

EUGENE CHRISTIAN ALLIANCE.

Outline of Address Delivered Before the Alliance by Bishop J. S. Mills.

The following is an outline of the address of Bishop J. S. Mills, which was delivered before the Eugene Christian Alliance at the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon.

Has the time come for an alliance of all the good people of this place for practical Christian work? This city is beautiful for situation, in the heart of this great valley surrounded by the glories and grandeur of nature.

The Odd Fellows had another big time here Saturday evening, giving an additional "dose" to the illustrious ten as mentioned in our last issue.

Sam Jones says: "If all the wealth of the United States was divided out today each man would get $1,000, and in less than six months some fellows would be riding in palace cars and others would be walking cross-ties, howling for another divy."

THE REASON.—Ashland Tidings: "The dismissal of Conductors W. H. Jamieson and Jack Andrews from the service of the S. P. has been considerably discussed in railroad circles the past week."

LIVELY SERENADE.—Salem Statesman: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston of Eugene, who have been spending their honeymoon in Salem, at the home of her father, Samuel Lamp, were treated to a good-natured charivari Thursday night by a number of jolly residents of Piety hill, who made discordant music under their windows and forced an acknowledgment of their presence from the bridegroom.

then each member should resign his office and turn the government over to Cleveland, Carlisle and Syndicate Morgan and await the next election.

Junction City Items.

Times, Feb. 22. During this nice weather farmers are putting in every spare moment. The majority of them are well along with their work.

The Cook land that was sold by the administrator Saturday. Wm Cook purchased 15 acres at $50 per acre and Mr Becker 30 acres at $11.10 per acre.

Bishop Mills lectured in the M. E. church Monday evening on the subject of "Evolution and Christianity" to a very fair audience. The speaker proved himself familiar with the subject and completely upset the theory of materialism and also the Darwinian theory.

The Odd Fellows had another big time here Saturday evening, giving an additional "dose" to the illustrious ten as mentioned in our last issue.

Albany Democrat: "Isn't it about time Mr. Hermann began working for the improvement of the Calapoia from Albany to Brownville if he wants the support of the voters along its banks."

A hop house belonging to Peter Heater, of Newburg, was destroyed by fire last week, with all its contents consisting of 12 bales of hops belonging to Rodney Jones and 30 bales of hops and a wagon, belonging to Mr. Heater.

Real Estate Transactions. Resented daily by the Eugene Abstract company, Office in Times block opposite Hoffman house.

COUNTRY. Isaac M. Francis and wife to Paradise A. Parkerson, ne 1/4 sec 28, tp 18 s, r 8 west, 160 acres; con. $800.

FATHER AND SON.—Today's Salem Statesman: "A father and son named Parker were brought to the penitentiary yesterday from Union county, each to serve a term of one year under a conviction for horse stealing."

SURPRISE PARTY.—Yesterday being the 40th anniversary of Mrs. L. R. Livermore's birth she was tendered a surprise at her home on 11th and Fry streets last evening by about 35 of her friends, under the auspices of the Women's Relief Corps.

IN JAIL.—Wylie Taylor was arrested last evening for being drunk and disturbing a Salvation Army meeting. He was taken before Recorder Dorris this afternoon and fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $12. He paid $4 of the fine and was sent to jail to "lay" out the balance, though he was making an effort to borrow it.

WALKING PARTY.—About 40 members of the second year class of the university formed a party and left on foot this afternoon on a picnic excursion to Merian's park, three miles down the river road. They will spend the afternoon viewing the attractions at the park and walk into town this evening.

Oregon's Industries.

Mr. J. P. Jones, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Pacific road, returned from a trip over the road yesterday, says the Oregonian. Mr. Jones reports traveling fair and slowly improving. He said:

"The smaller towns are still suffering from the effects of the panic, and it will take some time yet for them to recover. Money and business centralize in the largest towns first, then spread out gradually to the smaller localities. In the country, I find the farmers contented and encouraged over the condition of the wheat market; but that is unfortunately offset by the condition of the hop market, that industry being seemingly on the decline."

