Billed by a falling Limb. PORTLAND, Aug. 7. Gus Schuman, a German, oged about 23 years, met with a fatal accident about 8 o'clock this morning, near the Foster road, a mile or more east of Lent's In company with another man, young Schuman was engaged in sawing wood They had fell a tree and were sawing the trunks into the proper lengths. A number of tall trees were standing all around where the men were working. Suddenly and without the least warn-ing, a dead limb came down, and brains were spattered out. Death was instantaneous. The limb fell a diswas of excellent character and habits, and his death is deeply lamented. His parents reside near Lent's and are well known.
