(Evangelist,)

Of Des Moines, Iowa, writes under date March 23, 1893:

S. S. MED. MFG. CO.,
Dufur, Oregon.

GENTLEMEN: On arriving home last week, I found all well and anxiously waiting. Our little girl, eight and one-half years old, who had wasted away to 48 pounds, is now well, strong and rosy, and well fleshed up. S. S. S. Cough Cure has done its work well. All of the children like it. Your S. S. S. Cough Cure has cured and kept away all hoarseness from me. So give it to every one, with greetings for all. Wishing you prosperity, we are

Yours, MR. AND MRS. J. F. FORD.

If you wish to feel fresh and cheerful, and ready for the Spring's work, cleanse the system with Blue Headache and Liver Cure, by taking one or three doses a week.

MONDAY, AUGUST 17.

The mornings are quite cool.

Considerable wood being hauled into town.

People are returning home from the mountains.

The State University re opens four weeks from today.

W Sanders shipped two carloads of chittim bark to New York today.

The travel is now homeward bound from the mountains and sea coast.

Quite a number of Crook county people are camped at Belknap springs.

The gold democrats will hold a mass state convention in Portland Thursday.

The late L. Fleischner, of Portland, left an estate estimated to be worth $712,000.

Mark Hanna says Wm McKinley will not make any speeches during the campaign.

Several Eugene attorneys will attend the meeting of the Bar Association at Portland Thursday.

Wm T Campbell brought to this office today a tame blackberry that measured 1½ inches in length.

Quite a number of people were at the train this morning to bid Bishop Mills and his folks good-bye.

Albany Democrat: The Sells-Forepaugh circus has been advertised even in Eugene. A waste of paste.

Attorney W A Wood is having a residence built on a tract just outside the city limits opposite Rev I D Driver's

We understand that Mrs Samuel Withrow, of near Elmira, is dangerously ill and not expected to survive more than a few days.

The Owen-Vanduyne party which has been in the mountains for the past month returned yesterday. They report plenty of game and a delightful time.

Fire is out in several places on the McKenzie and trees have fallen across the road in a number of places, but the road has been kept open by chopping around them.

Early hops are already about ready for picking. We have heard of several yards of this variety that will not be picked on account of the low prices prevailing.

A Gollxina plant is blooming in the window of Craig & Vincent's barber shop on Ninth street. It is a very beautiful plant and is also quite rare, being the only one in town.

The audience at the Congregational church last night was favored with a solo, sang by Miss Gertrude Conser, of Portland. The piece was well rendered and was enjoyed by all present.

Salem Journal: Til Ford to bright newsboy: "I saw you taking in my speech to the workingmen last night. How did you like it?" "Oh! It was a good speech, but it made you sweat like thunder, didn't it!"

Neil Hall and George Byram have returned to Canyon City after taking three car loads of horses to Memphis, Tenn. They secured from $50 to $250 per head for the horses, which were an exceptionally fine lot.

It is said that a wedding will take place in this city one week from tomorrow in which a well known Eugene young lady and a young gentleman of Roseburg, formerly of this city, will be the principals.

Harper's Bazar: "John," said Mrs Wilbur, "why don't you brush that fly off the top of your head? He's been there three minutes." "Oh, let him stay," said John. "I'm not using the top of my head just now."

Charles Cunningham, the Umatilla county sheep man, who had his house and barns destroyed by fire last season, is again in trouble. Thieves entered his dwelling house a few days ago and stole everything that could be carried away.

PICKING HOPS.—S Smead of Walterville commenced picking his early hops last Friday. Branton brothers of the same place will begin picking in a day or two. The price paid is 25 cents per box and pickers are said to be anxious to pick at any price.

Star mail service has been established as follows: McKenzie bridge to Belknap Sdrings, 64 miles and back, three times a week from May 1, to October 31, and twice a week the residue of year, by a schedule of not to exceed 2 hours running time each way.

We have received the first number of C E Wolcott's new paper, The Mirror, published at Sisson, California It starts off with a good advertising patronage and is full to overflowing with local news. We wish Mr Wolcott success in his latest venture.

A man writing from Forty Miles Alaska, says: I saw a span of horses here that weighed probably 700 pound, each, and one of the most ancient order, that $1000 was offered for a few days before, but their owner refused it, as he said he could make just that much with them during the month of June.

The Astoria Budget is as bitter as gall against life insurance agents. Here are some samples: The city is infested with insurance bores. They are worse skinners than three card monte dealers. They don't give you a living chance at anything and rob the widow when you die. There should be a law against these confidence operators. An insurance agent—one of the confidence men—called at this office today and wanted to insert a twenty-dollar advertisement. He was refused the space. The Budget likes to make all the money it can legitimately, but it does not like to become a partner in robbery or a booster for confidence men.

