J. F. FORD,
WANTS TO ANNEX.—A petition is in circulation in the extreme northwestern portion of the county asking that a small portion of Lane and Lincoln counties lying along Five Rivers and Lobster creek be annexed to Benton county. This would take from Lane county two townships of land that pay no taxes. The county authorities seem to favor the movement.

THE NEW STEAMER.—Portland Telegram: Work on the O. R. & N. Co.'s new steamer Elmore is being pushed as rapidly as possible. By next Thursday it is expected the craft will be in readiness to enter active service. There will be no formal trial trip, but when everything is complete the Elmore will start up the Willamette on her maiden trip.

An Enjoyable Event.
The ladies of the Rebecca Lodge gave "an evening at home" to their friends in the Odd Fellows temple, on Saturday evening, which was pronounced by all who were fortunate enough to be present "the social event of the season."

A LUCKY SPECTATOR.
The evening was spent in social conversation, games, dancing, listening to sweet music by the string band, and last but not least a most delightful lunch.

YOUNG MAN KILLED.
A Jacksonville Man Killed Last Night.
Special to Daily Guard.
MEDFORD, Or., Feb. 11.—Ed. Numan, son of a pioneer merchant of Jacksonville, aged nineteen years, while riding between Medford and Jacksonville, about 7 o'clock last evening, his saddle turned from under him and he fell to the ground. He died from concussion of the brain early this morning.

Florence Items.
West, Feb. 8.
Schwoner Mayflower, Captain Olsen, with 115,000 feet of lumber, departed Monday for San Francisco.

William Bonner trapped a cougar a couple of weeks ago that measured eight feet in length.

Mr. William Kyle will shortly tear down the old saw mills on the other side and use the lumber to build a barn on his farm up the river.

Dr. C. M. Slackback arrived in town on Wednesday evening and is looking the town over with a view of locating permanently.

The tug Roberts has been laid off for a couple of months and the entire crew discharged. The tug will go what little towing there is until she is put on again permanently in the spring.

FAREWELL PARTY.—Saturday night Miss Laurie Burnett tendered a farewell party to her cousin, Miss Marie Rogers, who left on the overland that night for Oakland, Calif., where she will attend school. About 30 young persons were present and the evening was enjoyed by all.

THE RIVER BETWEEN CORVALLIS AND HARRISBURG IS WORSE THAN FROM THE LATTER PLACE ON UP. If the boat reaches Harrisburg, Mr. Frazer thinks he will have no difficulty in coming on up.

LIVING IS CHEAP.—A placard, "eggs 12 cents per dozen," is to be seen in some of the stores. With eggs at that price, potatoes at 25 cents per bushel, bread at 10 cents for a nickel, flour at 65 cents per sack, and fruit almost at your own price, those of even limited means ought to live well, although times are hard.

BOYS WATCH OUT.—A number of young boys are carrying pistols and bean shooters, which is strictly prohibited by the city ordinances. One boy was taken before Recorder Dorris this morning and narrowly escaped being fined by promising to desist hereafter. The marshal will hereafter arrest a boy carrying either pistols or bean shooters.

ALMOST A FIRE.—The house of Wm. Tescott in the northwestern portion of the city and near the sawmill came near being destroyed by fire yesterday evening, caused by a defective flue. By hard work a conflagration was prevented without calling out the fire department. Fortunately very little damage was done.

HEAVIER LOSS.—It now transpires that Walker Young is probably the heaviest loser by the fire of Sunday morning. While he had only about $900 worth of grain in the building, he had 19 shares of stock in the warehouse, and no insurance on either.

Amount Returned.
Daily Guard, February 11.
Mayor S. H. Friendly recently sent some money to the sufferers by the Silver Lake holocaust that was in need of assistance. The money was returned this morning by Christian Ross, accompanied by a note thanking the mayor for his kind-hearted liberality in so generously offering assistance, but stating that they had already received all the assistance needed.

DR. A. A. HEMENWAY DEAD.
A Prominent Man Among Oregon's Early Pioneers.
Daily Guard, February 11.
Dr. A. A. Hemenway died at the home place about five miles west of Eugene, Feb. 10, 1895, at the advanced age of 89 years. He was born in Erie county, Penn., Jan. 22, 1806. He moved from there to the state outside of Portland, and ladies who are not members cannot realize the refining and elevating instruction as well as through the mysteries of the initiation. The evening was spent in social conversation, games, dancing, listening to sweet music by the string band, and last but not least a most delightful lunch.

Cottage Grove Items.
Leader, Feb. 8.
Postoffice Inspector Robinson, of San Francisco, was in the city Wednesday.

Miss Edna Markley went to Eugene Tuesday to visit her mother, Mrs. G. R. Christian, in that city.

