The West, July 27.

Mr. Hopkins and family, of Coburg, came in from the valley Thursday and went out to the expo to spend a few weeks.

Mr. Daniel Kern is well pleased with the progress of the government work and says that with exceptionally good luck he will probably play even.

The government scow which went down near the mouth of North Fork last Saturday week, has been raised and taken to the government wharf, where necessary repairs will be made. All but 40 tons was discharged before the scow could be floated.—Since the above was in type the scow was beached near town. The hold is full of water but will probably float tomorrow.

 The soldiers are being hastened to the Jackson Hole country, where the redskins threaten to exterminate the white settlers.

Astoria News: A number of marriages took place in this city recently on railroad prospects merely and now since it has been declared a honeymoon has been extended.
 John Turner, who is mining on a creek about a mile above Canyon City, picked up a $15 nugget the other day, containing plenty of white quartz. The nugget was worn smooth as though it had drifted for some time.
 An Eastern minister recently asserted that "ten thousand boys and girls are riding to hell on bicycles every day." To which an exchange remarks: If this is really true some enterprising inventor should be able to construct a wheel with asbestos tires.

Salem Post: As people go into their grain fields with their machinery, they begin to learn that the crop of Oregon is not nearly an average one. There are a few acres that are exceptions to this, but the rule is this grain, small heads and snut. The crop will not be anything like it was thought to be. Still, we shall have plenty to live on and some to sell.
 Ada Myers, a woman of the town in Baker City, became ill Saturday, and while suffering intense pain, was given two hypodermic injections of morphine by George Edgar, a morphine user. The woman became unconscious and died soon after. The coroner's jury found that the woman's death was due to the injection of morphine, and Edgar was arrested, and is now in jail.

Monday's Pendleton E. O.: "Mrs K. S. Muura, manager of the Meacham eating house, came down from there Sunday evening and went to Walla Walla this morning, where she has opened the O. R. & N. eating house. Mrs Muura was accompanied by Mrs. T. H. McCarter and children, of Spokane; Miss Ellmore Watkins and Robert Watkins, of Eugene. Mrs. McCarter is a daughter of Mr Muura."

Rainier Review: "Hammond is the biggest man in the United States today. Cleveland might die, or Harrison might be slaughtered but the people along the Columbia river, would pursue the evil tenor of their way. But if Hammond should get a carbuncle on his neck or catch a disease that would make an angel of him, the whole population of the Columbia river would feel sick enough to go to the hospital. The people can't spare Hammond. They must have him and that railroad." They want to see the cars running.

Thirty-eight persons were baptized in the Pudding river, on Howell's island, Marion county, Sunday, according to the rites of the Baptist church. They were the converts of a recent revival, conducted by a female evangelist, and there were no untoward accidents. The baptisms were made the occasion of a great gathering from the surrounding country, several thousand people being in attendance. The whole affair was considered by Baptists to indicate the high-water mark of religious enthusiasm on Howell prairie.

HOUSE BURNED.—We are furnished neugre particulars of the burning of George Riggs' dwelling house, near Isabella, one day last week. It appears that Mr. Riggs and his family went to Albany on a visit and when they returned they found their house in ashes. The neighbors say the house burned during the night. Mr. Riggs' loss is $1000. The residence, we learn, was insured, but we were unable to learn the amount or the name of the company. The fire is thought to have been of an incendiary origin.

 NEW YORK, July 29.—If Mrs. Jacobs in his report in the suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Olive Corbett and Mrs. Corbett entitled to a divorce and recommends that the agreement entered into by her and her husband, at the time of their separation, in which he agreed to pay her $100 a week for life, be confirmed.

Got Off Easily.—The trial of John McDowell for the killing of his son-in-law, John McAuley, on Feb. 26, 1893, at the Summit was completed at Toledo Monday. The jury returned a verdict of guilty of manslaughter and Judge Fullerton sentenced McDowell to two years in the penitentiary. He was fully defended by Hon. W. B. Riley, of Albany, and may congratulate himself upon a light punishment. McDowell is 69 years of age, and the reports of the murder when it happened were decidedly against him. He got off easy.

