Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date of March 23, 1895:

S. B. MED. MFG. CO., Dufar, Oregon.

GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 35 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are,

Yours, MR. AND MRS. J. F. FORD.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the spring's work, cleanse the system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses a week.

Sold under a positive guarantee.

Chas. F. Lovett, one of the advance agents of the Great Wallace Shows, returned to Albany on the 11:20 o'clock local this morning. Mr. Lovett's work is the selection of grounds for the shows' performance, traveling about 24 hours in advance thereof.

Buying Cavalry Horses.

Daily Guard August 6.

Bangs' stables have been quite lively today, the occasion being the presence of two contractors, Wm. Kratsell of S. P., and Wm. Frazier, of Portland, who are purchasing horses for United States cavalry service. Bang, black and gray geldings are wanted, from 4 to 8 years of age, and of fifteen hands and up in height. Uncle Sam is not particular how hard the horses ride, but they must conform to color, size and age. About fifteen head were purchased, the average price being near $50. The gentlemen also desire to purchase a few work horses.

Daily Guard, August 6.

A HANDSOME MEDAL.—While at the Foley springs a couple of weeks ago the gentlemen at this resort offered a medal to the best shot at a target. Miss Marie Ware of this city was victorious. Yesterday she received a very handsome gold medal manufactured expressly for the occasion at Portland. It has a target in the center and the words "Foley Spring—1895." Miss Ware is naturally quite proud of the medal.

STREET CAR LINE.—The newly planted street car, No. 1, is now on duty. It presents a fine appearance. The citizens of Eugene should give the Meers. Holden a good patronage and make the line a paying one. They are giving our people an excellent service, and they should be encouraged.

IN MONTANA.—The last race horses, "Black Prince," owned by Sommerfeld Bros., and "Paddy Ryan" are now at Anaconda, Montana, and will run in the races of the Montana circuit, commencing on the 12th inst.

MONDAY, AUGUST 5.

Smoke getting more dense.

Plenty of school marm's this week.

When are you going to the mountains?

Last night was the warmest of the season.

The city council meets one week from tonight.

Work on the flouring mill is progressing rapidly.

The thermometer reached the 92 mark this afternoon.

L. L. Lewis and Miss Lewis, of Lemah, are in Eugene today.

T. J. Newsum, of Prineville, will arrive in Eugene in a day or two.

The Eugene people this year seem to patronize her mountain resorts well.

Thanks to E. Weideman for some very nice ripe Oregon figs grown in his garden.

Mrs. Geo. F. Croner returned today from a six weeks' sojourn at McKenzie Bridge.

Rev. M. C. Wire and family returned at noon today from a vacation at McKenzie bridge.

W. H. Hoffman and wife, after a three weeks visit at Newport, returned this afternoon.

The log run of 1,500,000 feet for the Colburn saw mill has reached the Hayden bridge.

L. N. Honey will finish the carpenter work on the J. D. Hampton residence, above Goshen, this week.

R. A. Bessel has a very good article on the lower Siuslaw country resources in Sunday's Oregonian.

The Montana officer will arrive after Whitney tonight. He is at Salem today getting the requisition papers.

Dr. J. C. Gray returned from Portland this afternoon. He says his aunt, Mrs. Congle, is slightly improved.

The mercury dropped to one degree below the freezing point at Lone Rock, Gilliam county, one morning last week.

The Mathews Bros' steam threshing outfit came down from Pleasant Hill yesterday, and is now at work west of town.

A large number of our citizens, as usual, spent Sunday on the banks of the McKenzie and Willamette rivers picnicking.

On Friday of last week at Toledo, Irwin Smith was granted a divorce from his wife. On Sunday Smith was married to Widow Courou. Quick work.

J. A. Williams, a son of S. R. Williams and a prominent young attorney of Spokane, Wash., is visiting his parents in this city. He arrived here this afternoon.

J. B. Chambers, who is now the owner of the Goodale property on Sixth street, has rented the same to Prof. F. G. Young, one of the newly elected U. of O. professors.

Walter A. McClure, of Seattle, Wash., arrived here this afternoon, to visit a couple of weeks with relatives and friends. Mr. McClure is deputy clerk of Kings county.

Lakeview Examiner, August 1st: "J. W. Henderson came in from Eugene Monday morning and proceeded on up to Paisley. He came out on business and will remain about a month."

A year or two ago a Mrs. Woodworth made a big howl on the coast and set the day for the world to come to an end. She was in Salem awhile and shouted in a tent. Now she is in Eugene, she is a divine healer. Anything for business.

Last week Mrs. W. T. Cochran, of Brownsville, noticed a large rattlesnake immediately under her bedroom window. She seized a stove shovel and went out and held the reptile until her husband arrived and killed it. It had eight rattles and a button.

It is now estimated that the loss by the Sprague, Wash., fire will amount to $1,500,000, with only $60,000 of insurance outside of that held by the railroad company. The N. P. R. R. loses $500,000.

