There have been times when I coveted this honor, but now that it is apparently with-Callenion entrusted to our care will receive in my grasp I shrink from it and wish I had never permitted my name to be used. I hesitate to change my quiet life for the responsibilities of a high position. My wife and I are now as happy as mortals can be, and I am reluctant to take this plunge into the sea of politics and trust to luck for hap-piness in the future." Mr. Hobart Mustang spoke with feeling and earnestness, showing that he had a deep and Liniment manly appreciation of the responsibility which would be thrust upon him should the people ratify the choice of the convention. Somehow I liked Mr. Hobart better after Caked & Inflamed Udders, he had thus spoken.

A Portland lawyer named Milton the circuit court to force the sheriff Gen. E. L. Applegate and others, to return an execution as satisfied and a resolution endorsing the bolt without first paying the expense incurred in making a real estate sale. He claims that the $10 required by law to be paid in advance covers the entire costs, including publication of sheriff's sale. Smith is entirely too liberal. Pendleton E O: If James E. Campbell, ex-governor of Ohio, is nominated for president at Chicago by the democrats, as seems likely, the campaign will at once assume a lively bue. "The advance agent of prosperity" will not have everything his own way with "The Campbells are coming." It would be a fight to the finish with these two men in the field. In this connection the Portland Telegram says: "A likely candidate of the democratic party for president, if it adopts a freesilver platform, would be ex-Governor James E. Camp bell, of Ohio. Famine prevails in Tonkin, and subscriptions are being raised there for the benefit of the sufferers. The governorgeneral has headed the list with a donation of $500. The misery of the people is described as terrible. The home government has su thorized a loan for urgent public works in the colony, and pressure has been brought to bear upon the governor general to take these public works in hand at once and give employment to multitudes in the danger of death from hunger. It is, however pointed out that subscriptions are of little avail in succoring from 4,000,000 to 5,000,000 starving people. Renddered desperate by want, riot murder and sad pillage among them may be expected to embarrass the government and raise grave politi-cal dangers, should the policy of drift be followed to the neglect of relief work.