"From my observation in traveling over the state, I find that Oregon possesses mineral wealth that will make this a great state when once developed. Take the mining interests in the southern part of the state: They are most important in point of wealth and extent. Some of these properties are being worked and attracting both men and capital to their several localities. But the point I want to make is that the general ignorance of the people on the question of the mineral wealth of Oregon shows that the newspapers do not give the space to it that the importance of the subject would justify. Alaska is working her mineral interests for everything she knows how; so is Washington; but Oregon appears to be making of its mineral wealth a secondary consideration. That this is wrong time will prove."

A Correction. EDITOR GUARD: In publishing the comments of the Times on the populist ticket in your issue of Saturday, you, unintentionally no doubt, misquoted the Times. The item referred to you published as follows: "C. M. Collier our present republican surveyor was placed in nomination but unfortunately was not nominated."

COLONIAL TEA PARTY.—Every seat in Parker's opera house was taken Saturday night by an audience that was anxious to see the colonial entertainment and tea party, which was given for the benefit of the free reading room. The ladies who are most interested in this charitable institution had secured the best talent at hand and had spared no pains to make the entertainment a success.

WAR AMONG THE REGULATORS.—Two of the officers of God's Regular Army in this city engaged in a free handed fight at their quarters on West Eighth street about 5 o'clock this morning. It is not known just what started the fight, but it seemed to be a disagreement among themselves. Officers Wimmer and Greene were the principal participants and both were considerably bruised up when they had finished. Greene evidently got the worst of it and quit with a badly "chawed" ear.

DIPHTHERIA.—Two cases of diphtheria are reported at Coburg. They are Mrs. F. M. Smith and her daughter aged 15 years. The anti-toxine remedy has been applied but has not yet had time to take effect. The anti-toxine in the possession of the medical men of this city was not of the best quality, having become a little too old.

TO RESIDE PERMANENTLY.—The Gold Hill, Jackson county, Miner, has this concerning former residents of Eugene: "J. H. Rhinhardt, wife and little son arrived in Gold Hill Monday evening to remain permanently. Mr. Rhinhardt represents some moneyed men of Chicago, New York and Scotland, and is here to operate some mining propositions of which we are promised more particular information later. The gentleman thinks of building a residence for himself at once."

STREET CAR LINE.—Harrisburg Review: "A street car line is being talked of for the near future. At any rate a substantial business man has been making an estimate of its cost, income, etc., the line to run on Second street from Moore to Keating. Scott & Carter will likely be the builders but they intimated that they were not, as yet, in a position to make the matter public. We learned enough to infer that it will be built more for convenience than for profit."

FOR ASSAULT.—Geo. Mook, of Richardson precinct has been arrested on the charge of assault and battery upon S. N. Goodwin. The trial has been set to take place before Justice C. W. Brown at Springfield next Monday forenoon.

MAHER QUITS QUICK.

Fitz Does Him Up In the First Round.

SPECIAL TO THE GUARD. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21, 4 p. m.—The fight took place at 4 p. m. today between Fitzsimmons and Maher.

In the first round Fitz knocked out Maher, with a right hand blow.

WOODMEN SOCIAL. The Albany Woodmen lodge celebrated its first anniversary Saturday night. Hundreds of visitors from all over the valley being present.

250 COWS WANTED. When This Number is Assured Mr. Craig Will Erect a Creamery.

After the meeting Saturday afternoon Mr. Craig, the creamery man, informed one of our reliable farmers that he would erect a creamery in Eugene when the milk of 250 cows was assured.

THE LUCKY BOY MINE.—W. B. Lawler, of Albany, who bonded the Luck Boy mine at Blue River last September for an English syndicate, came up to Eugene and left this morning by private conveyance for Blue River.

A B. Hammond, president of the Oregon Central & Eastern, is in Albany. He is a very busy man and his railroad interests in Astoria have lately demanded a good deal of attention.

