ANNIVERSARY MEETING.—Today being the second anniversary of the organization of the Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren church the members of the society held an anniversary meeting, at the home of Mrs. Frank Patton in the basement of Bendy Hall. About 20 members went early this morning and spent the day early in the state where no city tax is paid. That city has decided electric lights are not absolutely necessary just yet.

The Broad-Axe publishes a list of 75 names purporting to be members of the A. P. A. lodge of this city. It proposes to give others in the future.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough.

OSBURN & DELANO.

Charles Haines has purchased the property on Twelfth street, between High and Mill streets, formerly owned by Wm Goodman.

E. G. Young & Co shipped from Oakland to San Francisco, last Wednesday, 16 cases of eggs and 3500 pounds of dressed turkeys, geese and chickens. They also shipped during the week three carloads of oats to Grant's Pass.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results.

OSBURN & DELANO.

A crayon rustler is in town today. He draws a large sized pencil portrait, in five minutes, for 25 cents. No one can object to the time wasted, or price, although the work may be rather crude and practically worthless.

Mr Butler who was employed at Foley Springs during the winter came down on the stage yesterday for a short stay. He informs us a new bridge will be built across Horse creek to replace the one carried away by the high water.

Frank Mangoz is down from the Blue River mines. When he left, a few days ago, the ground on the mountain was bare except in shaded places. He expresses the opinion that the recent storm has covered the vicinity of the mines with snow to a depth of several feet.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in effect. Always cures piles.

OSBURN & DELANO.

The officers of the Christian church of Eugene are very fortunate in having their pulpit well filled during the absence of any regular pastor. Last Sunday they secured the services of Elder I. N. Mulkey, of Pleasant Hill, one of their most successful ministers of this county, who preached two discourses highly spoken of by the congregation.

COR.

Many of our people who attended the state fair in old times will remember the favorite race Rye's saw. He is now 24 years old, and is quartered at the home of his owner, John F. Miller at Klamath, where he receives the same care and attention. Rye's Straw is still sound as a dollar, lively and from all appearances will live several years yet.

Dogs are dogs at Ashland. The Tidings says: "J. W. Chapman, a Montana man who has been in the valley lately, made Crit Tolman an offer of $150 for his valuable bear dog Ranger, but the offer was declined and Mr Chapman was told that $250 was the price, and he secured an option for 10 days in which to make up his mind as to purchasing. Chapman also has made an offer of $150 for Alex Ireland's bear dog Natter, which has also been declined."

Albany Democrat: The directors of the Eugene schools gave a two and a half column report of the workings of the schools of that city under the heads: Aites, aense, health, teachers, discipline, school furniture, low taxation, decoration day. Inscriptions, in a manner to indicate that they have taken a very active personal interest in the schools of that city.

Market Prices.

Everything is moving along very quietly and there are no booms in the markets now.

Wheat is quoted at 58 to 59 cents on board cars; oats, 20 cents.

The hog market is still very dull and no sales are reported.

The demand for potatoes is light. Burbanks are quoted at 20 cents and Early Rose at 30 cents per bushel. Apples, 35 cents; prunes, demand light at 3 to 5 cents; beans, 14 to 11 cents; onions, dull at 1 cent.

The poultry market continues fairly good. Chickens are quoted at $2.50 to $3.50 per dozen; ducks, $3.50 to $4.50; geese, $4.50; turkeys, 6 to 7 cents per pound.