Independence West Side: Mrs. J. S. Cooper and her daughter, Maude, and Miss Essie Robertson are the only women who ever reached the summit of Mt. Jefferson. There were 14 in the party which went up on July 13.

Paul Oberheim died at Salem Saturday afternoon, aged 81. He had accumulated considerable wealth. One of his daughters, Mrs. William Harpole, resides in this county on Chickahominy creek.

Baker City Democrat: "Miss Theresa Alder accompanies her father, Mr. Carl Alder to Newport, on Yaquina bay, to spend a few weeks with the family of Ex-Mayor Friendly, of Eugene, who are taking their summer vacation there."

Prof. Washburn and Letcher, of Corvallis, two of the newly elected professors of the U. of O. arrived here this afternoon's train for the purpose of renting suitable residences. We acknowledge a pleasant call from Prof. Washburn.

The fire on Spencer's butte is still burning briskly. The south side of the butte has been burned over and now the fire is burning on the north and east sides. The settlers in the vicinity are daily fighting the fire. They will swear out a warrant for the person who set out the fire if they learn his name.

In every load of hay that is hauled to town from Crane creek and vicinity, says the Klamath Falls Star, there is a number of those large squeaky crickets, which made their way across the mountains last spring. When a load goes by, the squeaks give one the impression that the wagon needs greasing.

The Salem statesman talks thusly: "The circus is coming again, and once more we will have the pleasure of witnessing the cheerful spectacle of a little 2-year-old child 'to see the animals.' 'I didn't go into the circus department,' said a good deacon, after the last moral circus was here, 'but I dropped in to look around the menagerie a few moments with my little grandson, and I do think the man that tied his legs in a bow knot around his neck and then crawled through the hoop was alone worth the price of admission.'"

A R. Conley, who is sometimes designated as Eastern Oregon's "Wheat King," is in town today, says the La

Grande Chronicle, and reports that grasshoppers have destroyed eleven hundred acres of his meadow land, leaving it so bare that it is not fit for pasture. Mr. Conley also says that the grasshoppers have destroyed about one thousand acres of grain. He also reports that he will have about 2,500 acres of wheat that will yield fair, average crop.

Saturday's Corvallis Times: The influx of summer visitors to Yaquina bay the past few days has been enormous. Trains yesterday and the day before were so crowded that passengers entering the cars at Corvallis station found it almost impossible to secure seats. If the exodus continues additional coach accommodations will be imperative.

A man may buy, and a man may lie, and a man may puff and blow!

But he can't get trade, by sitting in the shade, waiting for business to grow.

If he's wise he'll advertise.

Corvallis Times: Hon. C. A. Johns and family of Baker City, passed over the Oregon Central Wednesday, en route for Newport to spend the summer. Mr. Johns was one of the defendant's attorneys in the Schmidt case, now attracting so much attention on account of the enormous fee exacted by plaintiff's attorneys, $5,500 was the amount of the extraordinary fee and its immensity is illustrated in the fact the fee of Mr. Johns and his colleague in the same case was $600. Mr. Johns was once county judge of Polk county, but is now a member of a leading law firm of Baker City. He leaves Newport for Baker City this morning, but returns later on.

Personal.

Daily Guard, August 5.

Miss Kate Bueck went to Albany today.

Constable Linton visited Salem yesterday.

Justice Miller of Creswell was in town today.

George Gill came up from Salem, yesterday. He has removed his family to that place, where they will remain until after the state fair.

The bicycle party left for the McKenzie bridge yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. Drew Griffin, one of the party, was at Anderson's at 6:30 a. m.

Attorney Geo. A. Dorris and wife and Misses Amy and Edna Dunn left this morning for the upper McKenzie where they will spend a few weeks camping out.

Henry Marx returned home from the Belknap springs yesterday much improved in health. He says the remainder of the Somerville party will arrive home Tuesday.

Independence West Side: Chas. Chambers, of Pasadena, Cal., was visiting his brother, F. E. Chambers, the hardware dealer, of this city. Also his mother who is from Eugene.

J. O. Watts and family, J. W. Christian, Mrs. D. E. Yoran, and Miss Gertie Stevens will leave Thursday, for a month's trip to Pine Opening, on the military road.

Dr. D. A. Paine, superintendent of the insane asylum at Salem, spent Sunday in Eugene attending to business matters. He returned to Salem on this morning's local train.

Resident C. H. Chapman returned from Gerhart Park by this morning's early train. He says the outlook for a large attendance at the U. of O. this fall is excellent.

Judge Fisk, J. E. Hale, C. M. Horn and Mr. Chamberlain have returned from a month's trip to Odell, Crescent and Clear lakes. They report having had a splendid time, and caught over 1500 trout.

