FIRE AT COBURG.

Destroyed.

Daily Guard, June 7. Last night about 10:30 o'clock the people of Coburg were aroused from their slumbers by the cries of "fire." It was found that the large livery stable belonging to J. A. Holt was on fire, and beyond halp as that little city has and beyond help, as that little city has no means whereby to fight the flery element. Willing hands managed to save the horses, and several buggies, while the balance of the populace formed a bucket brigade to save other property, and by hard work the fire was prevented from spreading to the other important buildings of the place, the only other building destroyed be ing Henry Phillippi's barn.

The following property was destroyed in Mr. Holt's barn: 2 buggles, 400 bushel@of oats, 50 tons of hay, 30 of which belonged to Wm. Vanduyn, 1 stage back, 6 sets harness, 2 saddles and other minor articles used about a livery stable. In the been two cows, some enictees and four been of home were burned up.
