Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date March 29, 1893:

S. B. MED. MFG. CO.,
Dufur, Oregon.

GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight months old, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well dressed up. S. B. Cough Cure has done its work well. Each of the children like it. Your S. B. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are Yours, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ford.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the spring's work, cleanse the system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses a week.

Send orders a positive guarantee. 50 cents per bottle by all druggists.

The most curious freak that the Condon Globe knows of in Gilliam county is a six legged hog, belonging to L. W. Darling, which is now on his hog creek ranch. The animal is six months old and has as good a voice and appetite as any other kind of a hog.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 2

A rainy day.
Collection day.
Roads are sloppy.
Firemen's election.
Congress met today.

The Roseburg circuit court is in session.

The new Ninth street butcher shop opened up this morning.

A. C. Frick, the Southern Oregon stage robber, was sentenced Saturday to thirty years in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Hattie Venzie gave a fashionable party at her home on East Ninth street Saturday evening. It was a very pleasant affair.

The Dalles Chronicle: Another calamity has overtaken Salem—her football team met defeat at the hands of the University of Oregon boys.

County Clerk Jennings today issued a marriage license to Frank Kelly and Jessie Garoutte. The young man being under legal age his father filed his written consent.

George Fisher went to the lower Siskiyou county this morning to buy beef cattle. He was accompanied by Hugh Hampton. They expect to be absent about ten days.

Albany Telescope: Bert Savage, of Salem, is in the city. A dark brown eye and one hand covered with court plaster shows that he was in the skirmish at Eugene Thanksgiving.

WE BEERS, late of the Willowa Chieftain and Silver Lake Herald, has sold his interest in the newspapers mentioned and has purchased the interest of B. Chauncey in the Union Scout.

Most of the citizens of Cheney are in Spokane attending court as witnesses in the case of W. H. Roberts vs. Dr. H. A. Wells, in which Roberts is suing Wells for $10,000 damages for robbing him of his wife's affections.

The Misses Taylor gave a very pleasant winter party to quite a number of their friends last Saturday evening at the home of their parents, corner of Sixth and High streets. An elegant luncheon was also served.

The rains have raised the river about two feet. If the same continues a few hours longer a boating stage will be reached. The steamer Gypsy intends running here twice a week as soon as the stage of water will permit.

The man who is too poor to take a paper made a trip from Kelo to Kalamazoo last night to attend court. His railroad fare and hotel bill cost a good deal more than would the county paper that would have told him court was postponed.

A New York woman after five months of married life sued for a divorce and proved that her husband had repeatedly slapped her in the face, but the judge refused to grant the divorce on the ground that she had been married long enough to give matrimony a fair trial.

Albany Herald: "Della V. Pengra, state organizer of the United Artisans, a fraternal benevolent organization of Portland, is in the city for the purpose of organizing a society in Albany."

Mrs. Pengra was a resident of Eugene for several years, being the wife of Hon. B. J. Pengra.

Mr. Thos. Kay continues to insist that the leak of his night watchman, Mr. Kullfong, at Waterloo, Linu county, was an accident, notwithstanding the report of the coroner's jury. There are some good reasons to believe he is right. In the first place there is no motive for the act.

Portland Welcome: Ex-Judge Frank J. Taylor is running for mayor of Astoria on the republican ticket. He is regarded as a "good fellow," but it is being thought up to him "that he is being 'sandy' to him."

Billie of exchange sold on foreign countries. Deposits received subject to check or certificate of deposit.

All collections entrusted to us will receive prompt attention.

Missed Three Days.

Monday's Albany Democrat: Lloyd Montgomery came to last night after his siege of insanity, and remarked: "I want my Thanksgiving dinner now; I'm as hungry as a bear."

"Thanksgiving," said Boulton, "This is Sunday night, not Thursday."

"Oh, come off now, I know better. Here, sheriff, this man says it is Sunday, when it is only Thursday. He ought to be taken to the insane asylum at Salem."

Apparently he could not be made to believe it was Sunday, and declared that he did not remember a thing since Thursday. A different suit of clothes had been furnished him to wear. He was asked what suit of clothes he had on, and said his prison suit. Upon looking at the clothes he professed great surprise.

