

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

ESTABLISHED FOR THE DISSEMINATION OF DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES AND TO EARN AN HONORABLE LIVING BY THE SWEAT OF OUR BROW

VOL. 28

EUGENE, OR., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1896

NO. 46.

WEEKLY EUGENE GUARD.

I. L. CAMPBELL, PUBLISHER.

OFFICE—East side of Willamette between seventh and eighth streets.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: One Year, $7.00; Six Months, $4.00; Three Months, $2.00.

Advertising rates made known on application.

Address all business letters to GUARD, Eugene, Oregon.

J. S. LUCKEY DEALER IN Clocks, Watches, Chains, Jewelry, Etc.

REPAIRING PROMPTLY DONE. All Work Warranted.

L. W. BROWN, M. D. Physician and Surgeon. Office and residence over postoffice. Hours: 7 to 9 a. m.; 12 to 2, 6 to 9 p. m.

E. C. LAKE. GRANITE AND MARBLE WORKS.

New Designs and New Prices in Foreign and Domestic Marble and Granite, Monuments.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED! Willamette Street, near Postoffice. Eugene, Or.

A. C. WOODCOCK, Attorney-at-Law.

OFFICE—One-half block south of Christmas Block, EUGENE, OREGON.

G. W. KINNEY N. E. MARKLEY. Kinsey & Markley, Attorneys-at-Law.

Commercial and Probate Business a Specialty. Office in Christmas Block.

W. E. BROWN, B. D. PAINE, F. W. OSBURN, President, Vice President, Cashier.

THE Eugene Loan and Savings BANK, Of Eugene, Oregon.

FACTORS—D. A. Paine, J. B. Harris, J. E. Davis, R. D. Paine, W. E. Brown, J. E. Robinson, F. W. Osburn.

Paid Up Capital, $50,000. General Banking Business Transacted.

Interest allowed on time deposits. Collections entrusted to our care will receive prompt attention.

T. G. HENDRICKS, S. B. EAKIN, Jr., President, Cashier.

First National Bank Of Eugene.

Paid up Cash Capital $50,000 Surplus and Profits, $50,000 Eugene - Oregon

A general banking business done on reasonable terms. Sight drafts on NEW YORK, CHICAGO, SAN FRANCISCO and PORTLAND, OREGON.

Bill of exchange sold on foreign countries. Deposits received subject to check or certificate of deposit.

All collections entrusted to us will receive prompt attention.

Lane County Bank. (Established in 1852.) EUGENE, OREGON.

A general Banking business in all branches transacted on favorable terms.

A. G. HOVEY, President. J. M. ABRAMS, Cashier. A. G. HOVEY, Jr., Asst. Cashier.

J. L. PAGE, DEALER IN GROCERIES

Having a Large and Complete stock of Staple and Fancy Groceries bought in the best markets.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR CASH. can offer the public better prices than any other house in Eugene. Produce of all kinds taken at Market Prices.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 19.

A warm day for the last of October. S. B. Eakin was able to ride out today.

J. H. O'Neill, of Portland, is in the city.

Dunk Scott is back from Eastern Oregon.

John O'Brien, of Albany, is visiting in Eugene.

Food is good this fall and stock are doing fine.

Circuit court convenes one week from today.

The steamer Farallon is storm bound at Yaquina Bay.

Miss Mac Huff went to Portland today on a short visit.

Eli Bangs returned from a trip to Florence Saturday night.

Attorney J. R. Wyatt, of Albany, is in the city this afternoon.

What raised in all the markets today three cents per bushel.

A gentleman was exhibiting a pet deer on the streets today.

C. J. Eddy of Portland, is visiting Dr. Lesomis and family this week.

Wm. Kenshaw is having the front of his place of business repainted.

Edwin Stone, manager of the O. C. & E. R. R., spent Sunday in Eugene.

A carload of watermelons arrived here from Dillard this morning.

Geo. W. Gill has sold his horse "Rocket" to a Salem gentleman for $200.

Several small lots of hops have been sold today at 5 to 5 1/2 cents per lb.

Attorney E. R. Skidworth paid Junction City a professional visit today.

Mr and Mrs L. S. Rowland returned today from a pleasant visit to Portland.

Have you solved the mystery of the X rays in Yoran and Son's show windows.

We are pleased to see Gov. Whitaker on our streets again after his recent illness.

W. F. Griswold and J. H. Hoback, of the U. S. Geological Survey was in the city yesterday.

Many people took advantage of the beautiful day yesterday for a drive into the country.

Coch King paid Portland a visit yesterday in the interest of the Thanksgiving game.

