Dufur, Oregon.
GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and-a-half years old, who had wasted away to 35 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B.
Cough Cure has done its work well.
Both of the children like it. Your S. B.
Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all.
Wishing you prosperity, we are,
Yours, MR. AND MRS. J. F. FORD.

Ashland has a ten mill tax.
Commissioners' court is in session.
The flouring mill is again running night and day.
There are 1055 patients in the insane asylum at Salem.
Oregon in 1895 produced 3,369,460 bushels of potatoes.
The looks at Oregon City were placed in operation again yesterday.
The commissioners' court is now busy appointing judges and clerks of election.

The overland train was several hours late yesterday, caused by trouble in the Shastas.
Quite a number from this city expect to attend the dance at Springfield tonight.
A little child of John Harris, of Jasper, is dangerously ill with pneumonia.
The Christian church of this city has extended a call to Rev M L Rose, of North Yakima, Wash.
Do not overlook the local reading matter on the second and third pages of this paper.
The machinery has been bought and work on the new woolen mill at Salem is now under way.

Rev Skaggs of Junction will open a revival service in the Christian church next Monday evening.
The Advancement club meets in Moun's hall tonight. The leading paper will be read by Prof Thos Condon.
Mr Burdick, of Shedd's, has purchased half a car load of mutton sheep in Lane county for shipment to Seattle.
Rev A D Skaggs, of Junction City, will commence a revival meeting in the Christian church here next Monday evening.
The Hon Theodore Runyon, United States ambassador to Germany, died suddenly and unexpectedly at 1 o'clock this morning in Berlin.
Hundreds of people congregated on Willamette street last evening to witness the services of the Salvation Army and God's Regulars.
Washburne & Sons, of Springfield, are loading a car with Snow Ball flour for shipment to Redding, California, the first they have shipped into that territory.

The Weekly World, a paper devoted to the interests of the colored citizens of Portland, will make its appearance about February 1.
We understand at a school meeting held out west of town a few evenings ago a number of men in attendance engaged in a free fight, and some arrests will follow.
While out trapping in the vicinity of Horse Rock point near Brownsville last Friday Bert Cochran accidentally shot and killed his father, Sanford Cochran.
We are reliably informed that a certain man of this city was promenading the street in female attire one evening recently. He is a fit subject to be picked up by the officers.
The Jacksonville Times speaks as follows of a former resident of this city: "H M Hicks, of Ashland, left last week for Cottonwood mining district, California, to commence operations on the Hicks & May claim there." Yesterday's Albany Herald: Chief of Police Lee received a letter from Constable T D Linton, of Eugene, yesterday, stating that Ella Bryant, the girl in jail here, came from the Sluslaw, and that her trunk is held for an unpaid board bill in Eugene.

Prof Boat lectured on spiritualism at Wilson's hall last evening. When he had finished he attempted to give a few tests. It is needless to say that a badly disappointed crowd left the house when he was through.
The club dance Saturday night was one of the most enjoyable given this season. This was the last dance of this series, but on Wednesday evening a meeting will be held for the purpose of reorganizing and continuing another series.
Parties from Florence state that severe storms have been raging on the coast for some time, and three vessels were loaded and bar bound in the Sluslaw for two weeks.
Portland Welcome: Eugene has a club of baldheads, and a smart barber has induced them all to patronize his shop, not to get their hair cut, of course, but to allow him to try and make it grow.
Portland Frater: Neighbor J W Mason of Springfield camp, Woodmen of the World, is at Pleasant Hill working to put in a camp at that point. He has 22 on the list. Organizer McHenry says this is Brooks' first work in the field, therefore it looks like he is a sure success.