In some respects he has acted very much like an insane person, particularly a person coming out of an epileptic fit.

Dr. Ellis believes it is temporary insanity, but that he was all right when the murder was committed. Drs. Davis and Wallace think that he is feigning insanity.

Three weeks before the murder he had an epileptic stroke, and acted very much like an insane person.

But he was not having one, whatever there is in his present conduct, after he committed the murder, according to all indications. Nothing but hanging can ever answer for the terrible crime committed.

PERSONAL.
Daily Guard, December 2.

Hon. H. R. Kluender went to Salem this forenoon.

M. L. Campbell made Junction City a short visit today.

Mayor Oglesby, of Junction City, spent last night in Eugene.

Irving D. Burg, of Corvallis, spent Saturday night in this city.

The state board of equalization meets in Salem tomorrow.

Mrs. Dr. D. A. Paine and daughter returned to Salem this morning.

E. H. Lauer, of Portland, visited his relatives here on Sunday.

Mrs. John Whiteaker returned from a visit to Jefferson this afternoon.

Henry Ankeny arrived here this morning and will leave with his wife and his son and daughter tomorrow morning for their home at Sterling.

The young people came here to attend the U. O. F., but they have been sick ever since their arrival, and many friends are of the opinion that Miss Decker will remain here and attend the University.

DAILY GUARD, DECEMBER 2.
ADVANCEMENT CLUB.—The Advancement club met as usual last evening. Owing to the absence of Dean Sanderson, who was to read a paper on "Co-operation of Effort in Higher Education," the time was taken up by discussing the possibility of organizing a commercial club. A number expressed their views in the matter, and the prevailing sentiment was that such a club should be organized. It is proposed to secure rooms which will accommodate the free reading room and the board of trade, to have them independent of one another. A committee consisting of Messrs. F. M. Wilkins, H. B. Miller, S. H. Friendly, S. M. Moran and J. H. McClung, was appointed to work up the matter. These clubs have been organized in other towns and are said to have proved a great success, as they have enlisted the commercial interests of the town, and have been patronized universally by the business men.

STATE FAIR BOARD.—Monday's Salem Journal: The executive committee of the state board of agriculture has been in session today at the state house. Among aspirants to three vacancies on the board to be filled at Whitewater, are: J. E. Lushmut, of Portland; Matlock, of Pendleton; Banker Cooper, of Independence. Governor Lord had up to the hour of going to press made no appointments.

MORE SAVED CASES.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the proprietor of the Golden saw mill on the Long Tom, who is charged with violating the state game law by dumping saw dust into the waters of the Long Tom. W. W. Shortridge, of the Cottage Grove saw mill was yesterday fined $25 at that place for dumping saw dust into the Coast Fork.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—Ivanhoe Com mandery Knights Templar elected officers last evening as follows: D. V. S. Reid, E. C. G. E. Loomis, G. W. W. Henderson, C. G. B. D. Paine, S. W. W. Preston, J. W. J. C. Church, treasurer; J. F. Robinson, secretary; O. P. Hoff, Warden; V. McFarland, Sentinel.

TO HULL WHEAT.—We understand that a number of the farmers who have wheat stored in the Irving warehouse are talking of hauling the same to the Meek warehouse, on the river, so they may be able to get the cheaper shipping rate. River warehouses will be popular again, or we miss our guess.

FORGET SEVENTH BIRTHDAY.—Today is the forty-seventh anniversary of G. B. Christman's birth. We wish him many more returns of the same. He was presented a handsome meerschaum pipe by Attorney Mackley.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3.

Dr. Dale returned home today.
A little political heard these days.
The K. of P's, now meet on Thursday night.

Children's billies have made their appearance.

The state board of equalization is in session at Salem.

Geo. W. Pickett made Junction City a brief visit today.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Howard is very ill.

A trying day on a local reporter; items being very scarce.

Attorney H. D. Norton is at San Francisco on a short visit.

Long Tom river was out of its banks yesterday, so we are informed.

Miss Mary Thompson has about recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. Luceline Johnson arrived here today from Buffalo, New York.

I. P. Baker and son, of Fairmount, North Dakota, are recent arrivals here.

Miss Cora Cople, a student, has been quite sick at her home for a few days.

