Engine Wins at Drain.

DRAIN, Or., Jan. 19.—The first half of the foot ball contest between Drain Normal school and the Eugene public schools, resulted 12 to 0 in favor of Eugene.

The second half resulted in a score of 6 to 0 in Eugene's favor. Total, 18 to 0. The boys are now jubilant.

Will Retain.

Arlington Record: "Jay P. Lucas gave notice to the county court this time that he would in the near future tender his resignation as county clerk, giving as his reason that his brother, who has been in charge of his mother's farm since the death of his father, has accepted a position necessitating his removal to Portland, and Mr. Lucas has long been asked by his aged mother to move down and take charge of the old home farm, he feels that it is impossible to refuse such request and intends to take charge of the place in the spring. The Lucas farm is one of the good farms of the valley, and about a large acreage approved near Mouthmouth." Mr. Lucas has quite a number of friends in Eugene and Lane county.

Legislative Notes.

Representative Baker of Lane, presented the name of Judge F. A. Moore from the front of the union soldiers, a man broad enough to represent every interest of this great nation. He got a cheer that made the galleries ring when he said for some King officers with the utmost confidence.

Mr. Baker made an eloquent speech, often interrupted with applause.

Governor Lord still adheres to his resolution to make no staff or institution appointments until the close of the session.

Mr. Lord stated that the special committee on resolutions of which he is chairman had made provisions whereby the expense of the session for clerks and investigations would be decreased $10,000.

Bids Wanted.

This will be received at the county clerk's office until Feb. 6, 1895, for furnishing 30 cords of 4 foot grub oak wood; said wood to be not less than 4 feet long, and not less than 2 1/2 inches in diameter, top end. Also 20 cords of bluish pine wood from large trees. Wood to be dry and to be delivered at the court house and jail in Eugene, Lane county, Oregon, on or before Sept. 1, 1895. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. By order of the commissioners.

A. H. FISK, Co. Judge.

Partnership Dissolved.

ALBANY, Jan. 21.—The partnership existing between Stiles and Nutting as editors of the Daily Democrat was dissolved today. Stiles will assume charge of the postoffice to which he was appointed and Nutting will conduct the paper in the future.

Went to Portland.

J. E. Drucks, of Los Angeles, Cal., who has been in Eugene for two or three days looking at the field for a flouring mill, went to Portland today morning to look after his property interests at that place. He has a very favorable opinion of the field here, but has not determined yet whether he will locate here or not. At present he is awaiting an answer from the Messrs. Edris on the question of price of power.

Commander's Report.

A correspondent writes to the Salem Daily Post on the legislature and state affairs: "The only bright spot so far is Harrison Kinsley; quietly sitting down on the proposition to hold the inaugural 'howl' in the state house, at the rate of $10 per invite to the selected aristocracy, while the majority of the farmers and workmen are unable to buy the necessities of life. Give him a white mark for that."

Died.

At Junction City, January 19, 1895, J. A. Parker, aged 76 years. He was one of the early Lane county pioneers, and at one time resided in this city. He leaves a wife to mourn his death. The burial took place in the I. O. O. G. cemetery, west of Junction City, this afternoon.

Returned Home.

Daily Guard, January 21.

The Eugene public school football team returned home yesterday morning from Drain in a contented and well satisfied frame of mind, and well they might with that score in their favor at a rate of 18 to 0. The gentleman who accompanied the team stated it was one of the cleanest games it has been their good fortune to witness. The boys are loud in praise of the hospitality of the professors and students of Drain, and they are confident they will hold in their memory only pleasant thoughts of the kindness shown them. They were met at the train by a large crowd of students and the college band and were escorted to the dormitory, which was their home while in Drain. An appetizer supper was tendered them at the hotel, and they did full justice with an appetite born by hard practice combined with a healthy physique. We don't know as we ought to say so, but the boys all unite in declaring that there are more pretty girls to the square foot in Drain than in any town they have ever been in before.

The Mortgage Tax Law.