Four Portland hunters were hunting pheasants near Eugene yesterday. They captured a good string.

E. P. Templeman, of Dexter, returned last night from a trip to Portland. He rode to that city on a bicycle.

The presidential sample ballots were placed in the hands of the printer today by County Clerk Jennings.

Fred Herbold is confined to his room with a crippled leg, the result of playing football Saturday afternoon.

Mr Wertheimer, formerly a clerk in Mr S. H. Friendly's store, is now working for a Butte, Montana, clothing store.

County Clerk Jennings Saturday evening granted a marriage license to Charles Chandler and Miss Lizzie Parker.

The Bryan and McKinley clubs of Florence will debate the financial question in that place next Saturday afternoon.

Miss Blanche LaRander, of Portland, arrived here on yesterday afternoon's train on a visit with friends near this city.

C. G. Le Masters a Divinity school student returned today from Corvallis, where he preached yesterday in the Christian church.

Mrs E. B. Fisher, of Roseburg, arrived on the local train this morning and will visit with her parents, Mr and Mrs W. P. Easton, in this city.

J. S. Cooper, the Independence banker, spent Sunday in Eugene visiting his three daughters who are in attendance upon the University of Oregon.

Some bora has already begun to prophesy a cold winter. But this doesn't bother Oregonians—especially in this glorious perfect October weather.

The Oregonian, today, for the one thousandth time carries Oregon and every state in the Union for McKinley. It will probably sing a different tune Nov 4th.

The suit of the Peplot estate vs Frank Mongoz is being heard before Referee M. O. Wilkins this afternoon. A valuable Blue River mine title is being contested.

Attorney N. E. Markley arrived home yesterday morning from a visit to Butte, Montana. He reports everything booming in the mining state.

Dr and Mrs C. W. Lowe went to Roseburg yesterday. They will spend five or six weeks in Roseburg and Grant's Pass and will then return to Eugene.

Farms for renting in Lane county are hard to get hold of. His fall and many men who desire to rent have been unable to get places. Usually there are more farms than renters.

Charles J. Bishop, who was injured recently by an explosion in the mines at Quartzville, resulting in almost total loss of eyesight, has brought suit for $10,000 damages against the Lumber Mining Company.

S. M. Yoran, candidate for republican elector, went to Newberg today and will address the citizens of that place tonight. He will speak each night of this week in Yamhill and Washington counties.

Another campaign bet in which there is more glory than profit was made this afternoon. A Bryan man agrees to wheel another fellow in a wheel barrow in the procession at the ratification if Bryan is elected and vice versa if Bryan is defeated.

The Oregonian could not say enough in favor of D. P. Thompson six years ago when he ran for governor on the republican ticket. Now that he sees the proper thing in free silver it cannot say enough against him and says: "He is simply a populist politician, who sees everything with the populist's glass eyes."

Robert Bowlsby arrived home Saturday night from a trip to Grindstone in Crook county. Dunk Scott, who has been to Burns, arrived home last night. They report the road across the mountains in fine condition. The weather at the summit is cold, with a little snow. Cattle in Eastern Oregon are selling at good prices this fall.

There has been a political speech made in nearly every school house in the state. The country is full of would-be orators.

Florence West: Str. Lillian brought about 1000 salmon down Monday morning which was the largest night's catch for the set nets this season.

Chicago Tribune: "Get out, you brags," savagely shouted the dog-catcher to the lone, lorn, desolate cur that was sniffing hungrily at the wagon in which were imprisoned half a dozen or more valuable pups and poodles on their way to the dog pound.

Albany Democrat: Rev J. E. Walker, of Foo Chow, China, a missionary of the Congregational church who went to that country in 1872, who has been in Oregon, repatriating, was in the city yesterday with his brother, H. Walker, and preached in the Congregational church morning and evening.

Last week at Marshfield, Amos Hatcher was again tried on an indictment for manslaughter, for the killing of Frank H. Blair, on June 18, 1894, in the vicinity of Lee. This is the third trial of the case. The jury in the first trial failed to agree. At the second trial he was found guilty and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary. An appeal was taken to the supreme court, and the case was handed back for a new trial, which resulted in his acquittal.

Sunday's Salem Statesman: Two sentences were pronounced by Judge Barnett yesterday morning after he convened the sixth day's session of the present term of circuit court. They were John Epperson and Edward Babb, the fellows indicted for larceny in a store, viz: the theft of a lot of wines and liquors from Mel Hamilton's saloon a couple of months ago. Epperson was given one year and Babb eighteen months in the penitentiary.

