A car of ice is being loaded this afternoon by the Ice Company for Grant's Pass.

Jerry Horn is having his barber sign on the electric light pole in front of his shop repaired.

The boys arrested for murder at Pendleton have been discharged. "Kid" Moore was one of the parties.

Mrs. Coil, who died suddenly near Brownsville the other day, was a niece by marriage of Mrs. Chas. Witter.

L. N. Roney expects to finish the John Hampton residence a short distance above Goshen this week.

A marriage license was issued this afternoon by County Clerk Jennings to Arch Threlk and Agnes Calloway.

It is expected the new flouring mill will be turning out an excellent grade of flour by this time next week.

Some fanatics at Spokane say the world is coming to an end in about 10 days. They will undoubtedly get fooled on that point.

George Midgley is rebuilding his residence just east of the Baptist church. It will make a handsome residence when completed.

The public examination of teachers for certificates is completed. It will take the examining board several days to look over the papers.

The Gold Bench Gazette is being moved across the river to Westport, Mr. Hume's new town. The building is put on wheels and rolled onto a scow, then towed across.

The Senate Journal of the last legislature is nearly printed, as 730 pages are printed and indexed. The printing of the House Journals has not been begun.

Frank Ross, of Portland, has commenced suit in the circuit court against C. Delaney and J. W. Acheson, of this county to recover the sum of $90.

It is said that Rev. Read, the Portland bank robber, passes away the time at the Salem asylum by playing billiards and attending the dances given by the inmates.

The Albany Democrat is responsible for this: "The 16 to 1 problem is what is agitating people at the Bay, 16 young ladies to 1 young man, and that is just about the size of it."

The Yaquina Post, of Toledo, formerly owned and edited by "O." Van Cleave, was yesterday sold to Miss McKinney, of Portland, who will continue the publication under the same title.

Wm. Renshaw received a car load of beer from Milwaukee, Wis., this afternoon. The freight on the same was $215.11. He will ship back a carload of empty kegs tomorrow.

Harrisburg Review: "Harrisburg is full of strangers this week, who have come early so as to secure choice camping places in the hop yards surrounding our city. These yards will furnish employment for about 800 pickers."

At the regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Salem Building and Loan association Tuesday night, $1,230 were loaned at eighty-nine months' interest in advance, and $200 at seventy-seven months' interest in advance.

A letter from Sheldon Garrison dated at Foley Springs gives information that his horse kicked him on the hand inflicting a painful injury. A dance will be given in Power's barn tonight.

John Swell, superintendent of the public schools in San Francisco, says: "Miss Morris is the best teacher of physical education that I ever met. Her lecture in this city gave unbounded satisfaction." Hear her tonight at the M. E. church.

The mathematical editor of an exchange propounds the following query: A boy ten years old has a little sister who weighs 16 pounds and he gets tired holding her in five minutes. When he is twice as old, how long will it take him to get tired holding some one's sister who weighs 125 pounds?

A gentleman who arrived from Foley Springs last night informs us that Attorney Woodcock received the celebrated violin, music, etc., presented by his numerous Eugene friends. He appreciates their kindness and immediately presented the violin to one of Peter Runey's children. The other articles he retained for future use.

Frank Stewart left for Salem this morning with a span of bay carriage horses purchased by Eli Bangs from Chas. Croner for Dr. Paine, superintendent of the state insane asylum.

The railroad wanted $15 to ship the horses, and it was concluded to return to the primitive method, and save money by riding them down.

Forest Grove Times: "J. B. Thomas and Frank Breeden returned Thursday last from a two weeks' tour through the Willamette valley as far south as Eugene and east to Brownsville. They went in a light rig and were prepared to camp. Mr. Thomas found crops abundant throughout a d. bust nessup the valley trisk. At Eugene fruit is being shipped East in large quantities and the season's shipment will reach 40 car loads."

Cottage Grove Leader: "At the Star mine P. J. Jennings has put on a large force of men, and is pushing things that reminds you of a lively camp. The millwright is building the mill and getting everything in readiness for the machinery as soon as it arrives, while another force of men are grading a wagon road to the mine. The mine is showing up well, the ore bodies continuing to gradually increase and maintain their former quality of ore. Everything is being put in shape to keep the mill running night and day all winter when it starts."

SATURDAY, AUGUST 17.

F. L. Chambers has received a car load of plows from the East.

Hop picking will not generally commence before September 5th.

