 Surveyor..... J. B. BEAVER, of Eugene.
 Coroner..... GEORGE WALTON, of Cottage Grove.

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

If the great mass of the populist party of Lane county have the honesty and intelligence, and love for what is right and just, which we freely accord to them, they will rebel from the leadership of W. H. Spough, who has by his every act betrayed them each time he has had the opportunity. The Broad Axe has intimidated a number of times that he was under hire by Joe Simon and the republican party. We do not know whether this is correct or not, but he has acted in a manner that no fair minded man with respect for his good name, can or will endorse. We know the average populist voter has always acted for what he thought was best for his country and himself. Now let him pause and consider where Spough and his lieutenants will land him. If he will consider the matter as a patriot, and we believe he will, then he must admit that the outrage perpetrated on fairness and justice yesterday will certainly place him in a position to aid and abet the republican party.

A plain, impartial statement of the fusion plan of the populist and democratic parties will certainly open the eyes of the greatest doubter. When the populist party met in convention in this city in February, the democrats sent them a courteous communication asking for a conference, with the intention of consummating a fusion. The letter was treated in a ruffianly manner, and then the democracy called their convention. A large number of honest men in the populist party were aroused and condemned the action in thunder tones that even Bill Spough heard and nearly all the ticket fled. At last he resigned and the subject of fusion was again resumed—not at the instance of democrats—but by populists themselves, and they called their committee to meet in this city at the same hour that the democratic county convention was to assemble for the purpose of placing in the field a joint or fusion ticket. Members of the democratic convention were informed yesterday that a committee of populists would like to hold a conference with a like committee appointed by the democrats. The fusion committee consisted of A. S. Patterson, chairman of the populist county central committee, R. P. Caldwell, J. P. Gill, David Eby and A. D. Burton. The democratic county convention appointed a like committee consisting of J. P. Ramsey, chairman of the democratic county committee, Geo. H. Day, L. L. Stevens, J. R. Yates and James Parker. The two committees met, and after the democrats submitted their platform, which was indorsed, the following agreement was entered into:

EUGENE, OR., April 7, 1896.

"We the joint committee of the democratic party and the populist party of Lane county, Oregon, beg leave to submit the following report:

"By consent of both committees, Mr R. P. Caldwell was called to preside over the meeting and the following proceedings were had:

"The joint committee agreed upon the following division of offices of the state and county ticket, it being agreed that the democrats should take first choice.

"Democrats—State senator, one representative, clerk, judge, commissioner and assessor.
 "Populists—Two representatives, sheriff, treasurer, superintendent of schools, surveyor and coroner.
 J. P. RAMSEY,
 Chrm. Democratic Central Com.
 R. P. CALDWELL,
 For the Populist Party.
 L. L. STEVENS,
 Secretary."

Upon receiving this, about 2:30 o'clock, the democratic convention proceeded at once to the nomination of their portion of the ticket, even going so far as to pass the following resolution offered by Hon J. D. Matlock:

"Resolved, That the democracy in convention assembled will work as heartily for the election of populists who will be placed on this ticket as we will for those named by this convention."

The convention completed all business at 3:45 p. m. and adjourned.

A few minutes thereafter the following remarkable communication was received at the hands of someone, Chairman Clow not knowing from whom:

EUGENE, OR., April 7, 1896.

To the Chairman of the Democratic County Convention:
 "We, the central committee of the peoples party respectfully decline to accept the proposition reported by the joint committee on conference. While we are earnestly in favor of a union of all reform forces in Lane county, our people will not submit to a fusion with any existing party.

A. S. PATTERSON,
 Chairman.
 R. P. CALDWELL,
 Secretary."

Naturally the convention when re-called, were amazed at the gall of Bill Spough. Some thought it was a trick and a committee was sent to see if the communication was genuine, which was admitted.

If the individual members of the populist party are made of the material we think they are they will rally to the support of the excellent ticket nominated by the democratic party and elect it.

RIGHTS OF A BICYCLIST.

The following Michigan decision is of interest to cyclists:

There has been so much discussion concerning the legal rights of wheelmen that it is a pleasure to note that at least one jurist has handed down a decision in which these rights are clearly defined, says the "Cycling Gazette." Judge Cooley of Michigan was called upon to decide a question of the relative rights of a pedestrian and a wheelman, and in handing down his decision he covered not only the case in hand, but included in his decision the following summary of the law which will prove exceptionally interesting and valuable at this time, when the cyclists of this country do not understand what legal privileges they enjoy:

First—Municipal corporations or cities are liable to a bicyclist for injuries incurred by reason of defective roads—i. e., as unguarded embankment, a deep rut, a loose stone—provided he is not guilty of contributory negligence. A city is under no special obligation to wheelmen, and the defect must be such as to cause injury to vehicles in general. A bicyclist injured while riding on Sunday for pleasure or business cannot recover in States where Sunday laws are in force.

Second—A wheelman has a right of action against the driver or owner of a vehicle who willfully or negligently causes a collision or damage to his wheel while left standing by the street, curb or roadside. It is the duty of the wheelman, however, to avert collision if possible, and he cannot recover damages if his own negligence is the proximate cause of the injury, complained of.

Third—A traveler riding on the left hand side of the road probably assumes all risks, and is prima facie guilty of negligence.

Fourth—Vehicles going in the same direction, the hindermost may pass on either side.

