An Insane Man Drowned.

Salem Journal, Sept. 17: Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock F. H. Alexander, of North Salem, found the dead body of J. W. Gearhart floating in the Willamette river one and a half miles below Salem near the Polk county side. He at once notified Coroner A. M. Clough, who brought the body to his undertaking rooms. Deceased was a patient at the asylum whence he had made his escape the 10 inst., and it is generally believed he committed suicide by drowning.
A jury was this morning impeached which rendered the following verdict: "That deceased came to his death by drowning in the Willamette river, and that no blame attaches to any person or persons."
Deceased was 55 years of age. He was a resident of Astoria, having been elected assessor of Clatsop county in 1892. After serving about one year he became insane from constant figuring. He was committed to an asylum at San Francisco, and after being released a short time became worse and was brought to the Oregon asylum.
His mother is now an inmate in the Oregon asylum, and insanity is said to be hereditary in the family. His father was owner of the Gearhart estate, where the famous summer resort is now conducted. He has always been an exemplary citizen.
Wm. Pohl, coroner of Clatsop county, came up this morning and will return with the body on the evening train. Mr. Gearhart was a member of the Masonic and A. O. U. W. orders, and a member of the Pioneers' association.

Sept. 14, 1894.
Harvesting all completed.
Hop picking is in full blast. John Schmutz finished his yard Tuesday.
E. R. Walker is putting up a house near his hop yard for convenience of his renter.
The item printed in the GUARD of last week, copied from the Corvallis Times, about J. M. Nelson will be condemned by every one in Lane county who knows Mr. Nelson. He is the last man to be accused of "skipping." Those who know him know that he did not defraud any of the Alsea people. He passed south sometime ago and visited here awhile with friends, going to Buehima to try to collect money due him from an Alsea man, and falling, started on his 700 mile journey "broken."

A 7-year old daughter of Frank Wilson was bitten in the cheek by a vicious dog belonging to John Martin, at Wenzel's dog yard. Dr. Searched dressed the wound and W. P. Lower took a turn with the dog. The child is doing well, and the dog won't bite another person. There are two or three more such dogs in this vicinity that are able and willing to kill a man if given a chance and they should be more tolerated than as many pet panthers.
Rev. Nesbitt of Cottage Grove delivered two able sermons here last Sunday morning and evening.
A party of young people came down from Cottage Grove Sunday expecting to attend camp meeting but were disappointed.

A FOOLISH FARMER.—Some men don't know what to do with money if they get it. The Telegram tells of a case: Joseph Wiggins, a farmer from Butteville, came to Eugene City Monday with a quantity of wheat, which he sold for $24 in hard coin. That night he put up at Mrs. Newsome's boarding house. Wiggins took the money, and placing it in one of his socks, took it to bed with him. As the night proved very warm, he moved to another room, forgetting his money in his room, however, burning in his room. The next morning when Wiggins went back to his room, the lamp had been put out and the sock and its golden contents were gone. Wiggins very naturally made a great "row" about his loss. Subsequently Mrs. Newsome and John Rankin, a renter for the house, were arrested charged with the larceny of the money. The case will be investigated. Wiggins has returned to Butteville sockless and moneyless, to meet the hop pickers whom the lost coin was intended to pay.

Saturday's Astoria Budget: Mr. Geo. Stevens leaves this evening for Eugene, where he will attend school this winter.

MARRIED.—In Lane county, Oregon, Sept. 16, 1894, by Hiram Wiggard, J. P., Thurston M. Deak and Mrs. Lillie R. Freeman, all of Lane county, Oregon. The GUARD tenders its congratulations.

FROM IRELAND.—Junction City Times: A Miss Graham arrived here Sunday all the way from Ireland to meet her future husband who lives some five or six miles west of here. She had been traveling for over two weeks and for some reason her friend was not here to meet her. She had a letter of introduction to the editor of this paper and refused to give any information as to herself or where she wanted to go until the letter was presented. She was properly cared for and the next day was among her friends. The wedding has not been celebrated yet. She was a fine looking girl and no doubt deserves a good husband.

LAW TO BE TESTED.—Klamath Falls Express: County Clerk Leavitt is going to test the salary law enacted by the last legislature, and the result will be of interest to every county in the state. He collected $57.75 for fees during July and August and declined to pay the same over to the treasurer, claiming he was entitled to the fees, whereas the law refused to allow him his salary. The matter will be carried to the supreme court.

THE HARRISBURG CASE.—A warrant of arrest was issued for young Brownlee for the killing of Miss Ross, but at last accounts he had not been arrested. He is with some relatives west of Junction City.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The county clerk issued the following marriage licenses late Saturday afternoon: David Hunter and Maggie Graham; John Doyle and Wilda Wade.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

Splendid weather for the state fair. The Willamette presbytery will meet at Turner October 1.
Studies were resumed in the university and public schools today.
The pay car visited Eugene this morning and now the depot employees are wearing smiles.
Hop pickers in considerable numbers have been passing through Eugene today en route home.
Two hundred invitations have been issued by the executive committee of the Oregon Press Association for its annual meeting in Pendleton Oct. 2, 1894.

