Hop Pickers Angry.

Daily Guard, September 26. For the past three days a large num-ber of hop pickers who labored on the Patterson Island yard leased to Charles Beadle, have been on the streets try-ing to obtain their hard earned money. Today they are quite angry and will probably institute legal proceedings, as they have pooled their claims and retained attorneys. The pickers say that up to Tuesday the hop checks were accepted for goods by a number of stores, but now they cannot even obtain goods on them. They also state that Mr Beadle promised to set-tle with them in each when the picking was completed, but he refuses so to do, claiming his inability.

Mr Beadle says he will be able to settle the claims in full in a day or two and that the laborers shall not lose a cent. this morning when they learned that Beadle had mortgaged his four-fifths interest in the hops on September 18th to E C Smith for the sum of $2000. Hop picking commenced on the yard September 9th. The hops belonging to Mr Beadle amounts to about 130
