ARMENIANS' DANGER

THEY ARE NOW THREATENED

American Armenia patriots watch the Armenian Information Bureau in Washington carefully and are constantly taking in regard to the situation. The bureau is under the direction of Dr. George A. Jackman, who is well known for his work in behalf of the Armenians. He is also a member of the American Armenia Relief Committee.

The bureau is said to be working under the direction of the Armenian government and is under the control of the government of Armenia.

The bureau has been active in its efforts to create a sense of alertness among the Armenians and to make them realize the danger that faces them.

The bureau has been accused of being a propaganda organization, but this charge is denied by its leaders.

The bureau is said to have been formed by the Armenian government in order to keep the Armenians informed of the situation and to keep them from falling into the hands of the enemy.
