President Cleveland has the faculty of keeping a cabinet together. Few changes have been made under either one of his administrations.

We notice that the newspapers that contemptuously refer to the fifty cent silver dollar, are willing to accept them at par. In fact silver is about all that most of them get.

The people of Eugene do not seem to desire to celebrate the Fourth of July. The result will be the same as of the excursion Sunday. The money will be spent abroad.

It is very pleasing to note the marked interest in athletics throughout the union. With an increase of the athletic spirit will come healthier and better relations in all the departments of life.

It is reported that John L. Sullivan, the once famous prize fighter, is penniless and depends on his friends for a living. He made a fortune, but spent it as quickly as it was realized.

Diplomats come high. It is said that John W. Foster received $100,000 for his services in behalf of the Chinese government. It is seldom that a great nation takes a foreigner into service and trusts him with affairs of state.

Two years ago the Union Pacific railroad controlled a powerful system of over 8000 miles of track. The courts have been shearing off its arms and feeders until little more than its own line of about 1100 miles remains.

The DAILY GUARD commenced its fourth year Saturday. We believe it is appreciated by the public, and shall strive in the future, as in the past, to maintain its standing as a first class local paper, filling the field in which it circulates to the fullest extent.

The two postoffices in the United States most widely separated from each other are those at Key West, Fla., and Ounalaska, Alaska. They are 6271 miles apart, and yet a two cent stamp will carry a letter from one to the other as readily as from New York to Brooklyn.

Lane county has three splendid hot springs resorts in the Cascade mountains, two on the McKenzie and one on the Willamette. The traveling public should remember that there is no toll on the McKenzie road now, and that the Hendricks ferry is run free by the county.

A young woman at Astoria, whose husband had been missing five days, hearing that the body of a man had been found in the river at once decided that it was that of her spouse. She immediately went to town and without troubling herself to identify the remains, spent $15 buying crape and material for a mourning dress. When she reached home she found her husband making a pot of tea at the kitchen fire.

It has been decided by the senate of the university of Michigan to hold elaborate exercises a year from this coming commencement to celebrate the successful close of Dr. Angell's first quarter of a century as president of the university. A committee was appointed consisting of the deans of the various departments to take the matter in charge and prepare a plan for the celebration. It was also voted to ask the regents to appoint a similar committee to join in the undertaking.

That bright paper, the East Oregonian, published at Pendleton, has this: "The Oregon State Press Association will meet at Newport, on Yaquina Bay, in July. The 'boys,' say they are going to have an all-fired 'good time.' July is the right month for such a time, and we hope they have made no mistake in the place." Jackson you can rest assured that the place is the right one. The sweetest girls on earth are to be found on the Yaquina beach during that month, as Handsome Bob Johnson will assure you upon private correspondence. However, don't whisper this to Mrs. J., or else you may not be present.

The Siuslaw bar has rectified itself, and schoolers can again cross it. The delay was only temporary and such a state of affairs may not occur again for many years.

"Coin's Financial School" is a little book, but is causing gold standard advocates an immense amount of trouble. It is a complete exposition of the silver argument clearly and concisely stated.

At least $500 was taken out of Eugene by the conductor's excursion on ticket sales alone, and it is but reasonable calculation to say there was at least one dollar on an average spent by each of those five hundred people while in Salem. This will make $1000 taken out of our city and the only way to get it back is to get up something that will draw the crowd here—a Fourth of July celebration for instance.

President Cleveland takes a man for attorney general unknown outside of his own locality. It has been the fashion of late presidents to select their cabinets from men having no national reputation, then make clerks out of them. In the first years of the republic, cabinet officers enjoyed liberty of action. Now they are simple mouthpieces of the president and few men of note will accept such barren honors. If affairs go wrong the cabinet officer gets the blame. If successful the president. He becomes a catwip.

College students are almost distinct in their character when students, says the Albany Democrat. They stand out in bold relief and you know they are around. Some are greater than ever after in life. Their names on account of some athletic or other feat may be sounded across the continent, but in a short time after leaving their alma mater they are absorbed in the great maelstrom of life and only energy will keep them on their feet; perhaps you never hear of them again. Others then are almost unknown during their college days whose light grows brighter as they stand on the pinnacle eventually. A college career makes the chances decidedly in favor of the ambitious young man.

It is too often the case that in event of disaster the owners of a ship are condemned without a hearing. The steamer Colima foundered in a hurricane and many lives were lost, and now the company is charged with over loading the vessel, making her top-heavy. From the facts adduced the charge appears to be unjust. The experienced seamen who commanded the steamer were utterly unable to hold her head to the gale, and she fell into a trough of the sea and foundered. It must have been a terrible storm that a staunch steamer could not face, and when she swung broadside to the storm, a position from which she had not power to escape, destruction was inevitable.