The manuscripts of Lane county's 34 applicants for teachers certificates show that a number will fail.

Oregon Eclipse, the Lake county runner, is figuring in races at Harlem, Ills., and making a fair showing.

Nicholas Bier, of Salem, arrived here this afternoon. He will go to the McKenzie hot springs Monday.

A west wind cleared away a portion of the smoke this morning but a north-west breeze is bringing it back again.

Rev. O. B. Whitmore, formerly of this city, we understand, has accepted a position as traveling salesman for a Portland mercantile house.

The state agricultural college regents in advertising for bids for college cadet uniforms, specify that the "cloth must be Oregon-made." Good for the O. A. C.

Brownsville Times: Peter Eritz and family, of Eugene, were the guests of J. T. Shea and family for part of the week. They were enroute for Sodaville.

Two letters were received in Salem as follows: One from Russia to Hon. D. P. Thompson, governor of Oregon the other to Wm. P. Lord, United States senator from Oregon.

The sort of wives that Pennsylvania men prefer is revealed in the fact that seven graduates of the Training School for Nurses were recently married inside of ten days.

Work has begun on an evaporator at Corvallis, which expects to begin drying September 1. The owners estimate the prune crop in the immediate vicinity of Corvallis at 5000 bushels.

Grandma Swift, aged 80 years, of Iowa, who is visiting friends on Pleasant Hill, yesterday fell and sprained her ankle. Dr. Sharples was called and set the injured limb, and she is now resting easy.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of County Judge Magers, of McMinnville, for killing Chinese pheasants. The case will be hotly pushed upon Judge Magers' arrest, he being at the coast when the warrant was made out.

B. F. Finn, of Gate Creek, was in town today. Mr. Finn is a large bee culturist, and being unable to find a market here for his honey, will leave in a few days with a wagon load for Eastern Oregon. He puts the comb honey in small tin buckets.

Mr. T. C. Judkins, a former resident of this city and a newspaper man was admitted to the practice of law in the state of California last July. Out of a class of 32 only 14 passed the required examination to be admitted to the practice of the law in that state.

Alfred Stillman, chief surveyor of this coast for underwriters, is in Roseburg investigating fire risks. In consequence of the misunderstanding between the city and water company over the water supply he recommends an increase of 15 per cent in Roseburg fire insurance rates.

Salem Statesman: "Mr. Hammond is soon to drive over the proposed route for our O. P. extension to Eugene. He will also view the Salem route at about the same time. The encouragement is given that these branches and fifteen miles of road over the mountains may be built yet this fall."

Rev. Davis writing from York, Dakota, to Salem says: "People are badly discouraged and hundreds are threatening to leave the country for aye; how many will go remains to be seen. Times will be wretched beyond description and hundreds, yes thousands will suffer for bread before another spring shall come." All this is on account of a failure of crops.

The life of a fisherman on the Columbia is a peculiar one. It is four or five months work and seven or eight months without work. During four months a good fisherman can make enough to last him a year, but he generally wastes it. There is one who does not. Ole Tobiasson, well known in Albany, is going through Stanford University on fish money.

Junction City Times: A married woman in Eugene got the best of her husband the other evening. When he came home late, as was his custom, and rang the door bell his wife went to the door and whispered softly through the keyhole: "Is that you, Jim?" Her husband's name, of course, was not Jim, and now he stays at home every night and sleeps with one eye open and a club under his pillow.

"Thomas & Co." is the name of a Chicago firm that is doing a good deal of newspaper advertising. They offer to take your money and invest it so that each dollar will return ten. The GEARD declined to publish their advertisement, but we notice a number of papers are running it, and there may be persons green enough to send them money. If they can make money for others the way they say they can, one would think they could get plenty of it from their friends in Chicago.

A special from Puyallup says that reports received there show that the Washington hop crop will be very small this year. Ezra Meeker, who on Sunday visited the 300-acre yard at Suquamish—the largest in the state—is quoted as saying they are spraying there without effect and that it is doubtful if they harvest a bale of salable hops in the Puyallup valley. Only the yards that have been very diligently sprayed are free from hop lice.

STEWARD AND COMMISSARY.

Two Citizens of Eugene Will Go to the Capital City.

Salem Statesman of today says: Beginning with the 1st of September two new persons will hold official positions at the state insane asylum under the superintendency of Dr. D. A. Paine.

