his saw mill.

Little Zella Ziegler is quite sick.
J. A. Haines went to Portland this morning.
Considerable wood is still arriving in Eugene.
Mrs W. E. Loughmiller has returned from Portland.

Lon Boggs and wife, of Acme, are visiting in Eugene.
Jack Dempsey, the Portland pugilist, is some better.

The Durrant case will probably go to the jury this evening.
President Chapman and J. W. Kays have returned home.

Clarence Adams has the Oregonian route for a few days.
Some repairs are being made on the street railway track today.

Two drunks were thrown into the cooler today by Marshal Day.
We are pleased to learn that Miss Marie Ware is now improving.

J. D. Schaff, the old time gentlemanly drummer, is in the city.
Hon. H. B. Miller addressed assembly at the university yesterday.

Daniel Kern, of Portland, left on the stage this morning for Florence.
J. B. Rouse, of Cottage Grove, is in the city attending circuit court.

Mrs Geo M. Miller is visiting at the Coggswell ranch on the McKenzie.
Clarence Keene is still confined to his room with a huge boil on one of his legs.

A D. Hyland, of Lowell, this week sold 90 head of beef cattle for 11 cents

Junction City holds an election Monday. There are 14 candidates, more or less, for the marshalship.

Mr and Mrs Joe Luckey, Dr. Pren-tie and John Gray went up the Coast Fork today to visit their claims.

E. Anderson and nephew, L. F.
Anderson, left today for the Bohemia mines, where they will spend some time hunting and prospecting.

A disabled engine passed through here last evening enroute to Portland.
It had one of the flanges broken off of a drive wheel out south.

It will be remembered that in August, 1895, Jerry Betty was committed to the county jail of Lane county from Cottage Grove precinct for attempting to kill Orin Robinson, over a dispute about some hay. His actions at the time were somewhat strange and soon after commitment he became quite fidgety while before he had been neat about his person. He was very cheerful and lively up to a year or so ago, but became morose and sullen and seemed to be devoid of intelligence at times, and at the present time is exceedingly perverse; and says if released he will kill Orin Robinson when he returns to Cottage Grove. Since his commitment he has been confined in the county jail.

The officers thought it best under circumstances that he be examined under a charge of insanity, which was filed by Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Williams. Yesterday afternoon at Fisk and Medical examiners Drs. W.
Kaykendall and T. W. Harris examined on the charge, and was ordered to be committed to the asylum as he was found to be insane.

He was taken to Salem this forenoon by special deputy sheriff J. W.
Withrow.

MARION COUNTY CENSUS.—The assessor's census gives the total population of Marion county as 39,041. In 1890 it was 22,454. The census includes the inmates of the public institutions.
Salem is credited with 10,261, while in 1890 it was given as 10,422. The population given other towns is: Woodburn, 1,004; Silverton, 830; Stayton, 488; Mt. Angel, 349; Jefferson, 322; Gervais, 302; Tualuma, 283; Scott's Mills, 250; Mill City, 114; Aurora, 218; Niagara, 55; Detroit, 45; Gates, 43; Mehama, 71; Minto, 17. Places showing a decrease from 1890 are Champego, Mehama, Mill City, Gervais and Turner.

"PRACTICE GAME.—We publish the following for the benefit of the U. O. football team, so they can see what their opponents are doing. Today's Salem Statesman: "This afternoon beginning at 4:30, a practice game of football will be played on the campus between the young champions of Willamette University and a picked eleven. The public are cordially invited to be on hand and witness the game and learn the nature of the pastime and its struggles. The boys are in excellent trim; they feel first rate after Saturday's contest and are hopeful of success in next Saturday's important trial."

Daily Guard, October 30.
NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH.—Rev.
Father Black of this city has just returned from a visit to Cottage Grove, and left again today for Roseburg. He is negotiating arrangements for a new church building at Cottage Grove. An order for some of the material has already been placed. If built according to proposed plans, when finished it will be one of the finest Catholic churches in the state.

GOING TO OAKLAND.—J. L. Scott, the popular drummer, is taking his family to Oakland, California, to spend the winter. They went to Creswell today to visit with relatives and tonight will leave for Oakland. They will probably return here next spring to reside and in the meantime Mr Scott will retain his headquarters in Eugene.