THE ROCK PILE.—The open building erected north of the jail by the city to shelter a rock pile, which has been provided for the benefit of prisoners, is now completed, and a pile of rocks has been procured and placed in position.

IN JAIL AGAIN.—Ed Bangs returned to Eugene last evening after an absence of several months. He soon began to create a disturbance and was arrested and placed in jail last spring under 100-day's sentence, but made his escape while working on the streets after having served only a few days of his sentence.

STREET MUSIC.—The Eugene Cornet Band appeared on the streets about 9 o'clock last night and played several selections at 8th and Willamette streets and at 9th and Willamette streets. The boys made beautiful music, which was listened to with pleasure by a great many. Had they played earlier in the evening they might have had a more appreciative audience.

RAN AWAY.—While Mrs. Pengra was hitching her horse to a buggy in front of her residence on 12th and High streets this afternoon the animal became frightened and ran away. He was caught by a student before doing serious damage.

DELEGATES ELECTED.—The executive committee of the U. of O. athletic club has elected E. P. Shattuck, Lee Travis and E. R. Bryson delegates to the intercollegiate association which convenes in Portland on the 29th inst.

THE RUSSIAN THISTLE. The Russian thistle has entered Oregon and farmers will soon have to fight. Look out for it. The first reports from localities infested is that "the Russian thistle has done no damage as yet."

OREGON GOVERNORS AND HOLIDAYS.

The governors of Oregon from the first settlement of the state to the present time have been as follows:

Provisional—George Abernethy, 1845-1849. Territorial—Joseph Lane, 1849; J. P. Gaines, 1849-1853; Joseph Lane, 1853; George L. Curry, 1853; J. W. Davis, 1853-1854; George L. Curry, 1854-1859.

State—John Whiteaker, 1859-1862; Addison C. Gibbs, 1862-1866; George L. Woods, 1866-1870; Lafayette F. Grover, 1870-1877; S. F. Chadwick, 1877-1882; Zenas F. Moody, 1882-1887; Sylvester Pennoyer, 1887-1895; William P. Lord, 1895.

Legal holidays in this state are as follows. The courts of justice may be held, and judicial business transacted, on any day with the following exceptions: No court can be opened nor can any judicial business be transacted on a Sunday, nor the first day of January, nor the twenty-second day of February, nor on the thirtieth day of May, nor on the fourth day of July, nor on the first Monday in September, nor on the twenty-fifth day of December, nor on a day on which an election is held throughout the state, nor a day appointed by the president of the United States or by the governor of this state as a day of fasting, thanksgiving or holiday, except for the following purposes:

First—To give instructions to a jury then deliberating on their verdict. Second—To receive the verdict of a jury. Third—For the exercise of the powers of a magistrate in criminal actions, or proceedings of a criminal nature. Whenever any non-judicial day created by this act, except Sundays, fall upon a Sunday, the next preceding Monday shall be observed as such non-judicial day. (Hill's Code, Sec. 8897.)

APPELL IN SOUTH AFRICA. A. Appell, a representative of a large hardware firm in the East, and who has recently returned from a trip to South Africa, gave a Salem reporter a short summary of the nature of the country and people in an interview today.

"Many people," said Mr. Appell, "have a mistaken idea that Johannesburg is on the sea coast, but such is not the case, as it is 1,100 miles inland, and is reached by railroads from Cape Town and Deleaga Bay. I traveled in a two-wheeled cart drawn by 16 oxen, the usual conveyance of that country, when away from the railroads. The climate of the country is very much like Oregon, the only difference being a less precipitation. The population of Johannesburg is about 60,000, about half being natives. There is a curfew ordinance and all natives must retire to their homes at 9 o'clock. The buildings in the cities are as fine as are to be found in the ordinary American cities of the same size. The most of the lumber used is shipped from Tacoma, Wash., to Deleaga Bay, which is about 280 miles from Johannesburg, and is the nearest sea-port town. A railroad has recently been completed between the bay and the city.