Peter Haney, the proprietor of Foley Springs, is reported quite low again.

Dr. McKenney returned this morning from a professional visit to Cottage Grove.

The republicans carried Salem. No other ticket was in the field. Only $22 votes were cast.

H. M. Sloan was elected a councillor at Pendleton yesterday. He formerly resided here.

It now seems to be the prevailing opinion that the republican national convention will be held in Chicago.

The old timbers taken out of the railroad trestle are being loaded on flat cars and will be used to make repairs.

O. P. Hoff, the Irving postmaster and railroad agent spent last night in Eugene, returning home this forenoon.

Mrs. C. C. H. Bigney, of Liberty, Wisconsin, arrived here today on a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. M. Corbus.

The footballists have retired from active practice. The team was thoroughly tired of the hard training experienced.

Wirt Church went to Cottage Grove today to assist in stringing the wires for the new electric light system at that place.

Today's Salem Statesman: Tomorrow the Gypsy leaves Portland, and the intention being to run her through to Harrisburg.

Albany Democrat: Other things must tumble, but taxes don't. The salaries of officials keep up and are made as big as possible.

It would be a great thing for Eugene to have a commercial club. The one at Pendleton is a great success and a credit to that live city.

Exchange: "How can you tell a dog wood tree?" asked the professor of arborology. "By its bark," said the smallest boy in the class.

The Lakeview Examiner says Major Crossin's wife united with the Baptist church at that place a few days since and were immersed.

The Stanford football team will visit Oregon about the first of the year. We would like to see our champions meet the Californians on the gridiron.

Givens G. Day is now clerking in a store at Reedland, B. C. He is a son of John G. Day and has many friends among the old time Eugene boys.

A. Verington has a very attractive display in his show window. A mossy surface with a tiny lake and hundreds of frogs make a very pretty window scene.

Wid McGee was elected chief engineer of the Eugene Fire Department yesterday afternoon at the election, and John Barger assistant. They will make splendid officers.

Wm. Frazier, of Portland, has been awarded the contract for furnishing thirty head of artillery horses for the government at San Francisco. These horses must all be black.

Attorney A. C. Woodcock went to Salem this forenoon to attend the annual meeting of the State Board of Equalization. Mr. Woodcock is a member for the second district.

We have heard of an unmentionable crime have been committed by a boy in this city. The proper officers should investigate the matter and send the guilty party to the reform school.

The estate of the late Capt. S. G. Reed in Portland alone amounts to $1,131,920, and there are no debts against it. He has much property in California also, and his widow is made the sole legatee.

Mrs. Elizabeth Babcock, of Eagle valley, proved up on a homestead claim last week. She is probably one of the oldest persons on record that ever applied for and obtained a patent on a similar claim, being over 84 years of age.

Oakland item in Roseburg Plaindealer: Roy Stearns came home from Eugene last Wednesday and returned Sunday morning. Roy is looking well and says that his sister May and cousin Winnie Young and he are getting along nicely in school.

During five years the Salem Woolen Mill Co. expended money as follows: Wages, $11,225.30; wood, $15,300.32; coal, $24,791.32; other expenses, $52,955.22. It is only reasonable that Salem people should work to rebuild.

A private letter announces the safe arrival of Mr. T. A. Wenden and children at Dayton, Wash. All of them are well and do not evince the slightest tendency toward diptheria. It will be remembered that Mrs. Wenden died in this city a few days since.

Indianapolis Journal: Presence of mind: Weary Watkins—Wot's de matter, parner? Did she throw water in yer face? Hungry Huggins—Only on me face; only on me face. I had the presence of mind to shut me mouth when I seen it coming.

Washington Star: "And that young man," said the lady from out of the city, "he has a very intelligent look. Has he not distinguished himself at literature?" "Well," said the host thoughtfully, "he has never written a book on the currency question."

GROWL FROM THE INLAND.

Shasta Special won't Carry Way Passengers at Cut Rates.

Portland Telegram: Persons who live along the line of the Southern Pacific and want to take advantage of the cheap rates to San Francisco, have been having trouble with the conductors on the Shasta limited, whose rigid insistence are not to accept local passenger business.

