

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

ESTABLISHED FOR THE DISSEMINATION OF DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES, AND TO EARN AN HONEST LIVING BY THE SWEAT OF OUR BROW
EUGENE, OR., SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1895.

VOL 27

NO. 27.

The Eugene City Guard. PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY. I. L. CAMPBELL, Publisher and Proprietor.

J. S. LUCKEY DEALER IN Clocks, Watches, Chains, Jewelry, Etc. REPAIRING PROMPTLY DONE.

L. W. BROWN, M. D. Physician and Surgeon. Office and residence over postoffice. Hours: 7 to 9 a. m.; 12 to 2, 6 to 9 p. m.

H. C. LAKE GRANITE AND MARBLE WORKS. New designs and New Prices in Foreign and Domestic Marble and Granite, Monuments, Headstones and Cemetery work of all kinds for 1895.

A. C. WOODCOCK, Attorney-at-Law. Office—One-half block south of Christmas Block.

C. M. COLLIER, CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR. NOTARY PUBLIC. At residence cor. 5th and Lincoln Sts.

EUGENE ABSTRACT COMPANY. W. K. SCARBOROUGH, Manager.

First National Bank of Eugene. Paid up Cash Capital $50,000 Surplus and Profits, $50,000 Eugene - Oregon.

J. F. FORD, (Evangelist.) Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1893: S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufur, Oregon.

J. L. PAGE, DEALER IN GROCERIES. HAVING A LARGE AND COMPLETE STOCK OF staple and Fancy Groceries bought in the best markets.

Linn & Kays, FURNITURE DEALERS, UNDERTAKERS & EMBALMERS. Calls answered day or night. Opposite Hotel Eugene, Willamette street.

MRS. J. H. HARRISS. FASHIONABLE MILLINERY. Spring and Summer of 1895. Newest Stock and Lowest Prices. Bonnets, Hats and Trimmings.

We take the following dispatch from the San Francisco Examiner: BUTTE MONT June 16.—Frank Weiden, a cook was fatally shot by Ed Babbs, a waiter about 5:30 o'clock this evening.

He Fatally Shoots a Man Named Frank Weiden. A rumor is prevalent that young Babbs and Weiden got into a quarrel and both commenced shooting and that Babbs was the better shot.

IRVING CAMPMEETING.—Five teams went from the U B church to the Irving camping grounds yesterday morning, taking down about 100 persons.

A VERY GALLY COMPANY.—A patent suspender company of Washville, Tenn., which possesses an unlimited amount of gall, is sending samples of its goods to people throughout the county.

WON SECOND MONEY.—In the free for all race for 3-year-olds, for a purse of $400, at Portland, Saturday, Sophie R., owned by Pickett & Somerville, of this city, took second money.

IN EUGENE.—Mose Saxon, an old pioneer, who left here in 1878 for the Palouse country, is in Eugene visiting old friends.

TO MCKENZIE FALLS.—County School Superintendent J. G. Stevenson left on his bicycle for McKenzie Falls. He will visit the schools up the McKenzie and also angle for the festive trout along his route.

SOLD.—Saturday afternoon an undivided one-half interest in the Thos. Swift place, consisting of 160 acres, lying southwest of Eugene, was sold at administrator's sale.

WILL GRADUATE.—Misses Bertha Blair and Myra Gillif, of Eugene, will graduate from Butte training school, connected with the Good Samaritan hospital, at Portland, tonight.

WHEAT SOLD.—S H Friendly yesterday sold to Portland parties 6,000 bushels of wheat; terms private.

Remember that the trains have changed time. Commissioners court adjourned Saturday evening. Mrs. Joel McCracken, of the lower Siuslaw, has been visiting relatives here.

The new time table on the railroad went into effect last evening at 6 o'clock. George Noland of Astoria is having a handsome cottage built at Seaside Clatsop beach.

There is a circus hovering about in Eastern Oregon somewhere and the small boys are in hope. J B Harris and the Eugene Loan & Savings Bank will have the fronts of their buildings repainted at once.

Salem Journal: The State university has made Bachelors of Law of Governor Lord and Chief Justice Bean—an honor worthily conferred.

