

FRIDAY, JULY 5.

L. G. Adair is in Portland. E. H. Ingham is in Portland. W. F. Halliday is again in Eugene. Workmen are repairing the city jail. Herbert Condon is visiting in Salem. Hugh Renshaw has returned from Portland. Several private fireworks parties last evening. County Commissioners' court is still in session. Matthew Wallis is reported a little better today. Hon. H. R. Kincaid returned to Salem this morning. Miss Mabel Stiles is quite ill with typhoid fever. Hon. H. B. Miller went to Roseburg this afternoon. H. C. Humphrey has returned home from Portland. Mrs. Rev. Blair, of Portland, is visiting in Eugene. Prof. Foster is held responsible for yesterday's rain. Father Stravins is spending the week in Portland. The rain will not do the hay that is down any good. A few lice are reported in some of the hop yards today. The city is ordering a large amount of new sidewalks built. J. R. Campbell was doing business in Woodburn yesterday. Mrs. J. M. Howe and children are visiting at Brownsville. Dr. Hamman, of Roseburg, spent the Fourth in this city. Dr. W. H. Rowland, of Ogden, Utah, is visiting in the city. The pension of John Wilson, at Eugene, has been renewed. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Vincent are visiting relatives at Corvallis. Many are now planning to go to the mountains and sea coast. It rained over nearly all of Oregon and Washington yesterday. Jimmy Thompson, today, moved his barber shop across the street. A postoffice called Tip-top has been established 13 miles above Lowell. Attorney Woodcock returned home from Portland last evening. Captain Sachs has returned from a visit of several weeks at Portland. Thanks to Perry Frank for some fine specimens of Royal Ann cherries. Attorney H. D. Norton and Geo. T. Hall went to Junction City this morning. W. H. Stalker has arrived at Baker City so the Democrat of that city notes. Mrs. Geo. Millican has returned from teaching a term of school near Junction City. Tivoli music-hall in Portland, was nearly ruined by fire this morning; loss $2,700. A beautiful fan given free to every one who attends the lawn social Saturday night. John H. L.'s new livery stable at Co burg is nearly completed. It is now being painted. Newport has engaged the services of the Salem brass band and orchestra for this summer. E. P. Stottick, a student, returned to his home at Portland on this morning's early train. E. P. Whipple, Jesse Miller and Mrs. Adams and families have gone to Row river for an outing. W. H. Hoffman returned home from Portland last night after attending the races for nearly three weeks. Nearly all the Eugene people have returned from the different Fourth of July celebrations. Tammany, in New York City, celebrated yesterday. Senator D. B. Hill delivered the leading address. It is said that Miss Anna May Abbott, the "Little Electric Magnet," will soon give a performance in Eugene. La Grande Chronicle: Miss Lavinia Cashier in the railroad eating house at Meacham, is a visitor in La Grande today. Dr. Evans, of Cheshire precinct, is suffering from a stroke of paralysis in the left side. His chances for recovery are small. Judge Walton returned home last night from Independence. He delivered the Fourth of July oration at that place. Salem Statesman: Miss Maud Kern of Eugene is a guest at the home of her grandfather, Charles Claggett, on Commercial street. Mr. N. K. Frazier and Miss Catharine Coggswell left this morning for Uncle Jack Coggswell's farm on the banks of the McKenzie where they will spend a week. Miss E. Whitmore has gone to Florence to teach a four months' school. The young lady is a graduate of the Drain Normal School. While riding one of the race horses at Junction City yesterday the animal fell and hurled George Hunt, the rider, to the ground. He was bruised up a little. C. G. LeMasters, one of the founders of the Broad Axe, has gone to Holister, Cal., to accept a position as city editor of the Alliance published at that place. The July numbers of the Forum, Century, Review of Reviews, North American Review, Harper's Monthly and St. Nicholas may now be found at the Reading Room. G. B. Claiborne, of Stockton, and A. C. Bassett, of San Francisco, who have been spending a week or more trout fishing at John Anderson's, on the McKenzie, returned to Eugene today. Rev. Herbert S. Johnson left for Portland on this morning's local train. After a brief visit in that city he will return to his home in Pittsfield, Mass. Prof. Edgar McClure left yesterday for the Mazamas, who are to ascend Mount Adams. The Prof. went prepared to measure the mountain correctly. The last issue of the Union Scout prints an excellent photograph of Miss Nellie M. Stevens, school superintendent of Union county. Miss Stevens was reared and educated in Eugene. She is one of the leading educators in Eastern Oregon now. Hon. C. K. Wilkinson, of Portland arrived here this afternoon to pay relatives and friends a short visit. A Corvallis dispatch says of his oration at that place on the Fourth: "His address was able, interesting and intensely patriotic, and throughout its delivery the speaker was given the closest attention by the vast audience. Newport Record: Prof. B. J. Hawthorne, of the university at Eugene, spent several days a guest at the Bay View. Professor Hawthorne has a cottage at Seal Rocks, and while here