San Francisco, May 21.-E. H. Hinton, long and favorably known as a traffic official of the Gould system of roads, and at present general western agent of the Panama Railroad Company, with offices in this city, returned home yesterday, after a six months' sojourn in Colon and the Central American republics. Mr. Hinton spoke of the work on the canal as follows:

"Several weeks ago I made several trips upon the completed portions of the canal. About two-thirds of its length between Colon and Panama is completed, but that does not mean that two-thirds of the work towards finishing the big enterprise has been completed. The Culebra, cut midway between Colon and Panama, and the tion and many parts of its bed, because of the rocky formation, will endure forever.