Mr. Appell was in the country from April to September, traveling almost continuously, and always in the way mentioned. He exhibited a very comprehensive map of the country, and interesting photographs. He reports the province of Natal as being the only really warm place he was in, and that tropical fruits in abundance was raised there. Nearly all of the wheat consumed is imported from the United States and Australia. To illustrate the nature of the negroes of that country he said a man's greatest ambition is to earn enough to enable him to buy six oxen, which he exchanges for a wife, who from that time does all the work.

Mr. Appell predicted a very prosperous future for the southern part of the continent, and thinks it a good place for young men to emigrate.

Florence West: "Years of political education in the Eugene Guard has fixed the purposes of hatred in Bro. Wolcott's mind for Mr. Hermann that no new surroundings nor responsibilities can eradicate, and he is exceptionally bitter and denunciatory to our congressman in his Medford Monitor." How about the editors of the republican papers, viz: Portland Oregonian, Salem Statesman, Independence West Side, Eugene Register, Dallas Observer, McMinnville Reporter, Junction City Times and Hillsboro Independent, who are fighting the Colonel's pet.

A exchange says: Don't ask an editor to suppress an item of news, some other paper will get it anyway. The next day something will happen to your neighbor and if he asks to have it suppressed you will be the first one to jump on the editor for not "daring" to say that his soul was his own. Take your medicine when the news happens to fall your way, for you really have no more claim on the paper than your neighbor. Nearly every day the editor is called on for roasts and several other kinds of cookery for the benefit of this and that one, and yet those who request this would no more think of writing what they want the editor to write and assume the responsibility for it, than they would attempt to fly.

this manner. It would be far better that we have no change of seed for a hundred years than that new seed bring us a pest like this to fight.

It is said that Rudyard Kipling never reads criticisms on his own works now; either laudatory or condemnatory, as he finds that it perplexes his imagination and diminishes his creative energy. He says: "A writer finds his happiness in creating, not in criticism."

Speaker Reed is a night worker, and often sits up until 2 o'clock in the morning preparing his speeches and magazine articles. He writes everything with his own hand, except his letters and, submits his important work to Mrs. Reed.

The Corvallis Gazette, (reg.) says that the sentiment in Benton county is overwhelmingly in favor of Mitchell and Hermann, but that through the manipulation of certain politicians there is a possibility of their being thrown down. The same statement might probably be made in regard to many of the counties of the first district.

Some patriotic citizen of Prescott, Arizona, in lauding his town and state, and descending on the wonderful riches of the region, declared that even the buildings were in part of gold. He was taken up on the subject and a bet resulted. A short time ago an assay was made of sandstone being used in the erection of some new buildings, and the stone showed 34 per cent in gold and 20 cents per ton in silver.

News has been received at Rutland, Vt., of the death of Macomber, a leading Indian of the Caugha waga reservation, near Saranac lake. He was 103 years old and led considerable wealth. The old man had been married three times. His first wife bore him six children; by the second he had 15, and by the third the same number. He had over 1000 grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren.

The steamer St. Paul had $1,000,000 on board when she ran ashore on the New Jersey coast a short time ago. The gold was taken out and sent to the sub-treasury in New York, where it was found to be the identical metal which had been exported to Europe a few weeks before. The expense of freight and insurance are, of course, borne by the people of this country to the enrichment of European money lenders.

Hear the Florence West about "Fusion of populists and democrats is a failure in Lane county and now the republicans have a walk-over." "The republicans will elect their entire ticket in Lane county if they put up good ones, which they are sure to do, by increased majorities. If fusion of populists and democrats had prevailed, it would have been a more even fight with the chances in favor of the republicans."

Pendleton E. O.: Do the people still remember that they are paying $10,000 a year for a state railroad commission which is accomplishing nothing for their benefit, and $3,000 a year to an attorney-general whose office is an unnecessary burden upon them? It is well to remember these things and pledge legislative candidates to a correction of such abuses if state taxes are to be reduced. Of course, there are many other expenses like these mentioned that should be lopped off.

