Feeding 2,000 Cattle.

La Grande Chronicle: "M. S. Fox, an Eastern gentleman is conducting an enterprise of great benefit to this vicinity, says the Union Republican. He is feeding over 1,000 head of cattle on the Nodine ranch four miles northwest of Union. These cattle were purchased in this section and cash paid for them, but this is not the only benefit. It comes to the community from the work of this gentleman. An enormous quantity of hay and grain, the product of Grant County, is being fed to cattle. Eleven tons of mill feed is now fed each day, besides a liberal supply of hay. The feed is all bought at the Oregon Roller Mills in Union, and for some time past they have been hauling from this mill $200 worth of feed a day. The same party is also feeding between 500 and 600 head of cattle at North Powder. The feeding was commenced November 10th, and will continue until about the 1st of April. A large number of hogs are also being fed at the Nodine ranch.

Snow in the Mountains.

Daily Guard, December 21.
There is considerable snow in the mountains of the coast range already and more is falling right along. Mr. Stevens who started over horses to inform Fred Popoff who lives in the mountains near Florence of his father's death, was unable to get through. On the divide of the Lake Creek road he found about one foot and a half of snow and it was still falling, and as he would have had to leave the road and go into the mountains, thought it unadvisable to proceed, as there was considerable fallen timber. It snowed at Hah-nigh before last night, pretty heavy. It has been predicted by the "Kings" that a rather severe winter, so no surprise need be occasioned if it turns out, for there is plenty of time yet.

"A Turkish Bath."

Daily Guard, December 21.
Manager Parker was fortunate in securing so breezy and catchy a little skit as the one produced last night by merry little Marie Heath and her jolly company of comedians. The plot, if indeed there is one, is hardly discernible through the innumerable funny incidents that follow each other in quick succession. The singing of the troupe was excellent and the dancing was also good; and as a fun creating combination, are a deserving company.

LAND DECISION.—A declaration of residence at a specified place, for the purpose of voting there, includes a subsequent claim of residence, at the same time at another place, in order to secure title to a tract of land under the homestead law. Acts of settlement, induced by knowledge of an impending contest, and the signing of the requisite affidavits with the requisite elements of the homestead law. An affidavit of contest should set forth a definite charge, which, if proven, will warrant cancellation of the entry in question.

AN IMPROVER.—Last Sunday a nice-looking and apparently gentlemanly young man, with a burnt-umber complexion appeared at one of our churches and gave out the information that he was an Assyrian who was in this country standing with the intention of preparing himself as a missionary to go back to his native land. Naturally he was welcomed by the good people, who made much of him. Also, for the frailty of the human mind! In the afternoon positive evidence was produced showing him to be a pretender. When confronted with the charge he confessed it, and stated that he was a peddler. He was a shrewd and intelligent young man and distinguished himself in the morning Sunday school by his information and the excellent points he brought out on the lesson. And when asked to lead in prayer responded in his native tongue with what was supposed to be the Lord's prayer, but whether it was or not is now only a matter of conjecture.

Chamberlain's Eye and Elini Ointment.

A certain cure for Chronic Eye Eves, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairie Bites, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatment had failed. 25 cents per box.

PRIVATE SECRETARY.—Monday's Salem Journal: "Governor-Elect Lord today announced the appointment of Willis Scott Dunaway, of Portland, to be his private secretary. The appointment is a Portland man, who was a candidate for state printer before the Republican state convention. He belongs to one of the old first families of the state, and is an able young journalist."

CONGREGATION LEADER.—Rev. J. A. Longbottom and Rev. E. J. Nesbitt have been holding a very interesting revival meeting at the C. P. church the past week. Mr. Longbottom is an interesting talker, and large congregations are giving marked attention to his sermons.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the officiating clergyman Elder S. Williams in Albany, on Dec 16, 1894, Mr. Harvey M. Perry, of Linn county, and Miss Edna R. Aronhart, of Lane county.

A. C. Brown has rented a house in Salt Lake City, Utah, and will reside in that place and probably talk every morning and gentle he can.

A PRISONER MISSING.

Slipped Away From Sheriff and Deputy at Junction This Morning.

JUNCTION CITY, Dec. 18.—This morning when the north-bound overland stopped here it had aboard Sheriff Patterson of Jackson county, and a deputy and a prisoner, all bound for Salem. When it left the sheriff and deputy were aboard, but the prisoner wasn't. The story of the escape is rather amusing and reads in this way:

Just before reaching this point the prisoner, whose name we are unable to learn, but who is probably D. R. Davies, convicted of polygamy in the Jackson county circuit court and sentenced to two years in the pen, went into the water closet on the car. He crawled through a hole in the car, and got away when this point was reached. The officers went to look for him when the train was leaving Harrisburg and found he was missing. But as the train had started were unable to get off until they reached Halsey. They started here immediately and reached Junction about 10 o'clock this morning and at once commenced search for the man who was to be the guest of the state, but at last accounts their search had awarded them nothing. Constable McClure, Junction, declined to assist them in the search. At last it was a fatiguing job and can but cause outrage to fall on officers so negligent.

