NOT YET CONFIRMED.—The nomination of J. W. Bell for collector of customs at Yaquina, has not been confirmed. Though there were at least three applications for the position it is said there is only one application now on file at Washington. It is probable one or two other applications will have a hearing before the confirmation. The result will be watched with interest.

Message of Condolence.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The state department sent the following message to the United States ambassador at Paris:

"Eustis, ambassador, Paris, France: Express to the minister of foreign affairs the profound sorrow with which the president and the American people have heard of the atrocious crime which robbed a sister republic of its wise, humane and patriotic chief magistrate. Gresham."

The president sent the following message to congress:

"The shocking intelligence has been received that the President of France met his death yesterday at the hands of an assassin. This terrible event which has overtaken a sister republic, cannot fail deeply to arouse the sympathy of the American nation, while the violent termination of a career promising so much in aid of liberty, and in advancing civilization, should be mourned as an affliction to mankind.

GROVER CLEVELAND."

Englands Court in Mourning.

LONDON, June 25.—Following the precedent adopted at the time of the death of Garfield, the British court will be in mourning out of respect to the memory of President Carnot. The house of commons today adopted an address to the crown expressing sorrow, indignation and abhorrence at the murder of President Carnot and sympathy with France.

Carnegie and Frick for Targets.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 25.—Farragut post, G A R, last night adopted the following:

"Resolved, That we recommend the confiscation of the Carnegie plant as a military necessity, and the trial for treason of every person connected with this cowardly assault on the very citadel of our national liberty; that we recommend that in all future trials of armor plate from this plant, Carnegie and his man Frick be placed immediately behind the target until the test is completed.

"Resolved, That we call upon the press of the country to demand, in the name of all the people, such tests of material which enters into the construction of our national defenses as shall make it practically impossible for such treachery and scandals to occur; that if there be no constitutional law to bring such miscreants to the dungeon cell and gallows tree, the representatives of the press urge national legislation to the end that justice be done and the honor and glory of our flag be maintained."

Escaped From Jail.

CORVALLIS, Or., June 25.—Ed Scott and George Hall, who have been in the Benton county jail several weeks awaiting the action of the grand jury, the former on the charge of assault with intent to kill, and the latter for burglary, broke out about 5 o'clock this morning by cutting away a portion of the arch door at the entrance to the jail door, with a pocket knife. The alarm was given by a passer-by and soon after their departure the sheriff and posse were in hot pursuit. About 3 o'clock this afternoon, the fugitives were overtaken in a wheat field six miles west of town, and were captured without resistance.

"I do not Eat Pastry."

How often you hear this expression, and the explanation that usually follows: "I am troubled with dyspepsia." The explanation is not far to seek. In the past Lard has been used as the principal shortening in all pastry, the result—dyspepsia. The dyspeptic need no longer be troubled, providing

The Irrigation Age says the potato crop should be kept growing at an even pace, and not by fits and starts. The potato should keep its eyes on this item, and not get in too much of a hurry.

Universal sorrow prevails over the assassination of President Carnot. Had it been the autocratic Czar of the Russias, the murderer of thousands of defenseless men and innocent women and children, the feeling would be different.

The assassination of President Carnot of the French republic is a terrible affair. The deed may probably be partly ascribed to the growth of socialistic ideas which are fostered by the inequalities of condition of members of society.

Eugene V. Debs, President of the A. R. U. who is today the foremost man in the labor world is flatly opposed to the government ownership of railroads. He thinks it would break up the railway employees organizations and would create a monopoly against which opposition would be powerless.

Latest developments are that Santo the assassin was an anarchist and that the murder was committed in revenge for the execution of the anarchist Vaillant and others. They wage war on society as at present constituted, and perform the work assigned them without regard for their own or other lives.

The law passed by the last legislature of California, giving a bounty of $5 for each coyote scalp turned over to the several county clerks, has developed quite a business among people living near the boundary lines of the state. A debt of over $330,000 has already been contracted under the law, and it will reach over half a million before it can be repealed. Many Oregon and Nevada, as well as Mexican coyotes, have been paid for by California gold.

The London Live Stock Journal expresses its astonishment at results secured at the World's Columbian Exposition in the following language: The cow with the best individual record made almost seven times more than the worst of the seventy-five. When we take into consideration the fact that all the cows were doubtless selected ones, it almost passes belief that such a difference could exist. The thought naturally occurs: If in such a lot of selected cows one produces almost sevenfold more than another, what must be the difference in the ordinary farmers' stock throughout the country?