Florence West: "Years of political education in the Eugene Guard has fixed the purposes of hatred in Bro. Wolcott's mind for Mr. Hermann that no new surroundings nor responsibilities can eradicate, and he is exceptionally bitter and denunciatory to our congressman in his Medford Monitor." How about the editors of the republican papers, viz: Portland Oregonian, Salem Statesman, Independence West Side, Eugene Register, Dallas Observer, McMinnville Reporter, Junction City Times and Hillsboro Independent, who are fighting the Colonel's pet.

A exchange says: Don't ask an editor to suppress an item of news, some other paper will get it anyway. The next day something will happen to your neighbor and if he asks to have it suppressed you will be the first one to jump on the editor for not "daring" to say that his soul was his own. Take your medicine when the news happens to fall your way, for you really have no more claim on the paper than your neighbor. Nearly every day the editor is called on for roasts and several other kinds of cookery for the benefit of this and that one, and yet those who request this would no more think of writing what they want the editor to write and assume the responsibility for it, than they would attempt to fly.

Florence West: "Years of political education in the Eugene Guard has fixed the purposes of hatred in Bro. Wolcott's mind for Mr. Hermann that no new surroundings nor responsibilities can eradicate, and he is exceptionally bitter and denunciatory to our congressman in his Medford Monitor." How about the editors of the republican papers, viz: Portland Oregonian, Salem Statesman, Independence West Side, Eugene Register, Dallas Observer, McMinnville Reporter, Junction City Times and Hillsboro Independent, who are fighting the Colonel's pet.

A exchange says: Don't ask an editor to suppress an item of news, some other paper will get it anyway. The next day something will happen to your neighbor and if he asks to have it suppressed you will be the first one to jump on the editor for not "daring" to say that his soul was his own. Take your medicine when the news happens to fall your way, for you really have no more claim on the paper than your neighbor. Nearly every day the editor is called on for roasts and several other kinds of cookery for the benefit of this and that one, and yet those who request this would no more think of writing what they want the editor to write and assume the responsibility for it, than they would attempt to fly.

Florence West: "Years of political education in the Eugene Guard has fixed the purposes of hatred in Bro. Wolcott's mind for Mr. Hermann that no new surroundings nor responsibilities can eradicate, and he is exceptionally bitter and denunciatory to our congressman in his Medford Monitor." How about the editors of the republican papers, viz: Portland Oregonian, Salem Statesman, Independence West Side, Eugene Register, Dallas Observer, McMinnville Reporter, Junction City Times and Hillsboro Independent, who are fighting the Colonel's pet.

A exchange says: Don't ask an editor to suppress an item of news, some other paper will get it anyway. The next day something will happen to your neighbor and if he asks to have it suppressed you will be the first one to jump on the editor for not "daring" to say that his soul was his own. Take your medicine when the news happens to fall your way, for you really have no more claim on the paper than your neighbor. Nearly every day the editor is called on for roasts and several other kinds of cookery for the benefit of this and that one, and yet those who request this would no more think of writing what they want the editor to write and assume the responsibility for it, than they would attempt to fly.

Florence West: "Years of political education in the Eugene Guard has fixed the purposes of hatred in Bro. Wolcott's mind for Mr. Hermann that no new surroundings nor responsibilities can eradicate, and he is exceptionally bitter and denunciatory to our congressman in his Medford Monitor." How about the editors of the republican papers, viz: Portland Oregonian, Salem Statesman, Independence West Side, Eugene Register, Dallas Observer, McMinnville Reporter, Junction City Times and Hillsboro Independent, who are fighting the Colonel's pet.

WILLAMETTE STREET. WATTS. His Prices are Low.

Auction, to the highest bidder for cash at the Court House first in Eugene, Lane county, Oregon, on Monday the 15th day of March, 1906, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 4 o'clock p. m. - to-wit: All o'clock p. m. of said date this 8th day of February, 1906. A. J. JOHNSON, Sheriff of Lane county, Oregon. H. D. NORTON, Atty for Estate, D. NORTON at Eugene, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice. Dated the 31st day of February, 1906. RAY A. DELANE, Executors.