Herald: The Albany fair grounds property owned by the Linn County Agricultural Association has been sold at sheriff's sale to satisfy a judgment of $7,275.50 held by Robert Crawford. The property was bid in by the plaintiff for $2,000.
After several months spent in examining into the accounts presented by the five receive a of the Union Pacific system, and the counter-claims of Receiver McNeill, of O. R. & N. Co., Judge L. McArthur yesterday filed his report, which is almost wholly in favor of O. R. & N.
Many complaints are still being made in Southern Oregon of the un-justness of assessing railroad property lower than the adjoining land of farmers. The county boards of equalization have been trying to adjust the matter, but still the claim is made that the assessments are unequal.
Coast Mail: There is another agitation in East Marshfield about the church. This side says that the people of this side say must come over here. Discon Timmerman and Elder Reese, of the east side, say the bell must not be moved, and the chances are if the bell is moved they will not go to church at all.
Wedderburn Gazette: A musical performance by telephone was one of the novelties at this place a week ago last Saturday night. P McCreey with his violin was at one end of the line, while the harmonium was skilfully played at the other end. The music was plainly heard at each end, and astonished some who had never heard the wonders of the telephone before.

been compelled to remain in this city for some time by injuries received as a runaway, has so far recovered as to be able to walk on crutches and yesterday was taken home.
Sheriff Johnson's team took a spin on their own account yesterday. Mr Johns was over west of Hemenway's hill, when his team got away and started for home. After running about a mile they got into the mud up to their knees and soon stopped.
A gentleman who wished to purchase some doors entered a hardware store in this city recently and enquired if the proprietor was in. "Yes," replied the clerk who knew what he wanted, "He's in, but he's just out of doors." It took the customer some time to catch on.

Salem Post: We are pleased to notice that the State University of Eugene, has challenged the Willamette university to a joint debate. There is some sense in that. An intellectual contest is infinitely more elevating and becoming to a college student than games of football which only inculcate brutality, bluff and broken bones.
A newly married man of this place, having a desire to compliment his mother-in-law's culinary accomplishments, took this manner of doing it:
"I send you by express today one of my wife's first biscuits, that you may note the effect of your culinary instruction. I would send it by mail that you might get it sooner, but the postal regulations prohibit the transmission of articles weighing more than four pounds through the mails."

Supreme Court Cases.
SALEM, Jan. 27.—J J Barber, respondent, vs J C Goodale, appellant; appeal from Lane county; judgment affirmed. Opinion by Wolverton, J.

Windberry's Latest News.

Jan. 27, '96.
The reservation on Windberry is in a flourishing condition. Jess McEe is acting as manager during the temporary absence of the head chief, Ed Luce.
The agency has been vacant since Adamson has stepped down and out but some think Jim Frazier, of Fall Creek, will get the position, as he is a frequent visitor at the Red Front.
The Red Front as a hotel is a howling success, as boarders are numerous.
H N Carter has been employed as chief cook and bottle washer at the Red Front for a few days. Get there, Harry.
Our two young doctors, James and Henry Carter, have just returned from the Middle Fork after a three or four days' absence at the bedside of a colored young lady, who was down with some kind of fits. They left their patient doing well.
J P Hoff, of Fall Creek, made a flying trip to the reservation Saturday.
Geo Young was a caller at the Red Front Sunday.

I would warn people who travel the Wendover road to look out for a would-be Jesse James. The only difference between the ancient and modern is the former committed assault and battery for gain and the latter for "the fun of it."

DAILY GUARD, JANUARY 29.
THE CONCERT.—The opera house was well filled last evening at the concert given by Mrs H F Hollenbeck. The lady deserves great credit for the part she has taken in securing excellent talent for her concerts, and Eugene's citizens will appreciate refined entertainments. Mrs Hollenbeck had secured for last evening's concert, Prof Heritage, musical director in the Willamette University at Salem; Miss Barlight, instructor in elocution at the University of Oregon, and Miss Stella Harris, who is always black and white, and a most accomplished singer. As for Mrs Hollenbeck, she stands at the head of local musicians, and is a master of the piano who ranks with the best in the state. Prof Heritage has an ex-
