GENTLEMEN.—On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are yours, MEL and MRS. J. F. FORD.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse the system with the Headache and Liver cure, by taking two drams twice daily. Sold under a positive guarantee. 50 cents per bottle by all druggists.

"He had been announced to preach in a small schoolhouse there, but no one attended, and he went to the hotel. While there, Aaron Hines, after whom the town was named, asked him if he was a minister. The young man replied, "Yes." Mr. Miller told him he was a minister. The conversation was brief, but cordial, and it is evident he was interested in the young man and a good deal of probability was indulged in by some of the rough men. One of them exclaimed, "Gosh pard! I'll stand by that every time," which caused great amusement.

MONDAY, JULY 30.

Beginning of Roseburg Picnic.

Roseburg Plateadoor: Rev. Mr. Miller, of the Methodist church delivered a sermon in Portland last week in which he gave an account of the early times in Oregon. He related how Roseburg picay got its early start as follows:

"He had been announced to preach in a small schoolhouse there, but no one attended, and he went to the hotel. While there, Aaron Hines, after whom the town was named, asked him if he was a minister. The conversation was brief, but cordial, and it is evident he was interested in the young man and a good deal of probability was indulged in by some of the rough men.