The following complaint about it comes from a Southern Oregon paper: "W. W. Keaton boarded the Shasta limited at Ashland last week and tendered the conductor the fare charged as that train is from Portland to San Francisco. He was put off at Siskiyou station because he would not pay the regular passenger rate of $14.70. This looks like a case of gross discrimination in favor of long hauls, and is probably a matter for investigation by the interstate commerce commission.

This growl is unjustified because it is well understood—or it is meant to be well understood—that the Shasta special is a through train and the conductors are not permitted to collect any fares whatever if they can help it. The Shasta special makes no stops and the passengers are to pay no passenger business is to be done.

The Southern Pacific officials when asked about it today, said that the Shasta special carried only through passengers, and further, if a man found a way to get aboard the train at an intermediate station the only way he could stay aboard was by paying regular tariff rates.

Said Mr. Rogers' chief assistant: "The superintendent's instructions to conductors are that no passengers are to be accepted from way points. The conductor in this case acted according to his instructions, and when the man failed to pay the regular fare he was compelled to put him off. A conductor is not supposed to accept passengers, because the Shasta limited does not stop. At Ashland the train must stop for fuel and water and then goes straight through."

Estate of Alfred Wilson; personal property ordered sold at private sale.

Estate of Marcus Kelly, deceased. Probable value of estate, $3005; Mary E. and Elsie E. Kelly appointed executors of said estate without bonds.

Estate of Geo. Creamer, deceased; said annual account approved. Estate of Isaac Condon, deceased. Appraisers report $640 worth of real property.

Estate of Helen Workinger, insane. Probable value of estate $700. W. H. Workinger appointed guardian. Bonds $233.20 worth of personal property.

Estate of Wm. Miller, Appraisers appointed: Wm. Smith, Wm. Miller and S. Durr. Appraisers report $404 worth of real and personal property.

Estate of A. B. Snow, deceased. Probable value of estate $850. M. A. Snow appointed executor without bonds, as provided under the will.

Appraisers appointed: Wm. Welch, O. W. Lucas and Ed. Steffen. Estate of Christian Berger, deceased. December 3, 1895, set for final settlement.

Estate of Caswell Hendricks. Appraisers report $1000 worth of real and $223.20 worth of personal property.

Estate of Thomas Bailey, deceased. Probable value of estate $1000. Emily Bailey appointed administratrix with $2000 bonds; sureties: E. A. Wooley, J. H. Yates, C. A. Wooley. Appraisers appointed: C. A. Wooley, James Wood and James Galway.

Estate of J. U. Green, deceased. Probable value $2970. W. M. Green appointed administrator with $4000 bonds; surety, S. M. Titus. Appraisers appointed: H. H. Stickney, Charles Farrow and C. S. Frank.

TO THE PEN.—The sheriff of Linn county took Mrs. Hannah, the female murderer sentenced for life, to the penitentiary yesterday. The Salem Journal says: "As the train neared Salem, Attorney Wyatt, one of her counsel, who was on the train, took the most behind her and spoke to her. Her face brightened up and she talked earnestly to him for a short time about the chances of the supreme court reversing the verdict of the lower court. At about this time the penitentiary came in view from the car window. The great red walls of the institution were plainly in evidence and Mrs. Hannah as she realized her position looked very serious for a moment. Then, however, she was as imperturbable as ever. When the train reached Salem she was escorted quietly to a cab and conveyed to the prison."

Sheriff McFarland said he had not been so thankful in his life as to know that he was about to get rid of his female prisoner, who he said gave more annoyance than all the rest of his boarders."

A 24 POUND BABY.—A baby whose weight was 24 pounds at birth was born to the wife of John J. Mackey, a janitor in one of New York's office buildings the other day. It is a girl and bears the proud distinction of being the heaviest child ever known at such an early stage in the game of life. The attending physician said it was a remarkable specimen in a physician's career to assist at the advent of a baby of that weight, particularly if the child be healthy, as is the case of the ponderous Miss Mackey. At the last account she was several pounds heavier than at birth.