These will be George Handaker and Wm. H. Smith, both of Eugene, and they are to attend to the duties of steward and commissary, respectively.

The present incumbents are J. L. Barnard and J. N. Ryan, who have acted in their various capacities in a very creditable manner.

Regarding the duties of the steward by the laws of the trustees of the asylum give the following:

"The steward shall have general oversight of the farm, stock, garden, grounds, fences, and the buildings, together with all the furniture, fixtures, and apparatus belonging thereto, and see that the same are kept constantly in good order and repair."

"He shall receive and store all articles and goods purchased either by contract or by order of the superintendent, and be responsible for the safe keeping and economical distribution of the same."

"In receiving supplies furnished he shall in no case receive an article different in kind or quality from the sample or description upon which the purchase of such article was based."

"He shall have in his immediate charge the grounds used for farming purposes, the farming implements, the horses, cattle, hogs, chickens, and produce of the farm, together with the hay, grain, straw, etc., purchased and delivered at the asylum and shall be responsible for their safe keeping and careful use."

"He shall keep just, accurate and methodical accounts of all articles received and all articles purchased, together with all distribution of supplies to the several departments of the institution, under such rules as may be prescribed by the superintendent. He shall make a report, embracing the business transactions of the farm, whenever required to do so."

"As to the commissary's work nothing appears in the printed rules and regulations."

Both are young men and will make splendid officers.

CASS BARLOW SUED.—An Oregon City dispatch of August 15th says: "Henry McGinn, an attorney for Francis Itabel Hammond, of Portland, filed papers today in the county clerk's office in a suit against Cassius U. Barlow, of Barlow, for alleged breach of promise, and asks that the court grant judgment for $25,000. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant made her a promise of marriage on the first day of December, 1890, and that in March, 1892, he seduced her, under further promise of marriage. She further alleges that they have been in intimate intercourse since that time, and that she has ever remained faithful to him, that he violated his engagement by marrying Miss Adelle J. Pusey, of Stockton, Cal., a few weeks ago. Miss Hammond further asserts that she has suffered great mental anguish on account of this disappointment, and asks for the recovery of the amount above named." Barlow is well known in Eugene.

DIED.—Mrs. J. B. Cougle, sister of J. G. Gray, of this city, died in Portland Thursday, August 15th, at 1 p. m. at the advanced age of 75 years and 5 months. Ellen H. Gray was born in Butler county, Ohio, March 15, 1820. In 1847 Miss Gray was married to J. B. Cougle, and in 1853 they crossed the plains, locating in the Mohawk valley, where they resided for one year, after which they removed to Corvallis. They made their home in Corvallis until 1881, when they removed to Portland. In 1888 Mr. Cougle died, leaving a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Richard Williams and Mrs. Maggie Wyatt. Mrs. Cougle leaves two brothers and one sister, J. G. Gray, of this city, Samuel Gray, of Mohawk valley and Mrs. D. G. Clark, of Ashland.

Mrs. Cougle was an active worker in charitable circles before weakened by disease and advanced age. She was one of the founders of the Orphans Home in Portland, and took great interest in such work.

NO FURTHER CONTEST.—Salem Journal: Secretary of State Kincaid returned from Portland and says he has no further litigation on hand with the railroad commission. His attorney, Mr. Drake, wanted to argue a rehearing before the supreme court, but Mr. Kincaid says that is not necessary, as the court would undoubtedly hold just the same. There is twenty days allowed to send the decree down to the lower court. As the matter is in the hands of the court, Mr. Kincaid cannot act until he has the official order of the court to act when he will do so.

A VICIOUS HORSE.—Albany Herald: Councilman B. M. Huston was the victim of an attack by a vicious horse at the O. C. & E. depot Wednesday. The big gray stallion which Robert Murphy drives to his dray threw back his ears and bit viciously at Mr. Huston, who happened to be passing near. The brute seized him by the lip, and tore an ugly gash. Dr. Wallace was summoned and sewed up the wound. The horse is a mean brute. Such a horse would ornament the block at the Portland equine slaughter house very nicely.

SAVE GOD A SAFETY.—Cottage Grove Leader: We learn that a school girl graduate in Eugene read an advertisement in a Chicago paper. "Girl wanted to sell baking powder. To any girl who will send us $— for three dozen cans of our rapid selling baking powder we will forward at once a beautiful safety." She sent the money and by hustling around like a house on fire for three weeks she managed to unload the stuff. The "safety" came in an envelope, and was one of those brass pins, horse blanket size, like mamma used to keep up our style with.