 Monday's Salem Journal: Prof. J. D. Letcher, of Corvallis, was in the city today on his way home from Gearhart Park. He has been elected to the chair of mathematics at the state university at Eugene.

THEY REACHED PRINEVILLE.—Prineville Review: Frank Conover, former publisher of the Corvallis Gazette, Prof. G. A. Stanley, who was principal of the Prineville school from 1887 to 1890, and who is now principal of the Franklin school at Tualumna, and R. S. Bryson, of Corvallis, arrived in Prineville last Thursday evening, having crossed the mountains on bicycles. They claim to have encountered several hardships and some sand on the way over. "We are just making a little run over here to see the country and have some fun," said Mr. Conover to a Review man during a pleasant call at this office. Messrs. Conover and Bryson will leave for home this morning.

SHANNON CONOVER, a popular local conductor, running on this division is taking a needed vacation. His wife and daughter arrived from Portland today and will visit in Eugene for a short time.

CUT IN RATES.—The S. P. R. R. has made another reduction in freight rates. This time from Portland to Willamette valley points. They are made for the purpose of meeting water competition, which has entered largely in the Willamette valley transportation question, through the steamers plying between Yaquina bay and San Francisco to connect with the Oregon Central & Eastern (the old Oregon Pacific), and the Willamette river steamboats. The old rate to Eugene on first class goods was 50 cts per 100 lbs.; the new rate is 40 cts. The Albany rate is only 12 cts. A commodity rate is also made on bulk burlaps, canned goods, etc., which is as follows: To Junction City 25, Eugene 20, Cottage Grove 35; they are also made on the Springfield branch. A reduction is also made on flour, feed and millstuffs in less than carload lots. The old rate for 125 miles was 42 cts per 100 lbs; the new is 32.

DELATED.—John McClure, Robt. Huston and Joe Young, who recently left on their wheels for Eastern, Oregon, are now at the McKenzie Springs. Joe Young met with an accident, breaking the handle bars out of his wheel, and thereby defeating the party which he could send to Eugene for news.

BRANCH TO EUGENE.—Corvallis Times: "Manager Edwin Stone thinks that A. B. Hammond will be in Corvallis soon to make the trip in a carriage over the route between Corvallis and Eugene, to see what would be in building a branch line of the O. C. & E. to the latter place."

Yakima Herald says a large grower declined a ten cent offer for his entire '95 crop, as he expects to get 12c.

Payallup, Wash., Commerce: The growers are all busy spraying and trimming their yards. The prospect is not favorable for more than half a crop.

Advices from London are to the effect that the hop crop in England is already considerably damaged by the weather and loss. A short crop in English hops will increase the demand for Pacifics. But it is too early yet to decide the probable outcome.

Herren & Levy, hop commission merchants of Salem, are in receipt of a letter under the date of the 25th, from Albany, N. Y., wherein the writer says: "Crop prospects in this state have improved so that we will get, according to today's prospects, fully three-fourths as many as last year, and, on account of being free from vermin, quality promises to be good."

A. Mouton & Sons write from Sacramento: The hop crop in Sacramento county this year is not so good as last year by one-third. The vines are not coming out as usual, and there are many mis bills caused by wire and grub worms. In Yolo county the crop is still shorter, being only one-fourth to one-half of last year, caused by flooding. In Sonoma county the crop is reported short of last year by one-fourth to one-third. Mendocino county is also short. Yuba county is the only county that will have an average crop. Some few contract offers have been made at 8 and 9 cents. Some growers will not sell a pound unless there is a fair profit in it. The price to be paid for picking is going to be about 75 cents per 100 pounds.

Melbourne Springs.
 July 28, '95.
 Mr. S. T. Wooley, of Maxwell, Cal., is at the springs.
 Mrs. J. F. Amis and daughters left Thursday for their home in Eugene.