DAILY GUARD, DECEMBER 3.
ABSENT RIGHT.—Today's Salem Statesman: "Mrs. Etta M. Trotter, a native of Minnesota, aged 17 years, was brought to the insane asylum yesterday from Eugene by Sheriff Johnston and the young woman's husband. Her insanity is hereditary. It was a hard case to see a young wife of 17 years going to the asylum and on the other hand there is something law in the laws and usages that will allow a half insane girl of that age to become a wife."

DAILY GUARD, DECEMBER 3.
CITY OFFICERS.—Springfield elected city officers yesterday as follows: Mayor, E. Martin; treasurer, J. W. Stewart; recorder, V. W. Harshbarger; councilmen, B. A. Washburn, Z. Kintzley.

DAILY GUARD, DECEMBER 2.
FINED $25.—W. Shortridge, of Cottage Grove was yesterday brought before Justice Medley's court charged with dumping saw dust in the river, and fined $25 and costs.

U. S. Land Commissioner.

Joel Ware, having been appointed U. S. Circuit Court Commissioner for the district of Oregon, is now prepared to make HOMESTEAD FILINGS, FINAL PROOFS, and take testimony in CONTEST CASES.

Having had thirty years experience in this line, he will guarantee satisfaction in every case. Office in Odd Fellows' Building, Eugene, Oregon.

IN THE SUPREME COURT.
The Eastern Oregon Branch Asylum Case Argued.

Monday's Salem Journal: "The supreme court this afternoon heard arguments in the Eastern Oregon asylum suit, entitled: "State of Oregon upon relation of A. C. Taylor, respondents, vs. W. P. Lord, H. R. Kluender and Phil Metcham, as board of commissioners for public buildings; appellants; appeal from Marion county. W. P. Lord and J. C. Moreland for appellants. H. J. Bigger for respondents.

"Governor Lord appeared and made an elaborate argument on the equities of the case against the contention of the board of state officials of which he is now a member, but was not when the suit was brought. H. J. Bigger argued ably against the claims of Lord and Moreland."

PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT.
A Little Son of Mrs. Schomburg Has a Peculiar Accident.

Last Saturday afternoon Charlie Schomburg, the little eight year old son of Mrs. Schomburg, who resides on a farm six miles west of Eugene, was the subject of a peculiar accident, which will in all probability result fatally. The little boy was playing with an old umbrella, when he fell and one of the steel ribs penetrated the head just under the right eye, passing through the orbit and into the brain. Dr. Hamel was called and did everything possible to relieve the little sufferer. He is fearful that the wound will result fatally. At last accounts the little child was still alive.

A YAQUINA MAN.—Yaquina Post: Capt. Nevin Guilliams, of the Oua, who has been one of the most successful seal hunters on this coast for several seasons past, had the misfortune to have his vessel and cargo of seal skins seized during the past season for alleged violation of the law in relation to sealing. The matter came up for hearing before Judge Bellinger a few days since, and the vessel and cargo were confiscated. Capt. Guilliams, figures the loss at $7,000. Immediately after the decision criminal proceedings were commenced against Capt. Guilliams, and he is expected to be fined $200 or more for violation of the law. Capt. Guilliams claims he was outside the prohibited hunting grounds, while the government witness claims he was inside.

DAILY GUARD, DECEMBER 2.
THE GUN FACTORY.—G. A. Sachs and Oswald Mehner of the Eugene Gun Factory came up from Portland last night. Capt. Sachs has been in San Francisco for the past five months in the interest of his factory, and since his return to this city, though he has not definitely stated his plans, it is rumored that the factory has received a substantial lift and will, as soon as arrangements can be completed, be placed in operation, probably soon after the holidays. Mr. Mehner, Mr. Sachs' partner, remained in Eugene until a few weeks ago, when he went to Portland to await the coming of Capt. Sachs. They have secured the services of an expert who is now here.

DIED.—At the home of his mother, Mrs. Schomburg, a widow lady who resides six miles west of Eugene, Dec. 2, 1895, Chas. E. Schomburg, aged 8 years. The cause of death was from injuries received by falling on an umbrella, one of the steel ribs entering the head just below the right eye and penetrating the brain. Everything possible was done to relieve the little sufferer, but without avail. The funeral services will be held tomorrow at 11 a. m. at the residence. The remains will be interred in the Oak Hill cemetery at 1 p. m.