A Harrisburg girl was called upon at school to write a sentence on the blackboard containing the word delight. This is what she wrote: "Where was Moses when the delight went out!"
Does advertising pay? Answer the following questions and judge for yourself:
1. Who makes "$3.00 shoes?"
2. What do "children cry for?"
3. What is "absolutely pure?"
4. What do "Millions now use?"
Riddle Enterprise: Our wife's brother, J. I. Jones and wife, of Cottage Grove, were guests of the Enterprise Wednesday. Mr. Jones is proprietor of the Cottage Grove saw mill and has been filling an immense contract for the Southern Pacific company this summer. He will furnish shingles for the Cow Creek bridge.

A big deed has been filed in several counties of 23 pages of closely written matter and is a patent from the United States government, conveying to the O. & C. R. Co. the title to 123,475.83 acres of land situated in Lane, Linn, Clackamas, Douglas, Polk, Marion, Coos, Tillamook, Yamhill, Washington, Lincoln and Benton counties.
The jury in the case of the state of Oregon vs. Prof. McFadden, of the Toledo public schools, after being out about 50 hours, returned a verdict of guilty. The defendant was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $50.
The case created great excitement in Toledo. Prof. McFadden had severely punished Coll Van Cleave's son, who was a pupil at his school, and was arrested for assault and battery.
Riddle Enterprise: Recent investigations prove without doubt that the silver prune crop of South Douglas county will be almost a total failure, from the peculiar fact that the fruit on the trees is too thickly set, causing the fruit to decay and fall off before it becomes fully matured. However this loss will be more than offset by the abundant yield of all other varieties.
Beautiful weather.
The bookstores did a good business today.
The weather gives promise of an old time fall.
The street sprinkler was out on the streets today.
The churches were generally well attended yesterday.
A man at Corvallis refused to pay a $1.90 bill. Costs, $6.25.
The M. E. conference meets in this city Wednesday afternoon.
Senator J. H. Mitchell has returned to Portland for a short visit.
Several students for the university arrived on this afternoon's train.
Herman Calef is learning the butcher business in Gillespie & Son's shop.
A grand harvest ball will be given at Harrisburg the evening of Sept. 21st.
A number of ministers arrived here this afternoon to attend the M. E. conference.
The horse "Black Alder" is expected to run in a race at the state fair this afternoon.
Ex-President Harrison will make a couple of campaign speeches in Indiana soon.
Fisher & Watkins shipped a car load of calves to Portland on last night's freight train.
The Deadwood boys sold a large number of fine McKenzie trout on the street today.
Prunes are now arriving at the cannery. The managers expect to start up next Wednesday.
Judge Risdon is storing a thousand bushels of oats in one of his store rooms on Ninth street.
The Oregon grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias will be held in the city of Portland October 9, 10 and 11.
Grocers in this city are now offering 20 cents per dozen for eggs. Would it not be a good idea for farmers to raise more eggs, butter and eggs and less wheat?

A lady was in town today soliciting money to pay an attorney and costs to compel her husband to turn over her only child to her. She seemed to be in great trouble and was very desirous of learning the whereabouts of the said husband.
Yesterday afternoon at about 1:30 o'clock, at Portland, on the sidewalk near the corner of Yamhill and Third streets, John W. Strong shot and killed Mrs. Mabel Calvin, of Worcester, Mass., and then shot and killed himself. Unrequited love prompted the double crime.

FROM IRELAND.—Junction City Times: A Miss Graham arrived here Sunday all the way from Ireland to meet her future husband who lives some five or six miles west of here. She had been traveling for over two weeks and for some reason her friend was not here to meet her. UNIVERSITY OF OREGON.

Daily Guard, September 17.
The State University, the leading educational institution in the state of Oregon, reopened for the school year of 1894-5, this morning at 10 o'clock, under the most flattering conditions. The registrations were much larger than usual on the first day of the school year, besides many will enter the college during the next few days. The professors and board of regents were naturally jubilant over the prospect. The building during the registration, have been placed in excellent condition. The day has been devoted principally to the work of registration and arranging classes. The regular class work will be resumed tomorrow.
The faculty is as follows:
C. H. Chapman, Ph. D., president; John W. Johnson, A. M., professor of ethics and Latin; Mark Bailey, Ph. D., professor of mathematics and astronomy; Thos. Condon, Ph. D., professor of geology and natural history; George H. Collier, L. L. D., professor of chemistry and physics; John Strain, A. M., professor of Greek and modern languages; Benjamin J. Hawthorne, A. M., professor of mental philosophy and English literature; Laella C. Carson, A. M., professor of rhetoric and elocution; Edgar McClure, A. M., professor of analytical chemistry; Prof. H. L. Mitchell, A. M., principal of business department; Philara E. Murch, A. M., tutor; Edward H. McAlister, A. B., tutor; J. R. Weatherbee, director of gymnasium.
The conservatory of music, Miss Mary E. McCormack, director, opened today with bright prospects.
The dormitory, under the management of Mrs. Kate S. Munra, has a large number of boarders.

