THE LOCAL MARKETS.

Encouraging Outlook for Wheat—No Market for Prunes—Notes.

Just at present the wheat market is practically the only one which offers any encouragement to the producer. Wheat is now quoted at 50 to 55 cents per bushel free on board.

In the hop market no quotations are given, and there is practically no market for hops. There remains in the hands of producers in Lane county and tributaries from 1000 to 1500 bales, and the outlook for those still holding their crop is very discouraging.

Potatoes have to go begging for a market and command only about 18 cents per bushel. Advice from San Francisco state that the market in that city has gone to pieces, and large shipments of potatoes have been thrown on the market at 10 cents per sack.

There is no market for prunes, and choice Oregon Italian prunes command only 2 to 3 cents per pound in Chicago. At this price the producer can realize no profit.

Butter is holding up and sells for 40 to 50 cents per roll. Eggs are up and down, and the price quoted today cannot be relied on for tomorrow. They are now quoted at 20 cents.

Apples sell for 25 to 50 cents per bushel, and onions are quoted at 80 cents per 100. Quotations on meat are as follows: Bacon, 7 1/2c; hams, 8c; shoulders, 6c; dressed pork, 3c; beef, on foot, 2c; mutton, $1.40 to $2.00 per head; veal, 3 1/2 to 4c, dressed.

Hay is held at $5.50 per ton, baled, but the general market does not warrant so high a price. Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. There are degrees and kinds of poverty, just as there are differences of opinion among those who compute and measure poverty and riches by different standards. Some men deem themselves poor because they are less rich than others, again there are comparatively poor people who are satisfied with a competence. There is a kind of poverty for which no amount of wealth can compensate, namely, a poverty of bodily stamina, crined by nervousness and a derangement of the function of digestion, bilious secretion and the bowels. To restore vigor upon a permanent basis, there is one remedy that fully covers the requirements, "fills the bill," and this is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. By restoring digestion, giving a healthful impulse to the action of the bowels, liver and tranquillizing the nerves, it fulfills the condition necessary to a resumption of strength by the system. It also overcomes malaria and rheumatism.

Daily Guard, January 22. SINKING RAPIDLY.—The latest report from M H Harlow, Sr, who was stricken with paralysis a few days ago, was that he was sinking rapidly and his attendants did not think he would survive the day. He has been unconservious from the time of receiving the stroke.

LOCK'S BUSINESS.—Secretary C H Caulfield of the Portland General Electric Co., owner of the river locks at Oregon City, has filed his quarterly report with the governor, showing the volume of business done by the company at that point during the months of October, November and December, 1895. From the document it appears that the steamers Modoc, Toledo, Altona, Gypsy, Eugene, Gray Eagle, Elmore, Grady, Ramona, Hoag and City of Salem carried through the locks during that period and in 426 trips all told, 4897 passengers, 124 head of cattle, 29 sheep, and 787 1/2 tons of general freight.

A Talk With Hammond.

Astoria News: Since Mr A B Hammond has arrived from the East he has apparently slighted Astoria with his presence, and it has caused some comment in the direction that he has lost interest in the Astoria and Columbia River Railroad.

While there he had a number of conversations with Mr Hammond who spoke freely about his projects and expressed himself as being more enthusiastic over it than ever. As to his not coming to Astoria he said that there was no necessity for it as he was near enough to have constant intercourse with those who were actively engaged in the work.

He has his family with him and it is more pleasant for them to remain in Portland than to come here at this time of the year, and as he desires to be with his family he will not come here until his plans for the summer are well matured, and in April or May, when the season is well advanced, he intends to have the work proceed on a large scale, and accomplish as much as men and money can before next winter.

He said that he had made certain promises to Astoria, and that everyone would be fulfilled, and within the time heretofore designated. COMING DOWN A LITTLE.—The Oregonian, after calling the members of the U of O football team all sorts of names, now gets down to the proper line and classes some of the players of this team among the best in Oregon.

It says: "If suitable arrangements can be made with the Butte football team, it is proposed by some of the local football players to form an All Portland team and go to Butte for a game some time in May. A very strong aggregation could be formed of local players that, with all the practice together, would give the one-time invincibles considerable trouble. Such a team would include McDowell, Blyth, Watson, Fecheimer and Joe Smith, of the Multnomahs; Rusk, Pearson and Hall, of Portland University, and Templeton, Shattuck and Coleman, of Eugene. These men rank among the best football players of Oregon, and could make a team equal to almost any athletic club team in the coast."

DIED.—Prineville Review of January 18: Of pneumonia, at the residence of P B Ponder in this city, on last Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock, Perry Wilson, uncle to Mrs Ponder. He was never married but leaves many relatives and friends here who mourn his departure. Funeral services were held at the Union church, conducted by Elder A B Wade after which the remains were laid at rest in the Workmen cemetery. Resqueurs in pace.

WILL VISIT CRATER LAKE.—The Mazamas have decided to make Crater Lake the object of their annual outing for 1896, and are now making arrangements for transportation to Medford and Ashland. The present plan of the Mazamas to leave the railroad at one of these towns and return to it at the other, thus travelling one route to the lake and another from it. It is thought that there will be from 400 to 500 people who will visit the lake.

The three prisoners who escaped from the Portland jail have been captured and are again in their cells.

R. E. PORTER. A CLUB YELL.—To say that the Bald Head Club is prospering is to say the least. The club is becoming manifold in membership and is accepting all the latest fads of modern societies and organizations of various kinds. It has appointed a committee of two to select a club yell. Just what the yell will be is a profound secret, but it is hinted that it will contain the word "hal!" repeated a great many times. The yell will not be precipitated upon the unsuspecting public until the senior members of the club have graduated and secured a goodly portion of this treasured article. It won't be long though, for most of them are feathering out quite lively now.

JUDGE GOES DOWN.—The north end of the small covered bridge about a quarter of a mile north of Eugene is fast down this forenoon. That end of the bridge had rested on some trees work built up on the bank of the slough when the bridge spans. During the high water this trestle was undermined and this forenoon the weight of the bridge proved more than the bank could stand, and the end of the bridge dropped about five feet and now rests on a bank of sand and sediment. No one was on the bridge when it fell, but a team and wagon had crossed but a few minutes before. It is thought the bridge can be raised and placed on piling without much trouble.