Prof E B McElroy the other day delivered the commencement address before the graduating class of the Portland High School. It was highly complimented by the papers of Portland.

Winterville a Dalles boy who has been a student in the University of Oregon at Eugene, came home last night. Mr Winterville is a member of this year's junior class, and next June will receive his diploma from that worthy institution.

Vale Gazette: This is a day of rustlers in every trade, profession and call line, and this community is one of the rustling sort. Last Sunday afternoon Rev Atkinson held divine services in Vale and before church he went to all the saloons and invited all present to come to church and hear his sermon.

GORED BY A BULL.—Rev I D Driver was severely gored by a bull last evening at his farm just south of town. Mr Driver entered a corral where the animal was, it attacked him, crowding him into a wire fence and goring him in the breast and in one of his legs.

A TARANTULAR.—Geo Hall found a large tarantular in a bunch of bananas last evening. He was removing some of the fruit and came very nearly getting hold of the tarantular. It was placed in a bottle of alcohol for preservation and is now on exhibition at the store.

TO BE MARRIED.—County Clerk Jennings this morning issued a marriage license to Mr George N McLean and Miss Agnes Millican. The young couple will be married at the residence of the bride's parents tomorrow, in Camp Creek precinct. In advance the GUAHD tenders congratulations.

NAME CHANGED.—The S P company has changed the name of its station at Springfield to that of Henderson. This will make two stations by that name which the company has on its lines, each within one mile of the other.

PERSONAL Daily Guard, June 27. Mack Somerville visited Junction today. Arthur Veazie returned to Portland today. Sam Goldsmith, of Portland, is in Eugene.

The man who has caused the Fall Creek sensation, H P Hayes, was taken to Fall Creek, by Deputy Constable Chas M Kibbenberger late Saturday afternoon, and upon his arraignment before Justice R G Callison, the preliminary examination was set for Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

The young lady betrayed in the case, Miss Susan Walker, says that while in the intimacy between herself and her uncle commenced about one year ago; and she makes a full confession of her betrayal. She says that they occupied the same room in the Hotel Eugene on the night of the 20th of last September.

The couple are not full uncle and niece, being half uncle and niece, Hayes being half brother of the young lady's father. Training and spraying is going on. There are plenty of lice, and where there is no thought of abandoning the crop a hard fight is being made with them.

A GASOLINE BOAT.—Mr W R Mc Cormack received on the 24th of Saturday a 3-horse-power gasoline engine, which he is now using to run his new boat, now under construction. Chas. Sherborny is building the little vessel, the dimensions of which will be: Keel, 21 ft.; over all, 33 ft.; beam, 5 1/2 ft. Mr McCormack says that the completion of the boat may be delayed for some time on account of the coming laying season.

POOR STREETS.—The Salem Journal bicycle correspondent says: "The streets of Albany are not as good as the average county road. Simply a succession of holes and humps in the gravel. They do not need to pass an ordinance against driving because the man who drives fast is likely to go to the hospital and the buggy or other vehicle to the shop."

VERY ILL.—Portland Sun: "H. G. Mathies, editor of the Oregon Knight, is lying very low with Bright's disease at his home, 403 East Twelfth street. The chances of recovery are against him." The gentleman is a member of the executive committee of the Oregon Press Association and two weeks ago was with the editor at Newport making arrangements for the meeting of the association. At that time he seemed to be in the very best of health.

SETTLED BY ARBITRATION.—J. R. Pitzer and wife at the late term of circuit court sued N G Pitzer for the sum of $370 for labor performed. The parties to the suit wisely concluded to arbitrate the matter, before S. M. Titus, C. W. Young and Isaac Cox. They met at Trent yesterday, heard the case and awarded the plaintiffs the sum of $32.

NOT AT ALL.—Salem Journal: "Albany and Eugene papers seem to be jealous of Salem because the people of this city are to have one more train upon which to take their money to Portland to trade." Eugene is satisfied with her train service.

BEAR RIVER MINES.—Sewell Smith is in town and he informs us that some Utah mine capitalists have been inspecting the Blue River mines and are highly pleased with them. He also says the road is in excellent condition.

