NEW FRUIT INSPECTOR.

Daily Guard, January 14.
School Superintendent J. G. Stevenson Receives the Appointment.
A number of persons of this county who have attempted to ship fruit trees out of the county lately have experienced a great deal of difficulty because of there being no fruit inspector here.

The law requires that all fruit trees shipped from one part of the state to another must be inspected before leaving the nursery by some competent person, appointed for that special purpose, and pronounced free of disease before they can be shipped.

The need of an inspector here has been very apparent, and today County School Superintendent J. G. Stevenson received a commission from C. L. Daly of Salem, commissioner second horticultural district of Oregon, appointing him inspector of fruit trees for Lane county.

This is a good appointment, as Mr Stevenson will carefully and conscientiously dispose of the duties of this office to the best interests of the fruit industry.

A PLEASANT PARTY.—Miss Pearl Roper entertained about 30 of her friends at a social party at her home on Ferry street Saturday evening. The time until a late hour was spent in social games and vocal and instrumental music. It was indeed a very pleasant affair, as Miss Roper knows well how to entertain in a way which will make her guests enjoy themselves. Those present were: Misses Nora Luckey, Maggie Luckey, Elma Hendricks, Laura Burnett, Florence Burnett, Alice Mills, Edith Harris and Mrs S. M. McFadden (Portland); Messrs John Kenney, Curtis Harris, Archie Livermore, Horace Burnett, Chester Edwards, Clarence Luckey and Prof. L. Allard (Troutdale).

Daily Guard, January 14.
LYVELL BAKER'S LECTURE.—Hon Lyvell Baker of Portland lectured at Monn's hall last evening under the auspices of the Eugene and University Advancement club on "The Evolution of Darwinism." Mr Baker was greeted by a fair house. He did not speak directly on the subject of evolution itself, but spoke on the theories advanced on evolution by different writers. He began with the earliest writers on this subject and following down to the present time, showed how the theory became more perfect as science threw light on the subject. The lecture was a very able effort and showed much hard study on the part of the speaker and that he was thoroughly conversant with his subject.

Daily Guard, January 14.
LOST HIS LOAD.—Andrew Schrag, from near Irving, drove into town this morning with four horses attached to a large load of loose hay. At the junction of 6th and Willamette streets the horses became frightened at a passing street car. In their convulsion, the coupling pole was broken and the front running gear pulled from under the wagon, allowing the load to drop to the ground.

Daily Guard, January 14.
NO CITY LEVY YET.—At its meeting last night the council did not fix the city tax levy. An adjourned meeting will be held next Saturday evening at which time the levy will be made.

Daily Guard, January 14.
TAKES POSSESSION TONIGHT.—Mr S. E. Brown, the new lessee of the Hoffman House, will take possession tonight, as the Messrs DuBois desire to retire from the business immediately. The occupants of the Hoffman House will dine with Mr Brown this evening.

Daily Guard, January 14.
ELKS.—It is probable that a lodge of the order of Elks will be instituted in Eugene in the near future. The subject is being canvassed with fair prospects of success. The Elks are noted for the good fellowship and social qualities existing in lodges and between members.

ALMOST A BALANCE.—There is now less than $1000 due in delinquent taxes on the 1894 tax roll of this county. The amount received from costs accruing from the collection of delinquent taxes for 1894 almost equals the amount which is yet delinquent, and therefore nearly balances the delinquency in the tax roll. While there is yet nearly $1000 due, the amount of money paid in by the people would equal the entire tax roll of 1894 had it all been paid on the original tax.

POULTRY CAR TOMORROW.—Messrs Chase & Co, commission men of this city, will start their first full carload of poultry to San Francisco on tomorrow morning's freight. The car is being loaded today with chickens, ducks, geese and turkeys. Between 400 and 500 are to be shipped. Of this number 300 is obtained in this county and the remainder will be loaded at Oakland and Medford. The car used is an iron one built especially for shipping poultry. It is consigned to Chas Jacobson & Co, of San Francisco.

Daily Guard, January 14.
SOUTHERN OREGON HOPS.—Geo T Hall, Jr, is in Southern Oregon shipping some hops purchased recently by Messrs Hall & Son, of this city. They shipped one car load from Merlin last week and this week will ship two car loads from Grant's Pass. The Southern Oregon hops purchased by Messrs Hall & Son are of the very finest quality and were bought at the low price of four cents per pound.

Daily Guard, January 14.
ELKS.—It is probable that a lodge of the order of Elks will be instituted in Eugene in the near future. The subject is being canvassed with fair prospects of success. The Elks are noted for the good fellowship and social qualities existing in lodges and between members.

ACADEMY OF SCIENCE.

Another society has been added to the many already in Eugene. This is the Academy of Science of the University of Oregon, which was organized last Friday evening. Prof S. E. McClure acted as temporary chairman of the meeting and Prof E. H. McAllister as temporary secretary. After the adoption of a constitution permanent officers were elected as follows: President, Prof Thos. Condon; Vice President, Dr T. W. Harris; Secretary-Treasurer, Prof F. L. Washburn. These officers also constitute the program committee. The object of the society is the discussion of scientific subjects. Meetings will be held the last Saturday of each month in the biological laboratory at the university.

A MODEL BOAT.—Covallis Times: Captain Gordon of the steamer Gypsy is very proud of his craft. It has a cargo from the set by river points between Eugene and Covallis 100 tons, dead weight on its arrival down last Tuesday. The Gypsy is equipped with a steel boiler capable of carrying 160 pounds of steam to the square inch and machinery of the latest and most improved style. Her model is from perfect lines and a resultive hull. Her boat the best suited to upper river traffic that has ever been on the route, not only so, but through the efficient and gentlemanly management of Captain Gordon we are receiving the best river service that has ever been rendered.

