ADDRESS SAN FRANCISCO CAL.

At the Churches.
Daily Guard, July 25.

Owing to the fact that no preaching services were held at the Baptist and Christian churches yesterday the congregations at the other churches were fair in spite of the absence of so many at the summer resorts.

THE METHODIST CHURCH.
At the Methodist church a beautiful and impressive memorial service in honor of Mrs. Lucy Saunders, was held by the league, at 7:30. In the evening the house was well filled to hear Dr. McInturf on the great strike.

He took as a text, Acts 7-26: "Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?" We are furnished a brief outline of the sermon. He said: "We live in perilous times, and cool heads are needed. Broad, true manhood is in great demand at the head and in every great movement. This is an hour for sober, earnest thought. America is not a place to make money but to do good. Let the world feel that we will cease to be a dumping ground for every nation. Congress must enact some law by which differences between railroads and their employees may be settled. Business must not be paralyzed. Outside the gates of every manufacturing men must contract to work according to conditions specified. The law must be upheld—the government must live. Disregard for law in high places has produced the same in low places. Anarchism is at the top of society as well as at the bottom. The common people are going to speak and they must be heard. Labor must not, however, run the country. Its mistakes are disregarded for law, violence, false ideas of right. Arbitration must settle differences. A mediator is God's great plan.

"A strike costs too much. The greatest tyranny is the tyranny of one man like Debs. The strike cost California $3,800,000. From eight to ten thousand people have been thrown out of employment—many millions of property have been destroyed—thousands of animals perished and could not be removed. Pure Americans do not strike. America for Americans should be the cry everywhere. Anarchism must die."

PAVED WITH GOLD.—Grants Pass Courier: Few people are aware that the streets of this city are paved with gold, yet such is the case. A short time ago a lady walking along Sixth street noticed an object which excited her curiosity. She picked it up and took it to the bank and was informed that it was gold. It weighed 75 cents. She went back to the same place and on close inspection, found another piece, although smaller than the first. The gravel where the gold was found had been hauled on the street by team, taken from a bar on Rogue river near town. The bar has been located and prospects well.

ACTING FOOLISHLY.—Albany Democrat: An attempted case of suicide was reported to the Democrat, but an investigation failed to secure sufficient evidence in the matter to establish the fact. It was declared, though, that a very young girl had been acting very foolishly, and right here we would like to give several young girls of Albany the fatherly advice to quit acting foolishly, keep good company, don't run around on the streets except on business, and be careful of your conduct. A good name is better than great riches.

Mr. Millard was in Chicago when the President's proclamation was issued declaring that city under martial law. There was a little more "fun" in the city at that time than Mr. Millard is looking for, and he was really too glad to catch a west bound train. He is associated with Dr. Oglesby and Geo. Spurr in extensive mining interests in Bohemia.

A meeting is hereby called for all hop growers in Lane county. The meeting will be held at the Court house, in Eugene, Saturday afternoon, August 4th, at 1 o'clock. It is earnestly requested that every hop grower in the county be present, as business of importance will be transacted.

WM. MILLER.
A SEDUCTION CASE.—Osborn Plaintiff: Robert Rogge, aged about 21 years, was arrested Monday, charged with seduction under the promise of marriage, the complaining witness being Maude Wyatt, aged about 17 years. She came from Denver, Colorado, a couple of months ago, to make her home with her mother on Deer creek, and is of prepossessing appearance. The preliminary examination was held by Justice Hamilton Tuesday, and, as usual in such cases, was attended by a large number of interested persons. Rogge was bound over to the grand jury, and he was ready to answer the sum of $500 to answer before the grand jury, and readily furnished bail.

BASE BALL.—Cottage Grove Leader: The Roseburg nine has challenged the Cottage Grove team to play for a purse of $100, the winner to take three-fourths of the purse. The game will be at this place about the 15th of August. Roseburg will have to do a great deal better playing than they did in the game with Looking Glass last Sunday, or they will be the worst surprised athletes that ever stepped the diamond. Cottage Grove is "in it" as Eugene and Springfield have discovered, and now Roseburg will be in their wake.

STANFORD ALL RIGHT.—Capt Smith, of this city, has received advice from President Jordan, of the Stanford University at Palo Alto, California, that the institution has enough funds already at hand to secure the successful performance of the coming year's work. Stain With a Stone.

A report comes from the region of Lowell, regarding the killing of a cougar without a gun. Frank Blakely, aged about 27 years, who resides on the Middle Fork of the Willamette river, was out in an opening alone, with the exception of his dog, when he espied a half grown cougar up a tree. The limbs were easy of access and he climbed the tree, but it took a considerable amount of slaking to ground Mr. Cougar who was not to be scared easily. Once on the ground it ran from the dog escaping to another tree. Mr. Blakely followed it up and down several trees until he caught it at a disadvantage, he killed it with a rock. The age of the animal probably accounted for its not fighting back.

THE STAGE "HOLD UP."

The Story is Told by the Manager of the Stage Line.

PORTLAND, July 24.—The sensational story, printed in good faith in these columns last evening, says the Telegram, relative to the "holding up" of the Mount Hood stage, at Laurel Hill, and the murder of the stage driver by two highwaymen, proves to be a canard. The details as published were obtained from Leon Cohn, the manager of the stage line, who professed to have been informed of the crime by one Charles Dixon, a horseman, who rode from Salmon station to this city. Cohn acknowledged this morning that the story was made out of whole cloth, without the remotest foundation in fact. After relating the story to a reporter yesterday forenoon, he secreted himself, fearing that he might give himself away in what he should subject himself to a more searching interview. No motive can be ascribed to the fellow's conduct unless it was to gain a little cheap and unenviable notoriety; and if that was his purpose he has certainly attained the desired end, for to-day he stands in this community as a malicious liar. The lie is malicious, because it caused great anxiety in this city.

Cohn has succeeded in establishing a reputation not second to that of Ananias, which is not likely to stand him well in hand in a business way.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

Of the Stabbing Affray Near Harborsburg Monday Morning.

HARBORSBURG, July 24.—Bad blood between Vernon and Chas. S. Warner, brothers, resulted in an encounter yesterday morning about 6 o'clock, on the farm of Mrs. Sheldon Warner, ten miles southeast of here, in which Charles was severely stabbed in the breast with a pocket knife. Vernon, after stabbing his brother, fired two shots from a revolver, one passing through Charles's shirt. He then came here and gave himself up. He claimed he acted in self defense, although Charles was not armed, except with a pocket knife in his pocket. The examination is now pending. Deputy District Attorney P. H. Kealey, of Albany, represents the state, and G. W. Wright, also of Albany, is attorney for defense.