What has the country come to when even the circus fails to draw the crowd? Only a handful of people at Pendleton went to see "The original, the only, the great Adam Forepaugh's famously magnificent menagerie, the enormously perfected consummation of fifty continuous years of research in every quarter of the globe, in colossal contrast and associate exhibition with Sells Bros' millionaire menagerie, giant African amphibia—the consolidated colliseums and classic amphitheatres of the imperial past—the turf events of the progressive present—world's arenic wonder—the transcendant aggregation of amusement giants!!" Hard times are certainly upon us.

Personal.

Lew Powers, of McKenzie Bridge, expects to enter the U of O this fall.

Placer mining is being engaged in on a small scale on Blue river. The men make fair wages and live in hopes of striking it rich some day.

Saturday's Albany Democrat: Mr Seth McAlister, of Eugene, came to Albany last evening on his bicycle, and will visit here for several days.

The Monticello, Iowa, Express, reports Mr F M Hicks, a recent visitor to our city, as being greatly impressed with the beauty and prosperity of Eugene as compared with other places visited.

J H Oakes, of Mitchell, Crook county, recently captured 20 large eels on the lawn in front of his house. They had escaped from an adjacent irrigating ditch and were unable to find their way back.

Attorney Woodcock procured an axe this morning and slashed some trees down in the rear of his office that extended over into the alley. If he keeps up farming and laboring he will soon be a free silverite himself.

N L Robinson, a Portland peddler, who has been operating in Crook county all summer, had the misfortune to lose his harness, wagon and stock of goods by fire at Ochoco last Saturday night. The loss was $1100.

Mr and Mrs O A Campbell of Springfield precinct and Mr and Mrs Jesse Hawley will leave Monday on a pleasure trip to Kitson Springs. Mr Campbell and Mr Hawley will go on as far as Pine Openings and Crescent Lake on a hunting and fishing trip.

Bannister Vowel, an old resident of the upper Ochoco, near Prineville, fell from the hayloft on the farm of J W Wright last week, receiving injuries from the effects of which he died a few hours later. He was 68 years of age. The funeral was held at Howard, Or, last Thursday.

Long Creek Eagle: It is reported that Harvey Scott will tender Senator John H Mitchell a banquet on his arrival in Portland. Scott has tried all manner of newspaper tactics to defeat Mitchell in the past, but one would judge that his tactics for the future are to be of a somewhat different nature.

A fight for blood occurred between two young men, residents of the upper McKenzie, at the McKenzie Bridge Sunday afternoon. The trouble arose over an old time grievance and the young men fought to a finish, one of them getting a badly mashed face and losing a part of an ear in the scrimmage.

Geo Luce, of Siuslaw, was in the city today with two pack horses loaded with sacks of chittem bark. Perched on top of the sacks on one of the horses was a young black bear. The little fellow proved a very good rider and proved quite an attraction on the streets.

Phil Scott and Gus Teutsch, of Creswell, who have been traveling in the Willamette valley during the past summer for Lievre, Fricke & Co, of San Francisco, manufacturers of Red Seal Baking Powder, have been given territory in Central California and will go down about September 1st to begin work in their new territory.

A party of 35 people from McKenzie Bridge and Foley Springs, most of whom belong in Eugene, visited the summit of the Cascades and the glaciers on the Three Sisters last week. Ten members of the party made the ascent of the Sisters, reaching the summit. An account of the trip will appear in the GUARD in a few days.

The Ellensburg jail is apparently a rather flimsy affair. Last Sunday a prisoner named Wilson, who was awaiting trial for cattle stealing, dug a hole through the brick wall with a billet of wood and made his escape. Two siwashes, who were also prisoners declined to take advantage of the opportunity, and remained in their cells.

The Welcome says: Ex-Senator B F Alley, who bolted Dolph because he did not like the gold senator, has swallowed the St Louis platform hook, bait, sinker and line. He belongs to the Baker City gold club and at the masthead of his paper, the Republican, is the motto: "Only one more year of Grover; thank God." The wily ex-senator is pat all understanding.

Oregonian: Mr John H Mitchell, Oregon's senior representative in the United States senate, has telegraphed that he will be in Portland about August 24. It comes direct from him to his friends in Oregon that he will take the field for McKinley as soon as arrangements can be made. Senator Mitchell expects to make speeches in every part of the state and do his utmost for the success of the republican party.

Frank Lee, editor of the Portland Pacific Farmer, who has been east for some weeks, returned Saturday. He says that during the heated term in Chicago, business was almost suspended. It was impossible to go out to do anything. The ambulance wagon could not take care of the dead and prostrate. Incidentally, Mr Lee remarked that if sentiment counted for anything, Bryan will carry everything west of the Hudson river and south of Long Island sound, with a fighting chance for the New England states.