An exchange draws a parallel between a man and a dog in the following words which, inclines to favor the latter: "Help a dog out of a ditch and no matter what sort of a dog he is—a town dog, or country dog, educated or illiterate, aristocratic or plebeian, he will wag his tail into paralysis and exhaust every muscle trying to tell that every drop of blood in his veins is at your service. Help a man out of a ditch and he will depend very much on his breed."

Albany Democrat: The following actually occurred: Two men wearing McKinley badges after hearing Tillman last Saturday went out to one side, when one of them remarked: "We're in the wrong."

"That is so, he made it as plain as can be."

"I'll tell you what I'll do. I will throw off my badge and vote for Bryan if you will."

"I'll do it."

They threw their McKinley badges away.

An interesting incident occurred recently at Waterloo. Thomas Kay and D. Lamberson delivered the addresses of the evening when others were called upon for McKinley speeches, among others a life long republican from across the river. He arose and said he was a republican, but he did not agree with them on the money question and would fight them with their own documents. He then made a free silver speech to the general consternation, using republican proof, until choked off.

The Grand Gazette: Earl Stevens took his departure for the State University at Eugene last Friday evening. We regret seeing Earl leave our city only for a short length of time. He has been a main factor in placing the Blue Mountain land where it is today, one of the foremost organizations of this kind in the state. He is a thorough musician and a good instructor especially with bands. As a performer on the double bass or orchestra work Earl is hard to beat. We hope he may work his way to the top among the musicians of Eugene.

"We can't afford to advertise."

Small concerns often make use of this expression.

"Well advertise when we get larger."

The loss of sight of the fact that advertising is one of the potent factors in business growth, and that, under normal conditions, they seriously handicap themselves at the start by waiting until they are larger before beginning to tell the business world who they are and what they are doing to deserve a share of buyers' attention.

To wait until you're larger before advertising is much like a sick man's waiting until he is better before taking medicine. It's while you're small that you need advertising most, although its usefulness to you does not grow less as you grow larger.

BIG DELINQUENT TAX-ROLL—Oregonian: The 1895 tax roll was reopened yesterday, and delinquent taxpayers must pay their taxes from now until the end of the month, with 3 per cent added. This will probably soon be increased to 4 per cent. The amount of delinquent tax-roll is $263,727.41. The amount of the tax-roll was $1,217,123.29. Of this amount, $65,291 has been collected. There are still quite a number of large taxpayers who have not paid.

EXPERTS RETURNED—W. B. Lawrence and four other experts returned from the Blue River mines in a special car horse stage this afternoon. They examined the mines on Gold Hill.

RACE TALKED OF—The three speedy horses, Clatwa, Monk H and Bessie Rankin are all in the city and will have their last race at a match race. These horses were the fastest pacers and trotters at the late state fair.

NEW CHOIR GALLERY—The box choir gallery in the Catholic church has been torn away and a new gallery has been built, extending across the back part of the house. The new gallery will be above the entrance to the church.

DRIED FRUIT—Norris Humphrey informs us that he has secured 5,000 lbs of prunes for his neighbors and himself. Over half of them will average 45's. This is something wonderful.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22.

Circuit court next week. Presidential election two weeks from today.

Very little betting on the result of the election.

Chas. Livestry, the Salem hop buyer, is in the city.

Hon H. R. Kineold spent Sunday at Spokane, Wash.

W. C. Yoran is assisting in the county clerk's office.

Miss Daisy Dillard's condition is much improved.

The mining experts have all left for their respective homes.

A nice rain last night, but more is needed by our farmers.

Mrs G. R. Christmas returned home on last night's train.

Chas. Getty, of Seaton has been appointed a notary public.

P. D. Gilbert is confined to his home with an attack of lumbago.

Attorney J. R. Wyatt returned to his home at Albany this morning.

Woodburn had a $20,000 fire last night; insurance $10,000.

Geo. H. Williams will speak in Eugene Tuesday, October 27th.

Two cyclists passed through town today enroute to Southern Oregon.

Attorney Woodcock held business at Junction City a few hours today.

E. C. Smith, was a north bound passenger on the local train this forenoon.

The Portland republicans will have a grand parade Saturday night, October 31st.

William Frazer is in Eastern Oregon buying horses to be used in the U. S. cavalry.

Geo A. Davis went to Cottage Grove this afternoon where he will speak tonight.

We acknowledge a pleasant call from Rev T. B. Ford, M. E. presiding elder, of this city.

The Mulptor quartet serenaded the Misses Matlock after the speaking last night.

County Clerk Jennings is busy preparing election supplies for the presidential election.

H. E. Ankeny and family moved into their new residence at the north end of Pearl street today.

Both of the chairmen of the national parties have asked the people to display flags October 31st.