TO FALL CREEK.—Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Williams and Attorney J E Young, left for Fall Creek this morning. Williams will appear for the state in the case against H P Hayes before R. G. Callison, today, arrested on the charge of incest. Young and Matteson will look after the defendant's interests.

THE FALL CREEK CASE. Coroner Harris Returned.—Hayes Taken to Fall Creek. Other Facts.

Coroner John W Harris returned home from Fall Creek Saturday evening. After a full and complete investigation of the death of Mr Walker he came to the conclusion that he died from natural causes. In fact, there were no symptoms, at all of poisoning. The man had no spasms at all, and died from neuralgia of the heart, and all his complaints were of great pain in the region of the heart.

THE CONFESSION. The young lady betrayed in the case, Miss Susan Walker, says that while in the intimacy between herself and her uncle commenced about one year ago; and she makes a full confession of her betrayal. She says that they occupied the same room in the Hotel Eugene on the night of the 20th of last September.

Hops Around Payallap. Training and spraying is going on. There are plenty of lice, and where there is no thought of abandoning the crop a hard fight is being made with them.

A GASOLINE BOAT.—Mr W R Mc Cormack received on the 24th of Saturday a 3-horse-power gasoline engine, which he is now using to run his new boat, now under construction. Chas. Sherborny is building the little vessel, the dimensions of which will be: Keel, 21 ft.; over all, 33 ft.; beam, 5 1/2 ft. Mr McCormack says that the completion of the boat may be delayed for some time on account of the coming laying season.

POOR STREETS.—The Salem Journal bicycle correspondent says: "The streets of Albany are not as good as the average county road. Simply a succession of holes and humps in the gravel. They do not need to pass an ordinance against driving because the man who drives fast is likely to go to the hospital and the buggy or other vehicle to the shop."

VERY ILL.—Portland Sun: "H. G. Mathies, editor of the Oregon Knight, is lying very low with Bright's disease at his home, 403 East Twelfth street. The chances of recovery are against him." The gentleman is a member of the executive committee of the Oregon Press Association and two weeks ago was with the editor at Newport making arrangements for the meeting of the association.

SETTLED BY ARBITRATION.—J. R. Pitzer and wife at the late term of circuit court sued N G Pitzer for the sum of $370 for labor performed. The parties to the suit wisely concluded to arbitrate the matter, before S. M. Titus, C. W. Young and Isaac Cox. They met at Trent yesterday, heard the case and awarded the plaintiffs the sum of $32.

NOT AT ALL.—Salem Journal: "Albany and Eugene papers seem to be jealous of Salem because the people of this city are to have one more train upon which to take their money to Portland to trade." Eugene is satisfied with her train service.

BEAR RIVER MINES.—Sewell Smith is in town and he informs us that some Utah mine capitalists have been inspecting the Blue River mines and are highly pleased with them. He also says the road is in excellent condition.

TO FALL CREEK.—Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Williams and Attorney J E Young, left for Fall Creek this morning. Williams will appear for the state in the case against H P Hayes before R. G. Callison, today, arrested on the charge of incest. Young and Matteson will look after the defendant's interests.

COMMISSIONERS COURT. B B Jeans road; dismissed, not being in form to give the court jurisdiction.

Petition for a bridge across Long Tom, 20 miles west of Eugene; continued for inspection of said bridge. Petition for a road of public easement in tp 1 s, r 3 w; dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

Petition for a bridge across Row river, at the Frank Bass ford, the court having made personal inspection of the site for said bridge and deeming the same unsuitable, it is ordered that the prayer of the petitioners be not granted.

In the matter of the vacation of a portion of Hendricks' addition to College Hill park; continued, no proof of posting of notices being on file. Petition for relief of Henry Worthley; continued for explanation.

In the matter of the resignation of Julius Koopp, constable of Hermann precinct, resignation not accepted. Report of viewers and surveyors for the relocation of county road No. 121; reports read, considered and approved, and clerk ordered to record the same in road records.

W H Fenton, J P, State vs Robert Baker, $5 05 Continued for correction. J W Knudall, constable, State vs Robert Baker, 8 40 Continued for correction.

Minnie Chandler, witness State vs Robert Baker, 2 20 Continued for correction. J E Chandless, witness State vs Robert Baker, 2 20 Continued for correction.