The first bill of the session to revise in some shape the mortgage tax law is that of Senator Robert Carter, of Benton and Lincoln counties. It provides that all mortgages, deeds of trust, contracts or other obligations whereby land or real property situated in this state is made security for the payment of debt, together with such debt, shall be entitled to deduct the amount of debt secured by such land or real property. All mortgages, deeds of trust, contracts or other obligations whereby land is made security for the payment of debt, together with such debt, shall be assessed and taxed to the owner of such security and debt in the amount of the debt secured by such land or real property situated in this state shall, for the purpose of assessment and taxation, be treated as land or real property. All mortgages, deeds of trust, contracts or other obligations whereby land is made security for the payment of debt, together with such debt, shall be assessed and taxed to the owner of such security and debt in the amount of the debt secured by such land or real property situated in this state shall, for the purpose of assessment and taxation, be treated as land or real property.

At Astoria.

In its report of the teachers institute that place the Daily Astoria News says:

"An intermission was then given, after which Pres. Chapman conducted a conversation on the pedagogical masters and literature of the present age. He showed the teachers where they could find the best literature in regard to what is going on in different countries towards pedagogical advancement, recommending particularly the study of the school system of France, which, he says, is the best in the world."

He Denies It.

John Boneham, who, according to a letter from the editor of the Portland Post, was branded as a fraud, making a specialty of bilking K. of P. lodges, writes a letter from Grants Pass denying the charge. He claims to be a genuine Knight, out of work and in bad luck, and is now stopping at the Williams Bros. in a Richmond house, waiting for something to turn up. He refers to Thomas Gibson, C. C. and F. W. Carroll, P. C. of Alpha Lodge, as to whether he is a genuine Pythian.

Circulating Library.

Why bait that with well-known literary aspirations as Eugene has no circulating library? Nothing is ever heard of such a library here, and the people generally do not seem to realize that it would be a great benefit. Many towns even smaller than ours have fine libraries and there is no reason why one should not be started here. Some of our literary people, and we have many, should take this matter in hand and see if a library fund cannot be started that will be a credit to Eugene.

Within Eighteen Months.

An Albany gentleman met Sheriff Coombs of Crook county, on the train Sunday, and he said that Mr. E. L. Bonner, purchaser of the Oregon Pacific, had purchased within 18 months from which Mr. Coombs said he thought construction on the mountain division of the Oregon Pacific would be commenced this summer, and pushed into Eastern Oregon early the next year.

Busted.

Jim Westfall, a Chinaman, requests the Albany Democrat to say that he is busted, and that the Oregon Pacific did it, and this is the reason he cannot liquidate with his general contractor, and threaten Jim Westfall on the mountain division of the Oregon Pacific and he will be all right. Jim was worth $10,000 to $15,000, now he feels sore. But he holds up in good shape and many a smile plays over his features.

Warrant Issued.

This morning a warrant was issued in Justice Wheeler's court for the arrest of one Amos Avins, on the charge of threatening to kill his wife. He has no money and is compelled to take this step. The family lives on South Willamette street. Avins is out of town and if he wants to keep free he had better remain out.

Hand Ball.

The popular game of hand ball is getting a thorough hold on the students of the university who take kindly to athletic sports. A court has been fitted up in the gymnasium and the gentlemen and lady students are practicing assiduously. A contest will likely be arranged for Saturday among some of those who are attaining some degree of proficiency.

Fixed.

Richard Dunn, a specialist peddler, was brought before Recorder Davis last evening on the charge of peddling without a license. He was fined $10 and costs, but not having that amount of coin available is now boarding with the city for a few days.

Discharged.

John and George Allen appeared before Justice Wheeler this morning for trial, but after the evidence was all in they were discharged from custody. The affair appears to have been a general wrangle between the wife and the charge against the Alens in the main seems to have been pure fabrication.

Died.

Junction City Times: In Los Gatos, California, Monday, January 14, 1895, Georgian Hamilton, daughter of John and Anna Hamilton, aged 17 years, 5 months and 4 days. She formerly resided in this city and is quite well known. She was taken sick during October and grew a great deal better but took a fatal relapse. The funeral took place at 3 p. m. Tuesday in the Los Gatos cemetery.

Known in Eugene.