made it ready soon for occupancy. The Professor is in favor of a summer school at Newport and says the advantages for such an institution here cannot be surpassed anywhere. Ex: A little boy who was up at the court house the other day said to his father on his return: "Papa, do lawyers tell the truth?" "Certainly, my boy, they will do anything to win the case." Hon. S. H. Friendly has many kind words for the kind treatment received by the leading business men of Baker City and Pendleton. He thinks that the University of Oregon will have many new students from that section the coming school year. The Dalles Chronicle: A large number of farmers are cutting hay this season instead of letting the grain ripen for wheat. A gentleman living near The Dalles sold 25 tons this week for $10 a ton, when last fall the price was between $7 and $8. Several large fields on the hill back from Chenoweth and on the Klickitat mountain, in sight of town, have already been cut for hay. Roseburg Review: It will be noticed in the circuit court proceedings, that the case of Assessor Sterling against Douglas county was settled and dismissed. The agreement is, we are informed, that Mr. Sterling will hereafter receive pay at $4 a day for twenty-five days in each month, virtually putting him on a salary of $1,200 a year. The deputies will have to take whatever the court is willing to pay them. SOXONIA GUN WORKS. Will Remain in This City—Prominent Men Interested. Captain Sachs, of the Soxonia Gun Works, has returned to Eugene. He informs us that this manufacturing enterprise will remain and be operated in Eugene. He says the report in the Portland Sun that they would be removed to that place is a mistake. The company has been incorporated, and 2000 of the 5000 shares of the stock are offered for sale on the market. E. C. Jorgenson, of Marx & Jorgenson, and A. H. Deyers, of Cisset & Deyers, Portland, have decided to take quite a block of the stock, thereby insuring the success of the company. A limited amount of the stock will be offered for sale in Eugene, and our citizens should subscribe liberally to the same, as the enterprise in time, if successful, will be worth thousands of dollars to our community. It is likely that a meeting of the board of trade will be called at once to consider this important matter. WILL VISIT EUGENE.—Allan B. Slauson, telegraphing from Washington, D. C., July 4th, says: "Mrs. H. H. Gilroy, accompanied by her two daughters, Sarah and Helen, left Washington City last Sunday, June 30, for Oregon. They will stop at the home of Mrs. Gilroy's sister in Greensburg, Pa., where they will remain for several days until joined by Mr. Gilroy, who is detained here in the meantime by important business matters. When the family is united, they will go direct to Oregon, preferably taking the Great Northern route on account of its novelty and coolness at this time of the year. They expect to remain in Oregon about two months visiting friends, a portion of which time will be spent at Newport, as guests of Mr. T. G. Hendricks, of Eugene, at his cottage on Nye creek. They also intend to visit Redondo Beach, Cal., before returning to Washington." Daily Guard, July 5. A MINISTER OF NOTE.—Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor at Pittsfield, Mass., preached an able sermon at the Baptist church last evening. Mr. Johnson, who has become a minister of considerable note in the East, though still a young man, is now exchanging pulpits with Dr. Grant of Portland and is thus afforded an opportunity to visit his old home in Eugene. The Baptist church was crowded with people last night to hear him. Many of the prayer meetings of the city were dismissed that their members might hear this Eugene boy who has made such a mark in the world in such a short space of time. SNEAK THIEF.—Junction City Times: "A sneak thief entered the Arlington Hotel Sunday morning about 3 o'clock while the proprietor was at the early train, and broke open a trunk in the parlor and stole about $103. The parlor door being open when the proprietor returned from the train, aroused his suspicion and an investigation brought to light the loss. No attempt was made to locate the robber as suspicion rests upon an individual who was familiar with the premises. As yet no arrest has been made although quite an investigation is being instituted." CORRECT.—Roseburg Plaindealer: "Mrs. A. G. Osburn has returned and taken charge of her late husband's business and will conduct it herself in person. Mrs. Osburn is an intelligent woman and doubtless will manage the business upon true business principles. There is no good reason why an intelligent woman may not conduct a business as successfully as a man. Such is being done every day all over this broad land. We bespeak for Mrs. Osburn a liberal patronage. Please give her your support and sympathy under the trying circumstances of her bereavement. She is worthy of it." LOGS CONTRACTED.—Corvallis Times: "The saw mill is now well supplied for present use with logs. Three tows Friday and one Thursday were brought up from Deadman creek, four miles down the river, by the steamer Eugene. The company has also placed an order with Deadman Brothers for a quarter of a million feet for delivery in three months, to come from the McKenzie. There is a good demand for lumber at the mill yard."