Era Poppleton sued Charley Nickell, of the Jacksonville Times, for $10,000 for libel, and got a verdict of $1. He would not have gotten that if he had not the instructions of the judge almost compelled some verdict for damages. The men that sue newspapers for libel generally come out with a dollar character or none at all. The law is wrong that allows an irresponsible bilk to drag a newspaper publisher into court for exposing and warning the public of his character and crooked work, all of which is done for the benefit of the community. While the verdict seldom amounts to anything, the cost and expenses may be considerable. In this case Mr. Nickell proved the truth of his statements, yet he was compelled to go to Portland, a distance of 300 miles, with his witnesses, to defend himself from damages.

A story told of Horace Greeley relates that an acquaintance of his got offended at one of his articles in the Tribune, went to the office and put an end to his subscription. Later in the day he met the editor and said: "Mr. Greeley, I've stopped your paper." "Have you?" queried Horace, adding, "Well that's too bad," and the old white hat went its way. The next morning Greeley encountered his former subscriber again and accosted him with: "I thought you had stopped the Tribune." "So I did." "Then their must be some mistake," replied Horace, "for I just came from the office, and when I left the presses were running as usual, the clerks were as busy as ever, and the compositor's were hard at work, and the business was going on the same as yesterday and the day before." "Oh!" ejaculated the old subscriber, "I didn't mean that I stopped your paper. I stopped only my copy of it because I didn't like one of your editorials." "Pshaw!" retorted Greeley, "it wasn't worth taking up my time to tell me such a trifle as that. My dear sir, if you expect to control the utterance of the Tribune by the purchase of one copy a day, or if you think to find any newspaper worth reading that never expresses convictions at right angles with your own you are doomed to disappointment. The Tribune would not be deserving of respect if it could be controlled by the threat of the loss of one subscriber, or a hundred, or ten thousand, or even every one it has, to refrain from telling the truth as it sees it. My friend, this is a free country, and the man who does not give freedom of opinion to others does not deserve it himself. Good-by."

At the meeting of the Masons in Portland next Wednesday, a secretary will be elected to succeed S. F. Chadwick, deceased. Since the death of Chadwick, as F. Robinson, of this city, has held the office by appointment, and Masonry in this state would not make any mistake by electing him to the position. Mr. Robinson has filled many high places in the different Masonic organizations, is thoroughly conversant with the laws, rituals and usages of Masonry, is prompt, and has the clerical ability required for the important position equal to any man in the state.

W. C. T. U. ENTERTAINMENT.—A goodly number of tickets had been sold and a fair crowd was out to witness the W. C. T. U. entertainment at Parker's opera house Saturday evening. A number of recitations and musical selections were rendered, all of which were good, some of them being encouraged. But that which received the most favor from the audience was the original play, "The Coming Woman." This play was well sustained throughout and heartily applauded by the audience. All the pieces on the programme were very excellent for amateurs and the entertainment was well worth the price.

SEVEN INDICTMENTS.—Tuesday's Salem Journal: "The grand jury returned seven true bills against Charles E. Jones for larcenies in dwellings in this city. The grand jury has not yet passed upon the case of Mrs. Tripp, supposed to have disposed of some of Jones' property, with whom she was living." Jones is the Pleasant Hill postoffice robber.

The taken man of today says: Jones was taken before Judge Burnett at 1:15 p. m. and arraigned this morning to plead. During the reading of the indictment by District Attorney James McCann the indelicate became quite nervous and as the officer took up the fifth paper and began to read therefrom he was compelled to step to the clerk's desk and lean thereon to prevent his falling over. In other words he became suddenly tired.

RESTORES Natural Growth OF THE HAIR.—WHEN ALL OTHER Dressings FAIL.

"I can cordially endorse Ayer's Hair Vigor, as one of the best preparations for the hair. When I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor, all the front part of my head—about half of it—was bald. The use of only two bottles restored a natural growth, which still continues as in my youth. I use several other dressings, but they all fail. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the best."—Mrs. J. C. Hops, gardens and grain looking fine, but a rain would be highly beneficial.

AS IN YOUTH

Ayer's Hair Vigor

CORDIALLY INDORSED.

RESTORES Natural Growth OF THE HAIR.—WHEN ALL OTHER Dressings FAIL.

"I can cordially endorse Ayer's Hair Vigor, as one of the best preparations for the hair. When I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor, all the front part of my head—about half of it—was bald. The use of only two bottles restored a natural growth, which still continues as in my youth. I use several other dressings, but they all fail. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the best."—Mrs. J. C. PATTERSON, Converse, Texas.

THE PLANO LEADS Because IT IS THE BEST!

THE FLY WHEEL Gives it steady motion in tangled grain, and on rough, uneven ground; causes it to run lightly over soft places, makes it run on a horse lighter draft and bind a bundle after the team stops.

More Jones Steel Headers Sold in '94 than all others combined.

You should see the JONES CHAIN MOWER before you buy. Simplest, longest lived and lightest draft mower in the world. Never out of repair. No gears wear out, no friction, no noise, nothing to make the farmer "cuss." Chain Power runs the great Ferris wheel. This proves its strength. Bicycles are Chain Drive. Why? Light draft!
