

OREGON M. E. CONFERENCE.

Daily Guard, September 21. Last night Dr. Keen preached on "Seek ye the Lord," and at the close of his most pointed and forcible words...

The order of the day for 11 o'clock was then taken up, viz: Voting on proposed amendments to the Discipline. First—Shall there be an equal number of lay and ministerial representatives...

Junction Items.

Times, Sept. 22. Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Bonny, September 18, a son. Harry Sanders and Sadie Driskill will represent Junction at the State University at Eugene.

Creswell Casualties.

Sept. 20, 1894. The second assessment of road work begins here today. If the good weather continues the hop yards will be picked this week. H. C. Hunter's new hall is quite an improvement to our town. He has finished painting it and will soon be ready for occupants.

Coburg Items.

Sept. 20, 1894. Fine weather. Farmers are busy hauling grain to the warehouse. Mr. John Macy and wife are visiting relatives at Yaquina City.

THE BOHEMIA DISTRICT.

Much Work is Being Done There. Roseburg Placidaner: Deputy Sheriff Shipley returned Tuesday evening from Bohemia. He went there to levy an execution on the Annie mill and property for wages due the laborers.

They'll Enjoy Themselves.

Pendleton E. O.: A meeting of the committees from the Commercial Association and the local press met Monday evening at the Association rooms.

A Society Event.

Jacksonville Times: Miss Carrie Beekman gave a handsome social at her residence on California street Wednesday evening, in compliment to her young cousin, Misses Mae and Stella Dorris, a Eugene, who are paying Jacksonvillians at present.

Probate Matters.

Estate of Wm. Palmer, deceased; Monday, Nov. 5, 1894, at 10 a. m., set for final settlement. Estate of R. B. Cochran, deceased. Probable value of estate, $12,000.

The Public Schools.

The enrollment in the public schools of this city for the beginning of last year and this year, was as follows: 1893, 1894. Central school..... 218. 270. Geary school..... 135. 170.

Loss of Life not Yet Known.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—Dispatches received today from Shanghai say that the Chinese fleet engaged in battle, fought off the mouth of the Yalu river, consisted of 12 warships and four torpedo boats.

An Official Dispatch.

TOKYO, Sept. 20.—An official dispatch from the headquarters of the Japanese fleet says the latter at 1 o'clock, Sept. 16, met 11 Chinese warships and six torpedo boats.

The Ping Yang Battle.

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 20.—Particulars received in regard to the battle of Ping Yang show that the Japanese lost only about 100 officers wounded and 200 soldiers killed.

Chinese Admiral Blamed.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Times commenting upon the Japanese-Chinese war, says the Chinese admiral by inactivity has handed over Corea to Japan, and occasioned the loss of the only trained force at Li Hung Chang's disposal.

The California Militia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—Adjutant Allen was examined before a military court of inquiry today, as to what he knew about the Sacramento campaign of the National Guard.

Died.

Daily Guard, September 21. In this city, this afternoon, at 12:30 o'clock, Mrs. Elizabeth H. L. Skinner, widow of the late Judge A. A. Skinner, who was at one time circuit judge of this judicial district.

New Suits.

The following suits have been commenced in the circuit court of this county: S. H. Edwards vs Samuel Lucas, et al; foreclosure. Judgment is asked for $630 and interest.

Real Estate Transfers.

COUNTRY. Geo B Kintzley to T D Edwards 50 acres in Tp 17 S, R 3 W; $2000.

Escheat Money.

The district attorneys of Oregon have received instructions from Gov. Penneyer to file a bill in equity against every banking institution in his district, called a discovery.

WHERE IS HE.

A dispatch from Burns reads: Much concern is being expressed as to the whereabouts of William Harvey, who left here two months ago with a light wagon for Albany.

McMinnville Register.

Boardman, pastor of the Baptist church at Eugene and a former student of McMinnville college, will preach at the Baptist church in this city on the coming Sunday, afternoon and evening.

Albany Democrat.

Messrs. Stone and Bonner, representing a syndicate of Montana contractors, who are investigating matters with a view to purchasing the Oregon Pacific and extending it eastward were in Albany yesterday and went to the front to look over the field.

Considerable prospecting seems to be going on this year upon Upper Rogue river and tributaries.

Early this season Messrs. Aubrey and Moore found good pay upon the river, and have just returned from a couple of months' work there. Frank and Henry Fry have also found a rich crevice, which will take them several months to work out, and which has paid $2.75 to the pan so far.

Portland Telegram.

A dispatch received from San Francisco states that the state central committee of the people's party of California has extended invitations to Governor Penneyer, of Oregon, and senators Jones and Stewart, of Nevada, to stump the state for the populist ticket.

