Eastern Elections.

Daily Guard, November 6. The following is the results of the Eastern elections held Nov. 5th:

REPUBLICAN. Massachusetts ... 63,000 (The city Democratic.) New Jersey. 20,000 Pensylvania. 150,000 Maryland ... 10,000 Illinois 30,000 111,000 Ohio 60,000 Iowa. DEMOCRATIC. 1,700 Kentucky

The election of Amos J Cummings, dem., to congress from the Tenth district, N Y, is conceded by the republicans. Last year the district went republicans by a small majority. Cummings' plurality is estimated at 4000.

The republicans have carried the legislatures in Ohio and Maryland which will add to republican U S senators.

Almost complete returns from the Eighteenth Illinois congressional district show the election by plurality of 3200, a republican gain of 700 over 1894, of Hon W F L Hadley, rep., who was nominated on a bimetallic plat-NOTES.

Kansas and Nebraska both went republican. An Iowa dispatch says: "The present indications are that the populists will make large gains all over the state, making their total vote 50,000, the largest ever polled in the state. The republican vote shows no special loss; the losses to the populists being almost uniformly with the democrats."
