THE SESSION IS OVER.

Final Adjournment of Both Houses Congress.

Washington, June 13 .- Vice-Presithe senate to a final close at 4 o'clock today, after a brief valedictory expressing his thanks to senators for their courtesies to him through the session. The closing scene was not of a dramatic order, but was marked by placid serenity characteristic of the uppper branch of congress. The galleries were Criticised by Chairman Cannon of the well filled, but there was an absence of the packed corridors incident to an eventful close of congress. The session convened at 12 o'clock, but no business was transacted, beyond the formalities preceding adjournment. The last bill to be passed was one urged by Sherman, pensioning the widow of General William H. Gibson, a prominent Ohio officer. Resolutions of Vice-President Stevenson and President statement begins: Pro Tem. Frye for their impartial rulings in the chair. One of the last acts was to give the important immigration bill a parliamentary status by which it secures the right of way as soon as the senate reassembles. As soon as the vice-president had announced the session closed, the galleries emptied, senators exchanged good-byes and many arranged to leave for their homes tonight.

The final session of the house was devoid of public interest. The appropriation bills had been passed, and the house simply waited for the end to come. A number of members were made happy by the passage of some local bills of interest to thier districts. Beyond a little misunderstanding between Bailey and Marsh, the utmost good feeling prevailed. There was an attempt by Bailey and Maguire to precipitate a political discussion in the last half-hour of the session, but the Republicans declined the gage of combat thrown down to them. Turner, who was the floor leader of the minority, during the absence of Crisp, offered a resolution of thanks to the speaker. which was adopted by a standing vote. a most unusual honor. The speaker closed the session with a graceful speech, in which he thanked the members most cordially and felicitated them on the work of the session.

He then returned to the house, and, cornering his wife in a bedroom, smushed the top of her head in with a revolver. A neighbor tried to get into the room, but was driven out by the now crazed man. Cummings then returned to his butchery and shot at his wife twice, as she lay on the floor, covered from head to foot with her own blood. One ballet went through her shoulder; the other missed. Thinking the woman dead, nerve failed him.

The President Working Overtime. Washington, June 15 .- The president has worked hard the last two days endeavoring to consider on its merits each of the many bills passed by congress in the last two days, steadfastly refusing to adopt the practice of some of his predecessors and signing late bills under pressure and without the scrutiny necessary to satisfy him of their propriety. With his private secretary, he was engaged in this work until a late hour Saturday night, and started in again at 6 o'clock this morning. As a result, most of the late bills were acted upon when congress closed. Certainly, all the measures of great importance were either signed or placed to one side after examination as unworthy of approval, and, therefore,

Washington, June 13. - Chairman Cannon, of the appropriations committee, and ex-Chairman Sayres, today made public a joint statement concern ing the expenditures authorized by this congress. Total appropriations, including permanent annual appropriathanks were unanimously adopted to tions, are $515,759,520. Mr. Cannon's

"The appropriations charged to this congress include $119,054,160 under permanent laws, of which amount $50,000,000 is for sinking fund and $30,500,000 for interest on the public febt, or $3,355,614.40 more than was included at the last session of congress in the statements of appropriations, and is on account of the increase of $162,315,400 in the bonded indebtedess of the country by the present administartion to February, 1895, interset and sinking fund charges on account of the latter bond issues of $100,000,-000 in February, 1896, amounting to $4,400,000, not being included in the estimates of permanent appropriations. The increase in the principal of the interest-bearing debt under the present administration amounts to $262,315, 400, which entails an annual interest charge of $11,492,616, and to meet the sinking fund obligations, the further sum of $2,623,154. "The regular annual bills, including the deficiency bill, as passed by the house, made a reduction in the total estimates submitted by the executive of $26,983,191; they were increased by the senate $22,920,422, and as they became laws, they appropriated $10, 536,624 less than as passed by the senate: $12,283,818 more than as they passed the house, and $13,874,378 less than the estimated requirements of the

While a man was hunting cows the woods near Nehalem last week, he found three large circular saws hidden in the brush near the bank of the river. The general impression is that the saws were stolen from a sawmill at Grand Rapids, on the upper Nehalem, and brought down the river and hidden. No saws of that size have ever been in use on the lower river, and this seems to be the only plausible explanation, as it is known that a great deal of machinery has been carried away from the mill at Grand Rapids.

The capacity of the Grand Ronde Lumber Company's sawmill at Perry, in Union county, is considered to be 100,000 feet of lumber per day, but occasionally this output is exceeded. The high water record so far was that made on the 22d ultimo, when the total output in 11 hours was 114,000 feet. On this day 406 sawlogs were transformed into lumber, and the output on that date would be equivalent to about ten carloads.