COOPER SHOP.—D. R. Lakin and family have removed to Eugene after a residence of five years in Cheshire precinct. He will engage in the cooper business here.

"Hard Times Over."

The Oregonian today publishes the outlook from every county in the State.

The following is the Lane county report:

Acme—Little wheat raised. Hay and vegetables good; estimate on hay crop, two tons. Business not good.

McKenzie Bridge—Hay crop good; yield showing slight increase. Business outlook brighter.

Foley Springs—Fall and spring acreage same; prospects good; estimated yield 25 bushels. Business outlook good.

Irving—Fall and spring acreage increased; prospects better than for five years; estimated yield 25 bushels, one-third increase; 4000 bushels of old wheat on hand. Business outlook encouraging.

Long Tom—Fall acreage about same; spring less; prospects good; estimated yield, 25 bushels, an increase. Business dull.

Cottage Grove—Fall acreage increased; spring less; prospects fair; estimated yield, 19 bushels, an increase. Business brighter.

Goshen—Fall acreage increased; spring about same; prospects good; estimated yield 25 bushels. Business outlook fair.

Creswell—Fall acreage about the same; spring less; more attention to hops; prospects good; estimated yield 25 bushels, an increase. Business improving.

Junction City—Fall acreage increased; spring about same; prospects good; estimated yield, 18 bushels, an increase. Business good.

Springfield—Fall and spring acreage increased; prospects good; estimated yield, 20 bushels, an increase. Business fair.

Eugene—Fall and spring acreage increased; prospects good; estimated yield, 20 bushels. Business outlook favorable.

Chiltwood—No wheat raised. Fruit doing well. Hay crop good. Business dull.

MADE A TRADE.

A Wife Swapped Off to a Neighbor for His Daughter.

A rather unusual story comes from Toledo this week, says the Chelalis Nugget. This is the story as told by the Nugget:

"A farmer named Thompson lost his wife a short time ago. She left him a little babe which he took to the house of a neighbor named Putman to be cared for."

"Thompson visited Neighbor Putman's place very frequently to see how the baby was getting along, and after a while he fell in love with his neighbor's wife. The lady, the story goes, reciprocated. The husband discovered the situation. Instead of getting on his hind feet and making the hills reverberate with jealous rage, he had a friendly talk with Thompson, said he was tired of his wife, anyhow, and he would as lief some other fellow would take her away as not. However, as it was no snap to go out and find some other fellow to take her place on the spur of the moment, and it was absolutely necessary to have one around in the house, he wanted another in exchange. Thompson had a daughter who suited him very well, and it was just the same, he was willing to trade his wife for her. That suited Thompson and the girl, the story says. The exchange was made. Thompson and Mrs. Putman went to Aberdeen, and Putman and the girl have gone to Castle Rock."

THE TRIP TO EUGENE.—The Corvallis Times in writing concerning the trip of O. C. & E. R. officials to Eugene says: "Manner Stone seen yesterday on the subject said that Mr. Hammond was detained at Astoria by the press of business connected with the building of the Astoria line; but that in ten or twelve days, certainly by the first of the coming month he would be in Corvallis to look carefully into the plan for the construction of desirable feeders. Concerning the trip to Eugene he said that the people there were live, active, energetic and keenly alive to the importance of Oregon central connections, and that it seemed likely that they were ready to make it an object to his people to build them a branch. Mr. Stone did not think it impossible that some railroad building may be done by his company yet this fall. Other trips of a similar nature will transpire in the course of the near future."

Daily Guard, August 17.

RENOWN.—An exciting runaway occurred this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. While Mrs. W. J. Campbell, who lives on the river road, was driving a team hitched to a buckboard opposite the M. E. parsonage, one of the singletrees gave way, letting the tongue down and scaring the horses when they started to run. The lady jumped out and was helped into the residence of Rev. Wire by Mr. J. H. Goodman. She was not hurt, but was considerably frightened. The horses came tearing down Willamette street and when in front of the store of A. V. Peters, the tongue caught in the street railway track, breaking it to pieces and turning over the vehicle. The horses got away from the rig here and started home down Fifth street. They were captured by Ed McClanahan, jr., a few blocks away and returned to town.