The Albany Democrat says the cause of the defeat of the democrats in Linn county is plain enough. A large number of democrats being dissatisfied with the administration at Washington, voted the populist ticket simply to rebuke it. This feeling of dissatisfaction was sorely aggravated by the financial stringency. Then there were scores of democrats, who, becoming angry at this scheme to reprove the administration by turning the county over to the populists voted the republican ticket to get revenge. If these two classes of democrats would have staid with their party it would have won. These democrats who voted the populist ticket did so, not because they are populists, nor are those democrats republicans who voted that ticket for those reasons given above. Both classes seeing the error of their ways, will be in active harmony with the democrats in the future. Already we hear in all directions those men expressing regret at their course, and openly declare they will never be caught in the trap again. Of course there is only one course for democrats to pursue, and that is to welcome these men again into the party.

CLOSSET & DEVERS, PORTLAND, Or.

Visitors who have returned from Portland report that city as having more stinks than the far famed city of Cologne.

The southerners are accused of skinning an occasional black rape fiend, but they have not the business tact of those Tewksbury brethren of Massachusetts, who are said to have made the pauper poorhouse pay handsomely by manufacturing the hides of dead paupers into boots, shoes, gloves and other merchantable goods.

U. S. Senator Stewart secured unanimous consent for the passage of the bill to amend the chapter of the revised statutes relating to mineral lands and mining resources. The most important of the amendments are: Changing the time when assessment work should begin from January 1, of each year to October 1; requiring that assessments on mines already located be performed before October 1, 1895, and reducing the usual amount to be performed before that date one-half.

Jacksonville Times: Thousands of democratic eyes are on Vice President Stevenson as a proper man for the democratic nomination in 1896 for the presidency. Through all of the harassing questions that have sprung up in the senate Mr. Stevenson has wielded an impartial gavel, and has done nothing to make enemies. To do this he has not been obliged to dodge or slight any public duty. His friends hope he will be able to get through the rest of the present congress and another without a mistake.

It is said that many of the residents of Portland who have the means and opportunity at hand will rusticate in the country during the heated term for fear that disease will be bred by the flood. Lane county can furnish several pleasant resorts. The hot springs of the McKenzie and Middle Fork are easy of access, rates are reasonable and no purer air or water can be found on the face of the earth. Game, fish and magnificent scenery are points in their favor. On the sea coast Florence is a pleasant resort for those who wish to get away from the beaten line of travel.

Those parties who fondly imagine that we are the only state where the Mongolian pheasant may be obtained, and who think we should play the philanthropist and rob ourselves that others may enjoy the sport of hunting this excellent game bird, will probably be surprised to learn that Mr. W. L. Gardiner, president of the Lumdale Protective Association, of Norwalk, O., offers in the American Field to furnish settings of eggs to gun clubs anywhere, from Mongolian pheasants. He says they have stocked their game preserve, and now "have more eggs than we can get bantam hens to set on."

San Francisco Examiner: The total of mortgages filed in the United States in the ten years from 1880 to 1890, mortgages on city property, town lots, farms and all included, about reaches the figures set by the alarmists for five states. The mortgages filed in this country in ten years numbered 9,517,747 and secured loans to the amount of $12,094,877,793. The amount of these remaining unpaid on the first day of January 1890, was $6,019,679,985. This is big enough sum, yet when compared with the $39,544,544,333 worth of real property found by the census takers in the whole country it is not an overwhelming burden.

The people of the United States are in danger of being placed in a false position if congress does not take speedy action to build the Nicaragua canal. Lieutenant Menocal says that the attention of both England and France has been drawn to the canal. The engineers of these two countries have looked over the plans of American engineers and have not only pronounced the project fensible, but estimated the cost much below the American estimate. From $60,000,000 to $75,000,000 is a very small sum to expend in opening a water way that will save 12,000 miles of ocean travel. While neither of these countries will dispute the right of the United States to construct the canal neither will be likely to wait much longer for a beginning to be made.

The Eugene city council for several years past has done splendid work in grading streets, for which it is entitled to much praise. There is a street however, upon which there is much travel, that has been almost entirely neglected. We refer to the street around the four public squares. These streets should be graded and graveled the entire width as they furnish about the only ground that can be used by farmers for hitching and feeding places. The property owners certainly cannot object to the expense as they are now using a considerable portion of the street for their private use. In the winter this street is a succession of mudholes while at present there is a deep disagreeable looking puddle covered with green slime in the rear of Mount's hall. The street committee should take a walk around and inspect the condition of this street.

Wood is being hauled to town in large quantities. The prices are lower than for a number of years.

Suffered Pain

ELEVEN YEARS.

Dear Sirs: For eleven years I suffered with a bad case of Salt Rheum, or Eczema, and was hardly able to move about. My doctor treated me a long time without doing me any good. A friend requested me to try Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root. I did so, and today feel very thankful for so doing. I received benefit from the first bottle, and kept on taking it until I had taken over a dozen bottles. The result is today I am perfectly well, and I can not say too much for Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla.