The government weather bureau predicts showers.

The M. E. conference will not adjourn until Monday morning. Major Christian, of Lakeview, is in Eugene on a visit.

There are 416 schools enrolled in the Eugene public schools now.

Mrs. Jasper Wilkins, of Coburg, took a premium on an exhibition of cheese at the state fair.

Telephone rates in Seattle have been fixed at $5 per month in offices, and $3 in residences.

A gentleman, well dressed, was noticed this morning on Willamette street, using a buff for a collar. He evidently had been having a night with the boys.

Bob Johnson has at last received his commission as postmaster of Corvallis. He expects to take charge of the office October 1. We predict he will make an excellent official.

McMinnville Register: Harry L. Boardman, pastor of the Baptist church at Eugene and a former student of McMinnville college, will preach at the Baptist church in this city on the coming Sunday, afternoon and evening.

Albany Democrat: Messrs. Stone and Bonner, representing a syndicate of Montana contractors, who are investigating matters with a view to purchasing the Oregon Pacific and extending it eastward were in Albany yesterday and went to the front to look over the field.

A double head would be proper for an item like this, but our citizens are tired of double headed railroad items and are waiting for action.

Considerable prospecting seems to be going on this year upon Upper Rogue river and tributaries. Early this season Messrs. Aubrey and Moore found good pay upon the river, and have just returned from a couple of months' work there.

Frank and Henry Fry have also found a rich crevice, which will take them several months to work out, and which has paid $2.75 to the pan so far.

Another rich strike of gold quartz has been found at the forks of Mule creek, and other good prospects have been uncovered.

Portland Telegram: A dispatch received from San Francisco states that the state central committee of the people's party of California has extended invitations to Governor Penneyer, of Oregon, and senators Jones and Stewart, of Nevada, to stump the state for the populist ticket.

The dispatch adds it will probably that Penneyer and Stewart is acceptable the invitation, but it is doubtful if Jones will favor the idea.

Governor Penneyer said to a Telegram reporter that he had not yet received the invitation and declined to say if he would accept it.

Miss Fanny Young is visiting at Salem.

W. C. Myers, of Ashland, is in Eugene today, going on the local train.

J. O. Booth, a prominent citizen of Grants Pass, visited in Eugene today.

Mrs. Spicer, who has been visiting in Salem, has returned to her home in this city.

Attorneys Bilyeu and Skipworth went to Junction City this morning on legal business.

Miss Ada Sharples went to Hillsboro this morning, where she will teach school during the winter.

Dr. B. F. Royle, of Junction City, is spending the day in Eugene. He will leave on his trip to Europe next Thursday.

Gen. W. H. Odell and wife, of Salem, arrived here this afternoon to spend a few days and to attend the M. E. conference.

Rev. G. W. Irwin, the newly-elected superintendent of public instruction, arrived here this afternoon to attend the M. E. conference.

Rev. H. L. Boardman went to McMinnville today and will remain over Sunday. His pulpit here will be filled by one of the visiting divines.

Roseburg Placidaner: W. W. Haines, the Eugene tanner, who has been buying hides here for the past few days, went down to Oakland this morning.

Dr. Edward Bailey, a son of Professor and Mrs. Bailey, has recently been appointed professor of surgery in the Hong Kong medical school and superintendent of two English hospitals in that city.

C. H. Shumate and wife, who have been visiting their son, J. W. Shumate at Waltherville, left for their home at Pueblo, Colorado, this morning. They speak highly of the Willamette valley.

Chief Justice R. S. Bean, of the Supreme court, with his three oldest sons, Condon, Ernest and Ormond, left on this morning's stage for his annual visit at the home of his mother at the head of tide, on the Siuslaw river. They will be gone ten days or more.

Cottage Grove Items.

Leader, Sept. 22. Miss Belle Lincoln left this city Saturday for Monmouth, where she will attend the Normal school there.

J. B. Cooley, H. H. Veatch, L. C. Lea and Charles Whitsett left here Sunday to attend the State Agricultural college at Corvallis.

School commences in Cottage Grove next Monday. J. E. Love, A. B., principal, Mr. Wm. McQueen, Miss Rose Hanson and Mable Wynne, assistants.

Wm. and J. P. Curran have returned from their hunt and trip for recreation near the Deschutes. They caught over 4000 trout and brought some home with them.

Miss Underwood after a very pleasant vacation, spent with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whipple of this city, returned to her duties as teacher in the public schools of Cottage Grove, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davis came down from Bohemia the first of the week. Mr. Davis has sold out his interest in the Bohemia Milling & Mining Company. He has been supervising the business of the company in developing the mines the past two summers, but Mr. Music takes his place now. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have returned to their home at Los Angeles, Calif.