SATURDAY, JULY 5. A dull Saturday. L. S. Rowland is in Portland. F. E. Dunn is home from Portland. Mrs. Prof. Condon went to Salem today. W. N. Matlock went to Portland today. Henry Huddleston went to Salem today. Miss Lulu Norris returned home this afternoon. Editor Amis of the Broad-Axe is on the sick list. Captain Sachs returned to Portland this morning. Leonard Gross is clerking in F. E. Dunn's store. Walt Griffin went to Cottage Grove this afternoon. Hon. E. P. Coleman, of Coburg, visited Eugene today. Wild blackberries are reported to be quite plentiful this year. The populist nominated a state ticket in Kentucky yesterday. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney J. M. Williams is at Cottage Grove. W. S. Brown and wife, of Harrisburg, visited friends in Eugene today. J. H. Musick, of Cottage Grove mining man, visited Eugene today. Miss Mabel Crow returned home from an extended visit at Albany today. Miss Bertha Goldsmith and little niece Freda are visiting in Oregon City. W. Sanders consigned a car load of chittim bark to New York City yesterday. J. R. Campbell returned last night from a trip to Woodburn and Portland. W. W. Chessman and wife returned home to Springfield from Albany this afternoon. Two weeks from today the Oregon State Press Association meets at Newport. Paddy Ryan won the half mile dash at the Portland races yesterday; time 56 seconds. Miss Gussie Chapman, of Fairmount, went to Creswell this afternoon to visit for a few days. W. J. D'Arcy, the handsome young Salem attorney, is in Eugene on professional business. Misses Etta Preston and Jessie Winkley returned home from Cottage Grove this morning. Mr. Loughmiller, of the firm of Loughmiller & Peter, made Corvallis a business visit today. F. E. Dunn, L. G. Adair and J. R. Campbell returned on the overland from Portland this morning. W. W. Cardwell, a graduate of the State University, delivered the Fourth of July oration at Cayonville. Hon. R. M. Vetch, register of the land office at Roseburg, has returned from Harney county to Roseburg. O. L. Wood came home on last night's train. He says it rained in Portland nearly the entire day yesterday. A marriage license was issued this afternoon to Hugh Edwards and Ada Miller by County Clerk Jennings. Misses Dell and Hattie Walton will go to Portland tomorrow, where the former will receive medical treatment. Attorney L. Bilyeu went to Creswell today where he appears in a civil case. Justice Medley will be the opposing counsel in the case. Geo. T. Hall, wife and daughter, Miss Carrie, will leave Monday morning for a month's outing at their summer home at McKenzie Bridge. Cass Matlock, Frank Knapp and Seth McAllister, and three local wheelmen, will ride centuries tomorrow. They will go to Albany and return. John Church, B. D. Palma and W. E. Brown are doing business at Florence. They took a lot of fishing tackle with them and will combine pleasure with work. Mrs. J. J. Truax, accompanied by her children, arrived here from South Shore, Dakota, yesterday morning to join her husband, who is associated in the 9th street second hand store. "Is that so?" remarked the old timer sympathetically. "Do you know I suffered the same way when I went into the business, but I cured it." "How? What did you do for it?" asked the new man eagerly. "I took some medicine and you want to try it. You can get it for a dollar a bottle or six for $5." "What is it? I want some." "It's 'get onto yourself,' you sucker." The next night the new man wrote the synopsis of a sermon he had never heard, with one hand, while he played pedro with the other, and a cure was effected. TO EUROPE.—A Jacksonville correspondent to the Ashland Tidings has the following concerning a lady well known in Eugene: "Miss Carrie Beekman will leave in a short time to join a party for an extended tour of Europe. Miss Ruth Haskins, a niece of the late William Hoffman, will chaperone the party. Miss Haskins has traveled extensively in Europe, and is a lady eminently qualified by social attainments and grace of culture to chaperone the young ladies. Miss Dolph, a daughter of Ex-Senator Dolph, will be one of the party. Miss Beekman's many friends wish her a very pleasant journey and safe return to her Southern Oregon home." MARRIED.—Miss Minnie Tittell, well known in theatrical circles in this city, was united in marriage last Sunday at Pullman, Wash., to Clarence M. Brune, cashier of the Moscow, Idaho, National bank. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's mother. The couple have gone to Yellowstone Park on a brief bridal tour. The groom is a native of Yamhill, and was educated at the state university. He is a nephew of Governor McConnell, of Idaho. IN BALTIMORE.—Dallas Itemizer: "Dr. J. W. Bean, who married Vena Lee and practiced medicine here ten years ago, is now mayor of Ellensburg, Wash. He, his wife and their child are now in Baltimore where the doctor is taking a post graduate course in medicine." Dr. Bean is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and was born in Lane county.