Thurston Martin, a son of Marion Martin, and brother of C. M. Martin, was burned in the Silver Lake fire, died at Silver Lake a few days ago with consumption. He was 27 years old.

At a public meeting at Walker station February 1, a church association was formed representing four denominations, and a board of trustees selected consisting of Messrs. John Walker, George Sears, Henry Lajoie and H. Hunter, also a building committee, a soliciting committee, treasurer and secretary. Grounds were located for the erection of a union church-house and a cemetery.

An Open Letter to Thomas Warner.
SIR: I learn that you took the liberty, on Feb. 1st, 1895, at Unity school house before a public assembly to make an unprovoked, unjust and untruthful assault upon me in regard to the contributions to be raised for the Nevada sufferers. I was appointed to look after this matter in the Fall Creek precinct, but not being able to attend to it on account of home affairs I immediately resigned and also made a contribution for this fund. I am free to say that the central committee made a GREAT mistake in not putting you in a position where you could properly air your own views, and that you could blow your own horn loud and long.

PLEASE LET ME GIVE YOU A PIECE OF ADVICE: I have heard of a city that was noted for its cleanliness, and to the question as to how it was kept so, the answer was "that every one swept before his own door."

GOING OUT OF BUSINESS.
The public regret to learn that the Northwest Fire & Marine Insurance Company has determined to wind up its business by means of a receiver. Mr. F. H. Allison has been appointed receiver and his bonds fixed at $50,000.

CHAMPION MINE.—A Cottage Grove correspondent says: The Champion mine at Bohemia, owned by A. B. Millard & Co., of New London, Wis., has suspended operations until the road is passable, when they will erect a 20-stamp mill. Several men have been employed in preparing a millsite and extending the tunnel. The tunnel is out in quite a distance, and sufficient quartz has been taken out to pay for grading the mill in. The ore is of high grade, and the mine promises to develop into one of the richest in that section.

SCHOOL FUND APPOINTMENT.—The county school fund will be appointed in April, and the state fund in August, as usual, and as required by the school law. The article in the news papers relating to the school fund was somewhat misleading. The article in question refers only to that part of the state school fund yet due the various counties for the year 1894, and has nothing to do with either the county or state fund for the year 1895; which will be apportioned as usual and at the proper time.

DEAL TALK.—Portland Telegram: "Steady" the O. R. & N. Co.'s new steamer Elmore made a little run down the river. It was what is known as a "mudflat" trial trip. The last steamer of us as far as Linton and returned to the boneyard. Everything worked like a charm and the new craft acquitted herself in a manner highly satisfactory. Only a few finishing touches are now needed, and by Thursday the Elmore will be ready to start on her first trip up the Willamette.

CASE APPEALED.—Roselburg Plain Dealer: Saturday W. R. Willis and A. M. Crawford filed notice of appeal in the case against S. G. Brown, convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged on Friday of this week. The matter was taken before Judge Fullerton, and he ordered a stay of execution until the appeal can be heard in the supreme court.

NOT PRESENT.—Representative Moorhead sends word to the Grand jury to deny that he was present at the Balduzzi's feast in Portland, notwithstanding the report of the Oregonian to the contrary. He was at home in Junction City with his family.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 12.
Rained the most of last night.
Ex-Judge L. O. Sterns died at Baker City last Saturday, aged 92 years.

The state historical collection will be held at Forest Grove next Wednesday evening.

A dozen private citizens have been turned loose in the Waldo Hills in Marion county.

The exact amount of Colnett's shortage, who recently killed himself at Walla Walla is $12,167.75.

Dr. I. D. Driver will lecture in Salem this evening on "Miracles, Their Relation to Nature and Science."

The Arizona legislature has declared in favor of woman suffrage and it looks as if California would do likewise.

Samuel D. Smith, an old pioneer and proprietor of the Occidental Hotel, died in Portland yesterday, quite suddenly.

Two pocket hunters struck an iron bunch of decomposed quartz in the Dry Diggins near Grand Pass last week. The pocket at last accounts was not exhausted.

That was a nice thing done by Governor Northern the other day. When the Georgia tract in Arkansas was given out as its errand of mercy, the governor acted as flagman at Atlanta.

Col. Isaac Britton is in New York City still at work trying to negotiate the sale of the bonds of the St. Louis and Eastern railroad. He says the road will be built as soon as times improve.

Dr. J. V. Gaff, arrested at Lorane Sunday, is held in the Portland jail under $5,000 bonds on the charge of kidnaping. He has employed Judge M. L. Phipps to defend him.

On the evening of Monday, Feb. 11, 1895, the Eugene lodge, K. of P., will celebrate the thirty-first anniversary of their order at their hall in the I. O. O. F. building. Invitations have already been issued.

