A drummer named Frankenthal loudly wanted to bet at Pendleton, 2 to 1, that Oregon would go for McKinley. A young man took it up at double quick speed. A forfeit of $10 was put up on a bet of $200 to $100. The Bryan man put up his $100 but the McKinley drummer was not heard of again. His bluff didn't work. It takes more than bluff to make votes.

Roseburg Review: Rev. J. S. McCain of Coquille City, was here attending the M. E. conference last week. He says that Coquille river valley is almost a unit for Bryan and silver. The club has about 250 members at Myrtle Point, 200 at Coquille City, and just started, and there is also a very strong organization at Bandon. Rev. McCain is an old soldier and a lifelong republican, but he is for Bryan.

"LET THERE BE LIGHT."

So said The City Council at a Special Meeting Held This Afternoon.

Daily Guard, October 2.

Special meeting called by the mayor. Present Mayor Matlock, Councilmen Gray, Day, Bangs, Fisher, Dunn and Henderson.

The meeting was called to order and the mayor stated its object, which was to consider the ordinance assessing the costs of improving Pearl and Third streets and other business.

Ordinance assessing costs of improving Pearl and Third streets, read three times under suspension of rules and passed.

An ordinance providing for the construction of a sewer on Pearl street from main sewer north to 100 feet south of Second street read three times under suspension of rules and passed.

Warrant ordered for $46 in favor of the Electric Light Company for balance due on bills for June and July service.

The following householders were appointed viewers to view and assess cost of Pearl street sewer: W. R. Reinshaw, J. M. Abrams and J. H. McClung.

The following resolution was introduced by Councilman Bangs:

WHEREAS, The Eugene Electric Light Company has stated to several members of this council that it would not accept the published offer made the company to furnish the city with lights, and

WHEREAS, The people are now desirous of having the city lighted and the council has done all in its power to contract with the company and has so far failed; that we again make concessions and instruct the committee on fire and water to contract with said company for a period of three years for 25 lights as now located, except the light known as the "Tar Flat" light and the "East Thirteenth" street light, for the sum of $9 per month, per light, payable in warrants of the city.

Councilman Day moved to amend resolutions by striking out the clause relative to the "Tar Flat" and "East Thirteenth" street lights. A vote was called for and resulted two for and three against the amendment as follows:

Yeas—Fisher, Day.

Nays—Gray, Bangs and Henderson.

A vote on the original resolution was then called for and resulted four in favor and two against, as follows:

Yeas—Gray, Bangs, Henderson.

Nays—Day and Fisher.

[Mr. Dunn voted for the resolution, but his vote was declared illegal according to the city charter which provides that no one who is an interested party shall vote upon any question of importance to the city. Mr. Dunn through his helpship to the Dunn estate becomes part owner in the light company's plant and property.]

Mr. Gray from the health committee reported on condition of the wash room at the Hoffman House. The matter was referred to the health committee with instructions to abate the nuisance.

On motion the council adjourned.

The meeting was one of the warmest and most hotly contested of any that the council has held for many a day.

By the action of the council this afternoon the committee on fire and water is simply authorized to draw up a contract with the light company, said contract to be submitted to the council for its approval at the next regular meeting which will be held October 12. There will be no lights before that time.

The third is for $54 on the Eugene Loan and Savings bank, issued on the London and San Francisco bank of Portland.

STATE POLITICS.

Portland's Big Daily Does Not Furnish Correct Information.

Daily Guard, Sept. 30.—Interior readers can form no intelligent judgment of the political outlook in this city, county and the state from information obtained from the only daily newspaper in Portland. Most of them know it does not tell the truth, or at best only part of the truth; and they must guess at the rest. The truth is that it is not easy to form an accurate estimate this year, here or elsewhere. A considerable number of self-styled "sound money" democrats will vote for Palmer or McKinley—and a good many republicans will vote for Bryan. Old party lines are badly broken down; the problem is to discover which candidate will lose or gain the most in consequence of this realignment. I think it is entirely safe to say, that in considering the successful fusion between Bryan democrats and populists, the usual, or the latest republican plurality in this county will be considerably diminished. I would not place McKinley's plurality now at over 2000. With further inspection this estimate is subject to revision. I think Bryan will poll a plurality of votes in Western Oregon, outside of Multnomah county. Some reasons for this and future estimates will be furnished hereafter.

Big Damage Suit.

