Tongue is Nominated.

ALBANY, April 7.—Thomas H. Tongue, of Washington county, was at 11:45 tonight, on the 34th ballot, nominated for United States representative for the first congressional dis-trict, and the great fight against Binger Hermann was won. The struggle was long and a little tedious, but it was carried on without bitterness, and it was gallantly won. Hermann got his maximum strength on the first ballot, and thereafter it gradually dwindled away, with many fluctuaof 30 votes, and these stayed with him to the last. Tongue was second choice in the number of votes. As the fight proceeded, the sentiment for Tongue began to manifest itsself, until it was so strong it could not longer be disregarded. The supporters of the weaker candidates finally yielded and went to Tongue, and that is the way he was nominated.

It was now midnight, but the convention nominated delegates to the national convention and named a con-DELEGATES ELECTED.