Junction City News.

Times, Dec. 15.
C. A. Harp returned Sunday morning from San Francisco.

Max Emily Bailey, of Fairmount is the guest of her brother Rev. Houston.

Miss Rose Coleman, of Harrisburg was the guest of friends in this city Sunday.

Dr. Artman, of Halsey, was here this week looking over the city with a view of building.

P. C. Webb completed his school in Clow district Friday and is now stopping in town. He expects to return to Tennessee about New Year.

From the Douglas, Man., Tribune, we learn that our friend T. A. Hand-saker has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Christian Church of this city. Success, Tommy.

Mrs. Wm. Perman was again stricken on Wednesday and she was feared for a time that she would not recover. She is much improved at this writing and will soon recover her former good health.

E. N. Edwards delivered to Howard Bros. this week the finest lot of hogs that he has ever raised. He delivered sixty head that averaged 225 pounds net.

The Eugene church will adjourn services and be expected nearly the entire congregation will be in attendance, and will hold materially to the musical program, taking a male quartet with them.

ON A TRAIL.—Albany Herald: Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tweedale returned yesterday from their trip to the coast. They were very rough for several days. The Homer has been lying in the harbor and the South Coast has been outside for several days, but it is now becoming calm enough for the vessels to resume their trips. Mr. Tweedale says the high tide on Sunday was 10 inches higher than at any time last year. Old ocean was lashed into a foam and as it beat upon the beach flakes of foam were thrown into the air and carried a mile inland. Along the Nye Creek settlement during the storm, the conditions resembled a fierce snowstorm. The storm has changed the appearance of the beach in many places, washing in high piles of drift-wood, sweeping away the sand beach in some places while it has filled it up in others.

ON THE LOOKOUT.—Marshall East and line in the city of Eugene. The Police Minto, of Salem, to keep an eye open for a pair of "birds" who have been doing the burglary act in that city. Several houses were entered and watches, rings and other articles of personal adornment are missing, much to the regret of the community. It is said articles in their accustomed places were found. It is not likely they will be offered for sale promiscuously as they can be disposed of other ways at less risk to the present possessor. At this time such deeds are getting so numerous through the country as to be decidedly anomalous, and it is hoped, for the satisfaction of the officials, at least, that some of them will be caught.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—Eugene Chapter, Royal Arch, Masons, No. 10, last evening, elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: B. D. Paine, High Priest; J. L. Page, King; W. V. Henderson, Scribe; J. C. Church, Treasurer; I. N. Ramsey, Secretary; C. E. Loomis, Capt. of Host; D. V. Reid, R. A. Captain; Wm. Preston, Principal; S. J. Patten, Master of Val; Gies T. Hall, Master 2nd Val; O. P. Hoff, Master 1st Val; V. McFarland, Sentinel. Grand High Priest J. M. Hudson was present and paid the Chapter an official visit. Light refreshments were served.

CONGREGATION LEADER.—Rev. J. A. Longbottom and Rev. E. J. Nesbitt have been holding a very interesting revival meeting at the C. P. church the past week. Mr. Longbottom is an interesting talker, and large congregations are giving marked attention to his sermons.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the officiating clergyman Elder S. Williams in Albany, on Dec 16, 1894, Mr. Harvey M. Perry, of Linn county, and Miss Edna R. Aronhart, of Lane county.

A. C. Brown has rented a house in Salt Lake City, Utah, and will reside in that place and probably talk every morning and gentle he can.

KNOWLEDGE OUT OF TRUE.—Word reached here this morning that Mr. F. M. Laird, who lives on Pleasant Hill, had his nose broken some time ago by an unruly stock of wood. He was feeding poles to a stean saw, and in some way a stick became tangled on the table and flying up, struck him on the nose, just how badly he was injured we were unable to learn. Dr. T. W. Harris went up this afternoon to attend the injured gentleman.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 18.

Will be Located at Fairmount and Will Employ Fifty Hands.

