The fire originated from a spark from the engine and was so far under way before it was discovered that it was impossible to check it. Several thousand feet of lumber and pickets were burned.

The loss was about $5000, insured for $2000.

The company will undoubtedly rebuild in a short time and may put in a water wheel as the motive power, which will remove the danger from fire. This is the second mill that has been burned on this site.

Mother's Gone.

Corvallis Times, June 11: Mrs. Sander's writ of "copenhagen" has arrived. Attorney McFadden brought it down from Eugene yesterday, but instead of it being a writ of habeas corpus, it was a reduction of her's and "Ittie's" bonds from $2,000, as fixed by the Monroe precinct justice, to $500, as reduced by Judge Fullerton, and with Wm. Mackay and Sol King as sureties. It answered all purposes, however, and at 7 o'clock last night, the grated door of the jail swung open and mother and son marched out and left for Long Tom. As the door closed behind them the new rooner looked mournfully around the sombre walls of the jail and exclaimed dejectedly, "What is home without a mother."

Shin Bone Removed.

Daily Guard, June 25.

Mr. A. Miller who resides two miles southwest of this city, submitted to a painful surgical operation Saturday. He was affected with decay of the tibia or shin bone of the right leg, and Dr. L. W. Brown assisted by Dr. Coe removed a large portion of it. The patient will undoubtedly recover.

Base Ball Notes.

The Springfield and Coyote teams crossed bats on the diamond west of the Springfield bridge Sunday afternoon. The score resulted 59 to 24 in favor of the Springfield boys.

The Coyote club and Cottage Grove second nine will play at Lorane next Sunday.

It is expected that arrangements will be made for a match between the Eugenes and Coyotes, at the Stewart track on the afternoon of July 8.

MARRIED.—T. J. Lewis to Mrs. M. C. Campbell, at Hotel Eugene, June 25, 11 a. m. Rev. G. A. Blair officiating. All of Lane county.
