GALLAGHER IN TROUBLE.—Moscow, Idaho, is having considerable excitement over threats made against Judge Piper's life, on account of foreclosure cases. It appears that the farmers are badly wrought up and declare that receivers shall not be made in foreclosure suits. A dispatch from that place under date of July 7 is to the effect that the attorney for the mortgagees, Eugene in this connection: "Another fight growing out of the foreclosure cases was the swearing out of a warrant for the arrest of A. E. Gallagher, of Spokane by Attorney Goode, on the charge of libel. The warrant was placed in the hands of the sheriff last night. Gallagher is expected here today, and his arrest will likely follow. The attorneys are waiting for the Vermont Loan & Trust Company, and the charge is based on an article that appeared in the Star of the 5th inst., over Gallagher's signature, in reference to the receivers and accusing Goode of victimizing his clients."

ROCK OYSTERS.—The Dalles T-M says: "Five newspaper men, H. G. Mathies, Ira Campbell, Bob Johnson, E. L. White and Albert Tozier, were all made deathly sick from eating rock oysters at Newport recently. The first named gentleman, H. G. Mathies, has since died from the illness there contracted. The medical fraternity are of the opinion that rock oysters, like mushrooms, are very poisonous at certain seasons and are sure to result disastrously to the man, woman or child who partakes of them for food at the wrong time." The writer of the above is wrong. Tozier and Campbell ate of them liberally but were not sick at all. We think the doctors are wrong in this instance, as the people of Newport eat rock oysters without ill effect the year around. It is our opinion that Mr. Mathies died from natural causes.

SUIT FOR COMMISSION.—As the GUARD goes to press a civil case is being heard before Justice Wheeler, wherein Svarverud & Winder are suing Fred Smith, et al, to recover $250 commission on sales of land. It seems that at the time the sale was made Svarverud and Frasier were partners and that they both claim the commission. Mr. Smith has turned the money over to Chas Lauer to hold until the case is decided, when it will be paid to the one whom the court decides is rightfully entitled to it. Mr. Svarverud has brought on the suit to try and compel Smith to pay the amount of commission to him.

NEW COVERING.—A new covering for the Ninth street bridge has been ordered and under the direction of Councilman Fisher, chairman of the street committee, work will be commenced on the same tomorrow morning. This improvement was badly needed as the bridge in its present condition is dangerous.

GETS AN OFFICE.—Gen W. H. Odell, of Salem, has been appointed clerk of the school land board to succeed Geo W Davis, who has so acceptably filled the position for the past four years. Mr Odell is well known to the greater portion of the people of the state, and has generally held an office for forty years, more or less, probably more.

DOG TAX.—Only 70 dog licenses had been issued by Recorder Dorris up to this morning. The law went into effect July 1st, and as there are about 400 dogs more or less in town, many have not secured licenses. Dog owners had better hurry up, else the dog catcher will be around.

WILL RESIDE HERE.—W. T. Carroll, wife and two children, of Walla Walla, Wash., have arrived here and will permanently reside in Eugene. They came here to educate their children in the University of Oregon.

AS IN YOUTH Ayer's Hair Vigor

CORDIALLY INDORSED.

RESTORES Natural Growth OF THE HAIR

—WHEN ALL OTHER Dressings FAIL.

"I can cordially endorse Ayer's Hair Vigor, as one of the best preparations for the hair. When I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor, all the front part of my head—about half of it—was bald. The use of only two bottles restored a natural growth, which still continues as in my youth. I tried several other dressings, but they all failed. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the best."—Mrs. J. C. PRUSSER, Converse, Texas.

PLAINTIFFS WIN.—In the suit of Svarverud & Winder against Fred Smith, et al, wherein the plaintiffs sought for a real estate commission of $250, the arguments were completed this forenoon, when the decision was rendered in favor of the plaintiffs. We understand that the money has been paid out to the gentlemen.

TEACHERS RETAINED.—The board of directors of the Springfield public schools has retained Prof C S Hunt as principal and Mrs Spos, Mrs C S Hunt and Miss Dodd as teachers for the ensuing school year.

TUESDAY, JULY 9.

Fifteen drummers in town last night. Self blunders are already in some of the fields.

When are you going to take your summer outing? F E Dunn consigned a carload of wool to Portland today.

Frank Pixley, the most noted San Francisco editor, is dead.

Weather prediction for tomorrow: Fair with stationary temperature.

S H Friendly will ship a car of chittim bark to New York City tonight.

The steamer Eugene is stuck quite fast on a bar between Corvallis and Salem.

The Daily Plaindealer, of Roseburg, has been enlarged to a six column folio.

A new sidewalk is being put in on Ninth street in front of Mount's saw works.

Humphrey & Segar are shipping large quantities of cherries to Spokane, Wash.

Since our last report W Sanders has shipped another car of chittim bark to the East.

More drummers and strangers are arriving daily than for several months. A good sign.

