

THE JUNIORS.

The Sixth Annual Exhibition of the Junior Class Convened at Villard Hall Last Evening.

The sixth annual exhibition of the Junior class of the University of Oregon convened at Villard Hall last evening.

A few minutes after eight o'clock the faculty and others who were to take part in the program took their places on the stage.

All were becomingly attired and entered the room and marching down the long aisle by twos, ascended to the rostrum and took their places.

Villard Hall was nicely decorated with bunting, as usual, showing the stars and stripes and inspiring both students and visitors with a feeling of patriotism.

Miss Fannie Deane Hemenway chose as her subject "Culture a Duty." Culture in all things leaves the world purer and better.

Frederick William Mulkey spoke on "The Constitutional History of Oregon." Starting from the time when Oregon was a vast wilderness.

Henrietta Valera Owen took for her subject "A Plea for Enthusiasm." Enthusiasm is necessary to accomplish great things.

W. Carlton Smith spoke on "Citizenship as a Right and Duty." What are the rights of citizenship?

Miss Jennie B. Beattie was the next speaker and she chose "England and the House of Lords" as her subject.

Herbert B. Hanna was introduced and spoke on "Diogenes, or Lo King for a Man." Diogenes, the cynic.

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

TICKET NOMINATED.

The Citizens' Convention Nominates a Full Ticket.

The court house was well filled with voters last evening for the purpose of nominating a city ticket to be voted for next Monday.

The first number on the program was a chorus, "Jack Frost," which was well rendered.

Rev. W. S. Gilbert led in prayer, and President Chapman introduced the speakers.

Frederick William Mulkey spoke on "The Constitutional History of Oregon." Starting from the time when Oregon was a vast wilderness.

Henrietta Valera Owen took for her subject "A Plea for Enthusiasm." Enthusiasm is necessary to accomplish great things.

W. Carlton Smith spoke on "Citizenship as a Right and Duty." What are the rights of citizenship?

Miss Jennie B. Beattie was the next speaker and she chose "England and the House of Lords" as her subject.

Herbert B. Hanna was introduced and spoke on "Diogenes, or Lo King for a Man." Diogenes, the cynic.

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

Miss Kate E. Hanna was introduced and took for her subject "Florence Nightingale and her Mission."

ATTEMPTED TRAIN ROBBERY.

The Oregon Express Held Up by Robbers Near Wheatland Last Night.

The Oregon express, north bound, which will pass through here tomorrow morning at 2:44 o'clock, was held up near Wheatland, a town in the Sacramento valley about forty miles north of Sacramento.

It is definitely learned that a number of shots were exchanged between the train men and robbers, in which the firemen, a sheriff and one of the robbers were killed.

Sheriff Bogart, of Red Bluff, was on the train. He was in a sleeper at the time the hold-up occurred, and hearing unusual sounds dressed and went forward.

The robbers attempted to open Wells, Fargo & Co's safe in the express car, but as it had a time lock failed to accomplish their purpose.

The subscription school by J. P. Holland was opened on time Monday morning.

Toe Blanton is the owner of a new horse and negotiations are pending for a buggy and a girl.

Born, Monday, at 7 a.m. March 23, 1895, to the wife of Dr D E Ruff, an eight pound son.

E. P. Thorp, of the Cottage-Grove Echo-Lensist-Leader, in his paper of last week gives this city quite a nice write-up.

PRIZES OFFERED.—The Great Northern Railway is offering prizes, first and second, for an article of 5,000 words or less on first, the history and resources of Oregon.

DIED.—At the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Bosquet, near Liberty school house west of Junction, Tuesday, March 23, 1895.

A GOOD PRICE.—Riddle Enterprise: "The prune business in our vicinity was greatly stimulated this week.

A GOOD ONE.—Medford Mail: "The boys are having wagon loads of fun over in Jacksonvile, at the expense of our friend Nickell."

LUCKY LATHAM.—Cottage Grove Echo-Leader: "About twenty men are busily engaged putting in side track and preparing room for the large tie and lumber preserving plant of the S. P. railroad at Latham."

DIED.—At Fern Ridge, Lane county, Oregon, March 23, 1895, of consumption, J. M. Gibson, son of L. D. Gibson, aged 39 years.

GOES TO JUNCTION.—Junction City Times: Mark Montgomery, night agent at the depot, will be transferred to Grants Pass April 1st.

MORE ABOUT BAKER.—Geo. T. Hall & Son today received a letter from Mark Levy & Co., in which they state that they have written to the firm in Omaha, Neb., that Baker, the swindler, claimed to represent, and received the reply that he had worked the same game on them that he did on the people here.

THE DROWNED BOY.—A subscription was taken up yesterday with which to purchase giant powder and apparatus to be used in the effort to recover the body of the drowned boy, Reinmann.