A FATAL QUARREL.
A Young Girl Dies From a Blow on the Head.
Daily Guard, September 17.
An unfortunate accident happened at Davis' hop yard, under lease of E. C. Smith, near Harrisburg, Saturday, resulting in the death of Melinda Ross, a 10-year-old girl.
Our informant states that on the morning of that day a son of Mrs. Brownlee, of Eugene, aged about 19 years, was cutting down a small tree in the camp ground. Miss Ross interfered and a quarrel ensued, during which the Brownlee boy threw a small stick at the girl, striking her on the temple above the ear. It was a serious blow as she became sick, and grew worse until death ensued at midnight of the same day.
A coroner's inquest was held at 2 o'clock Sunday by the coroner of Linn county. The attending physician found on examination that a blood vessel had been ruptured by the blow, which was the cause of her death.
The parents of Miss Ross are residents of Creswell, having recently moved there from Chehalis, Wash. The remains were taken to Creswell for interment on the local this afternoon. It is an unfortunate affair but no one supposes that the lad had any thought of any serious result from the untucky blow.
A telephone message this afternoon stated that the Harrisburg constable went to the hop yard to arrest the Brownlee boy, but could not find him as he had been hid away by his mother.

SHOT BY A HUNTER.
Dick Marshal Will Lose an Eye From a Careless Shot.
Daily Guard, September 18.
Last evening about sundown as Dick Marshal was riding horseback, on his way to his home about 5 miles below Eugene on the river road, he was hit by a couple of stray birds shot from a gun in the hands of Geo. Saunders, a young man about 20 years of age, who was shooting at a pheasant.
Dr. McKenney was called and extracted one shot from Marshal's neck. The other shot struck an eye and lodged under the nose probably destroying the eyesight of one eye. Dr. McKenney did not deem it advisable to take out the second shot. Marshal's horse was peppered with shot, at least 40 being picked out of his hide.

A Model Hop Yard.
Daily Guard, September 17.
We doubt if there is a hop yard on the Pacific coast that equals the yield of the Wm. Neis yard, on the bank of the Willamette river a short distance above Springfield. There are 28 acres planted in hops, and on Saturday night, after only nine days picking, 350 bales were ready for shipment. It is expected to finish Tuesday with at least 580 bales. These bales will average 200 pounds each, a total of 78,000 pounds, or 2700 pounds to the acre. Last year this yard averaged 2500 pounds to the acre. Mr. Neis has the yard under thorough cultivation, sprays, and strips all leaves and runners from the body of the plant, so that it has not been troubled with lice or mould, and his hops are first class in every particular.
The yard is equipped with seven drying floors, and the hops are saved while in proper condition. This year he dried from 550 to 620 boxes daily. Mr. Neis will ship 100 bales to Portland Tuesday.

A BURLAR CAUGHT.—Saturday's Albany Democrat: Monday night the O. E. depot was robbed, as heretofore by taking the newly putted and being made. A new pane was put in, the putty not yet having hardened. Last night about midnight Policeman McClain discovered a man in the building and proceeded to take him into custody. The man claimed to have the consent of one W. Walden, who he was hunted up, and of course knew nothing about it. John Doe was then placed in the county jail for safe keeping and will be held there by order of Justice Freeken until the grand jury meets. Investigation at the depot revealed the fact that the man had entered by taking the newly putted pane of glass out, and replacing it, upon finding that there was nothing inside that he wanted. The policeman happened around just in time. When taken to Mr. Walden he was examined and a man looking and a very big revolver found in his coat pocket. He had his hand upon it and acted very much as if he might use it. It was taken away from him after some resistance.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Elmer, the 16-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Paine, was the subject of a serious accident at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Elmer and another little boy were playing in the yard when he went into the barn and entered the stall where one of the horses were standing, for the purpose of hiding his hat. The horse, although quite gentle and never of a vicious nature as far as known, for some reason kicked the boy several times, breaking his right leg near his joint, breaking the right side of the collar bone, and cutting his head somewhat. The boy was carried into the residence and Drs. Paine & Kuykendall set the broken bones and knicked the wounds. The little sufferer is bearing his injuries with great fortitude, and at this writing is getting along nicely.