H. L. Carter, who was killed in the recent uprising at Honolulu, was known by several persons in Eugene. He was here several days just before Batescock, the leper, was shipped to the Islands.

Factory Now Assured.

Letter Received Stating Papers Drawn Up are O. K.

F. A. Hankin received a letter this morning stating that the contract papers drawn up in the box and basket factory proposition are all right and that the machinery will be shipped over here as soon as it can be boxed up and put aboard the cars. It will arrive here about the middle of next week. Fourteen men are engaged with the industry will be over here about Monday and it is thought no further delay will be occasioned in the matter.

We are sorry to state that some cold water has been thrown on the proposition but it has come to naught. It seems, for one thing, that Mr. Doucett, was informed that no balm logs could be secured this far up the river, and it left the impression that the factory had been located in the wrong place, on account of not having easy access to the timber necessary for their use. One man this morning informed the gentleman that he could supply him with 60,000,000 feet of balm logs and at his own figure.

Now the fact of the matter is that there is almost an unlimited quantity of balm and pine and almost any other timber that will be in easy access on the river above here, and that it can be secured cheaply. As for the matter of the location of the factory there is no better location to be found anywhere. Freight rates are not such as to make this an unfavorable location for the timber necessary for their use. One man this morning informed the gentleman that he could supply him with 60,000,000 feet of balm logs and at his own figure.

Last Night at the Theatre.

Daily Guard, January 21.

Tittell sisters are as good as advertised, was the general verdict last night when Augustin Daly's acting drama "Frou Frou" was presented preceded by an amusing one act comedy, "My Uncle Will." Miss Charlotte Tittell appeared only in the curtain-raiser, but her naturalness won for her the good will and applause of the audience. Miss Essie as "Frou Frou" was easily the favorite last evening, wringing laughter, tears and applause from the audience by her changeable moods as she portrayed the life of a careless, happy girl, the life of the household, afterward marrying a man of her father's choice; and then after a few years of married life, finding her sister had taken her place in the hearts of her husband and child, leaves with an old-time lover, lives as his mistress, finally coming home to die and be forgiven. As "Frou Frou's" sister Louise, Miss Minnie Tittell, made her first appearance last evening. Her interpretation of the part was excellent, but it didn't touch the heart-strings of the audience as did the wild and careless "Frou Frou." The support by the remainder of the company was better than usual and Wallace Monroe, Dwight Clinton and Wm. Merry at least deserve special mention. This is one of the best companies appearing here in the last year and they will have a much better house this evening.

Legislative Notes.

Daily Guard, January 22.

Alley—To amend section 2172, Hill's code, relating to security for costs in criminal actions and to prevent useless criminal suits.

Governor Lord has withdrawn all appointments recently made to the senate by Governor Penneyer for further consideration. The university regents among the number. They were: Joshua A. Walton, appointed March 28, 1893; R. S. Bean, S. H. Friendly, Dec. 17, 1894.

For the 27 senate committees 64 clerks are allowed. Chief clerks on committees on assessment and taxation, engrossed bills, enrolled bills, revision of laws, ways and means and all on judiciary get $5 per day, all others $3. This will be a great saving.

S. R. No. 81—Alley, sec. 2172 Hill's code to amend to secure costs in civil actions. Read first time and passed.

For Game Warden.

C. W. Watts, of Albany, has at least one newspaper writing for him for the position of game warden. The Jefferson Review says: "C. W. Watts, of Albany, is at Salem justifying for the appointment of game warden. If this position is a sinecure, it should be abolished, but if it is necessary as we believe, a game warden gives such conscientiously perform his duty is badly needed. And would be worth many times the amount of his salary, then Watts would be appointed. He has what should be the strongest 'pull' of anyone in the state for the place, i. e. the faithful discharge of his duty as deputy game warden for the past two years, and it was by his individual efforts that justice was meted out to many violators of the game law. The Review advocates Watts' appointment for the reason that we want a warden who will see that the law is enforced, and the past work of Mr. Watts proves that he will do this."

The Correct Talk.