SOME EGGS.—A. E. Woods, the grocer, yesterday, purchased from Messrs Palm and Lumar of Corvallis, 400 dozen eggs.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—Harrisburg Review: "Mrs. Belle, wife of T. H. Rowland, on the 25th day of March, 1895 died from the effects of a shot accidentally discharged from a pistol in the hands of her son."

Saloon Keepers vs Druggists.

Albany Democrat: The city council at its next meeting will have another matter to contend with.

The city election is being held today, but a stranger would not know it, as no excitement is observed.

The judges of election and polling places are as follows: First ward—A. S. McClure, H. T. Condon and G. Bellman.

Second ward—J. W. Cherry, E. K. Henderson and E. Whittam, Cherry and Henderson designated as clerks.

Third ward—W. E. Brown, W. C. Moran and G. A. Dorris, Moran and Dorris designated as clerks.

THE VOTE TODAY. The vote up to four o'clock this afternoon, by wards, was as follows:

FOR COMPARISON. We publish the following vote of last year for comparison:

James H. Cochran. On the 28th day of March, 1895, James H. Cochran died in Wallowa county, Oregon.

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, barter, or give to any minor under the age of sixteen years, any firearms or ammunition, whatever.

Section 2. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one month nor more than six months or by fine not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars.

Section 3. Inasmuch as there is no law in existence to punish this class of offenses, and it is important that the same should not go unpunished, this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

PRIMEVILLE HORROR.—Word reached The Dalles Saturday of the burning of the town jail at Primeville, with the death in the flames of Frank McNally.

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT.—Portland Star: The third trial of the case of A. M. Alexander against Moy Ling resulted in a verdict for the defendant.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.—The members of this order will learn with pleasure that the head of the Pacific Jurisdiction, F. A. Falkenberg, of Denver, Colo., will meet with the lodge in this city on the evening of the 27th of April.

POTATO MARKET.—The Salem Statesman says potatoes rose in price at that place six cents per bushel yesterday, and that buyers are now offering from 25 to 28 cents per bushel.

AFTERNOON TEA.—Mesdames Jerry Horn and Frank Hampton, this afternoon gave a tea party to their numerous lady friends at the elegant residence of the former on Seventh street.

WILL PROHIBIT.—The government will hereafter prohibit the Warm Springs Indians from hunting on the Cascade reserve in the future.

TAX COLLECTIONS.—Thus far the sheriff has issued 2,654 tax receipts this month, Saturday taking the lead with 218.

ENGINEERS MILLER AND LOVEJOY OF THIS S. P. DIVISION HAVE BEEN TRANSFERRED TO TUSCON DIVISION IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

CITY ELECTION.

Very Little Excitement. A Light Vote Predicted.

The city election is being held today, but a stranger would not know it, as no excitement is observed.

The judges of election and polling places are as follows: First ward—A. S. McClure, H. T. Condon and G. Bellman.

Second ward—J. W. Cherry, E. K. Henderson and E. Whittam, Cherry and Henderson designated as clerks.

Third ward—W. E. Brown, W. C. Moran and G. A. Dorris, Moran and Dorris designated as clerks.

THE VOTE TODAY. The vote up to four o'clock this afternoon, by wards, was as follows:

FOR COMPARISON. We publish the following vote of last year for comparison:

James H. Cochran. On the 28th day of March, 1895, James H. Cochran died in Wallowa county, Oregon.

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, barter, or give to any minor under the age of sixteen years, any firearms or ammunition, whatever.

Section 2. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one month nor more than six months or by fine not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars.

Section 3. Inasmuch as there is no law in existence to punish this class of offenses, and it is important that the same should not go unpunished, this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the governor.

PRIMEVILLE HORROR.—Word reached The Dalles Saturday of the burning of the town jail at Primeville, with the death in the flames of Frank McNally.

VERDICT FOR DEFENDANT.—Portland Star: The third trial of the case of A. M. Alexander against Moy Ling resulted in a verdict for the defendant.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD.—The members of this order will learn with pleasure that the head of the Pacific Jurisdiction, F. A. Falkenberg, of Denver, Colo., will meet with the lodge in this city on the evening of the 27th of April.

POTATO MARKET.—The Salem Statesman says potatoes rose in price at that place six cents per bushel yesterday, and that buyers are now offering from 25 to 28 cents per bushel.

AFTERNOON TEA.—Mesdames Jerry Horn and Frank Hampton, this afternoon gave a tea party to their numerous lady friends at the elegant residence of the former on Seventh street.

WILL PROHIBIT.—The government will hereafter prohibit the Warm Springs Indians from hunting on the Cascade reserve in the future.

TAX COLLECTIONS.—Thus far the sheriff has issued 2,654 tax receipts this month, Saturday taking the lead with 218.

ENGINEERS MILLER AND LOVEJOY OF THIS S. P. DIVISION HAVE BEEN TRANSFERRED TO TUSCON DIVISION IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.