THE ALBANY O. C. & E. BRIDGE.—Albany Democrat: Manager Stone of the O. C. & E. came to Albany this noon to meet W. H. Kennedy, chief engineer of the O. R. & N., whom he had engaged to come to Albany and give the railroad bridge at this city a thorough inspection, with a view to rebuilding or improving it as needed, probably practically the former. The bridge has done good service in the past but its days are nearly over. Mr. Kennedy is one of the most expert bridge men on the coast, and his report will determine just what kind of a structure will take the place of the present one. This is another one to show that the present management mean business in at least the matter of betterments, if not more.

KILLED THREE DEER.—A letter from McKenzie Bridge says that George Hall, Jr., Monday killed three fine deer. A dance will be given at that place this evening and a large attendance from both springs is expected.

The Weather Doctor.

Prof. Foster continues to make weather on advance orders. Patterns are now out for his fall weather. It will be remembered that in his last bulletin he gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from the 10th to the 14th and according to his prophecy the next will reach the Pacific coast about the 15th, cross the west of the Rockies country by close of 16th, the great central valleys from 17th to 19th and the Eastern states 20th. In portions of the country this will be a very dangerous storm and about the same time storms of great force will occur in various parts of the world on sea and land.

That destructive storms will occur from August 16th to 23d Foster has not the least doubt, but to definitely locate these storms is, at this date, not possible.

The force may be concentrated in a tropical hurricane, and if this occurs the West Indies and the southeastern coasts of the United States and Asia will experience disastrous storms.

If the force is centered in the transcontinental storms indications are that their greatest energies will be expended near Vancouver Island or on the Alaskan coast, in the great central valleys not far from the 40th parallel and on the north Atlantic southeast of Newfoundland, the storm wave mentioned in first paragraph being the middle one of the three and all moving eastward.

The warm wave preceding this storm will cross the west of Rockies country about August 15th, great central valleys 17th and Eastern states 19th. The cool wave will cross the west of Rockies country about the 18th, great central valleys 20th and Eastern states 22d. This cool wave will probably cause light frosts in some of the Northern states.

Fire Matters.

Daily Guard, August 16.

The Engine Company held a meeting last evening and detailed the following members to take charge of the hose cart at the Eleventh street house, and to report regularly at that place for duty: W. McGee, H. C. A. Miller, Warren Luckey, Hugh Gray, James Taylor, E. M. Blair, J. S. Higgins, Howard Rowland, C. C. Goldsmith, A. L. Peter, Evert Patterson and E. E. Gross.

The following officers were then elected: James Taylor, second assistant foreman, who will have charge of the cart and hose at the new house; Hugh Gray, first assistant.

The old engine cart with 500 feet of hose has been moved to the new house and now the people of that portion of the city are happy as they have fire protection.

Henry Kissinger was elected assistant foreman, to have charge of the chemical engine.

The local insurance board should now demand that Eugene be given a reduction in insurance rates. The city is entitled to consideration with its excellent apparatus and department.

TWO NEW MILLS.—Cottage Grove Leader: The fact of two mills going into the Bohemia district, has given renewed life into the camp. All the boys are doing a large amount of work on their various claims and new prospectors are going into the field. During the past week a half interest has been sold in one of the promising claims and more sales are on the tapis. An Eastern syndicate has been represented here by an expert to put on two special properties. He is very much pleased with the rock formation of the ore bodies found, and with abundance of water all through the district for milling purposes.

DAILY GUARD, AUGUST 17.

SOCIAL PARTY.—A social party was given Richard Willoughby at the residence of his parents in University addition last evening. Games were played for a time which were followed by an elegant lunch. At 12 o'clock the guests departed, after spending a very pleasant evening. Those present were: Misses Nettie Burr, Florence Burnett, Hattie Taylor, Blanche Taylor, Etta Eastland, Faith Johnson, Madge Battee, Jennie Wold, Mary Thompson; Messrs. Richard Willoughby, Carl Battee, Orest Wood, Dick Bell, Walter Carroll, Chas. Griffin, Geo. Barger, Ernest Gilstrap.

TO BE MARRIED.—Salem Journal: State Supt. Geo. M. Irwin is supposed to be away from his office on strictly official business. A little bird tells us that he is engaged in laying siege to the heart of a fair lady in Union county only as a widower can go, and that when he returns in September he will bring back a companion who will share his title and bed thereafter.