SAFE CRACKED.—C. M. Young & Company's large safe was cracked this morning by M. S. Barker. The safe opens with a combination key, and on Monday the key was lost and since that time the safe has remained closed.
Being unable to get it open any other way as a last resource it was cracked with tools this morning by Gunsmith Barker.

GHOSTS ROBBED IN WHITE SHROUDS may be seen in most any yard about town these nights. The dawn of morning, however, reveal them to be nothing but chrysanthemums clothed in sheets to keep Jack Frost off.

Dr. J. W. Harris returned today from attending Susie Carter, the young lady who was hurt by runaway horse on the Middle Fork Monday.
She remained unconscious for 24 hours but since having her leg set is getting along nicely.

The Salem Statesman is on the trail of the county assessor. The receipts of Assessor Clark for 1894 were $3,815.74, and for 1895 up to Oct. 1, $7,980.50.
It is thought the total will be $10,000. In 1890 the cost was only $2,500.

The portrait of Col. Alford of the Florence War, occupies a prominent place in the October number of the Arena, and Helen N. Gardner devotes considerable time and space to a commentary account of his work in the last legislature of Oregon, in behalf of morality.

Dr. Ausplund who had a duel with Dr. Holmes in Portland August 16th, has been convicted of assault with a dangerous weapon. The penalty is from six months to ten years in the penitentiary or a fine not exceeding $1,000, or both fine and imprisonment.

The rainfall since January 1st is 14.49 inches below normal. Never before since the United States weather bureau was established in Portland has there been such a dry season.
The average rainfall for October is 3.95 inches, but so far there has only fallen a trace, which has been too small to measure.

Miss Catherine C. Coggeswell, who has spent the last five months in Eugene visiting relatives, left this morning on the local train for Chicago, where she has a romantic engagement, and will probably spend the winter.
She will be joined in that city about the middle of November by her cousin, Mrs. George M. Miller, of this city, who will resume her oratorical studies. Miss Coggeswell has made many friends in Eugene during her visit, and one and all wish her much success in her profession. She expects to return here to spend her summer vacation next year.

man.

The Frank Bros Implement Co in Portland has assigned. Mayor Frank is president of the firm.

The S. P. bridge gang and a file driver arrived here last night and will build a new trestle below town.

Mr and Mrs W. L. Bristow of Pleasant Hill arrived here today from a very pleasant visit to Portland.
The trial of John Ison, charged with unlawfully shipping wheat not his own, is on in the circuit court at Albany.

Dr. Ausplund, of Portland, was fined $500 yesterday. He paid $250 of the amount and was given 30 days time on the balance. A considerable judge.

Tomorrow evening Miss Lillian Hauilton will recite at Corvallis at the O. A. C. football benefit, an original composition, "What the Boys Didn't Do at Eugene."

One of the front wheels ran off of Wells Fargo & Co's express wagon this morning, near the Hoffman; no damages.

Dr. Finley, dentist, room 3, Dunn blk.
Mrs Grace Osburn, of Roseburg, came up from Junction today and will spend a few days visiting with Eugene friends.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs a cure is the best. De Witt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform a cure and are the best.

OSBURN & DELANO.
Ex-Senator W. F. Matlock of Umatilla was a passenger on Monday's train going south. He was on his way to view the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight which takes place somewhere in the Lower Mississippi valley.

Say, why don't you try DeWitt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They're small, but do the work.

OSBURN & DELANO.
E. Pickard, Harvey Sommerville and Courtney Officer arrived home today from attending the races at The Dunes and Heppner. The horses trained by John and Black Alder were brought home on the freight today.

Easy to take, sure to cure, no pain, nothing to dread, pleasant little pills.
DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Best for sick headache, biliousness, sour stomach and constipation.

OSBURN & DELANO.
Corvallis Times: As everybody expected, the O. A. C. football team received a drubbing in the practice game at Eugene last Saturday. The boys returned by train from Albany Sunday afternoon, and offer in explanation of their defeat the fact that they have had but a week of training and had in the time several players playing their first match game.

No people suffer so much from physical disabilities as those whose business requires little or no muscular exertion.
The lack of exercise causes the liver to become sluggish and the result is constant constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sick headache. To prevent this take Simmons' Liver Regulator; it keeps the liver active and makes one's condition as comfortable as those who have much exercise.