The Primville Review doesn't want a railroad in that county. No wonder. Primville would be 20 miles from the road and another town would be built up that would be the metropolis of the county.

Leo Fairchild, of Seattle, who went to California last summer to help M. E. Lee in his gubernatorial campaign and was rewarded by an 18 a day clerkship in the legislature, has been bounced from his position. The legislators couldn't stand him.

John Snyder, last week sent to the penitentiary from Portland, for two years for burglarizing the residence of E. Quackenbush, is believed to be an innocent man, wrongfully convicted, and an application for a pardon is to be made to Governor Lord.

The case of the Chicago couple who have married each other for the seventh time is exceptional. The average Chicago resident does not wed the same person more than twice, and rarely marries to exceed seven or eight times altogether.

Albany Democrat: Work on the county jail will be begun after the circuit court adjourns in March. The rolled-up work in the affairs of the Albany Iron Works, which have the contract, will give the county a first class jail in every respect.

Editors are all meek and mild-mannered men but occasionally one gets misunderstood as witnesseth the following: "Editor Johns, of Arlington, gave S. Carls a severe 'roasting' in his paper for sending an anti-Dolph telegram to Salem, and Carls gave Johns an equally severe 'basting' on the street, subsequently paying the city recorder for the privilege."

Salem Journal: It has recently developed that at least four men say they voted for Binger Hermann in the senatorial caucus, three Lane county men and Senator Brownell, yet only two Hermann votes were found in the hat. What became of the other two and who cast the Dolphin votes, were not cast for Hermann? It will be recalled Dolph had only two more than a majority of that caucus.

Salem Journal: The Oregonian has another brutal attack on Governor Lord. It says he is unfit for Senator, because, as a matter of fact, his hearing was injured while in the war. However, and his hearing is good, his work is the thing that matters above the clamor of the plutocrats who want the earth with a barrow around it.

Ex. Saldy the foreman at the print shop: "Billy, put George Washington on the galley and then finish the murder you commenced yesterday. Set up Ruins of Hercules and then distribute the small pox; you needn't finish the runaway matter. Look up Jeff Davis, and slide Butler into hell and let that galley go after dinner. Put the Lady's Fair to press, and go to the devil and put him to work on Deacon Fogg's article on Eternal Punishment."

A justice of the peace hereafter, or as soon as the new law is approved by the governor, shall require the private prosecutor in a criminal action to give security for costs and disbursements before filing or receiving the complaint (therein in the amount authorized in civil actions, and not otherwise. The law is to be enacted so that the fact that money is deposited in a private prosecutor's hands, resulting in needless expense to taxpayers.

A COUNTY FAIR.
The Subject Being Agitated all over the County.

It has been several years since Lane county has had a fair, the old Agricultural Society dying out some five years ago from lack of interest. It appears now that prominent citizens over the county are now beginning to realize that a properly conducted fair will be of great benefit to the county at large.

Mr. Meriau has offered his park as a site for the fair and it would be impossible to find a place more suitable for it. He has recently erected a pavilion in the park and has a grand stand on the track. While this pavilion would not be large enough for the demands of the exhibitors others could be erected at small cost.

The grounds are peculiarly fitted for this purpose, abounding in fine groves, having a beautiful lake, excellent driveways, a good track, being comparatively close to the city, and many other reasons, not necessary to mention.

The deep interest already taken in this enterprise should not be allowed to wane and we suggest a meeting be called in the not distant future and perfect the organization so that a meeting can be arranged for this fall. This will be the means of not only keeping in the county several thousands of dollars but will bring in several thousand more. It is the duty of every one in the county to do all possible in the way of assistance and encouragement to bring about the desired result. Let a meeting be called without delay.

STEAMER HEARD FROM.
Eugene Merchants Who Have Goods Aboard Getting Anxious.
Daily Guard, February 12.
The steamer Eagle left Portland on Thursday, January 31st, but our boat about twenty tons of freight consigned to the merchants of this city. Said merchants for the past week have been making numerous inquiries concerning the whereabouts of the boat, as the goods were badly wanted, and telegraphed agents along the river to have them unloaded and forwarded here by rail, but without success.

The following from the Salem Daily Journal of yesterday will inspire our business men with a faint ray of hope as the boat will probably reach here during the next month or so if her speed is maintained.

The Eagle left Salem at 1:30 p. m. Sunday for Eugene. A. J. Churchill, who so ably managed the affairs of the Oregon City Transportation Company during the absence of Agent Smith, has accepted the position as purser on the Eagle.

Real Estate Transfers.
Report a Daily by Eugene Abstract Company, W. K. Scarborough, Manager.

New Circuit Court Papers.
J. O. Rhinehart has sued J. B. Rhinehart in the circuit court for goods furnished and money loaned on open account for $1,256.46.