THEY WILL FIGHT.—Down at the metropolis politics must be considerably more tropical than in Eugene. Witness the following taken from the police court column of last evening's Telegram: "The following cases arising from political discussions in Albina last Saturday, went over till tomorrow: Clemense Berger for assaulting Henry Kneiss and Jacob Kalthan; Ludwig Loos for assaulting Jacob Kalthan; John Scheideman for assaulting Clemense Berger; Henry Kneiss for assaulting Louis Loos, and Jacob Kalthan for assaulting Clemense Berger."

Daily Guard, August 17.

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY.—A man by the name of E E Lyons was arrested at Junction City today on the charge of larceny of public funds. It appears from what we can learn at this time that he was a deputy sheriff and had collected delinquent taxes and had refused or neglected to turn the amount over to Sheriff Johnson, hence his arrest. Prosecutor Harris went down on this morning's local train to appear in behalf of the state and Attorney Bilyeu for the defense.

JEWETT'S AFFAIRS.

His Uncle Visits Portland to Investigate.

Portland Telegram: "On the 20th of June last C F Jewett, manager of the Pacific Investment Company, decamped, leaving behind him a tangle of duplicated mortgages and twice-issued deeds on certain fruit lands about Eugene, Or., which, when straightened out, showed the man to have defrauded banks and individuals in Portland to the amount of nearly $20,000.

"It was some days before his departure was known, and then his victims consulted the police. Jewett was finally located in Worcester, Mass, where resides an uncle, S Forehand, president of the Forehand Arms Company.

"The natural conclusion at the time was that Jewett would be arrested and brought back to Portland for trial. That did not occur, however, and those who had loaned the man money seeming satisfied, the matter was allowed to drop.

"It was then said by those intimate with the case that Jewett had undoubtedly made arrangements in the East whereby his paper here was to be protected, and the over issue of stock of the Pacific Investment & Real Estate Company, on which he had raised money, taken up.

"That this solution of the dropping of the prosecution would seem to be correct, is evidenced by the presence in Portland on Saturday last of Mr S Forehand, of Worcester, Mass, the wealthy relative whom Jewett at once made for on leaving this city. Mr Forehand's stay was short, but while here he was busy among the bankers and others with whom Jewett had done business. Saturday noon he left over the narrow guage road. As it was Mr Forehand's money which paid for the fruit lands which formed the basis of the Investment & Real Estate Company, it is probable the protection of his own interests has had as much to do with his trip to the coast as looking after Jewett's affairs."

A Cougar Story.

The Corvallis Times tells it:

"Pole" and George Avery left Corvallis three weeks ago for a rousing old time in the mountains. Well, they had it. They returned yesterday noon and were heavily laden with dried meat and stories of adventure that rival Kippling's "Jungle Stories." They hunted in the Yachatts, Five-mile Creek and Ten-mile Creek countries, and at Five-mile Creek they were joined by Jim Wilkinson, a nephew of our Beaver Creek Jim. Jim is a good hunter, as well as "Pole" and George, and they had famous success. When George was asked "what luck?" he replied, "thirteen deer, a bear, a cougar, and cut a bee tree." Jim Wilkinson had a dog with him to use in hunting and he also had a pup along that he was teaching to hunt. Some one of the party had killed a deer and taken it to camp. Arriving there, the carcass was thrown down in front of the tent near the place where the pup was chained. Not one of the party was far from camp, and either George or "Pole," or both of them, were shooting within a short distance of camp, and Jim was but a few rods away, when there was a terrible screaming, howling, snarling and ki-yi-ing to be heard at the spot where the pup was chained. Jim Wilkinson rushed up and beheld the pup in the clutches of the cougar. As often happens in case of an imergency, his gun was empty, and what was worse the cougar was inside of the tent lying on his cartridges and ere long the pup was literally torn to pieces. He shouted for George to come quickly, and when the latter reached the scene, Wilkinson seized his gun and shot the animal, killing it right in the tent. Jim was so enraged at the destroyer of his pup that he grabbed a knife and cut it into strips. The cougar was a female and it must have been very hungry for it never clinched at the approach of the men. The scalp was saved and will bring a bounty of two or three dollars.

DIED.—Taylor L Rees died of consumption at his home at Thurston this morning, August 18, 1896, at 5 o'clock, at the age of 39 years. Deceased had been failing in health for some time. A few weeks ago he was taken to the McKenzie springs with the hope of benefiting his health but the change failed to do him good, and he was brought home to die a week ago last Sunday. Deceased came to Oregon from Missouri a number of years ago and located in this city, buying what is now the Travis fruit tract in the northwestern part of the city. A short time later he removed to Thurston where he bought property and erected the store buildings and started the general store at that place, which he has conducted ever since. He and his brother, Martin Rees, of Thurston, planted a large prune orchard at that place and in many ways have done much to enhance the value of property in that section. Deceased leaves a wife and a brother at Thurston. The funeral services will be held by Rev I N Mulkey at 10 a m tomorrow and the remains interred in the High Bank cemetery.