To Steady the Nerves
Is a task to the accomplishment of which narcotics and sedatives are inadequate. The nervous system is the seat of life. If it becomes disordered, the whole system suffers. Overwork and mental anxiety weaken and exhaust it, and there is no more reliable means of restoring it than by reinforcing digestion and promoting assimilation of the food—two objects always consequent upon the use of the great stomachic. Failing health is recuperated, a regular habit of body restored, and appetite improved by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which has no equal among American tonics, and is constantly increasing demand in Mexico, the West Indies and South America.

took the matter under advisement.

NO FIGHT TODAY.
Sluggers Corbett and Fitzsimmons Must Wait Their Chance.

The following di patch was received by Mr James Chamberlain, agent for the Western Union Telegraph Company, at this place this forenoon:
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31, 11:30 a. m.— The Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight will not occur today. Return subscribers all money collected. Due notice will be given if arrangements are made for a future meeting.

F. J. JAYNES, Supt W. U. T. Co.
A rumor was heard going over the Postal Telegraph Co's wire this morning at 9 o'clock that Fitzsimmons had knocked out Corbett in the twenty-fourth round. It created considerable excitement. Of course it was soon contradicted.

Between November 5th and 7th.
Special to the GUARD.
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 31.—It has been agreed to pull off the Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight, in private,
between November 5th and 7th.

Jointly Indicted.
Daily Guard, October 31.
This afternoon at 1 o'clock the grand jury presented the following indictment:
State of Oregon vs H. P. Hayes and Susan Walker; incest. A true bill.
They were arraigned and took their day to plead.

The indictment against Miss Susan Walker, for lewd association, was demurred to by her attorneys and the court dismissed the same.
Demurrers were also filed to the two indictments against H. P. Hayes, charging him with the crime of incest. After hearing the arguments of the attorneys the court took the matter under advisement.

FALL CREEK, Ore., Oct. 29, 1895.
EDITOR GUARD.—It seems to me the Eugene papers have been misinformed in regard to the Susie Walker case.

You state in the GUARD that the case was found to be irregular, and that the case was dismissed by the deputy prosecuting attorney, and that she was immediately rearrested on a complaint sworn out in Justice Wheeler's court, etc.

The facts are there was no move made to dismiss the case in the Fall Creek court until after she had been taken before Mr Wheeler's court by the officers disguising their intentions, where she received her examination and was admitted to bail, and after she was discharged on bail the deputy prosecuting attorney sent a motion to the Fall Creek court to dismiss the case, which motion was overruled by the Fall Creek court, as he considered the action of the Eugene officers, and deputy prosecuting attorney irregular and without authority of law, as no process had been served on him prior to the arrest by the Eugene officers. Another reason assigned is to save costs, when in truth there was but one witness we desired to subpoena from Eugene, while all the balance of the witnesses desired live in Fall Creek precinct, so that if she had stood examination here costs would have been saved to the county.

The Journal says: "Constable Lin-linton, arrived at the justice's office while the examination was in full blast," which is a mistake as she had waived examination and had been completely fully half an hour before Mr Linton came.

I may be wrong in my conclusions, but it looks to me as if the Eugene proceedings are irregular, illegal, and high handed injustice to a court of equal jurisdiction.

I admit that I made a mistake in not indorsing the appointment of Special Constable C. M. Kessinger of the warrant, instead of on a separate paper as I did.

In conclusion let me call your attention to sections 1551 (345) and 1842 (626) of the Statutes of Oregon.

Respectfully,
J. G. CALLISON,
Justice for Fall Creek precinct.

FOOT BALL.—The Corvallis Gazette in speaking of the foot ball game here nicknames the U. O. team "The Dudes." Well they do not play on the field like the dandy dudes usually described in print. The score of 46 to 0 seems to have paralyzed the Farmers of the hayseed city, usually called Corvallis. Our friend Johnson in ending his article says: "The university boys put up a good, strong, quick game, and show they have been well and carefully coached. But they will have to improve greatly, yet, to beat the game the Portland University put up last year. They were all large, active, looking men, with exception of Romeo Bryson, their quarter-back, who looked small beside the others. Rock, by the way, played a fine game, and made a touch-down, after a good, long run."

was examined on the same charge and dismissed after paying costs.
