San Francisco, Dec. 14 -The death by asphyxiation of Mrs Sarah B. nificance, owing to the part they had Cooper and her daughter Harriet this morning has produced a profound sensation in this city. No woman in Sau Francisco or on the entire Pacific coast was so prominent as Mrs. Cooper, who had devoted her life to religious and philanthropic work, and was actively connected with every reform movement. She was a cousin of Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll, with whom, despite their opposite religious views, she maintained a warm friendship. The mother and daughter were found lying dead in the same bed, about 9 clock, by their Chinese servant. Miss Cooper had wrapped the clothes carefully about her, but Mrs. Cooper had evidently attempted to arise when she detected the escaping gas, and was too much overcome to leave the bed.
