J. F. FORD,

(Evangelist.)

Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date March 23, 1893:

S. B. MED. MFG. Co., Dufur, Oregon.

GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 38 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B. Colgate Cure has done its work well. Both of the children like it. Your S. B. Colgate Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wish you prosperity, we are

Yours, MR. AND MRS. J. F. FORD.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the spring's work, cleanse the system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses a week.

Sold under a positive guarantee for 50 cents per bottle with full directions.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 30.

Splendid winter weather.

The bicycle is three centuries old.

Commissioners court next week.

Yoran & Son have a new new ad today. Don't miss it.

Rev D E Loveridge was a passenger to Portland this morning.

Yaqun Bay News: John Loomis and Roy Case are home from the Eugene University, to spend their vacation.

An Astoria paper says that ex-Sheriff Harry Smith is in New York and contemplates returning to Astoria next March.

Fisher & Watkins weighed one of their Christmas beavers Saturday evening. It tipped the scales at 1,168 lbs. The larger one will be weighed tomorrow evening.

Rev W E Copeland, in his sermon at Salem yesterday, replied to the attack upon the state university by the Rev Roland Grant in a lecture at Eugene recently. The Oregonian publishes it in full—three columns.

The lighthouse and fog signal at the junction of the Willamette with the Columbia river will be put in operation January 1st. The light is a red lens lantern and the fog signal a bell. It will be a one-man station.

J M Shelley, formerly sheriff of Lane county, has been, for the third time, elected president of the commercial and druggists' association, a druggists' organization. Mr Shelley is an excellent presiding officer and is a first class gentleman.

Editor Clarke, of the Walla Walla Chief, was married Wednesday night, December 11, 1895, to Miss Nellie Lischer, at Enterprise. May their joys always be without error, their edition large and subscribers prompt to liquidate.—La Grande Banner.

La Grande Daily Chronicle: Miss Nellie Stevens, who has worked up over the suit brought to oust her from office, but it is not probable that the suit will succeed. She should feel satisfied however, with the knowledge that, if it were, she will still retain the hearty support and sympathy of the people of Union county.

Corvallis Times: Referee Woodcock's court convenes at the court house at 2 o'clock next Friday.

The purpose of taking the referee's testimony in reference to the claims of E C M Band and John P Fay. This will probably be the final sitting of the referee. Any other testimony offered will be received at that time.

Albany Democrat: "The stockholders of the Albany creamery have just received their semi-annual dividend of four per cent. During November the milk furnished received at the rate of 24 cents per pound for butter for their milk. The present market price is 45 cents per roll. The creamery is a success beyond expectations." Eugene should have a similar concern. We must wake up and secure some manufacturing establishments or else we will fall in the rear.