Albany Democrat: Chas. J. Bishop, the young man who was injured by an explosion at the Santiam mines on February 14, 1896, has sued the Lawler Gold Mining Company, Limited, for $10,500 damages. According to the complaint the plaintiff was working in tunnel No. 3 at 27 1/2 a day. On Feb. 14 the plaintiff fired three blasts and the next morning supposing that they had all gone off, was at work around the places with his pick ax when some of the powder, which had not been exploded on account of its dangerous and unsafe character, was exploded by the pick ax in the hands of Bishop, who was struck by flying fragments. His right eye was blown out and destroyed permanently, and he was badly burned, bruised and cut in and about the face and head, affecting his hearing permanently. The plaintiff was obliged to relinquish work and go to the hospital in Portland where he was confined five months, incurring expenses amounting to $500.

The plaintiff's attorneys are Cox, Cotton, Teal & Minor, of Portland.

This is the first damage suit against the company, and the result will be watched with great interest.

Daily Guard, October 2.

A BLAZE.—The residence of Alex. Tallaturo on Third street near the bridge was destroyed by fire about half past 2 o'clock this morning. The family was absent and the blaze was evidently of incendiary origin. A cook stove and some fruit is all that was saved. The alarm was sounded and the entire department turned out in quick order. A team from Bangs' livery stable was attached to Oregon horse cart. The fire was a long distance from the engine house, but the hydrant at Pearl and Third streets was soon reached, and 500 feet of hose laid from it to the fire, which, however, was under such headway by that time that only the shell of the house was saved. Claire Shigell's house was ignited by the heat of the flames and would have burned had the department not arrived when it did. Only one hydrant was available and Rescue and Cyclone teams were unable to get water. The house was recently built and was quite well finished both on the interior and exterior. It was also quite well furnished. Mr. Tallaturo and son have been on the McKenzie hunting for the past week and the rest of the family went to Natron yesterday afternoon to visit with relatives. The house was insured for $450 in the Actna of Hartford, George Crow's agency, but there was nothing on the contents.

Daily Guard, October 2.

UPWARD.—Wheat is gradually ascending in price, a fact that will be pleasing to everybody. It is now 51 cents with an upward tendency. The Examiner says: The primary cause of the advance in prices is the war scare in England over the situation in Turkey. England needs wheat and is forced to buy it in America. The wheat crop on the continent is small. In Russia, in the Danube countries, in the Argentina and in India the crop this year does not by any means meet expectations. In the warehouses at Liverpool and London the stock of wheat has been smaller in the last six months than it has been in many years. The supply has been little more than enough to satisfy the demand. The prospect of war has increased this demand to a very large degree and England as already indicated, must come to America. This condition of affairs has greatly strengthened prices. It is expected that prices will be maintained as long as the English market remains firm.

Daily Guard, October 2.

WANTED TO SEE HIS WIFE.—One Chas. Fisher who has been associated with Mackey, the photographer, took his departure Sunday without previously informing his partner of his intention. It seems that Fisher has a wife who is sick in a hospital in Philadelphia. He was very anxious to get back to her and Sunday departed, leaving a brief note in which he stated that he could not bear the suspense of remaining away from his wife longer, etc. He had only $2.50 in money when he left.

PARALYZED.—Albany Herald of today says: "Chief of Police C. O. Lee received the news yesterday that his brother, Dr. W. S. Lee of Junction, had suffered a stroke of paralysis."

Daily Guard, October 2.

HOPS PURCHASED.—Phil Neis through Sherman Hayes, yesterday, purchased 35 bales of hops from J. M. Davis and 37 bales from C. Stuart, paying in each instance 5 1/2 cents per pound.

RAISE IN FLOUR.—Flour has raised to $3 per barrel in the local market. It formerly retailed at $2.85 per barrel. The raise is due to the advance in wheat.

Politics And Love Mixed.

As a proof that politics has absorbed the public mind, the Klamath Bulletin submits the following letter, written by a young man of Keno to his best girl in Klamath. The letter was found by Mr. Jarard, and given to the editor of the Bulletin upon the promise that he would not divulge the names of the young couple.

MY DEAR MISS:—I hereby announce myself as a candidate for your hand, and shall use all fair and honorable means to secure the nomination. I know that there are many candidates in the field, and I hesitated long before entering the race, but now I am in to stay.

My views on love and matrimony have often been expressed in your hearing, and I need not repeat them here. You know I favor the gold standard of love—a 100 cent dollar love—and a maintenance of that standard after marriage.

If you desire to enter upon me the favor I seek, please fix a date for a caucus with your mother. I have no objection to her acting as temporary chairman, provided it is clearly understood that I am to be chairman of the permanent organization. Should the result of the caucus prove satisfactory, we can soon hold the primaries and select the date and place of the convention.

I have never believed in long campaigns, so if you decide to honor me, I will ask you to make the convention date as early as possible.

Devotedly yours,

The following telegram answered it: Caucus unnecessary. The nomination made unanimous. Come at once and fix date of ratification.