Mrs. C. S. Henderson, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, is visiting relatives in Eugene. Her son-in-law is a cousin by marriage of Dr. W. V. and E. K. Henderson, and is a member of Cornell college of Mt. Vernon. She is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Hanna, sister-in-law of Calvin Hanna. They leave tonight for California.

STATE UNIVERSITY.—The next session of the University of Oregon begins September 10th—five weeks from next Monday. Every indication points to the largest attendance ever known in the history of this leading educational institution. Many catalogues are being sent to various portions of the state daily, per request of intending students.

DIED.—Elmer Bucknell at his home in Howick, New York, died with fever. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. Mr. Bucknell was well and favorably known in Eugene, having resided here a number of years, leaving for the East some two or three years ago.

GALLERY CONTRACT AWARDED.

Villard Hall to Have a Gallery—Contract Awarded for $1,170.

Daily Guard, August 6.

This morning the executive committee of the board of regents of the university let the contract for a gallery to be erected in Villard Hall to L. S. Roney for the sum of $1,170, to be built according to plans drawn by Mr. Roney.

The gallery will seat 550 people and will add to the ornamentation of the large room. The room is to be first class in every particular and is to be completed before the beginning of the coming school year.

The gallery will extend around the north end and sides of the room, the depth of the end being 17 feet and the sides 8 feet. The stage will be extended six feet further out into the room.

The executive committee are maturing plans for other improvements in and about the university buildings.

After Whitney, the Footracer.

Daily Guard, August 6.

Thos. M. McTague arrived here last night from Deer Lodge, Montana.

He is of the firm of Connelly & McTague, prison contractors of that state, and came to get Whitney, the escaped convict and contractor. He stopped off at Salem and procured a state warrant, with the help of Constable Linton, for the man. The gentleman says Philpot, alias Whitney, escaped as follows: He was a trusty, and with the two other men, who escaped at the same time, was sitting at the mess house just before supper. A supper they were missed, and a guard was sent to look them up when they were seen running over a hill. A guard was mounted on a horse and the blood hounds put on their trail. The men killed one of the hounds with a club, while the horse fell with the guard disabling him, which allowed all three men to escape. Since that time the firm has spent $1800 in trying to effect their capture, and Whitney is the first of the trio to be apprehended. Mr. McTague says Whitney was an excellent prisoner, and has 19 months yet to serve, but if he had stayed he would have been out in nine months and twenty-six days, on account of the merit marks he had earned. Now these will be forfeited and he must serve the entire 19 months, less what future merit marks he earns.

Mr. McTague is confined to his bed at the Hoffman House with sciatic rheumatism in his legs. Therefore he will not be able to leave here until tomorrow with his prisoner.

A QUEER CASE.—Albany Democrat:

"It has always been supposed that the city warrants drew interest from the time when stamped by the treasurer, and as a matter of fact interest has been paid on them, hence the action of the city council in repudiating interest previous to Jan. 20, 1894, and allowing it since sort of as a matter of courtesy, is hardly appreciated. While our citizens may have no feelings in the matter of bridge warrants, so far as Albany men are concerned they do not like to see them lose the interest always expected to receive. Any debt ought to draw interest if not paid when due. It would only seem right, if there is not money to pay the old interest that some provision be made for it, though as a matter of fact it is very doubtful if it can ever be collected by suit and whenever one is brought the warrant will be brought in question on account of its being issued in excess of the charter limit."

CHANGE OF LOCATION.—Portland Telegram:

For the past two years the office of the Oregon state board of horticulture has been located in the Chamber of Commerce building, but by order of the members of the board the headquarters will be removed to Salem tomorrow. The office will hereafter be located at the state capitol. The change was determined upon in the interests of economy, as no rent will have to be paid for rooms in the state building. In many respects the change will not be satisfactory, especially to those living east of the Cascades, and also to a great many up the Willamette valley, who generally come to Portland to transact business.

Mr. George I. Sargent, who has filled the position of secretary for several years, will go to Salem, but remain only until October 1. By that time he will get his successor thoroughly initiated into the duties of the office, and he will return to Portland and engage in business.

LETTER FROM ED DORRIS.—A letter from E. P. Dorris gives the information that he has moved from Farmington, Wash., to Lewiston, Idaho. He writes that prospects for full trade are good in that section. Grain has been damaged to some extent, but the main dependence is on stock raising and fruit, of which the latter there is a heavy crop along the Snake and Clearwater rivers. "That Indian money," from sale of reservation lands, so long looked for is still with Uncle Sam, but is now expected to be paid by Aug. 15. The proclamation opening the reservation to settlement will soon follow. October 1st being the date now figured on.

A GOOD POINT.—The following from the Corvallis Times contains a point worth considering in balancing accounts: "If wheat is fifty cents a bushel, the man who has the most clear money is it for farmers than there was three years ago at 65 cents a bushel." That is what a clear headed farmer said yesterday, after saying that he had just finished cutting his grain and that his crop was the best in many years. He has five hundred acres
