place of their old safe, which was becoming too small for their business.

Champion mine arrived here Sunday and is being taken to the mines this Eugene over forty years ago. At that time he resided in Corvallis.

Jacksonville item in Medford Monitor: James Linn, who was so seriously injured last July, is rapidly recovering under the faithful attendance and skillful treatment of Dr. Robinson.
He is able to walk about his home with the aid of crutches. His many friends will be pleased to know that his familiar face will soon be seen upon our streets again.

Prineville Review: In conversation with A. Lester who came over from Mitchell Tuesday, he informs us there were 14 cases of typhoid fever at that place. The funeral of Miss Stella Boardman to which we referred last week was largely attended. Most of those now down with the disease are convalescing.

An eastern man has hit upon a plan that keeps subscriptions paid up.
Every time a delinquent subscriber is mentioned in his paper his name is inverted. For example, "Albion Gleason and family are spending the week in Chicago." Every subscriber knows what it means and immediately there is a grand rush to get right side up again.—Ex.

Jennie Brown, a factory girl at Binghamton, N. Y., befriended an old man out of pity. Nobody knew that he had any money, but when he died last week, he left a will and the factory girl finds herself an heiress worth $45,- 000. Kindness does not always pay such a big dividend, but the man or woman who lives according to the golden rule really gets more out of life than he or she who is superlative selfish.

Independence West Side: "Mr and Mrs Frank Redick, the talented actor and actress (Miss Millie Freeman) left the Carlton Dramatic Company here, last Monday and went to Portland, where after a month or so rest they will again organize a company with the popular Miss Caroline Gage as leading lady, and we may hope to have them with us again." These actors are all well known in Eugene.

Albany Democrat: "According to the McMinnville Transcript if Mr. Hermann gets elected next year he will take a deeper interest in making Yamhill river deeper. There's lots of Hermann talk around. In order to save talk the Democrat will remark that Mr Hermann will be re-nominated as sure as there is a convention. The Democrat is not a Hermann man, he never did like him personally, but he is a rustler and does a good deal for Oregon after all."

ded to their names in person or by proxy 50 accessions during the year past and a total present membership of 201. All indebtedness was provided for up to date and prospects for the future of the work are hopeful.

SEVERAL RESIGNATIONS.—Albany

Democrat: The familiar faces of Mort Young and Charlie Wilson, conductors on the S. P. for a good many years will be seen no more on this road. They have "resigned." Richard Blew, on the overland has also resigned. Conductor Huff resigned several months ago. It is not known yet whether other resignations will follow. Perhaps so, perhaps not.
Such is the life of a conductor in the far West, and far East also.

THEODORE BURMESTER.—Albany

Democrat Monday: Mr Theodore Burmester died at Salt Lake City last night at the age of about sixty years.
He was a pioneer resident of Oregon, residing in Albany for a number of years, where at one time he was in partnership with Judge C. B. Bellinger, now of the U. S. circuit court of Portland, in the practice of law. He went from here to Idaho, returned to Albany, located in Portland, and then moved to Salt Lake City, where he has resided over twenty years. Mr Burmester was father of Miss Mildred Burmester, and brother of Mrs C.
Houck, of this city.

GLITTERS WITH GOLD.—From re- ports from all quarters of Oregon one may conclude that this country literally glitters with gold. An exchange says: "Between the mouths of the Salmon and Siletz rivers, says a prospector, 30 miles of sand and gravel have been located. They lie between the briny deep on one side and a sand ridge from 10 to 100 feet high on the other. Assays of the black sand literally glitter with the promise of twenty-dollar pieces, and if the flour gold can be saved when the sluicing or milling is done on a large scale, one acre of the black sand contains a handsome fortune."

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS met in Grand lodges today. The organization will take place at 7 o'clock this evening. Mayor Gatch and Dr. Conriss will deliver the addresses of welcome and Dr. J. L. Hill, grand chancellor, the response. Rev.

D. V. Poling, of Albany, will follow with the grand lodge oration. Mrs Susie Parmenter will deliver the welcome on behalf of the ladies lodge and Mrs Judge Hewitt, grand chief, of Albany, the response. Wednesday night "Damon and Pythias" will be presented by Salem talent. The last session will be held Thursday morning.

OREGON ALMONDS.—R. Mount yesterday gathered some very fine almonds from a couple of young trees which are growing in his yard, corner 8th and High streets. The trees are five years old and this is the first year they have borne any nuts. Mr Mount has three of them which he planted from almonds bought out of a store.

They are growing in a hedge and have received no cultivation, much of the nutriment of the soil being absorbed by the hedge. The nuts are of the paper shell variety, and are large and the kernels plump.

ANOTHER SLICE.—That $100,000 keeps vanishing. The Newport News says: "The amount of taxes due Lincoln county out of the O. P.'s $100,000 feels up to the sum of $30,361.52.

Judge S. V. Burt went out to Salem last week to employ an attorney to present the claims of the county before the referee. The organization will take place at 7 o'clock this evening. Mayor
addresses of welcome and Dr. J. L. Hill,
grand chancellor, the response. Rev.
D. V. Poling, of Albany, will follow
come on behalf of the ladies lodge and Mrs Judge Hewitt, grand chief, of Al-
night "Damon and Pythias" will be presented by Salem talent. The last session will be held Thursday morning."

SARGATIC.—The Junction City

Times gets sarcastic as follows: The Examiner man was here last week working up subscriptions on the lottery inducement. He secured lots of subscribers, men planked down $1.50 who do not take this or any other paper and have always claimed were too poor to take a paper. Other men belonging to the lot, stand off. A Times for another year, or else pay in cord wood and never bring the wood.

IMPROVE THEM.—Albany Democrat:

Senator Mitchell is also in favor of improving the upper Willamette. What we want, Senator, is actual improvement of the river according to such needs as any river pilot can inform the government. This surveying business that has been going on is all rot so far as the betterment of the Willamette is concerned.

EGGERS PERSONAL.—Prineville Re- view:

Knox Huston and wife, who have been spending the past two months in Lane county, arrived home Friday last. E. T. and Bert Long for Eugene last night. A. Zell and family arrived home from Eugene Tuesday evening of this week.

CATTLE FOR THE ASYLUM FARM.—

Phil Miller, who is buying beef cattle and milk cows for the state insane asylum farm at Salem, expects to start down tomorrow with about 40 head, which he has purchased in this vicinity. He will drive them down.

MARRIED.—In Eugene, Oregon, Oct.

5, 1895, by A. E. Wheeler, J. P. Mr. Geo.
E. Davis of Linn county and Miss May Burns of Lane county. The couple will reside near Harrisburg.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8.

Crook county is in debt about $10,- 000.

Geo. T. Hall & Son are loading a car of hops today.

Jackson county has 12,930 people under the new census.

The river is now lower than it has been this year before.

Nearly every carpenter in Eugene is now crowded with work.

lem public schools was over 1,200.

The county officers