Salem Daily Journal: "The Oregonian is hardly fair in its comment on the state university, colleges and normal schools. No state in the union but gives such few states in the union so large as Oregon that do not make even more liberal provisions. The men who supported the Oregonian's senatorial candidate most loyally are now receiving but poor returns in its warfare on conditions which even a conservative man as Governor Lord considers as meritorious and deserving of support. The Oregonian's advice as to how to vote on appropriations for higher education will be followed with even less alacrity than its advice on another matter."

Full of Rot.

Albany Democrat: As usual the members of the legislature are trying to see how many bills they can introduce, or almost every subject requested. If there is ever a time in a man's life when he makes a fool of himself it is when he gets in the legislature. The men who introduce the fewest bills as a rule serve their constituency better. The statute books of Oregon are already full of rot.

Good Act.

Mercury: A bright son of a Salem widow boarded the car that carried Joseph Simon from the Salem depot to the Willamette hotel. "I am the son of a widow—a newsboy and I support my mother," the lad remarked to Mr. Simon. "I want you to appoint me page. We are poor and I desire to help mamma." "You shall have the place. Come and see me tomorrow," was Mr. Simon's reply. And the boy got the job.

The Lane county members are disposed of as follows: Baker chairman of the committee on military affairs, Moorhead chairman of committee on salaries and mileage and member of that on engrossed bills, while Hillegas is a member of the committees on claims and rules and joint rules.

SENATOR DOLPH IS THE LEAD.

He Receives a Majority of Votes in The Senate—Lacks One in The House.

SALEM, Oregon, January 22, 1894.—This is the day of days in the legislature of Oregon, for it is today that commences the election of a United States senator.

In the senate this morning Senator Brownell placed in nomination J. N. Dolph and made a very able address in behalf of his man. He reviewed his past life, his ability, his integrity and special uprightiness and occupying half an hour's time and about ten sheets of type-written manuscript in telling the senators and spectators why his man should go in.

His eloquence had a salutary effect for Dolph who secured 19 votes out of possibly 30, and Hans and Bennett secured together the remaining eleven. Senators Huston, Hill, Cogswell, Butler, Beckley, King, McCullister, Haley, Smith of Clatsop, Smith of Sherman and Vandenberg were against the gold standard and could not be persuaded or bluffed into doing otherwise. Several of the senators, who, upon arrival at the senate, were counted on by the opposition, cast their votes for Dolph when the critical moment arrived.

In the lower house the election of United States senator was made a special order of business for 2 p. m. and at 1:45 the large assembly hall was crowded upstairs and down.

The ballot in the house was as follows:

J. N. Dolph	29
Judge F. A. Moore	22
W. D. Hans	7
Governor Lord	1
Absent	1

Dolph lacked two of having a majority in the lower house, but secured a majority of 7 in the total vote.

Representatives Hillegas and Baker voted for Moore.

Representative Moorhead voted for Dolph.

The senate and house will meet in joint assembly tomorrow at 12 m. when a joint ballot will be taken.

Aid for Nebraska Sufferers.

Daily Guard, January 22.

Messrs. Burlingame, Chapman and McMurtry, the committee having in charge the work of soliciting aid for the Nebraska sufferers, were at work today, and met with good success, nearly every one they asked responding with a contribution.

Those whom the committee do not meet may leave their donations at the Christian block with Geo. Crave. The dispatches indicate that women and children are suffering for lack of clothing. Second hand clothing of all kinds will be thankfully received by the committee and forwarded with the provisions. There is no doubt as to the widespread destitution in Nebraska, and charity should alleviate the sufferings of the unfortunate as far as possible.

Divorce Suit.

Ann E. Bosquet has brought a suit for divorce in the Lane county circuit court against E. Bosquet, her husband. The couple were married in Lane county in 1880. They have no children. Cruel and inhuman treatment is alleged in the complaint, and it is alleged the defendant threatened to kill the plaintiff. The defendant has property to the amount of $500 and the plaintiff wants a portion of it.

House Committee.

The Lane county members are disposed of as follows: Baker chairman of the committee on military affairs, Moorhead chairman of committee on salaries and mileage and member of that on engrossed bills, while Hillegas is a member of the committees on claims and rules and joint rules.
