A fine barn on his farm near Junction, Lane county, was burned to the ground in the early hours of last Friday morning. The farm is occupied by Alex McFad den, a brother of the judge. The barn was a comparatively new structure, 100 feet long, 76 feet wide, and cost about $600. It was used for stock, and fortunately contained only a few tons of hay and a plow or two when the conflagration occurred. The fire hap-pened between 1 and 3 o'clock in the morning, and is supposed to have been Corvallis Times: Another des-