Some of the boys caught a fine silver side salmon one day this week, weighing about 9 pounds.
 Mr. F. C. Cise and wife, also Mrs. Zeigler, of Eugene, will spend this week here.

Mr. Charles Blanton and sister and Miss Agnes Callaway left for their homes on Spencer creek this morning after an outing of three weeks.
 The youngsters tripped the light fantastic toe for several hours last night, practicing for the coming Friday.

Among those that visited this place today were: Y. Abbott and family, Dan Hinton and family, S. Rand and wife, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Pritchett, Miss Brewster, Misses Rauch, Logan, Curry and Mrs. Alph Blanton and others.
 DOLF.

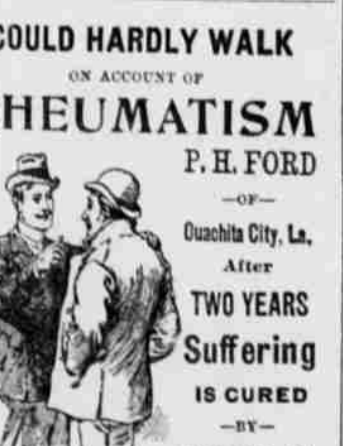

Too Many Clothes.
 "I wish—" The living picture advanced toward the surf with faltering steps and her breath came thick and fast.
 "I wish custom didn't make it necessary to wear such a bathing costume," she went on. "It really oppresses me to wear so many clothes."

FROM JAMACA.—Albany Democrat: Mr. F. M. Redfield received an interesting letter this noon from his son Charles, now working with a corps of engineers on a railroad in Jamaica. The road was begun nearly 60 years ago and it is not yet completed. It will be 186 miles long and cost $12,000,000. They are now making several tunnels toward Annotta Bay. He reports a delightful climate, never warmer than 96 and never colder than 64, and yet he will be glad to get back to Grover's kingdom. He is filling up on fruit at 3 cents a dozen for bananas and 5 cents for pineapples. Coconuts are only a cent. Imported articles though are high. Four $9 a barrel, potatoes over a dollar a bushel, etc. Hence food is high for foreigners, but living is nominal for natives, who in turn only receive about 50 cents a day, while Mr. Redfield, an expert civil engineer, gets $75 a month and expenses. Jamaica is twice the size of Linn county, 45 miles wide in the widest part and 146 miles long. Its population is 730,000, mostly black people. A peculiarity of the natives is their custom of carrying everything on their heads, the men even starting to carry wheelbarrows when they first saw them. The women particularly are very proficient at this.

FOR THE CAYUSE FOUNDRY.—Portland Sun: Yesterday there arrived in this city from Umatilla county 500 Eastern Oregon and Washington hickies, consigned to the can and pickle factory at Linton. They are of the Cayuse and mixed breeds, and are the scrubbiest lot of animals ever rounded up. A sight of them was enough to disgust anyone with the idea of eating "old hoss." The assignment was in charge of the Union Meat Company, and was put through to the Linton cannery last evening.

Big Egg.—J. R. Sellers left a hen egg at the QUARTZ office today which measures 6 1/2 by 7 1/2 inches in dimensions and weighs 2 1/2 ounces. It was laid on Sunday by a common ordinary hen that lays common ordinary eggs on week days.

COULD HARDLY WALK ON ACCOUNT OF RHEUMATISM
 P. H. FORD
 OF Quachita City, La., After TWO YEARS Suffering IS CURED—BY THE USE OF Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For fully two years, I suffered from rheumatism, and was frequently in such a condition that I could hardly walk. I spent some time in Hot Springs, Ark., and the treatment helped me for the time being; but soon the complaint returned and I was as badly afflicted as ever. Ayer's Sarsaparilla being recommended, I resolved to try it, and after using six bottles, I was completely cured."—P. H. Ford, Quachita City, La.