Ex-Governor Stevenson, of Idaho, died from an overdose of laudanum yesterday.

The adjourned term of circuit court was a short one. It was in session only a few hours.

Next week a large number of Eugene people will go to the mountains and the sea coast.

The thermometer registered 61 degrees this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Pretty hot for Oregon.

Mrs. W. B. Pengra is building a handsome new residence on High street, between 12th and 13th.

The next meeting of the board of regents of the State University will be held in Portland July 23.

A new blacksmith shop has been opened up on Olive street, opposite Robt. Bowlby's livery stable.

The painting of the Harris and Eugene Savings Bank building has been completed. It presents a much better appearance.

United States Inspectors Edwards and McDermott will be at Florence July 16th to inspect the river crafts owned at that place.

The Sunday Oregonian advertises the circus to appear here on the 17th. This is a mistake, as the humbug aggregation will not be with us this time.

Brownsville is "strictly in it." It recently had the biggest pioneer picnic ever held in the county, celebrated the 4th of July a few weeks after and next Saturday will have another big picnic.

Mr. Wm. Montgomery, who lost his residence by fire yesterday afternoon, was in town this forenoon making arrangements to rebuild. Eighty dollars in cash was also in the burning building.

Next Friday Albany will have quite a number of bicycle races and athletic contests for amusement. To $200 left over from the Fourth of July celebration. Several Eugene riders will contest in the bicycle races.

The Portland Sun says Dr. Paine was elected superintendent of the insane asylum by the votes of Gov Lord and Secretary of State Kincaid. Treasurer Metcalf voted to retain Dr. Rowland. The vote was the same on the election of Gen W H Odell.

A Portland gentleman yesterday received a letter from a friend in Honolulu which states that Harry A Smith, the missing ex-sheriff of Clatsop county, is still in that city. Smith, the writer says, is a "high roller." He still has plenty of money and is spending it lavishly upon his female companion.

Benjamin Agee is the owner, in Southern Oregon, of 3000 acres of land, and is largely interested in fruit, having 22,000 trees planted, 2500 prune trees being in bearing. Last year he dried his prunes and sold them for $4.50, receiving 55 cents per pound. He cleared $3300, it costing him 15 cents for picking, drying and delivering aboard cars. In two years Mr. Agee will have 19,000 prune trees in bearing, and says that $2 of dried fruit to each tree is a safe estimate at present prices.

We learn that a Cottage Grove father last week paid a dressmaker's bill, and then sat down and wrote the following note to his daughter: "When I go to church and listen to a most effective and earnest appeal for money to spread the Gospel through the world and then on looking around see enough waste material in ladies' sleeves in the field, one is apt to think of Hezekiah 13:18: 'Woe to the woman that sews apparel slips to her arm holes!'"

Roseburg Plaindealer July 9: R M Veatch registrar of the land office here, returned from the Burns' land office Sunday night. Mr. Veatch went to Burns to hold an investigation as to the right to lands in that district claimed by Charles W Wells, a home-sown and adversely by the Dalles Wagon Road Company. After hearing the receiver of office and Mr. Veatch of this office decided in favor of the homesteader. Mr. Veatch acted for the register of Burns, as that office was interested in the result.

Creswell Casualties.

ZEPR.

Contracting Hops.

James Hart, Kings county, Washington, writes: Uncertainty and fear are in every hop grower's mind. Last year's experience is not forgotten and everyone knows that a similar fate may be the reward of 1895. If you can know how the crop will turn out, to do with it, you will be a great help to your hop grower.

You are almost certain to have to spray. That costs money and considerable, too, if you pick (and pay living wages) bale, etc. That means thousands of dollars. If you get them baled for 8 cents you have been very economical. If you are forced to sell dollars, you are a loser of thousands of dollars. If you don't pick you are not the loser of money if you are of labor, and that is bad enough. But if every hop yard in the United States would bale nothing, next year would be a year when a living price would be paid. Prices are very low, and there is no prospect of an advance. If you contract, be sure and have some say in the quality question, or else you are there with an equal say, your hope will vanish soon after you have baled in the state paid expenses in 1894, I believe, and may not in 1895, but to walk directly into further embarrassment and financial loss is simply certain suicide.

HOP CONTRACTS.—Salem Statesman: In the office of the county clerk yesterday the following hop contracts were filed, the party in the second part in each instance being Phil Neils & Co: M G Smith of Aurora, 6000 pounds at 75 cents; Mrs Natalia Greenwood and John Greenwood of Aurora, 7000 pounds at 75 cents; Leonard Will of Aurora, 7000 pounds at 8 cents; S W Jones of Brooks, 20,000 pounds at 8 cents; Charles Kutschi of Woodburn, Aicher of Woodburn, 15,000 pounds at 8 cents. Delivery is to be made not later than October 10th and in some cases the 15th. Advances of 4 and 5 cents are to be made as picking money.