Fifth—Sidewalks are exclusively for foot passengers, but a foot passenger has a right to walk in the highway, and is entitled to cross the street where he may elect, but is guilty of negligence if he attempts to cross ahead of a vehicle. And the fact that a vehicle is on the wrong side of the road is no evidence of negligence in an action for injury to a pedestrian.

Sixth—A bicyclist employing an immoderate rate of speed on a highway or street may be liable civilly or criminally in cases of accident. If he recklessly runs his wheel against a pedestrian he is liable for assault and battery. Recklessness will sometimes supply the place of criminal intent, and if a bicyclist kills a human being while going at dangerous speed he may be convicted of manslaughter.

"The populists will hold another 'convention' May 24th.

The Siaslaw country will mourn Hermann's defeat greatly, as he was a true friend to that section.

The Lane county democrats have a strong ticket in the field and ought to be greeted with success at the polls.

If the Lane county democrats stand at their post in June they will elect more men than for several years past.

Binger's flop on the financial question at the eleventh hour did not save his scalp. He probably wishes now that he had not sent that telegram.

It now looks as if Senator Mitchell is in danger, notwithstanding he has been a true friend of the people. The Oregonian has never forgiven him and never will.

The last time Hon Thos Tongue ran against a democrat was four years ago in his own county when S. B. Huston defeated him for state senator by a large majority. Will history repeat itself?

The two state conventions are in session at Portland today. They will nominate candidates for supreme judge and electors and delegates to the national conventions. Congressmen will be ratified, as will also the judicial nominations.

The American Beauty owes her prestige more to a clear complexion than to any other attribute. A cup of Parks' Tea will enable anyone to possess this. It clears the skin and removes pimples and that sallow, muddy look. Parks' Tea is used by hundreds of ladies for the complexion. Without being a cathartic it cures constipation. Sold by A. Springfield Items.

April 9, '96.
 The ever welcome face of George Yerrington was seen in this city last Friday.

Rev Burnham preached to a very attentive audience last Sunday evening. The text was, "Come unto me who weary and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." The cause of this being written was the boys kept such excellent order. It was extraordinary, so we note it.

Harry Benjamin who has been at home on a visit last Tuesday evening for Southern Oregon where he expects to work in the mines.

Miss Lena Seeley is visiting with Mrs Collins.
 Mrs Washburne is able to be up again, but little Claude has been very ill.

Press McPherson who has been working in the mines out in Southern Oregon is at home on a visit.

Eugene was well represented at the dance at the opera house last Friday evening.

Mrs Isabele Kirkland expects to leave for Philadelphia the first of May.

Mary Walker, a daughter of Mrs Walker who lately moved here from Fall Creek, is very ill with lung fever.

The new elevator being built by Page & Olds will soon be completed.
 If there is one time more than another that a woman wants to be left alone it is when a clothes line full of clothes falls down, especially on a cold, windy and rainy day.

Springfield people are glad to see she wool being hauled around once more. It looks as if the town really was alive again.

Goshen Items.

April 9, 1896.

V. B. Mathews leaves this morning for Oberon, North Dakota, to be absent during the summer.

Mrs S. Holloway, of Eugene, spent Saturday and Sunday with the family of her son-in-law, C. W. Ryehard.

Geo Breeding of Fall Creek, is visiting with relatives in this vicinity.

J. H. Raines and wife returned from an extended visit with relatives on Fall Creek Sunday.

A. A. Keeney visited with his brother J. M. at Jasper, over Sunday.

We are told that Goshen was the scene of a little excitement last Tuesday in which some blood was spilt, but nothing serious resulted except black eyes and some scratches.

Frank Hyland will start across the mountains about the first of May to look after the property of an estate of which he is administrator.

Goshen now has two candidates on the democratic ticket, which would appear to be a good representation for a precinct that only showed an attendance of four at the last primary.

Rev. Thos Husnaker, of Dexter, was in our village yesterday.

Mr Baker and family, from near Eugene, was the guest of Mr and Mrs E. M. Warren Sunday.

The name of Horace Hampton in the democratic ticket will meet the approval of all democrats who know him, as well as many republicans. Horace is all right.

BROKE FAITH.—The following is taken from the Portland Telegram: "Myron B. Wood was recently fined $100 for cutting timber on the public lands for the Harristburg Land Company. He was allowed to go on his own recognizance to get the money. Wood seems to have broken faith with the officers, for he has not shown up since. A bench warrant has been issued for the apprehension of Mr Wood." Wood is the man who located a claim on the upper Madrak and then cut the timber off of it for sawlogs before he had gained a title to the land. He was arrested about a year ago.

Daily Guard, April 9.
POISONED.—A messenger arrived here today at 11:30 and requested Dr L. W. Brown to go to Thurston, stating that Dr B. F. Russell's eldest son, a young man grown, was suffering from poisoning. Dr Russell has a hospital at Thurston, 12 miles east of this city and keeps the county papers. He keeps considerable medicines about the house, some of a poisonous nature, and it seems that the young man, who was slightly indisposed, took the poison in a dose of medicine. It is not known how serious the case will prove.

Daily Guard, April 9.
U. B. SOCIAL.—The rain storm of last evening did not seem to interfere very much with the ice cream social given at the home of Rev and Mrs Geo D. Needy by the Ladies' Aid Society of the U. B. church. A good crowd was present and a delightful time was had, many of the guests remaining until a late hour. The ladies were very successful and are about about $25 as the result of last evening's social gathering.
