A NEWPORT SCANDAL.-The Corvallis Times tells of the live times be ing had at the bay: A choice bit of scandal is going the rounds at New-port, and stage whispers and tiptos communications are just now in the air. Some of the real good people, in fact, are shocked. The event happened a week ago last Saturday night, when a party of ladies and gentlemen took possession of a popular hotel parlor. The blinds were pulled down and the gentlemen well under the influence of tarantular juice, to the pisno accompaniment of one of the ladies, enter tained their small audleace with the muscle dance and other high kicking evolutions. The orgies came to a sudden termination when one of the gen-tlemen, frenzied with wine and music thoroughly and scientifically demol-ished a lot of furniture and glassware. The party hardly meant to do anything harmful, but they have set many a tongue to wagging.