Hop Intelligence.

Thomas & Short's Circular: As to prices for the coming season, the outlook is too baffling to venture our usual indication of probable prices. The general situation as regards crops are certainly in the growers' favor, and ought to insure improved prices; but the causes which usually influence the market, count for nothing against such bearing operations as we draw attention to. The coming season's prospects for Pacific hops have already been seriously compromised by the same firm, who as early in the present growing season as the 21st of July, prepared the minds of British brewers for cheap Pacific again this season, in a circular in which they stated that the growers of California and Oregon hops would be "willing to sell part of their crop at ridiculously low prices." This most injurious procedure is indefensible, and the more so because at that time the condition of the English crop was actually causing serious apprehension.

With the campaign opened in this way and last season's experience before us, we can only regard the outlook as bad for prices of Pacifics, if growers continue to permit their interests to be so handled.

Circuit Court Cases.

The following circuit court cases have been filed in the county clerk's office:

Hattie A. Sheer vs W. H. Speer, suit for divorce. The complaint alleges desertion and prays for the custody of the minor child and $15 per month alimony. The couple were married in Douglas county March 26, 1894.

John McCraw vs Henry Spores; suit to obtain judgment for $1022.55, being the amount paid by plaintiff while acting as security on a note for defendant.

Levi Geer vs L. Lurch, suit to obtain judgment for $575, being amount claimed by plaintiff on contract for railroad ties delivered.

D. C. Baughman vs L. Lurch and J. B. Rouse; suit to obtain judgment for $1882.56, being the amount claimed by plaintiff on contract for railroad ties delivered.

Married a Chinaman.

The latest arrival in Chinatown is Ah Montgomery and wife, says the Albany Telescope. There is nothing surprising about this only that the wife is a white girl. She married the Chinaman eight years ago at Fort Bidwell, Cal. They have had three children, the oldest of which died, but a girl of four years and a boy of two years are here with their parents. They are more than ordinary pretty children, having deep black eyes and dark curly hair. Mrs. Montgomery was formerly a Linu county girl, and her father, Mr. Billings, and family now live in the mountains above Sweet Home. Just what induced her to marry the Chinaman is not known, but in China town she is recognized as being a little above the ordinary, and is shown extra favors by everyone. She is living upstairs over Jim Westfall's store, and is apparently contented.

PRINTING THE BALLOTS.—Albany Democrat: County Clerk Montague today opened the bids for the printing ballots, 38,400 for the November election. They were as follows: Glass & Prudhomme, $44.00; H. Y. Kirkpatrick, of Lebanon, $43.00; Silver Imprint, $29.00; C. W. Watts, $24.64; Smiley the printer, of Albany, $45.60; Cavender & Brown, of Brownsville, $36.08. The contract was let to the Silver Imprint, the lowest bidder. The contract calls for 19,200 colored and 19,200 white ballots.

BORN.—At Mt. Tabor, Oregon, Sept. 21st, 1896, to Rev. and Mrs. Geo. A. McKinley, a daughter.

A ONE-SIDED CANVASS.

Hon. Solomon Hirsch, of P. rtland, chairman of the Republican State Central committee, is conducting a one-sided campaign, says the Salem Journal. No invitation has been given Senator Dolph or any of his pronounced adherents to participate in this canvass. The old guard of genuine sound money men is left out in the cold while recently gold-plated silver shriekers are doing all the talking for the gold standard.

In this respect it is a hypocritical and lop-sided campaign from the republican standpoint. Of course the purpose is to keep the party machinery solely in the hands of Sol. Hirsch, General Williams and their friends, and thus force Dolph and the genuine gold standard advocates out of the party and out of the chances of federal papif there is any. The Sol. Hirsch crowd don't care whether Oregon goes for McKinley or not so long as they are in control of the federal officers and the state organization, and have control of the next state convention. In fact Hirsch and Mitchell prefer Oregon should give a Bryan majority as that would be a vindication of senator Mitchell's record for silver.

Mitchell will have served his party loyally, the Bryan majority will be given as in accord with his free silver record, Mitchell will be a silver senator again, Hirsch will be minister to Turkey again, and the goose will hang high.

This is undoubtedly the program of the Mitchell Republican wing now in control of the party in this state. That is a hypocritical un-American management, that is repulsive to honest men, whether they be gold standard or bimetalists. Senator Mitchell's interpretation of the McKinley platform at Salem as a free coinage platform has disgusted sound money men still more.

AVARICIOUS PREACHERS.

Mr. Bryan administers a severe rebuke to those avaricious preachers who take advantage of their positions to hold up the gold standard from their pulpits.