COME OFF, SAM.—Sam Goldsmith the popular drummer of Portland, is authority in the Oregonian for the statement that there are only four business men in Eugene supporters of Bryan and silver. Sam is talking through his head gear. Certainly he has not taken a census of Eugene in this particular. A fair proportion of the men engaged in business in this city are supporters of silver—several times the number given by the gentleman. Sam, come here and we will point the gentlemen out to you—your father and two brothers being among the number. The statement, to say the least, is false.

BOHEMIA DISTRICT MINES.—Oregonian: Mr Ruth Giltner has returned from a visit to the mines in the Bohemia district, and is so favorably impressed with what he saw that he predicts a second Cripple creek there. He went through the Nonday, Acme, Cornucopia, Annie, Star and other mines, and says there is an immense body of ore there which yields $6 to $10 per ton. The Cottage Grove people have built a road into the mines, and a county road is being built in from Oakland to get a share of the trade there.

THE BEST

SPRING MEDICINE

Is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—don't forget to take it. The Liver gets sluggish during the Winter, just like all nature, and the system becomes choked up by the accumulated waste, which brings on Malaria, Fever and Ague and Rheumatism. You want to wake up your Liver now, but be sure you take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR to do it. It also regulates the Liver—keeps it properly at work, when your system will be free from poison and the whole body invigorated.

You get THE BEST BLOOD when your system is in A1 condition, and that will only be when the Liver is kept active. Try a Liver Remedy once and note the difference. But take only SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—it is SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR which makes the difference. Take it in powder or in liquid already prepared, or make a tea of the powder; but take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR. You'll find the RED Z on every package. Look for it.

SAW MILL BURNED.

The Fields Mill In Ashes—Loss, $3,000 to $4,000; No Insurance.

Saturday night the Fields saw mill known as Crawford & Fuller's old mill 26 miles northeast of Eugene was destroyed by fire, and every vestige of the lumber that was on the yard, which amounted to considerable. The mill was recently refitted and it is thought the entire loss will amount to probably $4,000.

It appears that incendiaries have set the mill on fire several times but the flames were subdued before they had done much damage. Saturday night the mill was set on fire again and the property was destroyed. Mr Fields has had a man for some time stationed in the mill, armed with a Winchester rifle, to watch the property, and not withstanding this precaution the villainous incendiary was successful in his devilish design. There was no insurance whatever on the property.

If the perpetrator of this crime should be detected he would probably be dealt with by the residents without the aid of a judge or jury.

A Bold Game.

Albany Democrat: "Last Friday a man went to the bottling works of O. Baeumle and bought three bottles of wine, claiming that they were for a saloon he was starting up in the hills, and as he had a partner he would want a receipt, which was given him. Yesterday the man went to Mr. Baeumle, and giving his name as John Darling, claimed to be special agent of the internal revenue office, and declaring that Mr. Baeumle had violated the law it would take $150 to settle it. This Mr. Baeumle insisted it would be absolutely impossible to raise. The amount was finally cut down to $20, of which Mr. Baeumle paid $5 and agreed to pay the balance. Marshal Lee had been informed of the matter, and finally suspecting something wrong, telephoned to U S Marshal Grady, who informed him that there was no such agent and finally telegraphed him to arrest Darling for impersonating a U S officer, and that Deputy Marshal Humphrey would be up tonight to take him back.

"Darling, or whatever his name may be, was arrested and is in the county jail. It looks like a bold confidence game to make a haul, and there are circumstances indicating that Darling may have a confederate in it."

Claim for Damages.

PORTLAND, Aug 19.—The trial of the $25,000 damage suit of Stephen Hart against the Southern Pacific company was commenced today in the state circuit court before Judge Shattuck. Hart is a commercial traveler from Minnesota and he alleges that, on January 8th last, he was forcibly ejected from a train at Albany while enroute from Portland to San Francisco. The ticket presented by Hart was punched to denote that the person entitled to ride upon it wore chin whiskers. Hart was without this facial appendage and the train inspector observing that such was the fact, took Hart's ticket from him and as Hart declined to pay fare, he was put off the train.

Hare wore a chin beard when he purchased the ticket but he afterwards had it shaved off. The defense of the company is that the whole thing is a job put up by Hart, to defraud the company. The company also alleges that, besides disposing of his beard in order to differ in appearance from the description marked upon his ticket, that he signed his name in a disguised hand and also had the name of Oppenheimer marked upon his gripsack.