THE STATE FAIR.—The approaching state fair promises to have an unusual amount of attractions for visitors, as the managers are sparing no pains to secure satisfactory results. It will be open from Sept 25 to Oct 4 inclusive. Part of each day's programme will include bicycle races of course, and some very valuable and to be sought after prizes will be given in connection with these same races.

NEW RECORDER.—Junction City Times: A special meeting of the city council was called Thursday morning to appoint a city recorder. The removal of S. Handaker to Eugene left the city without a recorder and police judge. The council appointed Dr. J. H. Ruff. The affairs of the city are safe in his hands.

DAILY GUARD, AUGUST 16.

PORCUPINE SHIPPED.—H. C. Humphrey, this morning, shipped his tame porcupine, captured up the McKenzie, to the City Park at Portland. He presented it to that association.

Important to Society.

ASHBURY PARK, N. J., Aug. 16.—Champion Jim Corbett is to marry Vera Stanwood, correspondent in the divorce suit recently won by Mrs. Corbett.

DAILY GUARD, AUGUST 17.

GLORY TICKETS.—The following marriage licenses were issued this afternoon, going to show that times are improving: A. G. Gibson, aged 31 and Maud A. Acheson, 19; H. H. Van Slyke, 24 and Lilla Carson, 18; all of Lane county.

SHOOT EACH OTHER TO DEATH.

Two Physicians Quarrel and Have a Shooting Scrape.

SPECIAL TO DAILY GUARD.

PORTLAND, Or., August 16. — Two physicians, Drs. Horatio R. Holmes and A. Auspind, quarrelled in the Dekum block this afternoon, over the Portland hospital scandal, when each fired three shots, all taking effect. Both are fatally injured.

The West, August 16.

Mr. Fred Fisk, of Eugene, is visiting his brother at Glensada, and will take a trip to Coos bay before returning home.

Steamer W. H. Harrison is expected here Sunday or Monday with men and supplies for the Elmore cannery. Upon her arrival active operations will immediately commence.

Piling 65 feet in length are now in place in the jetty and on Tuesday the Lillian took down several which were 10 feet longer. At dead low tide there is 22 feet of water at the end of the jetty.

Schooner Mayflower, Capt. Oleson, 16 days from San Francisco, sailed in over the bar and up the river Monday afternoon. She carried 20 tons of miscellaneous freight and is loading lumber at Cushman's mill. Forty thousand feet of her cargo will be flooring.

They are now driving piling for the jetty at the mouth of the Suslaw river, and at the outer point of the works the water is twenty-two feet in depth at low tide. When the jetties are completed it is not presumed that this depth will be maintained over the entire bar?

It is understood that Meyer & Kyle will put three traps in the river this season, and a representative of the Elmore cannery is credited with saying that if this was done, his cannery would double the number and put in six. Should each of these rumors prove correct, the run of fish will be plentiful, and it might be added that the total destruction of our salmon will result.

Junction City Items.

Times, Aug. 17.

H. S. Wallace received a car load of lumber Thursday for his new residences which will be built west of the city limits.

The editor of the Times and his family, accompanied by Mrs. Ross and Mrs. Fogle, of Eugene, went to Newport Thursday for a few weeks' outing.

A Methodist campmeeting near the Lawrence ranch, between here and Monroe, will be started this week and by Sunday will be running in full blast.

Morgan Hoult received his artificial leg the other day and he now puts in his leisure time trying to learn how to use it. He is getting the hang of the thing all right.

HIGHLY FLATTERING.—A correspondent writing to the Prineville Review concerning a trip to the Willamette valley, says of our city: "I passed through Eugene on Sunday; it literally had on its Sunday clothes in all their splendor, with beautiful streets lined on both sides chiefly with large spreading maple trees, their dense foliage not allowing a ray of sunshine to reach the ground, with closely clipped lawns, exquisitely trimmed hedges and tastefully trimmed ornamental trees with an interminable array of flowers interspersed here and there with fruit trees and vines, it is emphatically a thing of beauty and a joy forever. The first impression on entering Webfoot was, that it would soon be over-run with hop vines and prune orchards. The next was, some day Eugene would cover the whole valley and make a fit resting place for the Gods."

DAILY GUARD, AUGUST 16.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY.—Geo. F. Christenson was arrested at Newburg yesterday morning on the charge of stealing the horse, harness and buggy of Mr. Thorp, on Friday night of last week. He was examined at Independence and held under $500 bonds, in default of payment of which he was placed in jail at Dallas. Christenson has been