PARDONS AND REMISSIONS.—Governor Penoyer yesterday pardoned Frank J. Wilson, who was sentenced from Linn county, March 23, 1892, for the crime of burglary for a term of five years. His pardon was recommended by the district attorney who tried the case. The governor also exercised executive clemency in the case of Chas. V. Snow, who was convicted of the crime of assault and sentenced to pay a fine of $500. The prisoner was confined in the circuit court of Baker county last June, and upon the recommendation of the district attorney $225 of his fine was remitted.

BARN BURNED.—A good sized barn, belonging to Edward Bosquet, about seven miles west of Junction, with the contents was burned to the ground last Friday morning between 2 and 3 o'clock. It will be remembered that her husband, Edward Bosquet, was burnt over by the justice of the peace in 1893. His pardon was recommended by the grand jury, a few weeks since, on the charge of having threatened to burn a barn belonging to his wife.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—The county clerk issued the following marriage licenses late Saturday afternoon: David Hunter and Maggie Graham; John Doyle and Wilda Wade.

YOUNG BROWNLEE DISCHARGED.
The Killing of Miss Ross at Harrisburg Purely Accidental.

Daily Guard, September 18.
Young Brownlee was arrested west of Junction yesterday morning by Constable McClain, on the charge of manslaughter for the killing of Miss Ross at the Davis hop yard, last Saturday evening. He was taken to Harrisburg in the afternoon and given a preliminary examination before the justice of the peace, who, upon hearing all the testimony, ordered the boy discharged from custody, as the evidence plainly disclosed the fact that the killing was purely accidental. Thus ends the unfortunate affair.

Personal.
Daily Guard, September 18.
Mrs. Ross went to Salem this morning.
Kola Neis went to Salem this morning.
Commissioner Callison was in town today.
Roadmaster Wait, of the S. P. R. R., spent today in Eugene.
Mrs. Minnie Washburn returned home from Clatsop beach this afternoon.
Rev. N. Clark, of Spokane, Wash., arrived here this afternoon to attend conference.
Hon. Henry Gilfry went to Creswell this afternoon. He will attend the state fair tomorrow.
Mrs. Farley and two children left this morning for Sprague, Washington, where they will hereafter reside.
Miss Nora Miser, who has been spending the past month at the bedside of her cousin, Mrs. A. V. Peters, returned to her home at Glendale this morning on the early train.
Charles E. Wolcott writes from Medford Sept. 17th to this office saying he would arrive in Eugene in three or four days with his wife and little baby. He will resume his old position on the GUARD.
Hon. H. H. Gilfry, of Washington, D. C., reading clerk of the United States senate, arrived here on last night's train from the north, on his annual visit. He will be in Lane county for several days.
John Diamond and John Holt, of Coburg, left Sunday on a four month's trip to the East. Mr. Diamond will visit relatives in Ohio, and Mr. Holt will go to Little Rock, Arkansas, then make a tour through several of the southern states.
Mr. J. E. P. Withers, wife and daughter, returned Monday from a two-months' trip to Eastern and South-eastern Oregon. Mr. Withers reports dull times in that section, stock and wool being a low price. They went by the McKenzie route and returned by the Military road. On crossing the summit Sunday, there was about eight inches of thin snow, which was melting fast. Mr. Withers has somewhat improved in health.

STILL SLAUGHTERING DEER.—Mr. S. Powell, of California, who has been up the McKenzie river, and in the Cascade mountains on a hunting trip returned here last night. He informs us that in traveling along the summit of the Cascade mountains for a distance of thirty miles southward from the Foley Springs innumerable Warm Spring Indian camps were passed and in the same thousands of doe and fawn skins were hanging up drying. He rightfully thinks this an outrage that should not be permitted, and if this is continued the deer will soon be annihilated in this state. We call upon the State Game Warden to take action in this matter.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair.
DR. PRICE'S
CREAM BAKING POWDER
MOST PERFECT MADE.
A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The Eugene public schools reopened this morning with a good attendance. We were unable to obtain the exact number of pupils present.
PRUNES.—Salem Journal: E. H. Rhodes, of Jefferson, is shipping several car loads of prunes. He is buying all that is offered him at a little more than 50 cents per bushel, besides giving work to some 25 of our young people, the money for which is much needed just now.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—At noon today 70 new students had been enrolled at the State University, and more are expected during the month. This is a far larger number of new students than ever before in the history of the university, and naturally pleases the faculty, board of regents and people of Eugene. The state university has been thoroughly advertised in several ways during the several months past, resulting in this large increase.

BANDON RECORDS.—Mr. Chas. Bailey while on his way up to the beach last Wednesday, discovered a monster devil fish stranded on the beach about five miles below Bandon. Its longest tentacle measured 24 feet and its body was over four feet in width, giving the monster a spread of 32 feet. It is believed to be the largest specimen of the species ever found on the Pacific coast.
Roads are in a splendid condition now.