We have received the first number of the Princeton Journal. It was formerly the Mitchell Monitor.

The Oregonian now claims that McKinley will have 502 electoral votes. The same old game of "bluff and claim."

George McClure was found guilty by a jury in Pendleton last week of an attempt to commit rape upon a Mrs. Fawcett.

Jap Stevens and family, formerly of this county but now of Union county, arrived on the afternoon train and will visit with relatives.

Mr and Mrs Frank Peplot, of Gate Creek, who have been in the city for the past day or two, left for home this afternoon with a large load of supplies.

The matter of the assignment of the keep of Lane county's papers has been continued until the November term by the county court.

At the raffle at the Monogram cigar store last night John Jones won the gold watch on a shake of 42 while Oris Wood got the pipe on low shake of 18.

The Sco Press says 30 or 40 employees of the O. C. & E. road have been discharged by Supt. Stone because they would not agree to vote for McKinley.

Miss Catherine C. Cogswell, who has been visiting relatives in Lane county during the summer months, left for her home in Chicago on this morning's local train.

We are glad to see Drew Griffin home and he is perfectly well again. While in the hospital three patients died from appendicitis, so he thinks he was lucky.

Deputy Game Warden M. O. Wilkins has had a small folder printed giving a synopsis of the Oregon game laws. This folder will be distributed throughout the county.

Harlem Life: Miss Dorothy—Curious thing, that Rev M. Hicks should marry his typewriter. The Rival Parson—Had o. She knew where he got his sermons.

About 500 cords of matchwood are awaiting shipment at Bandon. The Port Orford Tribune asks "why wouldn't it pay to ship matchwood from Port Orford?"

Ernest Gilstrap and sister, Miss Jessie, left on the early train this morning for Visalia, California, where they will reside with their brothers, Will and Frank Gilstrap.

A capitalists in Chicago offers to bet $10,000 that Illinois will go for Bryan, $10,000 that Kentucky will go for Bryan, $5,000 that New York will do likewise, and Michigan ditto.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney L. T. Harty befriended a tramp the other day by permitting him to do some work for something to eat. The tramp repaid the kindness by stealing Mr Harty's overcoat.

Attorney Wyatt came here yesterday thinking the Lane county term of circuit court commenced on that date. He was one week ahead of time and seemed to enjoy the mistake.

If Coak and Ingerson finds it as hard to make people see the mistakes of Bryan as it did to make them see the mistakes of Moses he will die of fatigue before he earns his salary as a campaign orator.

Brownsville Times: G. A. Dyson started for the Blue River mines Tuesday evening, where he will do development work until the 25th, when he will return home and attend to his duties as a juror.

Three bunches of Black Malvoise grapes from D. W. Colledge's vineyard are on exhibition in Oeburn & Deane's drug store window. The three bunches weigh 4 pounds, and the berries are exceedingly large.

There passed through Athens last week a family that proposes making an entire trip to Florida by team. Palmer was the name, and they make their expenses of the trip by giving musical performances, the entire family being musicians.

Drift.

"We are going to have a very gay winter," someone remarked in my hearing the other day and I am inclined to accept the remark as prophetic. A review of the week just past would seem to justify one in looking forward to an unusually pleasant season. Not that Eugene as a community ever would or could indulge in gaily to any great extent. We are too staid and proper, and perhaps, too sensible to take kindly to social dissipation in any but the mildest forms. The climate, conveniently held responsible for so many things, may have something to do with our respect for early hours. At least we confess to a prejudice against staying up till daybreak and the midnight hour seldom finds us far from our sleepy pillows.

The event of the week was, of course, the reception given by Mr and Mrs Walter Eakin on Thursday evening. "A succession of beautiful pictures," someone called it, and truly it was a delight to the eyes and a satisfaction to the senses. I must confess to a weakness for the things that appeal to the sight, the light, the color, the moving brightness, the wonderful charm in themselves aside from all the rest—and this evening gave all in full measure. Through the vista of open doorways one caught a glimpse of fairy land where three beautiful girls in artistic gowns presided, reminding one of nothing so much as the dawn grasses—yet in spite of all the pleasure we found an element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own and it is hard to give them up. In the Shakespeare club particularly, will Mrs Smith be missed. The Shakespeare club, by the way, is again an intellectual activity and Miss Carson is again our president. In the opinion of the club there can be no other—and while we all, confess to a certain selfishness in exacting so much from Miss Carson we hope to element of sadness in the occasion—when we came to say good bye to Mr and Mrs Smith, who were to leave Eugene the following morning for an indefinite length of time. We had grown to look upon these people as our own