THE FOURTH. Celebrations at Different Lane County Points Despite the Rain. The Fourth of July brought rain and the "king of mist" ruled supreme from 6 o'clock a.m. until 1 p.m., much to the disgust of a large number of our patriotic citizens who had prepared to celebrate the day at different places. IN EUGENE. Eugene did not celebrate the Fourth yesterday, only as individuals. Of course the day was a quiet one, and it would have been much quieter, if the rain had not come and prevented our citizens from attending the celebrations at different points throughout the county state. As it was quite a number went to Junction City, Lemati, Waltersville, Fairmount, Portland and Albany. The business houses nearly all remained closed from 9 o'clock in the morning during the day. The small boy, and some larger ones, kept up a steady din until the fire crackers were entirely used up. Next year Eugene expects to give a celebration to all. AT FAIRMOUNT. As at other places, in the forenoon, the rain fell in torrents. In the afternoon about 400 people gathered to hear the literary exercises. The president called the meeting to order and Mrs. McAllister delivered a short and appropriate prayer; the choir then directed some excellent music. The oration was delivered by Mrs. Eaves, and was listened to intently. It was full of patriotism and humor. It would be unjust to the lady to attempt a synopsis in the brief space allotted to us, hence we will merely say that it was a production that showed much learning, and the delivery of the lady was first class. Hon. L. Bilyeu was called upon and delivered a telling speech, taking for his subject "Woman." Mr. Bilyeu was repeatedly applauded. In the evening a social dance was given on the platform. The attendance was good. JUNCTION CITY. About 1000 people celebrated at this place. Notwithstanding the rain the parade took place during the morning under the supervision of Dr. Oglesby, marshal, and B. S. Hyland, assistant marshal. The literary programme took place in the Junction opera house immediately after the parade. Prayer was delivered by Rev. T. P. Haynes, the declaration of independence was read by Miss Sadie Driskill in excellent style. After this came the oration by Clarence W. Keene, a student of the State University. His delivery was perfect, and the oration showed that he had prepared it with much care. It was commended by every person present, and many declared it was the best oration on a Fourth of July they ever listened to. After he finished he was congratulated by a large number of his audience. Young Keene will certainly make his mark as a talker some day. During the afternoon a baby show was held, and there were horse races, a foot race, a base ball game and other amusements. In the evening a large dance was held in the opera house. LEMATI. There was hlyu chuck at this place also. A parade was given, and the band played Annie Roney, and Bro. Thorp appeared with his sweetest girl. It was estimated that 750 people were in attendance. The literary exercises were conducted indoors. The declaration of independence was read in an admirable manner by Miss Rosamond, and the oration, a very creditable one, was delivered by W. H. Cooper. In the afternoon dancing was indulged in, and in the evening dances were held at both Lemati and Cottage Grove, and they were well attended. AT OTHER PLACES. Celebrations were also held at Dexter, Lorane, Florence, Waltersville and Smithfield. He Used the Prescription. He was a new member on the editorial staff and dropped exhausted beside an old reporter in the local room where he reported off. "I'm so lame and tired from chasing on a story that I can hardly move," he sighed. "Is that so?" remarked the old timer sympathetically. "Do you know I suffered the same way when I went into the business, but I cured it." "How? What did you do for it?" asked the new man eagerly. "I took some medicine and you want to try it. You can get it for a dollar a bottle or six for $5." "What is it? I want some." "It's 'get onto yourself,' you sucker." The next night the new man wrote the synopsis of a sermon he had never heard, with one hand, while he played pedro with the other, and a cure was effected. July 1st, 1896. Several of our citizens attended the picnic at the park north of Eugene on the 29th. Judge Boise was the leading speaker, occupying the time from 10 to 12. Miss Hattie Huston was taken suddenly ill a few days