It will be remembered that some weeks ago a gentleman from Tacoma was here representing a corporation that was looking for the location of a box and basket factory. After visiting various points in this state they have selected Fairmount as the place of its location. The contract for the land to be donated them has been sent here to be signed and it is their intention to begin the work of constructing their buildings immediately. They do not ask for the deed to their location until after they have been in operation 90 days with a force of 50 hands. They ask for a subsidy of $500 to pay the freight on their machinery, same to be paid when their machinery arrives here. Their contract is drawn up in a way that sounds like it means business, and no trouble will be experienced in securing the small subsidy they ask. The time is coming when the work of constructing their various points of our valley, permitting a larger laboring population. And together with craneries and mills there is no reason why in 10 years from now the Willamette valley cannot at once double her population and become almost as country of itself dependent on no other for any product.

THE WILLAMETTE.
The Corvallis Times has this to say about the engineers who have been surveying the Willamette river under Major Post: "The party reached Corvallis Friday afternoon, and the boat in which they came, and sleep, is moved to the bank a few yards above the O. P. incline. The latter is a flat boat 18x24, with a cabin on it, and was built at Eugene. There are, including the cook, nine men in the party, and they hope to wind up their operations on the river and leave for Portland next Saturday. At that time the survey will have been completed to Corvallis except soundings from the slough that puts into the Willamette above the mouth of East river to Corvallis. The men now working on a contour map of the region across the river on the other side, where the Willamette threatens to cut its way through. They are also taking other notes relative to that improvement upon which the plan for the work will be based. Speaking of the survey one of the party said yesterday: "It will not be a difficult matter by wing dams and other temporary improvements to do much to aid navigation between Corvallis and Harrisburg. From Harrisburg down the channel is so subject to much change. Between Harrisburg and Eugene it is different. The river there, if the old section plans were being used, are subject to much change, a great deal, and while temporary improvements would do much to aid navigation, a permanent improvement would be, if not entirely out of the question, very expensive."

NOTICE TO INDIAN WAR VETERANS.
It has come to our knowledge that certain claim agents, at Washington, D. C., have been sending circulars and blank forms for pensions for the veterans who served in the Indian war of 1854-5. No doubt the blanks, etc., sent by the claims agents to many veterans were with the best of intention, but they are ahead of time and probably sent the blanks etc., out to be "first in the field for the job." We feel it our duty to say that up to the present time no general pension bill for the veterans of 1854-5 has been passed by congress, but a bill for the same is receiving attention by the powers that be, and no doubt will be passed before "they go to that bourne from whence none return."

A SOLDIER DEAD.—Roseburg Review: John Hylan, late of Company 1, 10th Wisconsin infantry, died at the soldiers' home Friday of heart disease after a short illness. The deceased entered the home last August and was only 55 years of age, being the youngest inmate in the home. The funeral rites were performed Saturday by the Catholic priest of Eugene, assisted by the G. A. R. of this place.

ABUNDANCE OF WATER.—Cottage Grove Leader: There has been some doubt in the minds of a few of our citizens as to whether our mountain springs would furnish sufficient water for the gravity system of water works. It is now proven by tests that cannot be questioned, that with pipes in every citizen's house who wishes water at the present time, and every subscriber using all the water he needs, that hardly one-fourth of the water that day and night flows in a ceaseless stream into the reservoir is used by our citizens.

MARRIED.—In Eugene, Oregon Dec. 19, 1894, at 9 p. m. Mr. L. L. Butler and Mrs. E. R. Luckey. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. S. Gilbert. It was a quiet affair, only a few intimate friends of the couple being present. The rooms were tastefully decorated and neatly furnished. They will reside at the bride's residence, the corner of Tenth and Willamette streets. The G. E. joins their host of friends in wishing them a long and felicitous matrimonial career.

JUSTICE COURT.—On complaint of W. E. Jordan, of Fall creek, four young men were arrested on the charge of trespass, and the case was brought before Justice Wheeler this morning. Owing to some witnesses not being here a postponement was made until Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

A WORTHY CANDIDATE.—We learn that Dr. D. A. Paine, of this city, will be a candidate for appointment under the new administration to the position of superintendent of the Oregon insane asylum located at Salem. This news will be heard with pleasure by the doctor's many friends over the state. During his residence in Eugene he has proven himself to be an able physician and surgeon, an upright man and good citizen, and has built up a lucrative practice at his profession. His appointment would receive the hearty endorsement of all his friends regardless of their political opinions.

BORN.—In Washington, D. C. Dec. 10, 1894, to the wife of Arthur Durr, a son.

A TRIBUTE.—At the assembly of the university this morning, President Chapman made a short speech commending the appointment of the new regent of that institution; after which Fred Mulkey of the junior, class after a neat little speech, proposed three cheers for Mr. Friendly and the school gave it with a vigor and enthusiasm that was evidence of their hearty appreciation of Mayor Friendly's appointment; and of their assurance that their interests will be his.