Short Hop Crop in Washington.

Puyallup Citizens: No market. Lice are not increasing, but growers ready to spray at any time.

Though the vines have made a fair length they are slow at arming owing to the lateness of the season. This is due to the constant cold rains and cloudy weather. The growth of this season has been made in about 15 days of good warm weather. Growers do not estimate anything like a full crop unless there is a sudden change of conditions.

News comes from all the districts of Washington and British Columbia, on the coast side of the mountains, that the cold late weather has kept the vines from making a good arming and as they have made good length there is little hope of arms growing of a size to insure a full crop. But half a crop is now expected, though the good, growing weather of this week may, if followed by propitious circumstances change things for the better.

Flood Damages at Vancouver.

Late news from Vancouver is to the effect that the waters of the Columbia have receded more than eight feet from the highest point of the rise, leaving debris and great quantities of wreckage everywhere as the present visible result. Some streets are in a bad condition, walks out of place, trees down, and drift strewn about. Clearing up goes on as fast as the waters give the people possession. The sawmills are in bad condition, and much work of cleaning and repairs will have to be done in all of them before a wheel can turn. The railroad trestle on the river front is all out of place, and must be practically rebuilt before any logs can be brought in. The amount of damage on the river front is hard to estimate, but it is hoped it will be much less than it appears now. The Sohns wharf and mill wharves do not seem much damaged. The Kamm wharf is probably a total wreck. The government wharves are little damaged.

PRAIRIE FIRE.—Pendleton E. O.: Quite an extensive prairie fire occured Thursday at Senator J. H. Raley's ranch on the McKay. It was evidently the result of carelessness on the part of some fisherman who was on the banks plying his vocation. Fifty acres of grain and grass were consumed, and an immense amount of damage was averted by the road stopping the progress of the flames. Had they crossed the few feet intervening, a large tract would have given the McKay crackers a taste of a common Dakota experience, and hundreds of acres would have been burned over.

THE ANNUAL FIZZLE.—Capital Journal: Judging from methods employed the state fair will again wind up with a big deficit to be made up out of the state treasury, instead of being a self-sustaining institution. THE WHEAT PEST.

J. W. Wimer, of Glide, Talks Very Sensibly About It.

GLIDE, Oregon, June 22, '94

EDITOR REVIEW: The new wheat pest has made its appearance throughout our country and probably the whole state or coast (this spring) is known as the grain aphis or (siphonophora avenae) it attacks the wheat first, generally the oats next and the green grasses later. It has natural enemies which to contend that may prevent its doing great damage to our grain crops. Chief among its enemies are little four winged parasitic flies and a various species of lady beetles. It is likely that the insects will do our crops a considerable damage this year, but their return next year will probably be met by an overwhelming force of the enemy. Upon careful examination I find they work upon the heads of the wheat principally, instead of the leaves as is their custom in older countries. Therefore we may expect greater damage. It brings forth living young and may become the ancestor of millions before autumn. There is no remedy; kerosene emulsions will destroy them but the difficulty attached to applying the spray will prevent us from working out our spite in this way.

Respectfully, J. W. WIMER.

PARDONED.—Governor Pennoyer yesterday pardoned from the penitentiary the following prisoners: S. F. Murphy, sentenced from Baker county February last to one year for embezzlement, as city treasurer, of the sum of $4,119; James Hards, sentenced from Jackson county, May, 1893, to a term of 15 years, for manslaughter; George Newbill, from Yamhill county, March last, to one year for grand larceny; Ed. F. Lewis, Linn county, March last, to three years for forgery; Georgia White and Jennie Morgan, from Portland, February last, to two years for larceny from the person of a Yakima county, Wash., farmer.

PLAINTIFFS WIN.—The case of Patrick Gleason, Jacob Levy and R. D. Chandler against the steamer Willamette Valley was decided against the defendant. Gleason will receive about $1000, Levy $1100, and Chandler, whose claim was for personal damages, about $500. According to the decision the position taken by the defense that on account of the boat being in the hands of the Oregon court a case could not be brought in California, does not hold good. This will revive the old suits, including that of D. R. Vaughn for $8000, nearly $100,000 in all.

THE SUPREME COURT.—Tuesday's Salem Journal: Judges Bean and Moore left for Pendleton this afternoon, where they will deliver a batch of opinions and return immediately. Judge Lord does not accompany them, as he retires next Monday. Judge Bean succeeding him as chief justice. He has a number of opinions to finish, which will then be submitted. Judge Wolverton will take his seat according to law next Monday. This will leave Wm. P. Lord, governor-elect, six months of well earned vacation to prepare for his promotion.