ago. Dr. Russell was called and pronounced it spinal affection. The school board of Thurston school district, No. 105, met on the evening of July 1st for the purpose of hiring a teacher for the fall and winter term of school. They decided to hire Mr. DeLaney, who has been teaching at Natron. Our saw mill man, Mr. Beebe, has suspended work at the mill for a few days and gone fishing on the upper McKenzie. Messrs R. Smoole, J. T. Wilkins, Fred Russell, Haul Matteson and Orrin Greene went to Eugene the evening of the 25th to visit the Good Templar's lodge, but learned after arriving there that the lodge had changed the night for meeting to Saturday night. The boys were disappointed but say they will try again. John Price and Miss Flora Edmiston were visiting friends at Mountain Glen last Sunday, the 23d. Chas Gray and Heston Rhodes returned Saturday evening from a fishing trip on the upper McKenzie. The boys report fair success, considering the surroundings. Miss Callie's school at Davis closes on the 3d. She has given entire satisfaction and the district will endeavor to secure her for the winter term. Orin Greene spent Sunday in Eugene visiting friends. Miss Belle Paxton who has been on the sick list for the past few weeks, is improving very slowly. BUCKEYE. Pleasant Hill Items. July 3, 1896. Cloudy weather. Grain ripening fast. W. H. Baughman and crew returned from the mountains last Monday. P. J. Baughman is not improved in health. S. Rigdon was down from his mountain home last week. Ye scribe was at Creswell last Saturday night and walked in on an ice cream and strawberry social unawares in full bloom. Married at Wm Wooten's last Saturday, H. C. Wallace officiating. Mrs. Lavinia Craine and Miss Mary Wooten, Sunday night a jolly band of sweet angelic singers (?) wended their way to Mr. Wooten's, and gave them an open air concert, which the groom and bride enjoyed very much. Mr. Craine invited them in and gave them a beautiful supply of fresh air, as they had run out of pie and cake. Mr. Craine made desperate strides for the confectionery store, but it was locked and he was compelled to administer more fresh air. We think the type got Goshen and Pleasant Hill mixed a little last week. Mrs. C. A. Davis and Mrs. S. J. Rutledge are at Kitson springs spending a month's vacation. Lester Baughman started home for Monmouth last Tuesday. Cor. ENTERPRISE IN BUSINESS.—Cottage Grove Leader: "The Eugene DAILY GUARD on July 2, was compelled to enlarge to a seven column folio temporarily to accommodate the great increase of advertising patronage. We have seen for some time that the business of Eugene has been improving. The fact that some of the more prominent business men of that beautiful and progressive city appreciate the liberal use of private ink, is doing for them a grand work. Advertising is bringing the Eugene merchants a large and growing trade from a large tributary country. While they are doing a good thing for themselves, personally, they are wisely patronizing enterprises which are devoting 365 days in the year to helping bring in enterprising people with thousands of dollars and experience in diversified farming that will cause the fertile valleys and foothills to blossom as the rose. Give us the men who entertain the broad and progressive ideas that help them in helping themselves, to help their man. Give us men who do not, in their innate selfishness, want to 'hog' the enterprise and are always sighing and grasping for the whole earth, the flesh, h—l and the devil." Daily Guard, July 6. SUSPENDED FOR THIRTY DAYS.—Charley Griffin and Oris Wood returned from Portland on the overland last night. Griffin rode in the field day races at the university here without the sanction of the L. A. W. and was on that account suspended for thirty days and will not get to take part in the Portland races, which have been postponed until Saturday, July 13. MARRIED.—At the M. E. parsonage in Eugene, Or., July 6th, 1896, Mr. Hugh Edwards and Miss Ada Miller, both of Lane county; Rev. M. C. Wire officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will live on a farm two and one half miles southwest of Eugene. THAT CALLS.—Roseburg Plaindealer: John Long, of Cleveland, and L. T. Thompson, of Coles Valley, had a legal contest over a calf at Oakland yesterday. The justice gave judgment for Thompson. The contest so far in this case has run up to near $500, more than a hundred such calves are worth.