"My friends, when certain ministers of the gospel denounce the great mass of the people who stand behind free coinage, when these ministers have denounced these advocates of free coinage and have taken their places upon this side of these great aggregations of wealth, I remind them that when the Savior was here, it was the common people who heard him gladly—the very people whom these ministers today call anarchists and socialists. My friends, when I find these men casting their lot upon that side, and exhausting abusive language in their description of the great masses of the people of this country, I feel like saying to them that if they will take their chances with Dives, I will risk my chances with Lazarus."

The Oregonian is probably the unfair metropolitan newspaper published in the United States. It now claims that the recent rise in the price of wheat is due to the gold standard, when its news columns plainly states that the failure of crops in India is the true cause. In fact, on October 1st two ship loads of wheat left Liverpool for that country, an unheard of transaction, as she has been for years a large exporter of that cereal. The friends of free silver do not believe in wholesale falsehoods. If they did, they could reply as untruthfully as the Oregonian, and say the sudden advance was due to the agitation of the silver question.

The Dalles T-M: The Oregonian today contains a dispatch from this city which says: "Reports received today from Crook county gives cheering news of prospect of republican success. A careful estimate says Crook will go 300 republican, Mitchell precinct, that was once democratic, will go 75 per cent republican this year." W. E. Misner, of California, who has been visiting his son, Representative elect R. E. Misner, at Mitchell the past year, arrived from that place this afternoon, and says there is no foundation for the above, for Mitchell will give Bryan a rousing majority, and he is certain to carry Crook county."

The following from The Dalles T-M is full of truth: "There is a statute in Oregon making it a crime to encourage, aid or abet riots. The statute should be enforced against the Telegram and Oregonian for encouraging fire bugs to burn down the city of Portland. The articles that have appeared in those papers the past few days in reference to the changes made in the fire department are nothing short of encouragement to incendiaries to apply the torch to the city."

A PREVARICATION.

One J. N. Davis after speaking at Lebanon returned to Portland and told the Oregonian that he was unable to find any Bryan men who were outspoken and aggressive in the cause of populism and free silver that night. This may be accounted for by the fact that the paper mills are being run by the O'Neil Brothers & Calahan, who have a monthly payroll of $1200, and have paid to the farmers in the last year more than $10,000 for straw, to be made into paper.

The Express says: We publish the above clipping from the Oregonian to let the people see a sample of the pretensions of the gold bug press. This gentleman came here and spoke. That was all he did. He made no converts for McKinley. His speech was the poorest delivered here this campaign, and our republican friends will admit the fact. The majority of the voters here are undoubtedly for Bryan. O'Neil Brose don't run a political machine at all. They are strictly business men. If a poll of the mill employees was had, a large majority of them would be for Bryan.

The Advance says: The paper mill company are for free silver, and while they do not in any way apply the coercive methods adopted by the Hannaites, all their employees, with but one exception, are for the people's champion, W. J. Bryan. The Oregonian is certainly the most corrupt and dishonest newspaper now published, and is a disgrace to honest and reliable journalism.

THE BEAUTIES OF A GOLD STANDARD.

Oregon State Journal: For some years the chrysoocratic press has been having spasms over the loss of gold by this country and predicting its complete retirement if the agitation for the free coinage was not stopped in this country. Now on the eve of the first presidential election upon which the question is plainly submitted to the vote of the people, we see gold coming this way by the millions and England is having fits trying to hold enough of the tricky metal to do business with. If we vote McKinley in, the old process will be renewed and gold will be the other way as it did in 1891 and '92 under the old McKinley tariff, and then we will be the parties doing the squealing. Like a narrow blanket on a bed containing six boys—the supply of gold is always uncovering one action or another. It is a beautiful system—for those who like it.

Hon. J. B. Montgomery, Judge E. B. Watson, Ex-Supreme Judge of Oregon, and Hon. J. A. Wright, of Union county, are the last prominent republicans of Oregon to declare for Bryan.

The Oregonian weeps bitter tears because Chief Campbell, of the Portland fire department, has been removed. And yet Campbell was only a prize fighter until Jack Dempsey whipped the courage out of him.—Ex.

The Oregonian intimates that the proprietors of the Lebanon paper mill are for McKinley. This is another one of that untrustworthy journal's lies. The gentlemen are silver men and supporters of W. J. Bryan.

Roseburg Review: The president of the Douglas county republican club announces that a poll of the Oregon soldier's home shows that 60 out of 70 members of it will vote for McKinley. If Trustees Ormsby and Alley keep on throwing out those who are for Bryan, they will no doubt make the vote unanimous. This is the kind of "educational" campaigning approved of by Mark Hanna.