MARION COUNTY SPECIMEN.—Salem Statesman: Whoever doubts the efficacy of "Old Marion" as a beef producer along with all her other manifold advantages will find his doubts dissipated by looking at the four and one-half-year-old blooded Hereford beef, familiarly known as "Bob," of the last state fair as "Bob," whose dressed carcass now hangs in the hooks of Cross' State street market. "Bob" was a product of the well known "Rockwell" breeding farm near Turner and owned by John McKinney. The animal was killed on Friday last at a live weight of 1655 pounds.

Daily Guard, January 14.
LOTS OF FREIGHT.—The arrival of the steamers Sunday and yesterday bringing large amounts of freight to town south of here has flooded the S. P. freight depot. There were no empty cars here to ship the freight south and it kept piling up until the building would hold no more. However some cars were brought in on the local this morning and the accumulated freight is now being gathered into shape so that it can be handled.

Daily Guard, January 14.

THREATENED TO KILL.—H. W. Ross has been arrested and is being given a trial at Junction today for threatening to kill Geo M. Carson.

A LUCKY GIRL.

Prof. Thos. Condon related an incident at assembly at the university this morning which shows how serious accidents might often be averted if one would only retain presence of mind in an emergency. The incident in question is relative to Miss Balm Mann, a student of the university, who a few days ago took the railroad route to the university. As she was crossing the long trestle across the mill pond, a train suddenly bore down upon her. She did not have time to get off of the trestle, and her first impulse was to jump into the water below but she regained her senses in time to climb hurriedly down upon one of the cross-beams of the trestle, which extend out a distance of a couple of feet on each side of the track, where she remained in safety while the train passed by, the wheels of the engine and cars being only a few feet from her head.

WANT TO PAY THEIR TAXES.—The Lane county tax roll for 1895 will not be completed before the middle or last of February, and people cannot pay their taxes before that time. But notwithstanding this fact there are a good many people who have called at the sheriff's office within the past several weeks for the purpose of paying their 1895 tax. Much as the county might regret to refuse these collections it has been compelled to do so. However, it shows the right spirit on the part of the people and is a good evidence of returning prosperity.

BANK OFFICERS.—At a recent stockholders meeting of the Eugene Loan & Savings Bank, the following directors were elected: W. E. Brown, J. B. Harris, J. E. Davis, J. F. Robinson, B. D. Paine, D. A. Paine and F. W. Osburn. At a meeting of the directors on the 14th inst Mr Church the president, to the regret of the stockholders, desiring to retire, W. E. Brown was elected president, J. E. Davis, vice president and F. W. Osburn, cashier. The year 1895 was the most prosperous in the bank's history.

I ROPS DEAD.
A. G. A. R. Man Dies suddenly of Heart Failure.
Daily Guard, January 15.
C. E. Blackwell, a member of J. W. Geary Post, G. A. R. of this city, died suddenly of heart failure at his home near the Geary school, in the northwestern part of the city late yesterday afternoon.

Mr Blackwell suffered from an attack of paralysis last summer but had sufficiently recovered so as to be up and around. However, for some time he has been ailing and has not been away from the house for two or three weeks. Yesterday afternoon a neighbor called in at the family residence and enquired how Mr Blackwell was getting along. He replied that he was not feeling so well as usual. A few minutes later he fell in his chair dead.

Deceased leaves a wife and three children. One of them is a married daughter, who resides in Nebraska, having left here only about two weeks ago. Another daughter, Mrs A. S. Kauffman, resides near Salem. The remaining one is a son aged about 18 years, who resides at home.
Deceased was born in Maine, and was aged 66 years at the time of his death. He was an edge tool manufacturer by trade. During the civil war he served in Company A, 23d Maine Infantry. He came to Eugene two years ago and has resided here since that time.
The funeral services will be held tomorrow at 11 a. m. at the First Presbyterian church, after which the remains will be interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Daily Guard, January 15.
THE "BEAUTIFUL."—The "beautiful" began to fall here shortly before 8 o'clock last evening and continued to fall part of the night and by this morning the ground was covered with about two inches of snow. Toward morning the snow turned into a sleet which froze to the trees and electric light and telegraph wires, but not in sufficient quantities to do any damage. It has been the wing some today, but the trees and buildings are still loaded down with sleet and the ground is covered with slush.

JUST WRONG.—Many of the farmers have had hard luck this year in handling hog products. The low price of wheat and the fair price of pork last year induced many to stock up with hogs and feed them wheat. Unfortunately for them the market reversed itself and while wheat is in demand at the best figure since 1893, the price of pork has gone to the bottom. A well posted farmer informs us that at present prices for pork, farmers will not realize over 25 cents per bushel for the grain fed.

DIED.—At Mount Hope, Oregon, January 15 1896, Philaster J. Jughman, of consumption. Deceased was a native of Lane county, being a son of Elder Samuel Bauerman, of Pleasant Hill, who is one of the earliest pioneers of this county. The remains were brought up on the local today, and conducted to the family cemetery on Pleasant Hill, where they were interred.

BORN.—In Junction City, Oregon, to Mr and Mrs Wm McClure, a son, January 9, 1896.
BORN.—At Fall Creek, Jan. 8, 1896, to the wife of John Klasinger, an 8-pound girl.