A WARNING.—Local sportsmen are objecting to the violation of the fish and game law. While it is lawful to catch trout at this season of the year, it is unlawful to sell them. Gross violations of this law occur almost daily in this vicinity. Fishermen from the McKenzie river bring in large strings of trout which are sold openly. We understand that a kick will be registered with Fish Commissioner McGuire, and an investigation impressed. This item should serve as a warning to the bold fishermen.

DEPUTY CLERK.—It is now announced that County Clerk-elect A. C. Jennings has selected F. L. Gilbs to serve as his deputy. Mr. Gilbs has for a time been employed in J. H. McClung's store, and is said to have top recommendations. He has been a resident of Eugene for nearly a year.

CONTRACT LET.—The contract for grading and graveling Charnelton street from Fifth to Fourth, and Fourth street from Charnelton to Lincoln, was let Monday evening to A. J. and F. B. Oliver for $105.05, their bid being $81.80 for grading and $23.20 for graveling.

PROBATE MATTERS.—Estate of Richard L. Robinson, deceased; inventory filed by executors showing real property to the value of $16,440 and $1624.50 personal property. On petition personal property was ordered sold to pay the debts of the estate.

PRESIDENT CARNOT ASSASSINATED.

An Italian Stabbed Him Near the Heart.

LYONS, France, June 25.—President Carnot, of France, was assassinated at Lyons Saturday evening about 9:30 o'clock. The assassin, an Italian named Santo, used a knife and stabbed the president near the heart. He died soon after midnight. The police had hard work to save the murderer from the populace, who would have torn him to pieces. There is great excitement in all portions of France.

Santo an Agent of Anarchy.

PARIS, June 25.—Deep sorrow, dismay and anger prevail throughout France over the cowardly assassination of President Carnot. Telegrams of sympathy are pouring in from all points. Newspapers of all shades of opinion deplore the assassination. Throughout France flags are at half mast and public buildings draped. Madame Carnot, accompanied by three sons, arrived at Lyons this morning. She proceeded immediately to the prefecture, where the body of the late president reposes in state. The death chamber was cleared and the family left alone. They remained a long time in prayer before the bier. Then the widow was led away by the sons, all weeping bitterly. Later the remains were photographed. It is stated Mme. Carnot desires the body embalmed as wishes it removed immediately from Lyons to this city, the body to lie in state in the chapel of the Elysee palace. The remains of the murdered man are clad in a dress suit and across the breast is the grand cordon of the Legion of Honor, of which, as chief of state, he was master. High officers of the president's military household and Sisters of Charity watched the remains throughout the night. The prefecture is surrounded by troops and a strong detachment is guarding the building in which Giovanni Santo, the assassin, is confined.

On the boulevards scenes of the greatest excitement have been witnessed today. The police had difficulty in dispersing the crowds of angry people who assembled at different points, calling for vengeance against the murderer and his supposed accomplices. Several Italian flags, displayed out of sympathy with France's loss, draped with crepe, were hooted at, and at least one torn into shreds. In every quarter fierce demonstrations against the Italian residents have taken place; nearly all the Italian cafes and restaurants have been closed. But if the feeling against the Italians is strong, the sentiment of hatred with which the majority regard the anarchists is still stronger. The murderer Santo has boldly asserted that he is an anarchist. It is reported that the police are convinced that the assassination of Carnot is the result of a plot.

The government will propose in the chamber that Carnot be accorded a national funeral.

Premier Dupuy arrived here from Lyons today. He announced he would meet the president of the senate and chamber of deputies this afternoon and afterward hold a cabinet council. At a conference of majority of ministers this morning it was decided to convene the congress at Versailles Wednesday, for the purpose of electing a president. It is believed ex-Premier Casimir Perier, now president of the chamber of deputies, has the best chance of succeeding the late president. Ex-Premier Lacour, president of the senate; Constans, Dupuy, Brisson, Constans and General Saussier are also mentioned.

The weapon used by the murderer was a long triangular blade of the stiletto pattern. Upon the blade are engraved the words, "Record of Lyons." The sheath of the weapon is red velvet, with red and black stripes.

Santo was born at Motta Visconti, northwest of Pavia, in December, 1844. He is a baker and was tried in Milan in 1892 for a branch of the press, but was acquitted.

Santo delivered anarchistic [illegible] of the vilest sort before going to [illegible] ertaid last year. There [illegible] seems much doubt that the assassination was the result of an anarchistic conspiracy to avenge the death of Vaillant and others.

Twenty detectives have been put in Cette, department of Herault, where Santo was recently domiciled, to track down his supposed accomplices.

Ed Eben, who clerked in this city for a few weeks recently, is now working in a cigar store in Portland, on Washington street.
