J. F. FORD,

(Brangelist.)

Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date

March 23, 1895:

S. B. MED. MFG. CO.,

Dufur, Oregon.

GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 35 pounds, is now well, strong and vigorous, and well fleshed up. S. B.

Cough Cure has done its work well.

Both of the children like it. Your S. B.

Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all.

Wishing you prosperity, we are

Yours, MR. and MRS. J. F. FORD.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the spring's work, cleanse the system with the Headache and Liver Cure, by taking two or three doses a week.

Sold under a positive guarantee.

50 cents per bottle by all druggists.

house on North High street recently purchased by him.

At a cost of $1300 the Gilliam county

Sheepmen's Protective Union has paid for the scalps of 1300 coyotes.

The 32d anniversary of the Knights of Pythias occurs next Wednesday. It will not be observed by Helmet lodge this year.

The bright sunshine of yesterday afternoon brought people out in large numbers to enjoy the warmth of its rays.

The funeral of the late Jess Klock took place yesterday afternoon. The interment took place in the I. O. O. F.

cemetery.

Marshall Sun: J. L. Thompson, of

Eugene, arrived here last week and now holds a position in Bowne's bar ber shop.

speaker of Kansas, has turned preacher. On next Sunday morning the papers say she will preach her first sermon.

During this year Fossil is to have the biggest building in its history. All things in the way of not yet six weeks old, three buildings to cost altogether

$13,000 are already under way.

The Oregon City Enterprise says that it is quite probable that nearly one third of the hop acreage of Clackamas county will be either plowed up or abandoned this season.

A large number of enthusiastic wheelmen might have been seen riding about town yesterday afternoon as they vainly seeking some highway dry enough to permit them to take a run into the city.

Astoria News: Professor D. Leppert and wife, United Brethren evangelists, gave a concert in the United Brethren church in Hood River last Saturday.

Those who heard them are enthusiastic in praising their gospel singing.

Young ladies should not hesitate to make use of this fine year. A school teacher at The Dalles says it is proper and quotes this paragraph of scripture to prove her statement: "Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them."

It was a year ago yesterday that the Albany postoffice changed hands. A curious coincidence is that during the past year just 1000 more money orders were issued than in the preceding year.

A lady teacher in the public school at Astoria, in trying to explain the word "slowly," illustrated it by walking across the floor. When she asked the class to follow her as she walked, she nearly fell when a boy at the foot of the class shouted: "How-legged, ma'am!"

Back in Iowa there has been a new departure in the saloon business. The saloon is fitted up with different kinds of intoxicating beverages, but the authorities are unable to find anyone who owns it. It is just rigged out and runs itself, and the customer who wants to be served must wait upon himself and deposit the money in a box. There is a man around the premises who stays there because he has nothing else to do.

The logging outfit that has been getting out logs for the pulp mills at Oregon City has removed to the Kiger island where all the halm and white fir trees on the Gerard and Graham furnaces are to be cut and sent down the river. A raft containing 100,000 feet of logs taken from the Beach place was towed down the river by the Hong last week