Harriet E. Shelden has begun an action in the circuit court against Willis Brown and V. E. Whipple. She asks for a judgment against Brown for $1,015.15 and interest since Dec. 1, 1893.

HITTING HARD.—Miss Fay Fuller, the editor of the Pendleton Daily Tribune talks hard. "There has actually been introduced in the New York legislature a bill making it a criminal offense for women to wear big theater hats and balloon sleeves at places of amusement. This is a paltry cause for serious legislation. The fashion is only a passing one, and at worst comparatively few women offend in this respect. If legislation is to be applied to every time that petty annoyances of this kind arise, lawmakers will have their hands full. The amusement-loving public has not suffered a title as much from the expansive and usually becoming headgear of women as it has from the practice of men in climbing over spectators to get out between acts to 'see a friend.' It is ridiculous and almost beyond belief that such a bill should be introduced in any legislature."

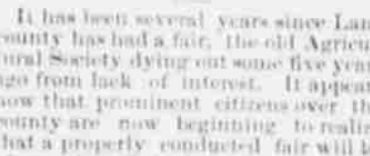

GERMANISM.—There has been considerable talk among our young men of effecting an athletic organization. For many reasons this would be very beneficial. Some action should be taken in the matter. Rooms at present can be secured very cheaply and enough apparatus to start with will cost but little. With a membership of $2 and dues at 50 cents per month a club of 50 members could pay all their expenses from time to time. The proposition is worth studying over at least.

DRIVER'S LECTURE.—Salem Statesman: At the M. E. church last evening was delivered to a very attentive audience Mr. Driver's, a logical and forcible speaker, and it is seldom an opportunity is given to listen to such an interesting and instructive lecture as the one given to Salem people last evening.

BUILDING PROSPECTS.—The prospects for a live building season next summer seem to be excellent. W. T. Campbell informs us that he is now preparing the plans and specifications for six handsome dwelling houses. Eugene is bound to grow notwithstanding the depressed times.

W. W. Stow, the well known San Francisco politician, died suddenly in that city yesterday.

Foster's Predictions.

W. T. Foster says: My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave across the continent from February 12th to 16th, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about the 16th, across the western mountain country by close of 17th, the great central valleys from 18th to 20th, and the eastern states about the 24th.

This storm wave will initiate a most remarkable period of weather and the country will experience almost everything from the torrid to blizzard. Extremes of weather in nearly every respect may be looked for, but more cold than hot, more rain and snow and sleet and hail than drought.

In the north particular attention should be given to the protection of live stock during the last half of the month and in the south the early crops, particularly of gardeners, will suffer from cold rains, sleet and hail.

It makes me very expected in the southern states and severe cold waves in the north. A cold wave of some importance will also cross the continent from 9th to 11th. I cannot answer correspondents unless they will enclose stamps.

The warm wave will cross the western mountain country about the 16th, the great central valleys about the 18th and the eastern states about the 20th. The cold wave will cross the western mountain country about the 19th, the great central valleys about the 21st and the eastern states about the 23rd and will give the eastern states a blizzard.

The unusual weather of the 1895 crop season will take farmers and others by surprise, especially those who do not carefully read and study these weather bulletins.

Intelligent farmers and dealers will study the future of the weather, the former planting that which will best succeed in yield and price and the latter arranging his stock in trade to correspond.

FEDERAL.—The funeral services of the late Dr. Ansel A. Hemenway occurred this morning at 10 o'clock at his late residence. Hon. L. Blyden delivered the funeral oration, by request of the relatives, and it was pronounced to be an eloquent and impressive talk. The attendance of neighbors and friends was very large. The interment took place directly after the funeral services in the Oak Hill cemetery.

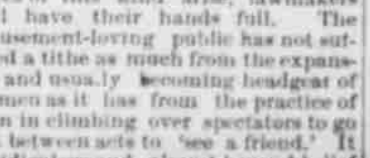

ANOTHER BOAT.—Today's Oregonian: The steamer Eagle, recently constructed at Newberg, made her trial trip in the vicinity of that city yesterday. She went to Oregon City for inspection, and will go to Eugene Tuesday. The dimensions of the boat are 125 feet over all, with a 24-foot beam. She will draw, when loaded, but 15 inches and will ply between Salem and Eugene.

DR. DRIVER'S LECTURE.—Salem Statesman: At the M. E. church last evening was delivered to a very attentive audience Mr. Driver's, a logical and forcible speaker, and it is seldom an opportunity is given to listen to such an interesting and instructive lecture as the one given to Salem people last evening.

BUILDING PROSPECTS.—The prospects for a live building season next summer seem to be excellent. W. T. Campbell informs us that he is now preparing the plans and specifications for six handsome dwelling houses. Eugene is bound to grow notwithstanding the depressed times.