T Howard witness State vs Robert Baker, 4 20 Continued for correction. Thomas Holt, witness State vs Robert Baker, 1 50 Continued for correction.

Charles Chandless, witness vs Robert Baker, 2 00 Continued for correction. William Veatch, witness State vs Robert Baker, 2 10 Continued for correction.

At this time the court considered bids for furnishing blocks for county bridge on Coyote creek on Siuslaw road, blocks to be four feet long and not less than 19 inches through. J A Jeans and J Huston bid 35 cents each; J F Inman, 33 cents each. The contract was awarded to J F Inman.

Petition for bridge across Mosby creek; not granted. Rebate of taxes to Annie Reiter; Norton & Kinsey, her attorneys, ask the court to allow the said Annie Reiter a rebate of $9.25 being the amount paid by law for lands sold for taxes, being improperly described and covered by sheriff's certificate of sale No. 48 in 1894.

At this time the court allowed to G W Kimble $1.80 rebate on taxes on an erroneous sheriff's assessment for 1894. Petition of citizens of Jasper for a bridge; petition of P. S. Hills and 58 others for a bridge across Mill pond at Hills creek; it is ordered by the court that J T Callison be authorized to visit the proposed site and bridge and report at the July term of this court.

FOR THE BLOOD

Just now everybody is thinking about taking something for the blood. A Spring medicine as we speak of it. And it's a good thing to do, but you want to get the proper medicine.

Take a GOOD LIVER MEDICINE and that, because the liver has everything to do with the blood. If the liver is sluggish the system is clogged, the blood becomes impure, and the whole body suffers.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR It does its work well, and tones up the whole system. It's "Better than Pills," and can be had in liquid or powder.

City Ordinances. An ordinance to prohibit persons from tying or staking out animals in the streets and alleys in the city of Eugene. The city of Eugene does ordain as follows: Sec. 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to tie or stake out for the purpose of pasturing or grazing in any of the streets or alleys in the city of Eugene, any horse, cow or other animal.

Sec. 2. That any person violating the provisions of section 1 of this ordinance shall, upon conviction before the city recorder, be fined not less than two dollars nor more than ten dollars and costs, and in default of payment of said fine and costs of prosecution, shall be imprisoned in the city jail one day for each two dollars of such fine and costs.

Sec. 3. That hereafter it shall be unlawful for any dog or dogs to go at large in any of the streets, squares or alleys, or other public places in this city, without having a collar of leather or metal secured about its neck, with a number stamped thereon. Sec. 4. The owner or person having in charge any dog permitted to run at large within the city limits, shall on or before the first day of July of each year, pay into the city treasury, through the Recorder the sum of one dollar for each male dog and two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) for each slut, as license, and the further sum of twenty-five cents as Recorder's fee, and twenty-five cents for a number, which shall entitle him to a number; the Recorder designating the owner's name and the number, which shall correspond with that worn by the dog.

Sec. 5. The city marshal shall receive one dollar and expenses of keeping, for each dog killed and buried, or otherwise disposed of, in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance, the same to be paid by the city. Sec. 6. The time for issuing license and the date of expiration, shall be the first day of July, and no license shall be issued for a shorter period than one year. Passed June 10, 1895.

DELEGATES.—Lane county is represented at the great Christian church meeting at Turner by the following delegates: Eugene.—P. H. Burns, J. McPherson, Mr. P. J. McPherson, Hattie Cowgill, J. W. Lakin, Mrs. Applegate, Junction.—Genevieve Major, John Handsaker, Frank Billington, Mrs. W. L. Bristow, of Pleasant Hill, spoke at the meeting today on "Why so many of our auxiliary meetings seem and are uninteresting."

Big Sale.—Salem Journal: It is reported that Ben Cook, of Oregon Land Co., has about effected the sale of the 60 acre Cottle fruit farm, in the Liberty neighborhood, to an eastern syndicate, at the price of $300 an acre. That would be a pretty snug sum for a 4-year-old fruit tract. But it is one of the best ones in the county, and in this valley.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, Gold Medal, Midwinter Fair. DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER Most Perfect Made. 40 Years the Standard.